

ALLIES HURL BACK FIERCE ASSAULTS ON NORTH LINE

ALLIES REGAIN FRONT FROM THE COAST TO DIXMUDE

PARIS, Nov. 7. It is officially announced that British and French troops have repulsed two attacks of great violence made by the Germans, one to the southwest of Ypres and the other on the La Bassee Canal, directed toward Neuve Chapelle.

The situation along the Yser is described as comparatively calm. The French, it is announced, have occupied Haincourt and Hogeville.

On our left wing comparative calm exists on the Yser River in the vicinity of Dixmude. The Belgian troops who were holding the right bank of the Yser from Neuport to Lombartswijde and were being subjected to a counter attack by the Germans have been reinforced in time to permit them to maintain their position.

FORCES OF CZAR MASS FOR FRESH MOVE ON GALICIA

Russians Turn Attention to Austrians, After Driving Germans in Poland to Frontiers, With Cracow as Objective.

LONDON, Nov. 7. The German army of invasion of Poland has been forced to general retreat after severe losses, both west of the Vistula and on the northern frontier, and the Czars' army is now in a position to resume a vigorous offensive against the Austrians in southwestern Poland and in Galicia, according to official statements from Petrograd.

MASSING AGAINST AUSTRILIANS. The Russians report that, having driven the Germans back to their border in the north and forced their center to retreat from the Vistula to the Warthe River, the Russian General Staff has turned its attention to the Austrians, who have not stubbornly been holding their positions along the San River in Galicia.
