

CLASH IN SUFFRAGE
RANKS OVER CHOICE
OF OFFICIAL HEAD

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw's
Refusal to Stand Aside for
Mrs. Breckenridge Causes
Friction.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 12.—Delegates from the Woman Suffrage Association of the Southern States, which closed its convention yesterday at Cincinnati, today augmented the army of suffragists gathered here for the convention of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association, beginning this afternoon.

The Southern contingent will throw its strength to Mrs. Desha Breckenridge, Lexington, Ky., for the presidency.

The caucus last night was thrown into a clash of factions by the refusal of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw to accept office as president emerita and to permit Mrs. Breckenridge to become president without opposition.

Peace advocates submitted a slate for officers, which, aside from Mrs. Breckenridge for president, called for Miss Katherine B. Davis, New York, and Mrs. William Kent, California, as vice-presidents; Mrs. Stanley McCormick, Chicago, treasurer; Miss Anna Martin, Nevada, corresponding secretary; Dr. Amelia Keller, Indiana, recording secretary; Mrs. Grace Thompson Seton, Connecticut, and Mrs. Nellie Somerville, Greenville, Miss., auditors.

No selection for first vice president was made because Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, Chicago, Illinois president, is being imported to take that office.

Unless early forecasts shall prove fallacious, the battle that will break over the convention when the merits of the two suffrage amendments now before Congress come up for discussion will be the greatest in the history of the organization.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw and the "administration" favor the Shaforth Amendment, submitted to Congress by the National Senator, and providing that the question of ballots for women be submitted to each State by initiative petition.

The Congressional Union, the younger school of suffragists, favors the Bristow-McNold amendment, also known as the "Susan B. Anthony" amendment, providing votes for women by amendment of the Federal Constitution.

The union holds that the Shaforth amendment is complicated and unnecessary.

This is by no means the only question over which the union and the administration disagree. The union frankly urges the defeat of Democratic Congressmen, unless openly for woman suffrage, on the ground that the Democratic party as the party in power, is responsible for the failure of women to obtain the vote.

The administration forces desire to maintain the non-partisan character of the association at all cost and insist that success will crown their efforts entirely without such militant political methods.

A street parade, in which many Southern society leaders will participate, is to be one of the features of this year's convention. Another event will be a luncheon at the Hermitage, the home of Andrew Jackson.

The list of speakers includes Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, international president; Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, and first and second vice president of the National Association; Mrs. Rosetta Schwimmer, of Budapest, secretary of the International Women's Suffrage Alliance; Miss Rose Schneiderman, of the Women's Trade Union League, of New York; Miss Zona Gale, author; Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the Congressional Committee of the National Association; Miss Alice Stone Blackwell, of Boston; Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Ohio; Mrs. Walter McNett Miller, of Missouri; Mrs. Draper Smith, of Nebraska; and Mrs. John Pyle, of South Dakota.

AT THE WILMINGTON CONFERENCE OF THE NATIONAL GRANGE

WM. T. CREASY, MASTER PENN. STATE GRANGE C. B. KEGLEY, MASTER WASHINGTON STATE GRANGE

GRANGE MEMBERS
DIVIDED ON METHOD OF CO-OPERATION

Proposal to Establish Selling
Agencies Arouses Discussion in Which Expert Will Be Asked to Lead.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 12.—That granges in the various States are doing excellent work and that farmers are coming to realize the advantage of this form of organization was the tenor of reports submitted to the National Grange today.

These reports occupied the morning session, having been continued from yesterday.

One of the subjects for discussion at this meeting is co-operation, not only in buying supplies, but also in selling products.

The report of National Master John C. Ketcham, of Hastings, Mich., who is much interested in this method, such an impression was made it was deemed advisable to have an address by an expert on the co-operative plan, and such a speaker will be obtained to make an address before the session is over.

The various features of the report of the National Master will go to appropriate committees for consideration, and recommendations will be made later in the session as to the action deemed advisable.

A portion of the address which is attracting considerable attention concerns good roads. Though the master declared in favor of good roads without national aid, he was of the opinion that such roads ought to be built by the States and local divisions with Government aid, asserting they should be paid for at once rather than issue bonds and make the roads a debt for posterity to pay.

BANCROFT MISSED.
There is general regret that at this session F. C. Bancroft, master of the Delaware State Grange, who had much to do with bringing the grange to Delaware by his meeting, if unable to be present. He has been severely ill with typhoid fever at his home in Wyoming and is just recovering. The grange expressed its regret at his inability to be present and sent a message of sympathy to him.

