WOMEN FOR WAR, SAYS THE MILITANT MISS PANKHURST

They Would Have Voted for It, She Declares-Will Visit Philadelphia on Her Speaking Tour.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 .- Miss Christabel Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette, who arrived here yesterday, announced today that she came to this country for the express purpose of making the war her chief topic in a series of lectures she will deliver in this city. Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, Washington and possibly other cities.

Her first public appearance on her present tour will be in Carnegie Hall on Oc-did what she has done," said Miss Pank-hurst. "We are in complete sympathy with the war, and we have done everything we could to help the people in the troubles caused by the war."

"If the women of England had had the vote, would they have attempted to keep

"Decidedly not," the militant leader responded. "England's honor was in-volved, and when the neutrality of Belgium was violated Great Britain would have been just as quick to protect Belglum, under her guaranty, with women their country out of the war?" she was taking an active part in the affairs of the Government. "It will be a terrible thing for the world, and for women the world over, if Germany wins. Women's freedom is not as advanced in that country as it is in England. We think we are better off than the women of the 'Fatherland,' even we don't think we have enough, and Germany wins it would set all women

We believe that our chances of get ting the vote in England will be much hetter after the war than now. At present we have stopped our militant work; that is not a concession to the Government with which we are at war, but to Director Porter Speaker at Exhibition Director of Public Safety Porter will be the principal speaker tonight at the First Annual Hardware and House Fur-nishing Exhibition in the Parkway Building. Broad street, south of Cherry. Di-rector Porter spoke at the opening exer-cises at the Parkway Monday night and was invited then to address the exhibition crowds tonight.

WAKING UP

When my eyes are tight.

Comes the merry sunshine

First behind the curtain

Then across the bedclothes

Lips and nose and forehead

One by one he'll touch;

Play with him so much.

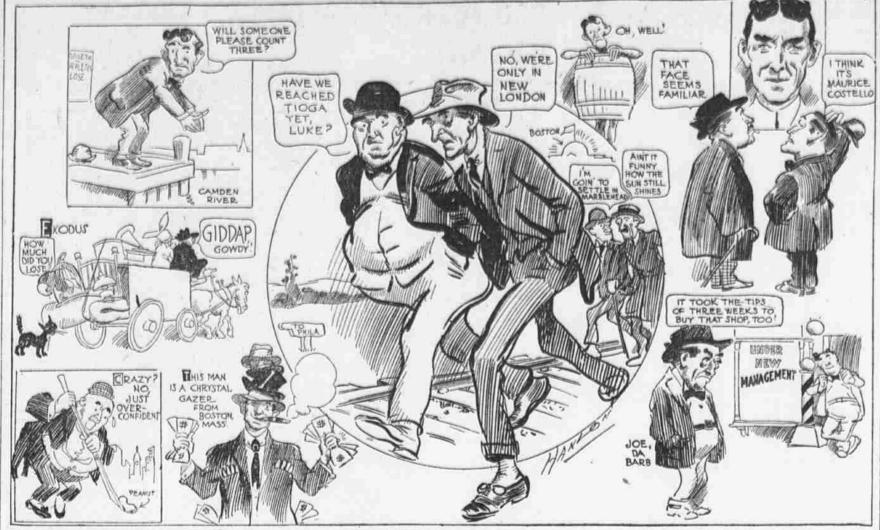

MALCOLM SANDERS JOHNSTON.

That is why I like to

Makes the room all light.

Early in the morning,

ALL OVER TOWN LOYAL ATHLETIC FANS ARE PAYING THEIR FOOLISH BETS TODAY

COLLEGE FOR GIRLS WILL BE BUILT BY CARSON MILLIONS

Administrators Appointed at Close of Litigation Over Will.

Ending the litigation over the will of Robert N. Carson, who died in 1907 and left a fortune of $15,000,000, R. Nelson Buckley and the Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust Company of Philadelphia were appointed by the Court of Common Pleas as administrators. According to the will a college for girls will be built on a plan similar to that of the Girard College for boys. The college will be at Chestnut Hill on the Carson estate, known as Erdenheim. More than 80 acres of the estate have been set aside for school purposes. The cooking, stenography and other branches which will fit them to earn a living.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

in this city today.

