Terpsichorean distortions, however, are being shunned by those who love dancing for the sake, and only grace and beauty. Adopt modern steps because of their...

DANCE DISTORTIONS SHUNNED BY THOSE WHO LOVE THE ART

Public Halls Keep Out Folk Who Vulgarize the Modern Steps and Encourage Serious Students.

Are modern dances becoming unpopular, too difficult, too kaleidoscopic? There is little reason for believing so. Never has this pastime been so universal as at present, never has the keen interest and enthusiasm been manifest that is seen on every hand today.

Once more the puritanic raise their hands in holy horror. The public dance hall: Horrible! Disgraceful! And yet it is a fact that such people are as far as in their conception of the halls as they are in that of the dances.

At one time the public dance hall was a place where the public could enjoy a few hours of recreation in a safe and healthful manner.

But conditions change, reform begins and the purifying process is speedily realized. No better example of this exists than the public dance hall.

A Sale of Paris Gowns and Suits at Less Than Paris Prices

Original models of Callot, Douillet, Paquin, Premet, Bernard, Jenny and Bechoff-David. Of the 164 Bechoff-David models which our Fashion Commissioner brought by automobile from Paris to Havre, stopped by seventeen pickets on the way, the first and also the latest Paris fashions in America today—only a few remain in the Gray Salons.

These original, unduplicated models will be offered tomorrow, Thursday, together with all other remaining models, at prices going from $95 to $175, being less than the ordinary prices in Paris.

People who were not in town during the earlier exhibition are particularly invited to see the final display and sale of these Paris originals in the Women's Salons of Fashion. (First Floor, Central)

Fashion Notes From the Fur Salon

One of the new muffs is the melon—carried out in creamy Russian fitch, mole or skunk. Caracul coats show the new flaring skirts. Ermine and Monkey is one of the new combinations. Fitch tails are used for the trimming of sheared muskrat neck-pieces and muffs. Monkey fur is combined with velvet or sheared muskrat in small furs, and with muskrat in coats. A coat of sheared muskrat has a Byron collar of ermine. An odd melon muff has fitch skins laid horizontally upon it, giving a novel and daring effect. (Third Floor, Chestnut)
