

THE STAGE

Henry W. Savage's production of the operetta, "Sari," will begin a limited engagement at the Forrest November 2.

Charles Frohman will present "The Beautiful Adventure," a comedy by the authors of "Love Watches," at the Broad Street Theatre for two weeks beginning Monday, November 2.

Coming direct from his many weeks of success at the Empire Theatre, New York, John Drew will begin his annual engagement at the Broad Street Theatre, November 16, with "The New Comedy," "The Frigid Husband."

David Belasco will present his charming star, Frances Starr, in "The Secret," at the Broad Street Theatre, November 30.

Klaw and Erlanger production of "Ben-Hur" will open at the Forrest December 20.

In the revival of Sheridan's "The Rivals," which will be given at the Little Theatre on November 2, B. Iden Payne will play the role of Bob Acres.

"Hindle Wakes," which will be open at the Little Theatre November 16, ran for three months in Chicago, and was one of the biggest successes of the season.

"The Sea Gull," by Anton Tschekoff, was produced at the Little Theatre later in the winter.

"Within the Law" will be given at the Walnut the week of November 2.

Eugenie Blair, who will be remembered for her work in "Madame X," "Zaza" and "Camille," will appear in "A Fool There Was" at the Walnut the week beginning October 26.

"The Old Homestead" will be the Walnut's Thanksgiving attraction.

Alma Naximova will open her season at the Apollo Theatre, Atlantic City, on Thursday, October 22, in "That Sort," a new play by Basil MacDonald Hastings.

Young Peoples' Concert. The committee in charge of the concert for young people have announced the dates for their second season.

People's Choral Union Begins Work. The registration for the Public Sight Singing Classes of the People's Choral Union has been most gratifying.

Modern Dancing. CHAS. J. COLL'S Corner 38th and Market Streets.

Palace Ballroom. 80th and Market Streets.

Loeser's Nixton Theatre Bldg. Receptions Monday and Saturday.

Dancing Tonight. Danse De Luxe at 27th and Girard Aves.

Lawrence Academy Broad and Porter Sts. Modern Dance Contest.

Reception Monday and Saturday. Class Tuesday and Thursday.

A. E. Alexander of New York. High-Jinks, Gavotte, Lullu Pado.

Dancing Tonight. Danse De Luxe at 27th and Girard Aves.

Reception Monday and Saturday. Class Tuesday and Thursday.

Blanche West. Studio, 1520 Chestnut Street.

Castle Graduate. Latest Ballroom Dances.

You can rent Apollo Hall. 1525 N. Broad St.

Blanche West. Studio, 1520 Chestnut Street.

Castle Graduate. Latest Ballroom Dances.

Song and Concert in Philadelphia

In spite of the war, it was much the same orchestra that gave the first concert of the season at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon.

The men worked well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

The orchestra was well together, in spite of martial troubles. There were little slips, to be sure, at the beginning of the overture to "Der Freischuetz."

"PEACE ON EARTH" PLAN FOR EUROPE ON CHRISTMAS DAY

London Hears of American Suggestion That Guns Be Silent 24 Hours—President May Propose It.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Daily Mail has received a despatch from its correspondent in New York saying that leading clerical and educators there have under discussion a movement to have the warring powers agree to an armistice on Christmas Day.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

DECREASED MILK SUPPLY CAUSES BUTTON FAMINE

War Forces Manufacturers to Search for Substitute Material.

One result of the war is a famine in buttons. About a year and a half ago Germany put Galath buttons, made of compressed milk, on the market, and they captured every possible branch of the dressmaking trade by reason of their beauty and the many varieties in which they were produced.

Many of the most popular plain buttons of last season depended for decoration upon bright, cherry-shaped buttons. This year manufacturers are menaced with the difficulty of finding a substitute.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON HOTELS DISMISS ALL GERMAN EMPLOYEES

Press Agitation Prompts Action by Leading Hostellers.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The agitation of the London press against the employment of thousands of Germans in the hotels of the city has resulted in an announcement that three of the large and fashionable houses were free of Germans and Austrians.

Several important hotels, however, notably in the Strand, are managed by Germans, and English help is not desired. It is stated that in one case a score of English employees were dismissed by a German proprietor at the outbreak of the war.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the London Daily Mail in New York said yesterday: "The movement for a Christmas armistice is in its infancy, but it has already enlisted the sympathies of some distinguished leaders of their creeds."

B. F. Keith's EXCLUSIVE VAUDEVILLE. ADELINE GENE. MILTON & DE LONG SISTERS. PERCY BRONSON & WINNIE BALDWIN. HARRY B. LESTER | WILLIE WESTON. ROXY LA ROCCA | THE KRAMERS. EDWIN STEVENS.

ORPHEUM. GERMANTOWN'S POPULAR PLAYHOUSE. ANNIVERSARY WEEK—Beginning MONDAY, OCT. 19. REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM.

LIBERTY. FOR THE WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, OCTOBER 19. CECEL SPOONER'S DRAMA OF PARISH LIFE.

LOVE'S MODEL. ALL THE WORLD LOVES A LOYAL LOVER. ARE YOU IN LOVE? The Balance of the Season the Prices Are EVENINGS: 15, 25, 35 and 50 Cents. MATINEES: Tues., Thurs. & Sat., 15 & 25c.

THE WALNUT. 15,000,000 PEOPLE Have Visited. THE OLD BRITISH Convict Ship "SUCCESS" Have You? Now at Market St. Wharf, Phila. (Between Market & Chestnut) This Wonderful Vessel Has Made History.

BROADWAY. Advanced Vaudeville. Broad and Snyder Ave. CHUNG-HWA COMEDY FOUR. HARRY BROOK & CO. SPENCER & WILLIAMS. DOLLY & MACK. MOSCONY & MOSCONY. REX'S COMEDY CIRCUIS. FORREST Last Mat. & Night MONTGOMERY and STONE.

AMERICAN THEATRE STOCK COMPANY. NIXON'S GRAND. BARNEY GILMORE. THE MELTING POT. CASINO.

ADELPHI STARTING OCTOBER 19th. EDWARD PEPLER'S UPROARIOUSLY FUNNY FARCE "A PAIR OF SIXES". POPULAR THURSDAY MATINEE $1.00. THE PASSING SHOW OF 1914.

WHIRL OF THE WORLD. DANCING AROUND. Danse de Danceland Delightful Orchestra. 20th and MONTGOMERY AVENUE.

LOESER'S NIXON THEATRE BLDG. MARTEL'S 1710 North Broad. GEORGES BERNARD of Paris, France. AL WHITE COLONIAL THEATRE. ALL THE MODERN DANCES.

It is a Pleasure to Announce. That the sale of boxes and seats for the 25 concerts of the Philadelphia Orchestra for this season has exceeded that of any previous year.

Not a seat or box remains unsold for the Friday afternoon concerts. A few seats and boxes—in most desirable locations—still remain for the Saturday evening concerts and to these the attention of the Philadelphia Music-loving public is called.

An early application for the remaining seats and boxes should be made to The Business Manager, The Philadelphia Orchestra, Pearsley Building, 15th and Chestnut Streets.