Forty candidates received the fifth degree last night and there will be a number for the sixth degree this evening. The seventh degree on Friday night will be the big ceremony. This degree will be conferred in the Playhouse.

It is believed there will be 5000 people here tomorrow, which is expected to be the big day of the session.

The hearing of reports from the State granges will take most of the time today, as only a small number of the 31 States having such bodies have so far reported.

One of the most interesting reports so far made was that of B. Frank Klack, master of the Maryland State Grange. That State has been successful in organizing four new granges in the course of the year.

Suffragists today opened a booth in the grange headquarters in the Hotel Du Pont. The Anti-Woman Suffragists already had quarters there, and in order not to show partiality, suffrage advocates were invited to come. It was made plain, however, that the National Grange is not committed either to votes for women or

WM. ARMSTRONG HUNTER KILLED BY DEER

Ontario Man Attacked in Boat by Quarry.

LINDSAY, Ont., Nov. 12.—An unusual hunting accident occurred yesterday at Buck Lake, five miles south of Wilberforce, by which William Hughie, Jr., of that village, lost his life. Hughie had wounded a deer, which turned and attacked him while he was in his canoe, pitching him into the lake.

A companion, who heard his cries for help, swam out to his assistance and brought him ashore alive, but he died soon afterward from the wounds inflicted by the deer and immersion in the icy waters.

SHIELDS STATUE UNVEILED

Missouri Honors Man Who Won Distinction in War and Peace.
CARROLLTON, Mo., Nov. 12.—Missouri today honored the memory of Brigadier General James Shields by unveiling a $10,000 statue to this warrior statesman, who lies buried here.

General Shields holds a unique place in American history, having served as a senator from three States—Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri, after having first served as the first territorial Governor of Oregon. He went into the Mexican War a Brigadier General and was commissioned a Brigadier General at the outbreak of the Civil War. He died June 1, 1875, at Ottumwa, Ia., was buried here and for 30 years his grave was almost forgotten. Two years ago Congress appropriated $100 for a monument and Missouri decided to honor the man who gave the last few years of his services to this State.

Shields began the practice of law at Kaskaskia, Ill., in 1832.

"Drys" Gathering Evidence

COATESVILLE, Pa., Nov. 12.—No-liquor workers who succeeded in making this town "dry" from April, 1913, to April, 1914, have begun to gather evidence to submit to the License Court which will sit in West Chester next March. They aim to show the town during the "dry" spell was better than now. Five licenses were granted here last spring.

STEEL MILLS RESUME

Plants in Pittsburgh District Place Thousands Back at Work.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 12.—Orders were issued yesterday by officials of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, at Monessen, for the firing of four large open hearth furnaces which have been idle for some time. They will resume operations next Monday, and the 400 men employed in the steel company's plant will get five days' work each week instead of less than three, as at present.

The barbed wire department at the plant has been working under pressure for some time due to lack of orders. Last Saturday night and Sunday, this activity is due to large orders from Russia and France.

The Pittsburgh Products Company's plant, near the Pittsburgh Steel Company's mill, is working full time. Two mills which have been shut down for some time due to lack of orders, began operations this morning at the plant of the Carnegie Steel Company, in Homestead.

Twins Born in Two Counties

COATESVILLE, Pa., Nov. 12.—Twins born in two different counties in the novel distinction of Mrs. Matilda Zwahlen, of Parkersburg. A baby boy was born at her home in that place, after which she became ill and was hurried to a hospital in Lancaster, where a second child, a girl, was born.

GREAT CROP OF CRANBERRIES

New Jersey Yield Estimated at 1,000,000 Bushels.
HAMMONTON, N. J., Nov. 12.—The cranberry crop in New Jersey is proving to be a "whopper" this year. Growers in this vicinity declare that 1,000,000 bushels of the berries will have been picked when the harvest now under way is completed. This would mean an increase of 20 per cent. over last year's crop.