One fan who lives at 63d street and Haverford avenue was in the habit of giving his family the Athletics for break-, dinner and supper. They used to Coilins, Baker and McInnis for des-To show how the result affects the minds of the people just think of the scene in Passyunk avenue square this a baseball game in her life, bet him Boston would "clean up" the series and that the Athletics wouldn't win a game. morning. There an able-bodied man of about 250 avoirdupois patiently pushed a persevering peanut persistently until it traveled through every avenue of the square. An audience of 300 applauded his efforts. She won $150 of his Christmas money and he heard so much about his expert ordinion of the White Elephants that he packed all his earthly belongings in a WALKING HOME FROM BOSTON. A local bank clerk received a wire of phia and South Framingham, Mass., redistress this morning, COLLECT, from wo Athletic fans in New London, Conn.

his friends were doing in Connecticut, Then it dawned upon him. They were didn't blame them. The two fans, who are doing the Weston act, also tried other resources. One of these enthusiasts who is not used to work or distance wrote a pathetic letter yesterday for a

WALK HOME FROM BOSTON. FOR THEY BET ON MACK

Stranded Fans Send Pathetic Wire From Connecticut-The Man Who Gave His Family the Athletics at Breakfast, Dinner and Supper Pays $150 and Stops Talking.

concerned, but the troubles of their followers have just begun. If the exworld's champions knew what an after-which is now en route from New York It begins in New York, for all east of that point placed their rent is due, and our coalbin is as clean as on a hot day in July."

The policeman expressed his sympathy and cheered the fan with the news that there were others worse off than he. The stranger postponed his bath.

ert and dissertations on the life of Connie Mack all day Sunday. Finally the man's sister, who never saw hazy in the head" to have the money sent to the postmaster when they could have remained right at the telegraph of-

TAXI RIDER SENTENCED

Man Who Refused to Pay Chauffeur Gets Five Days.

A young man from Ambler, Pa., who started out in a taxicab to meet three friends at Chestnut Hill, and who had but $3.04 to meet expenses, came to grief today when he was arrested at Broad street and Allegheny avenue for refusal to pay for the ride. Arraigned before Magistrate Emely, in the Park and Le-Arraigned before high avenues police station, he was sent to prison for five days. He also paid the chauffeur for the ride. The prisoner, John Meehan, called a cab at 12th and Market streets, and told the chauffeur, Edward Raney, 659 North 12th street, that he wanted to be taken to a hotel in Chestnut Hill.

When the taxi reached Broad street and Erie avenue, the taxi driver spoke of money, and Meehan became indignant. Raney turned, and started the machine down Broad street. As the taxicab neared Alicheny avenue the driver slackened speed to allow a cross-town car to pass. Meehan quietly opened the door of the cab and stepped to the street. Policeman Sickenger, of the Park and Lehigh avenues station, saw the man jump from the taxi, and placed him under

RED CROSS FUND GROWS

$15,112 Will Be Sent to Sufferers in Europe.

Contributions are still pouring in to the Philadelphia branch of the American Red Cross, it was announced today by Francis An anxious wife who has a missing B. Reeves, treasurer. He said the fund had reached $15,112. This money will be sent at the earliest convenience to Europe for the aid of the sufferers in the war. Among the more recent contributors

Calvary Presbyterian Church, $220; Christ Church, $53; N. W. Ayer & Son's and employes, $184; Dungan Hood & Co. and employes, $190; St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church, York, Pa., $362; St. John's Church, York, Pa., $67, and Christ Church, Reading, Pa., $180.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

George D. Gearhart, 332 N. 13th st., and Ethel R. McKinney, 2132 Mt. Vernon at J. Wallace Morrison, 8103 Erdrich st., and Edith Sheetz, Ashton road.

Henry F. Dismer, Washington, D. C., and Maria M. Gleeler, Washington, D. C. and Maria M. Gleeler, Washington, D. C. William W. Chalfant, 4122 Leidy ave, and Annie B. Larsen, 17 S. Dewey st.

Levi Brown, 2336 Dover st., and Abbie Mc. Klen, Moorestown, N. J.

