

BUSINESS MEN HEAR CAPABLE SPEAKERS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

130 Members of Walnut Street Organization and Their Guests Gather at Bellevue-Stratford.

One hundred and thirty men, members and guests of the Walnut Street Business Association, gathered in the Clover Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel last night to celebrate the seventh anniversary of the founding of that organization.

The banquet room was decorated gaily with great yellow chrysanthemums and palms. The association banner hung on the wall, and several little clusters of American flags gave touches of bright color.

Mayor Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Mayor Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

Major Hocken called attention to the fact that the policy of the city of Toronto is to examine the large cities of the United States and adapt the best features of each to its own needs.

AT THE DINNER OF THE WALNUT STREET BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

PENROSE WORKERS BALK AT INAUGURATION EXPENSES

Opponents of Vares Unwilling to Pay Railroad and Hotel Bills. Republican leaders and workers from all of the wards in Philadelphia except the Vares stronghold will meet at the Republican City Committee today to discuss plans for an all-Philadelphia marching club to attend the inauguration at Harrisburg of Martin G. Brumbaugh as Governor.

FRIENDS DISCUSS LIQUOR

Reports Indicate Increase of Total Abstention. The yearly meeting of the committee on intoxicating liquor of the Friends was held this afternoon at the Friends Meeting House on 12th street below Market.

MRS. LEVER LOSES SUIT

$500 Awarded Man Knocked Down by Her Automobile. It took a jury before Judge Martin today three hours to find a verdict of $500 against Mrs. Mabel Harper Levy, formerly wife of Hollowell Irwin and daughter of the late State Senator Thomas B. Harper.

WIDOW AND EXECUTORS IN FIGHT ABOUT WILL

Probate Protested on Papers Left by C. W. Rustenbach. Protests against the probate of papers purporting to be the will of Charles W. Rustenbach have been filed with the Register of Wills.

OLDRINE CASE SETTLED

Ball Player and Woman Adjust Differences Amicably. After several postponements, the case of "Rube" Oldrine, star left fielder of the Athletics, charged with desertion and non-support, was dismissed by Judge Ryan in the Domestic Relations Court today.

GIRL ACCUSED OF THEFT

Bracelet and Clothing Missed From Home of Former Employer. Mary Ashurst, 18 years old, 214 Bainbridge street, was held in $200 bail for a further hearing today by Magistrate MacFarland on the charge of stealing a bracelet and clothing from her former employer.

BANKERS SO CHEERFUL THEY CRACK JOKES AND EVEN PUNS

See "Summer Time" Ahead and Undaunted in Face of Banquet at $10 per Plate. Who's who in Philadelphia today? The bankers of course. (Mayors are not supposed to read this.) The bankers certainly put it over the Mayor as far as registration quarters are concerned.

WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED

280 Men Already Engaged on City Contracts. Hundreds of men are deserting the ranks of the army of the unemployed to work on the street and road grading and paving contracts which have been awarded by Director Cooke and aggregating $10,000.

JOY RIDERS IN COLLISION: WOMAN HURT, MEN HELD

Camden Police Probing Early Morning Accident on Gloucester Pike. As a result of a collision between an automobile containing joy riders and a farm wagon on the Gloucester pike, near Gloucester toll gate in New Jersey, early this morning, Mrs. Margaret Sigel, 882 North 12th street, this city, is in the Cooper Hospital.

BLANKET MAKERS DISCUSS THREAT TO CLOSE MILLS

Renew Efforts to Gain Support of Other Workers. James Dobson, of the firm of John & James Dobson, threatens to close the Bradford Mills and the branch mill at Armat and Lena streets, Germantown, for the winter, and to apportion the work ordinarily done by these among the other Dobson mills at a result of the weavers' strike in Germantown.

TANGO WITH DUMMIES COST DANCERS $13.50 APIECE

Two Young Men Engage in Expensive Diversion on Street. Two up-State men left Philadelphia today shy $13.50 each because they gave a free demonstration of the tango in his back yard street, using tailor's dummies as dancing partners.