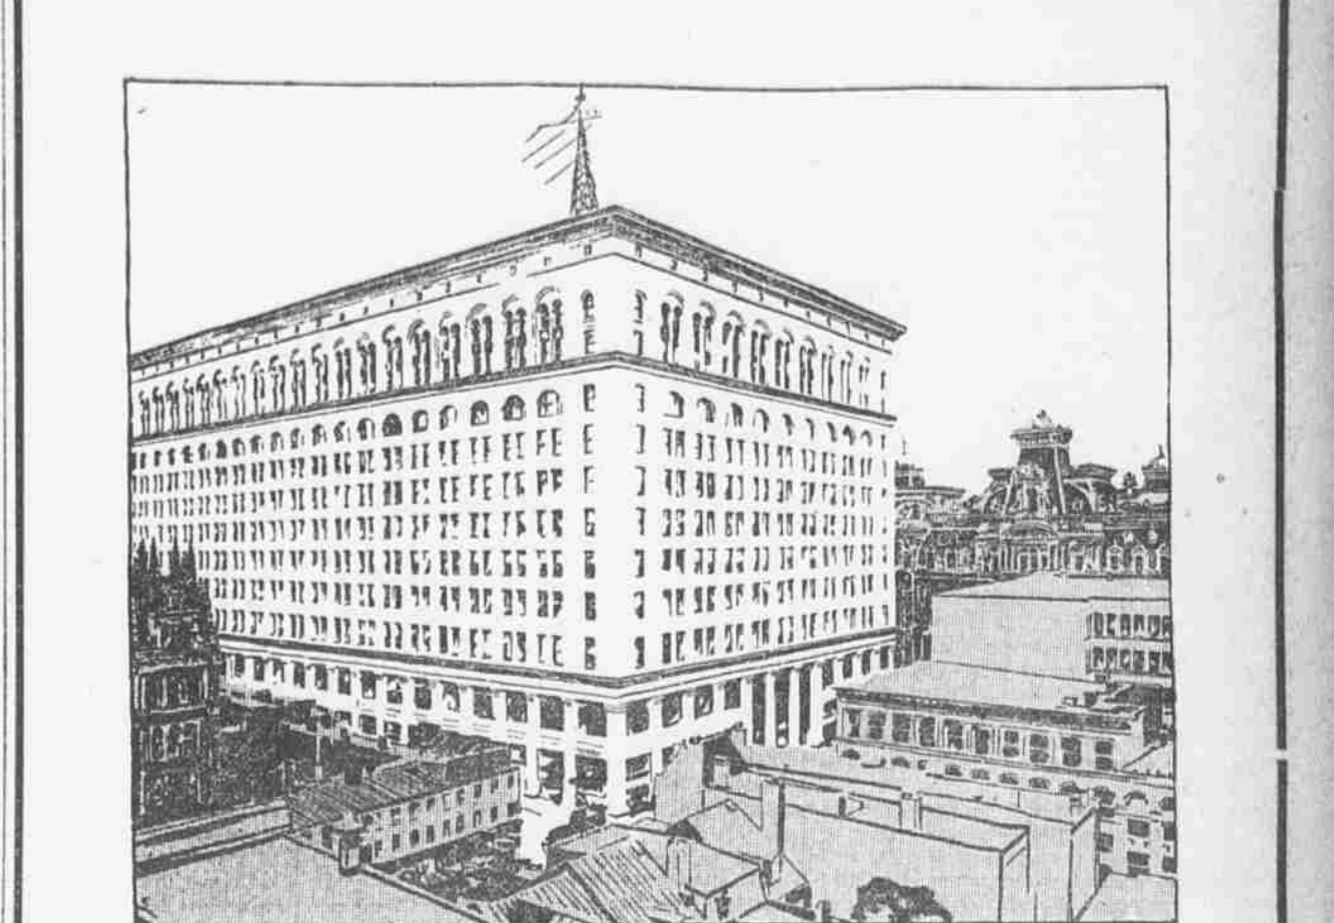

Whether the historic side dish of the Thanksgiving turkey will be cheaper this year has not yet been decided by growers, although indications are the supply will exceed the demand. The present quotation of $1.20 per barrel is 11 cents less than last year's price at this time. However, the berries can be kept in cold storage for four months to draw a post-season profit.

$100 FOR FUGITIVE'S ARREST

Reward Offered for Capture of Man Who Escaped Delaware Workhouse.
WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 12.—It is hoped that the reward of $100 which has been offered for the arrest of Cornelius Street, who escaped from the workhouse on Monday morning, will result in his capture.

A man answering his description was seen in Wilmington early on the morning after the home of Pierre St. du Pont was robbed of clothing. The man stopped in an office which is open all night and asked what time the next train started for Philadelphia.

Store Opens 8:30 A. M. WANAMAKER'S Store Closes 5:30 P. M.