Charles E. Guenther, Jr., 236 N. Lawrenco at., and Eeatrics M. Miller, 3118 French st.

William B. O'Hara, 4710 Penn at., and Edith L. Liberton, 5/26 Griscom st.

William B. O'Hara, 4710 Penn at., and Edith L. Liberton, 5/26 Griscom st.

William B. O'Hara, 4710 Penn at., and Edith L. Liberton, 5/26 Griscom st.

William B. Willer, 802 N. 48d st., and Violet B. Haupt, 138 N. 44th st.

George A. Wellse, Warminister, Fa., and Elma P. Henscher, Three Tuns, Fa.

Peter Michel, Clarksville, N. Y., and Minnie C. Myer, 1804 Race st.

Marris Welmer, 2415 S. 11th st., and Edith Masgen, 1407 S. 7th st. in a cigar store window this morning.
"Who is that?" asked one. "Why, that's the leading man in that new moving pic-ture, 'Napoleon at Waterloo,' ' said the other. "Let's have a smoke." Magen, 1407 S. Ith at.
Magen, 1407 S. Ith at.
Willis M. Smith, 4210 Ogden st., and Anna
M. Smith, 5126 Merion ave.
John R. Alloy, 5329 Hazel ave., and Anna M.
Ingram, 4511 N. 17th st.
Fred Doersain, 3630 Harper st., and Annie Miller, 8157 N. 18th st.
Slegfried Weinberger, 1426 N. Corlies st., and Seven Members and Scoutmaster En-Seven members of the "Bucktail" Boy Fred Doersam 3050 Harper st., and Annie Miller 3457 N. 18th st.
Sienfried Weinberger, 1426 N. Corlies st., and Theress Laub, 1426 N. Corlies st., and Theress Laub, 1426 N. Corlies at.
John F. Barrett, 2936 S. 13th st., and Margaret J. Trainor, 625 Moyamensing ave.
William F. Moore, Llanerch, Pa., and Marjory Thornton, 1331 Pine st.
Mitchell D. Turner, Spartansburg, S. C., and Ethel L. Linkenkoker, Roanoke, Wa.
Andra B. Harris, 1806 Carpenter st., and Elizabeth Paulcon, 1909 S. Colorado at.
Abraham W. Lever, 2441 Brown st., and Franklin E. Netleton, Scranton, Pa., and Margaret Invits 1829 N. 11th st.
Margaret Invits 1839 N. 11th St.
Margaret Invits 1839 N. 11th St.
Margaret W. Brakenshaw, 3341 N. Smedley st., and Eliza G. Derina, 5910 Christian st.
Michael J. Scanlon, Jr., 2317 N. Bouvier st., and Agnes J. Dittus, Rockledge, Pa. Scout troop of Bala and their scoutmaster have received the highest honor possible to such troops by being enrolled in the Eagle Scout Patrol. They are the in the Eagle Scout Patrol. They are the Thornton, first scouts to receive this distinction in Mitchell D. Ethel L. The new patrol is composed of Harry Ingram. Harry Ferriera, Isaac Kershaw, John Rinkenback, John Winters, Joseph H. Keefe, Alexander H. Holcomb and William L. Saunders. 2d, scoutmaster and

OBITUARIES

DR. EDGAR H. LANDES

Graduate of U. of P. and Former Official of Camden.

Dr. Edgar H. Landes, a practicing vet-erinarian and former Coroner of Cam-den, died at the home of his cousin. Mrs. William Gausline, 1326 West Westmore-land street, of tuberculosis. Doctor Landes was a graduate from the Veterinary Department of the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania, and practiced for many years in Camden, where he was born 50 years ago. He was long a member of the Elks. A brother, Frank Landes, is the sole survivor of his family.

MRS. MARGARET E. KNIGHT

Known in World of Invention as the Woman "Thomas Edison."

