

Germans Repulsed in North—City to Rush Food Ship to Belgians Penn-Michigan Teams Lock Horns—Princeton Battles Harvard

TEACHING PROPER CARE OF CITY'S YOUNGSTERS
Mothers with babies in their arms flock to Temple University to attend Child Federation clinic.

STEAMSHIP WHICH WILL CARRY FOOD TO STARVING BELGIANS
Philadelphia newspapers have begun campaign to load steamship rapidly, as need is urgent.

From left to right, they are James W. Kline, president of International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and Helpers, and James O'Connell, president of Metal Trades Department and third vice president of American Federation of Labor.

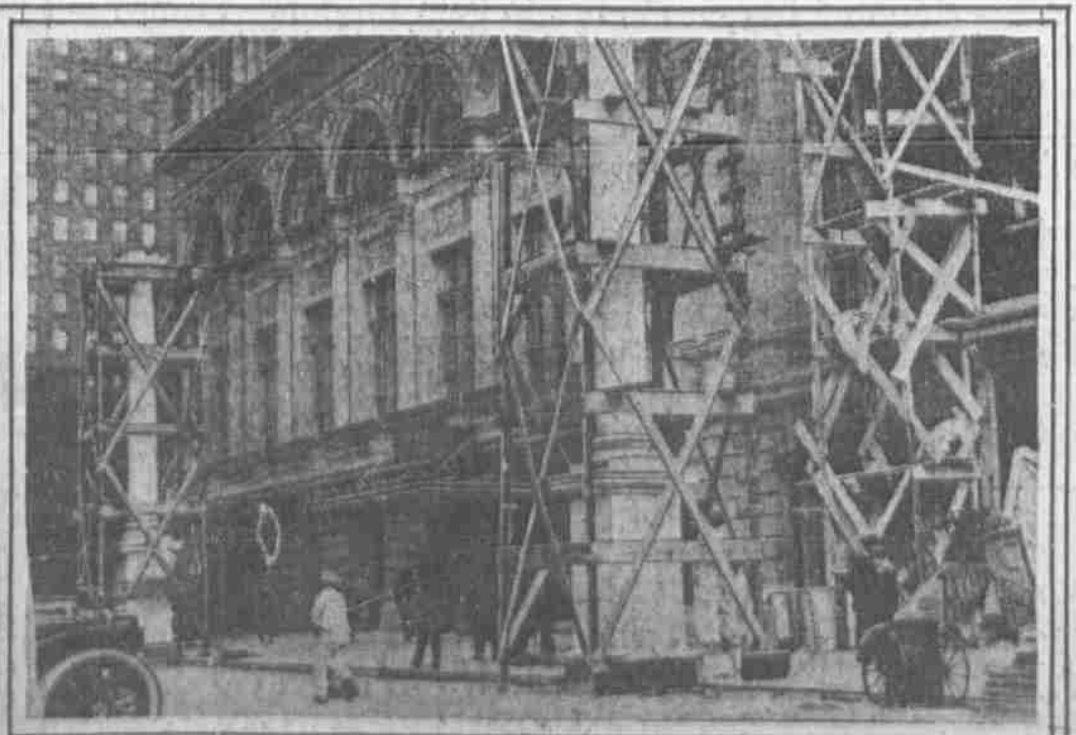

From left to right—Miss Margaret C. Daley, national organizer of United Garment Workers; Miss Mary R. Sullivan, president Local 86, International Brotherhood of Bookbinders; Miss Anna Fitzgerald, president Woman's International Label League.

From left to right—William H. Johnston, president International Association of Machinists, and John W. Tobin, general vice president of International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and Helpers.

SAMUEL GOMPERS—President.
DELEGATES TO A. F. OF L. CONVENTION, WHICH OPENS HERE MONDAY

PREPARING FOR ORGANIZED LABOR PARADE
Court of Honor in process of construction on Broad street.

PLASTER CAST OF LAST OF CENTENNIAL HERD.
Buffalo's hide will be stretched around this, making life-like representation.