ADAMS

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Nov. 4-With six districts not heard from, Adams County gives Paimer 1925, Pinchot Si6, Penrose 1400, McCormick 2478, Brumbaugh 1725. Beales, Republican, carried the county ever Brodbeck, the present member in Congress, by 400. Rudisill, Democrat, won for the Legislature by 450. He is a "dra". No official tabulation was kept on the Judges, but what little was learned indicates that Kunkel and Trexler have car-

ALLEGHENY

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—Brumbaugh and Penrose carried Allegheny County by good majorities. Brumbaugh's majority ever McCormick will be close to 25,000. while Penrose will have about 30,000 plurality over Gifford Pinchot, the Washing-ton nominee. A. Mitchell Palmer runs

This result was indicated by returns from more than one-half of the districts in the county. Returns from 424 of the 703 districts give Brumbaugh a total of 43.552 and McCormick 25,864. This is an average of 103 to a district for Brumbaugh and 68 for McCormick. This ratio maintained throughout the missing dis-tricts would give Brumbaugh 72,409 and McCormick 47,804, or a plurality for Brumbaugh of 24,605.

Returns from 424 of the 703 districts give Penrose a total of 39,477; Pinchot, 21,955, and Palmer, 12,257. This is an average of 93 to a district for Penrose, 51 for Pinchot and 32 for Palmer. This ratio maintained in the rest of the districts would give Penrose a total of 65,379; Pinchot, 25,853, and Palmer, 22,495. Penrose would have a plurality over Pinchot of 29,526, and Pinchot over Palmer of 13,357. Penrose would have a majority of 7000.

would have a majority of 7030. Judge Robert Frazer carried the county for Justice of the Supreme Court over Judge Kunkel by a plurality of about 90,000. He did not lose a precinct in the county. Justice Frank M. Trexler, for the Supreme Court, won the county by about 5,000 over James C. Clark.

Returns from 424 districts give Judge Frazer 61,283 and Judge Kunkel 7088. This is an average of 145 to a district for Judge Frazer and 17 for Judge Kunkel. This patic continued for the entire county would make Judge Frazer's total 101.935 and Judge Kunkel's 11.951, or a majority of 89,984 for Judge Frazer. The same number of districts give Trexler 43,298 and Clark 16,921. This is an average of 102 to a district for Trexler and 40 for Clark. This ratio carried through the county would give Trexler a total of 71,706 to Clark's 28,120, or a plurality of 43,586 for Trexler.

KITTANNING, Pa., Nov. 4.-Two dis tricts in Armstrong County gave Palmer, 22; Pinchot, 29; Penrose, 62; McCormick Brumbaugh, 78; Frazer, 85; Kunkel, Clark, 27; Trexler, 57. Same districts in 1913 gave Wilson, 46; Roosevelt, 72;

ARMSTRONG

BERKS

READING, Nov. 4.—Late returns re-versed the indications of last night and, sithough unofficial, showed that McCormick had carried the city over Brum baugh by a vote of 494 to 4559. With but a few of the county districts heard from it is apparent that McCormick's plurality rill be about 5200. Penrose was victorious over Palmer in the city, the results being as follows: Penrose, 4565; Palmer, 3696; Pinchot, 2968. In the county, however, there was not much of a defection and the district is conceded Palmer by about 4000.

Arthur G. Dewalt, of Allentown, Demo-grat, defeated J. Keim Stauffer, Re-publican, of this city, by $500 plurality. His plurality in Berks was about 3000, considerably less than the State ticket. One of the surprises was the re-election of James H. Maurer, Socialist, president of the State Federation of Labor, and Mahlon G. Shaaber, Civil War veteran, to the Legislature from the city, Assemblyman George H. Sassaman and William Strauss. Democrats, being defeated by this vote: Maurer, 3761; Shaaber, 3744; Sassaman, $651; Strauss, $508. Both successful candidates are anti-local optionists.

From the county Howard W. Bodey.
Daniel A. Rothenberger and Wilson G.
Barid. Democrats, were elected to the Legislature. All are understood to be antagonistic to local option. Judge Frank M. Trexler, of Allentown, is conceded the county by 5000 for the Supreme Court. A feature taken as a rebuke to the adistration was the overwhelming defeat of the $1,300,000 loan for permanent

BEAVER

BEAVER, Nov. 4.—Seven districts of 58 in Beaver County give Palmer, 100; Pinchot, 501; Penrose, 319; McCormick, 56; Brumbaugh, 307; Frazer, 523; Kunkel, ALTOONA. Pa., Nov. 4.—Fifty-nine out of 87 districts in Blair County give Pen-rose, 7832; Pinchot, 5836; Palmer, 2185. The same districts give Brumbaugh, 615; Mc-Cormick, 67%.

Josse L. Hartman, Republican, leads for Congress with 5889; Bailey, Domocrat, 200; Brua, Washington, 2012. P. W. Snyder, Republican, has been elected State Senator, his vote in Blair County heing 766 against 2008 for Gauss, Democrat Snyder is strong for local option.