BOSTON, Oct. 15.-Miss Margaret E. Knight, 75 years old, of South Framingham, who obtained the first American patent ever assigned to a woman, is dead at her home in that place. She was often referred to as the woman "Thomas Edison." and for the last 25 years she passed nearly 19 hours each day in her laboratory. She developed a motor and many engine devices. She had 87 inventions patented, most of which were confined to rubber, cotton and shoe machinery. Miss Knight's work was hampered many times by law suits, but it is said she never con-tested a patent without winning the

JOSEPH L. HANCE

States Consul, died at his home. He was born in Easton, Pa. During the Franco-Prussfan War he represented a New York newspaper in Germany and later became private secretary to George Bancroft, the historian, United States Minlater in Berlin. He married the daughter of General Goodsite, of Nuremberg, Germany. Later he was appointed military messenger on Governor Tilden's staff at Albany. During the administra-tion of Governor Robinson, he was Deputy State Treasurer. He was auditor in the finance department of the city government until ill health compelled him to relinquish the post some months ago.

in the finance department of the city government until ill health compelled him to relinquish the post some months ago.

ISRAEL LUDLOW HALLOCK

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Israel Ludlow Hallock, 71 years old, died in Newton.

N. J., yesterday. He was Justice of the Pesoc in Newton from 182 to 191, a member of the Newton Fire Department there and at one time its chief. He was fatally stricken after participating in a fire department celebration. Mr. Hallock was at one time organist and a vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church and for 29 years was a newspaper writer.

CHARLES EDGAR KNIFFEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Charles Edgar Kniffen died yesterday in his 76th years at his home in Brooklyn. He was born at Newburgh, N. Y., and had been a resident of Brooklyn for nearly 60 years dent of Brooklyn for nearly 60 years. He married, in 1880. Anna Ogden, daughter of the late Charles R. Ogden. Twy sons, Howard S. and Walter D. Kniffen, survive.

WILLIAM SCOTT

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—William Scott, formerly president of the New York Road Drivers' Association, died yesterday. He was 70 years old. He came to this country when a boy and entering the ice business was later the owner of several large ice supply companies.

ISAAC STIEFEL

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Isaac Stiefel, a wholesale beef packar of this city, died yesterday. Early in his business career Mr. Stiefel organized the United Dreased Reaf Company. Later he became head developed and the content of the late Charles R. Ogden. Two this country when a boy and entering the ice business was later the owner of several large ice supply companies.

yesterday. Early in his business career Mr. Stiefel organized the United Dressed Beet Company. Later he became head of Stiefel & O'Mara. He retired four years ago. He was 66 years old.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 15.—Henry Lane Schmelz, probably the best-known banker and business man in Virginia, died at his home in Hampton, aged 61. He was head of a banklag house at Newport died in Pasadena, Cal., according to word received in this city. He was the son of Mrs. John A. Warden and a brother of Mrs. Osgood Pell, of West-bury, L. I.

H. PAGE WARDEN

Deaths

ALFRED.—GODFREY ALFRED, 32 years, 1783 North 23d st. ARMERLING. — On October 14, 1914, CHARLES ARMERLING. Funeral on Sat-urday at 10 a. m., from 117 North 34th st., Camden.

BURROWS.—On October 13, 1914, JOHN
MANSFIELD, husband of the late M. Kate Burrows. Funeral services Friday, October 16, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry C. McGrath, 1860 North 26th st. Joterment West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

CALDWELL.—Suddenly, on September 29, 1914, at Bournemouth, England, J. ALBERT CALDWELL, Due notice of the funeral will Internent private.

HESTER.—On October 14, 1914, at 103

Chapel ave., Merchantville, N. J., ALICE L.

CHESTER, wife of Alfred Chester and daughter of Frank and Alice A. Record aged 27 years. Due notice of funeral will be given theon st. October 14, 1914, GEORGE W., husband of Lizzle Coons and son of Maria and the late Samuel Coons, Residence, 4948 Thompson st. Due notice of funeral will be given.

HENRY LANE SCHMELZ

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 -H. Page Warden

ASHMAN.—On October 14, 1914, WILL-IAM N. ASHMAN. Due notice of the funeral will be given.

BARBER.—On October 14, 1914, FRANK A

HARBER, aged 60 years. Fineral services on Friday, at 8 p. m., at his late residence, 3463 Wallace st. Interment at Groveville, N. J., on Saturday, at 2 p. m. BURKETT.—SARAH BURKETT, 79 years, 2815 Wells at.

