TOO PARTICULAR Howard Elliott, the head of the New Haven line, was talking in New York about railroad punctuality.

"Our trains are far more punctual than they used to be," he said. "Did you ever hear about the Western train that tied up for the night on account of a storm?"

"A drummer on this train—this happened years ago—said pleasantly to the conductor, 'We're going to be late, friend.'"

"No," said the conductor, in surly tones, "no, we ain't going to be late, neither."

A. MITCHELL PALMER TALKS TO GREAT CROWD AT CRAMPS

PALMER DECLARES PENROSE THE ONLY ISSUE IN THE STATE

Addresses Employes at Cramp's—McCormick, in Speech, Challenges Dr. Brumbaugh to State Attitude Toward Senator.

The declaration that Penrose and Penroseism are the only issues before the voters of Pennsylvania at this time was made today at noon to more than 600 employes of the William E. Cramp Ship and Engine Building Works...

"A vote for Penrose," said Mr. McCormick, "is a vote to continue his record at Washington as a pledge breaker and a subsidy blackmailer..."

The two speakers are here for the four-day city campaign of the Democratic campaign party. They took luncheon at the Bellevue-Stratford following the meeting at Cramp's...

Representative Palmer's attack on Penrose and Penroseism was, as usual, straight from the shoulder. He quoted Penrose as declaring, at the outset of his campaign, that the Mexican war and the tariff were the two issues of the campaign.

"Both of these are dead now," said Mr. Palmer. "The Mexican situation has been settled through the wise policy of President Wilson, and the tariff has been settled by the European war."

"If you will cure Pennsylvania you must cure it at the source by removing Penrose," he said. "You ask why you cannot get workmen's compensation bills, and the answer is Penrose. The same thing applies to child labor and shorter hours for women."

Both speakers were introduced by Robert S. Bright, Democratic candidate for Congressman-at-Large. In introducing Mr. Palmer, he declared him to be a man who could give to Pennsylvania the representation at Washington it has not been given for many years.

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, to express himself as to his attitude on Penroseism. He lauded Doctor Brumbaugh as a respectable gentleman, but declared that the former Superintendent of Schools had been chosen by Penrose because the latter required the people of Pennsylvania wanted decent representation. He then expressed the opinion that Doctor Brumbaugh, if elected, would not be able to dispel the suspicion that he was allied with Penroseism.

KEEPS POLICE STATION BUSY FOR ROBBER ACROSS STREET. On Saturday afternoon, starting at 2:50 o'clock, meetings will be held at each of the four entrances to the City Hall courtyard...

While Young Man Talks His Accomplishes Takes Clothes and Pearls. A young man with a pleasing face and a pair of trousers neatly and lately pressed talked long and fervently to the house sergeant of the 11th and Winter streets station yesterday afternoon regarding a lost pocket case.

He never looked the sergeant in the eye, but gazed in the direction of a house across the street. A half hour after his departure, Mrs. Mary Reed, who conducts a rooming house at 24 North 11th street, directly opposite the police station, reported she had her necklace in the folds of a newspaper, but the thief discovered it.

Ship Railroad Ties to Egypt. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—The British steamship Orange River has been chartered by Messrs. P. & O. to carry a cargo of railroad ties and lumber from Puget Sound ports to Port Said, Egypt, a very unusual charter to be made on the Pacific coast.

Italian Vendors, Disputing Stand, Proceed to "Roast" Each Other. Two Italians who sold chestnuts near a vaudeville theatre on Girard avenue today got into a quarrel as to which had the right to the stand. The space was only about three feet square, but neither of the vendors would move an inch. In the quarrel they didn't confine the roasting to chestnuts and came to blows. There was an upheaval in the chestnut market until Policeman Geiser arrived.

He took the men to the front and had $5 when he met Florence. She wanted something to eat, so they went to Chinatown. He looked over the prices on the bill of fare and then ordered for two. Florence wanted cheap suez with chicken "extra," which is 75 cents an order. Mr. Hawkins gave the order and a few minutes later missed his savings of two months.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? CHARM EVEN FAILS ON MAGISTRATE

John Haggerty, 19th and South streets, was held under $500 bail today for a further hearing by Magistrate Haggerty, at the 12th and Pine streets station house. Haggerty is accused of stealing $18 from Joseph Connors. Connors was too busy to appear at the hearing this morning. He sent word he was engaged making up the $18 and would be around to prosecute in the near future.

FEAR SAFETY OF OIL SHIPS TAKING ON CARGOES HERE

Vessels May Suffer Fate of American Steamer Taken by British. England's seizure of the American steamship John D. Rockefeller because the vessel was carrying oil from this city for Scandinavian ports, "which might eventually find its way into the tanks of Zeppelins," has aroused speculation among shipping men here of the probable fate of the ball-doner steamship loading or to load similar cargoes at this port.

JACK LONDON'S CANNIBAL TALE

Jack London, preparing to embark on another cruise around the world, told in Santa Barbara of the strange experiences of his last cruise. "But we had such hairbreadth escapes as that of a missionary who met in Samoa," he said. "This good fellow was preaching in one of the islands in the midst of the cannibals. While trying vainly to make converts he was captured by a cannibal king. To his surprise he was immediately released. His release, however, was made on the condition that he carry a small sealed packet to a neighboring king."

VICTIM OF HOLD-UP RECOVERS

Andrew S. Peltzer, 465 Cambridge street, Frankford, who was held up and shot by highwaymen October 17, was discharged from the Frankford Hospital today. The thieves relieved Peltzer of $250, owned by the Peltzer Building and Loan Association, of which he is treasurer. He was shot through the abdomen and for a time was thought that he could not recover.