J. E. Rininger, Republican, is elected assemblyman in the lat District. He is opposed to local option. H. Atles Bdumbaugh and Samuel McCurdy, Republicans and local optionists, are elected in the 21 Legislative district.

BUCKS

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Nov. 4.—The whole Republican ticket made a clean sweep in Bucks. Returns from '8 of the 20 districts in the county give: For Senature—Parrose, Stal: Palmer, 176; Pinghot, 188; For Governor—Brumbaugh, 688; 14. Durmick, 188; For Congress Walson, 181; Grin, 187; For State Senate-Ratkman, Sen. Hope, 187; Returns of elected by majorities approximating 1500 elected by majorities approximating 1500. No figures are yet available on the judicial vote, but Kunkel and Trexier run high. For Congress in the Bucks-Montgomery district it is estimated Watson will have 4500 majority over Grim, State Senator Buckman and Assemblymen Fretz and Pickering, Republicans elected in Bucks County, are all against local option.

BUTLER

BUTLER, Pa., Nov. 4.—Butler County gives Penrose 250; Paimer, 225; Pinchot, 1918; McCormick, 3499; Brumbaugh, 2500. Congress, 23d District, Hammond, Dem., 250; Kelsier, Rep., 227. J. O. Campbell and Dr. J. M. Leighner, Rep., pledged to local option, have margin of 400 for Legislature.

CAMBRIA

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 4.—Three dis-tricts of 25 in Cambria County gave Pal-mer, 58; Pinchot, 37; Penrose, 148; Mc-Cormick, 82; Brumbaugh, 147; Frazer, 172; Kunkel, 24; Clark, 39; Trexler, 152.

CARBON

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Nov. 4.—Fifty-two of 58 districts in Carbon County gave Palmer 1587; Pinchot, 1475; Penrose, 1905; McCormick, 2551; Brumbaugh, 2223 Carbon County has been considered a Democratic citadel, and is the home of James I. Blakeslee, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, who has been a Palmer and McCormick adviser.

CENTER

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Nov. 4.-Estimates give Penrose the county by 400, Brum-baugh by 50. Kunkel and Trexler have about 300 majority in the county, and Harry B. Scott, Republican, is elected to the Legislature. He is not pledged for ocal option.

Late returns confirm the election of Charles H. Rowland as Congressman in the 21st District on an anti-local option platform, and S. J. Miller, State Senator, in the 24th District. Both are Republicans.

CLARION CLARION, Pa., Nov. 4.—Thirty dis-tricts out of 43 in Clarion County give Palmer, 1632; Pinchot, 234; Penrose, 1165; McCormicw, 1859; Brumbaugh, 1158. Matson, Dem., for Congress, will have 1200 majority in the county. Arnold, Rep., is elected to Assembly over Brown, Dem., by 1660. It will take the official count to tell who is elected in the district for State Senator.

CLEARFIELD

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Nov. 4.-Scattering returns from a few of 34 districts indi-cate close vote in this county between Palmer, Pinchot and Penrose, with Pen-rose leading. McCormick will carry county by at least 1000.

CLINTON

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Nov. 4.-With five LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Nov. 4.—With five small districts to hear from which will not change the result the vote of Clinton County is as follows: Palmer, 1228; Pin-chot, 1567; Penrose, 2104; McCormick, 2374; Brumbaugh, 2478; Frazer, 852; Kunkle, 1698; Clark, 836; Trexler, 1748, Congress, Reardon, D., 1536; Stokes, PA, 766; Kless, R., 2145. COLUMBIA

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Nov. 4.-Returns from 18 of the 55 districts in Columbia County give McCormick a lead of a thousand votes over Brumbaugh, and inlicate he will have a plurality of 2500 in he county. Palmer in the same districts has 986 votes. Pinchot 263 and Penrose 257, with the indications that Palmer's pluality will be at least 2000. For Judge of railty will be at least 2000. For Judge of Supreme Court Kunkel in 18 districts has 605 and Frazer 224. For Congress, Lesher has swept the field over Heffner, Pro-gressive, and Robbins, Republican. Sones, for State Senator, has a commanding lead in the county, and Shaffer, Democrat, is winner over Laub, Washington and Republican.

CRAWFORD

MEADVILLE, Pa., Nov. 4.—Nine pre-cincts in Crawford County, not including any in Meadville or Titusville, give Pal-mer, 194; Pinchot, 100; Penrose, 274; Mc-Cormick, 281; Brumbaugh, 298.

CUMBERLAND

CARLISLE, Pa., Nov. 4.—Total Cum-perland precincts show, with slight un-pertainties, between 250 and 300 for Mc-Cormick. Penrose carries county by about 150. Kunkel will beat Frazer by 5000 and Trexler will defeat Clark by over 3000. Kreider, Republican, for Con-gress, carries Cumberland by 7000. Good-year and Shoop, Republicans, elected to Assembly Assembly.