CANDERS.—On October 14, 1914, EMILIE
CANDERS (nee Schwartz). Relatives and 1914, WILLIAM T. WEST, aged 44 years

OHEN. - JAKE COHEN, 55 ; sars, 829 Dick-

COTTRELL, On October 11, 1914, MAR-GARET COTTRELL (nes Toner), helowed wife of the late Joshua Cottrell. Funeral en Friday morning at 5:30 o clock, from her late residence, 1301 Kouth Broad at Solenn Re-quime Mass at St. Rita Church, at 10 a.m. Interment at Hoty Gross Cemetery. DANTER On October 14, 1914, MARY JANE DANTER, wife of Jacob Danter, nged 50 years, Funeral on Saturday at 8 a. m. from 4521 Salmon at Solema High Mans at All Saints' Church, Bridesburg, at 9 a. m. Interment at All Saints' Burying Grouper Hope at. Interment North Cedar Hill Cemetery, private.

McCLOSKEY.—On October 14, 1914. CATHARINE A., wife of Charles McCloskey and daughter of the late Joseph and Ann McCrosson. Funeral on Monday, at 8:30 a. m., from 225 McClellan st. Solemn Mass of Requiem at the Annunciation Church, at 10 a. m. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.
McENTIRE.—Suddenly, on October 13, 1914, MARY C., beloved wife of William J. McEntire, aged 82 years. Funeral services will be hold on Friday morning, at 11 o'dlock, at her late residence. South ave., Secane, Pa.
Interment private.

MILLER.—MiCHAEL MILLER, 61 years, 4331 Main at

4031 Main at. MONTAGUE,—ELIZABETH MONTAGUE, 26 vers 1010 Woodbad av. 26 years, 4310 Woodland ave. MORAN.—KATHERINE MORAN, 68 years.

Private.

PARSONS.—On October 14, 1914, ANNIE
M. widow of Martin Parsons. Funetal on Saturday at 8 a. m., from 1304 North 50th st. Requiem Mass at St. Gregory's Church, at 9:30 a. m. Interment at Cathedral Cemetery.

at 9.30 a.m. Interment at Cathedral Cemetery, RICHARDSON.—On October 13, 1914, SAMUEL A. RICHARDSON, aged 69 years. Puneral on Saturday, October 17, at 2 p. m., from the residence of his non-in-law, Harry
C. Hibbs, Hulmeville. Bucks County, Pa.
Interment at Beechwood Cemetery.
SCOTT.—On October 12, 1914, JOHN, hushand of Sarah D. Scott, aged 10 years. Funeral services on Friday, at 2 p. m., at 1004 Kinsley st. Gormerly Oxford at.). Interment STILL—Un October 14, 1914, WILLIAM HENRY, husband of Lydin Still. Funeral on Friday, at 2 p. m., from 1927 South Cecil at.
Interment at Fernwood Cemetery.

services, on Friday Afternoon, Oct. 16, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of her grandfather. Maurice J. Dukes, Glenside, Pa. Interment white. Suddenly on Tuesday, October 18, WILLAM HOBERT WHITE, of 1/2) Pins st., sen of the lats William R. White. Furnial services will be held at St. James Clurch, 221 and Walnut ats, Friday morning at 11 o'clork. ing at 11 o'clock.

YERGER.—On October 14, 1914, MARY, wife of Henry K. Yerger, at her husband's residence 2524 North Sarrain at. Due notice of the funeral will be given.

NEWTON COAL Answers the Burning Question

It's a policy that follows

Newton Coal

into your home You MUST be satisfied

CHUTE PRICES

Egg. . $7.00 Nut . . $7.50 Stove . $7.25 Pea . . $5.50 25c Extra if Carried.

GEO.B. NEWTON COALCO.

1527 CHESTNUT STREET
RACE 3800

The Old British Convict Ship SUCCESS The Oldest Ship Affort (launched 1790 A. D.) and Only Survivor of England's Terrible Fleet of "Ocean Hells" NOW AT MARKET STREET WHARF, PHILADELPHIA

En Route to San Francisco, where she will be a feature at the Great Panama Ex-THIS WONDERFUL VES-SEL HAS MADE HISTORY through three centuries. She marked the beginning and the end of England's monatrous penal system.