The Grand Organ Plays Tomorrow at 9, 11 and 5:15

WANAMAKER'S
WHOEVER cares for rare things, odd things, things truly old and other things that are accurate reproductions of the old, should save a half hour and spend it in the spacious new Section on the Fifth Floor, Chestnut. Here are Gothic oaken chests and cabinets, full of bursting with lovely brocades and damasks; and embroideries from distant lands. Here are fireplaces of wood delicately carved with fruits and flowers; iron fire-guards and andirons; precious file taces; little carved figures of wood; old Flemish tapestries; curious lamps, vases and garden ornaments.
LARGE SPECIAL SALE tomorrow morning in the Young Women's Store of five hundred fine winter coats and broadcloth suits. The suits are all marked $15 and are high "special" at the price. The coats go from $13.75 to $18.75 and are as remarkable as the suits. Young women will not want to miss this sale.
300 WOMEN'S SUITS and dresses marked at $11.75 will be the feature of the Fashion Salons tomorrow. We think we will be told that they are very wonderful. These suits are well-tailored winter fabrics; the dresses are all pretty afternoon affairs.
BRACELET watches are more than ever in demand by the fair. It may be of sterling silver and as inexpensive as $12.50 or as high as $21.50 for an exquisite little affair, beautifully enameled. Prettiest of all, are the gold bracelet watches many of which have the watches detachable so that they may be worn as a sautoir and, in some cases, there are extra links to the bracelet to allow it to be worn by itself, $25 to $75.
BLANKETS are welcome. Four big boxes just in; ready today at $5 and $6 a pair. These are all very good and hardly to be matched at these prices. Of course there are plenty other blankets here, part cotton or all-wool, as you prefer.
Tomorrow a Special Sale of Cut Glass. Rich—Very Low Priced—Brand New From the Cutting Shops.
FUR STORE now very busy. Though it is generally known, there is no harm in our reminding people that all furs in the Wanamaker Store are true to name. Some very beautiful silky lynx furs are here now in a great variety of neck-pieces. Start at $22.50, and muffs start at $30.
WE WILL HAVE a little sale of men's Chiffoniers at about 25 per cent. less than regular prices, the reason being that they are odd pieces. $46 is the price of a chiffonier 68 inches high, 48 inches wide, with five drawers, closet, mirror and wardrobe. At this price it can be had in either mahogany or golden oak. In Circassian walnut it costs $52. Others going up to $88.

N. Y. TEACHER SUSPENDED

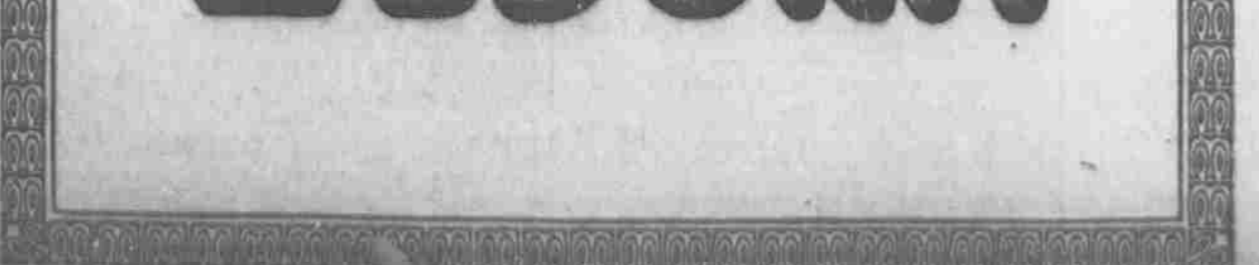

Mother-teachers' Champion Charged With Insubordination.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Henrietta Rodman, who has championed the mother-teachers in their fight against the Board of Education, is to be suspended by Superintendent Maxwell on a charge of insubordination. She is accused of having written to a morning newspaper salarizing the slayer repeat several songs and add others to her program. At the proper point her hearers overwhelmed her almost with offerings of flowers.

Mrs. Rodman's program was devoted almost wholly to German lieder. Her groups were of Schumann, Schubert, Frank, Brahms, Wolfe, Mendelssohn and Grieg.

MISTAKEN AS DEER, KILLED
PORTAGE, Me., Nov. 12.—Mistaken for a deer, Samuel Downing was shot and killed by Homer Sutherland, a 15-year-old boy. Both were hunting at the Sutherland home, unknown to each other. The lad saw something move and, believing it a deer, fired the bullet passing through Downing's lungs.