She is the oldest ship in the world and the only convict ship left aficat out of that dreadful "First of Hells" which sailed the Seven Seas in 1790 A D.

She ig unchanged after The Convict Ship is light

Aboutd her are now shown in their original state, all the africas dungers and condemned cells, the whipping post, the manacles, the branding irons, the punishment halls, the telephone tails, the ceffin half and the other flandish inventions of man's brutality to his follow man.

The Convict Ship is lighted throughout with electricity and can be inspected by night as well as by day. Open to the Public Daily frum 2 A. M. to 10 P. M. Market Street Wharf (Between Market Philadelphia Admission, Including Services of a Guide unof Lecture, 25c. Note-The "Success" can be boarded direct from the pier by gang planks

BEFORE THE SANDMAN COMES

WHEN you hear the curfew ring very conscientious man and very in the evening does it ever said to the consciention of the current of the curr in the evening does it ever strict with his children. make you think of the old, old fashioned curfew laws?

Do you realize that the curfew bell stands for the law and order of things at dusk. long ago—so long ago that it is almost forgotten? Hundreds of years ago every city was surrounded by a wall and the curfew was rung to let the people know the time of closing the gates.

work, shut their stores, come in from fields and make ready for the In other places the curfew rang earlier, some time before sundown, to let the shepherds in the fields know it was time to shut up the flocks for the Then the curfew rang sometimes for an evening service, perhaps in a big cathedral-perhaps only in a mis-sion church, but always the bell rang for few people had clocks or watches to go by. But always the bell rang to tell the people that night was approaching and they should be ready for rest.

The good English fathers and mothers would listen for the curfew and when it rang, would lock their doors and windows for the night.

All the children must be in then if they wished to get in at all.

A true story is told of the explorer, David Livingstone, which shows how strictly the parents of those olden days needed the curfew.

His rule was that every child must

No one broke the rule until young David was about nine years old.

Then one day he was away from home playing so happily that he for- street, got all about the curfew till it rang Then the people would drop their out in the twilight. He stopped his play at once and rang home as fast as he could, but he was too late. His father had come home and all the doors were shut and barred for the night.

Instead of crying or pounding on the door, he accepted his punishment like the manly boy he was. Pulling from his pocket a crust of bread left from his school luncheon, he ate it slowly; then he stretched himself out on the cold doorstone and went to sleep.

Many times through the night his mother watched him to see that he slept safely, but she did not speak to him for she wanted him to learn to be brave and self-reliant as well as obedient.

In after years he told some friends that that night was one of the most wonderful of his life, for in it he learned to make the best of whatever LONDON, Oct. 15.—Funeral services wer the body of the late King Carol of Rumania were concluded today with impressive ceremonies in the Convent further Departee, in Bucharest, according happened.

And all because of a curfew bell. Copyright, 1914, Clara Ingram Judson.

and a determined expression looking gloomily into the river. Finally he struck an attitude of 45 degrees, and with clasped hands prepared to plunge. But a That is, as far as the Athletics are special policeman grabbed him by the coat tails.

"No bathing in October," he said. math of misery they were responsible for "What's wrong?" gasped the gloomy they'd stop winning pennants immedione. "Great Scot, didn't you follow the They have started a wall of anguish For a moment the cop thought of ringing for the ambulance. Before he started, however, the stranger said:
"I hocked my wife's diamond ring and her watch, too, and I bet all the money on the Athletics. Tomorrow the Mere words cannot picture the trouble moving van and left the house.

It said. "Wire us 20 at least, care of postmaster, general delivery."

The clerk knew half the series was played in Boston and couldn't figure what fice and get it on sight.

But in view of the terrible blow he didn't blame them. The two fans, who

He declared, too, that they must "be wrote a pathetic letter yesterday for a touch that failed.

"I was sure we were at Tioga station in dear old Philly," he said, "and Luke said saidy that it was only New London." Down at Race street wharf this morn-had sold a brand new fall suit to a Washington street dealer in Boston and took a cheap one with some cash in exchange. It appears that the cheap one didn't fit. But the rest of this man's troubles must be kept confidential. Joe, the Barb, on 6th street, was seen outside this morning looking in at his own barber shop. His friends were amazed at his mournful mien. "I bet the whole bizniss on the Athele-ticks," he said. "I gotta getta job." Two apparently intelligent men were seen looking at a picture of Connie Mack in a cigar store window this morning.

ing a man with a clean shave and his trousers pressed stood with folded arms NO TRACE OF MAN WHO

BROODED OVER OPERATION

Started for Hospital and Hes Not Been Seen Since. Police have been aske dto search for David Berman, 58 years old, who left his nome, 1019 Vine street, yesterday morning and has not been seen since; Berman was on his way to the Germantown Hospital where he was to have been operated on. He never reached the institution and his family became alarmed, as he had been brooding over the operation for several weeks and declared he would rather die than undersee it ather die than undergoe it.

Berman is the owner of several lodging houses on Vine street, east of Broad. He has a wife and 6 children. Charles the has a wife and s children. Charles Berman, a son, said his father left home wearing a black suit with white pin stripes, a black derby and black shoes. Berman was about 5 feet tall and weighed

BLOCK ON CHESTNUT STREET

be in the house when the curiew rang | Car Is Derailed at Eighth Street and Fifteen-Minute Block Follows. Traffic was held up 15 minutes this morning when an eastbound car on Route 47 left the rails at 8th and Chestnut streets and awung partly across the Soon a long line of cars was waiting behind the derailed car, and passengers, hurrying to offices, abandoned them and set out on foot. A wrecking crew got the car back on the tracks. No one knew what caused the derailment.

TO BRING JUDGE ASHMAN HOME Body of Jurist Will Reach Here Today. The body of ex-Judge Nellson Ashman, who died late yesterday afternoon at his summer home at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., will be brought to Philadelphia this afterwill be brought to Philadelphia this afterneon. It will arrive here at 130 o'clock.

Judge Ashman's widow, his sister. Miss Emilie Ashman, a son, George Ashman, of Schenectady, and Mrs. Alfred Palmer, a daughter, will accompany the body, which will be taken to his former residence, 4400 Spruce street.

Arrangements for the funeral will be made later.

FUNERAL OF KING CAROL

Condition. The condition today of ex-Attorney General William U. Hensel, of Lancasier. Pa., who is ill in Jefferson Hospital, is improved. Physicians say he passed a comfortable night and predicted his comfortable night and predicted his speedy recovery.

Mr. Hensel came to Philadelphia several days ago after a nervous breakdown, due to everwork. His physicians advised him to take a complete rest.

Mr. Hensel has been a prominent figure in Democratic politics for years and is one of the best known attorneys of the Commonwealth. to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from the Rumanian capital

The "Bucktails," or Troop No. 1, have received many honors in the past, having won the prize for the highest total of points in scout work scored in a recent half-year contest in competition with troops from Montgomery, Delaware and Philadelphia counties. They also won the

"WIRE ME 20," PLEADS PHONE.

husband somewhere between Philadelceived a long distance phone call early this morning, collect, from the chief of "Your husband wants you to wire him twenty," was all that she could hear at first Then came the sad news that he

'BUCKTAIL' SCOUTS HONORED

rolled in Eagle Scout Patrol.

The new patrol is composed of Harry the United States.

police of the Massachusetts town.

MAD DOG BIT CHILDREN Six Will Be Given Pasteur Treatment efficiency prize at Camp Delmont during to Prevent Hydrophobia. Following an examination of the dog which bit six Manayunk children Tues day and the discovery that the animal had rables, the children will be given the Pasteur treatment. They are Raymond and Charles Cassner, aged 6 and 2. re-spectively, 107 Pennsdale street; Anna Clamfer, 11 years old, 4663 Cresson street; Francis Donohue, 8 years old, 114 Penn ale street; Michael Bucta, 9 years old 110 Pennsdale street, and John Kurnot, Il years old, 107 Pennsdale street. As a result of the dog's rampage the Manayunk police have been instructed to shoot all stray dogs and four have already been killed.

W. U. HENSEL BETTER Hospital Physicians Report Improvement in Ex-Attorney General's

NEW YORK, Oct 18.—Joseph L. Hance, former was correspondent and United