SCOTT FOR CHIEF OF STAFF

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—General Hugh Scott will be named as chief of staff of the War Department on Monday, Secretary of War Garrison announced this afternoon.

BANKER SEES U. S. AS FINANCIAL CENTRE OF WORLD'S TRADE

Convention Speaker Advocates Future Co-operation by Means of International Clearing House. A phase of the banking situation in the United States that spells greater things is the wonderful success our credit system of this country with a minimum of failures, and consequent losses, during the past four months.

HANDLING OF CREDITS SHOWS BANKERS' FAITH IN FUTURE

The development of world commerce in the next century, Mr. Arnold asserted, will be based on co-operation instead of competition, as has been the case in the past. And by precedents already established in the United States, he best fitted to lead the world in such a co-operative movement, he contended.

WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED

280 Men Already Engaged on City Contracts. Hundreds of men are deserting the ranks of the army of the unemployed to work on the street and road grading and paving contracts which have been awarded by Director Cooke and aggregating $10,000.

JOY RIDERS IN COLLISION: WOMAN HURT, MEN HELD

Camden Police Probing Early Morning Accident on Gloucester Pike. As a result of a collision between an automobile containing joy riders and a farm wagon on the Gloucester pike, near Gloucester toll gate in New Jersey, early this morning, Mrs. Margaret Sigel, 882 North 12th street, this city, is in the Cooper Hospital.

BLANKET MAKERS DISCUSS THREAT TO CLOSE MILLS

Renew Efforts to Gain Support of Other Workers. James Dobson, of the firm of John & James Dobson, threatens to close the Bradford Mills and the branch mill at Armat and Lena streets, Germantown, for the winter, and to apportion the work ordinarily done by these among the other Dobson mills at a result of the weavers' strike in Germantown.

TANGO WITH DUMMIES COST DANCERS $13.50 APIECE

Two Young Men Engage in Expensive Diversion on Street. Two up-State men left Philadelphia today shy $13.50 each because they gave a free demonstration of the tango in his back yard street, using tailor's dummies as dancing partners.

SCOTT FOR CHIEF OF STAFF

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—General Hugh Scott will be named as chief of staff of the War Department on Monday, Secretary of War Garrison announced this afternoon.

CATTLE QUARANTINE SENDS FOOD PRICES KITING IN STATE

Butter, Eggs and Meat Start Climb, Though Delaware Case Is Only New Outbreak Reported Today. The effect of the Federal and State quarantines on livestock and its products was felt today to a greater degree than before.

WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED

280 Men Already Engaged on City Contracts. Hundreds of men are deserting the ranks of the army of the unemployed to work on the street and road grading and paving contracts which have been awarded by Director Cooke and aggregating $10,000.

JOY RIDERS IN COLLISION: WOMAN HURT, MEN HELD

Camden Police Probing Early Morning Accident on Gloucester Pike. As a result of a collision between an automobile containing joy riders and a farm wagon on the Gloucester pike, near Gloucester toll gate in New Jersey, early this morning, Mrs. Margaret Sigel, 882 North 12th street, this city, is in the Cooper Hospital.

BLANKET MAKERS DISCUSS THREAT TO CLOSE MILLS

Renew Efforts to Gain Support of Other Workers. James Dobson, of the firm of John & James Dobson, threatens to close the Bradford Mills and the branch mill at Armat and Lena streets, Germantown, for the winter, and to apportion the work ordinarily done by these among the other Dobson mills at a result of the weavers' strike in Germantown.

TANGO WITH DUMMIES COST DANCERS $13.50 APIECE

Two Young Men Engage in Expensive Diversion on Street. Two up-State men left Philadelphia today shy $13.50 each because they gave a free demonstration of the tango in his back yard street, using tailor's dummies as dancing partners.

SCOTT FOR CHIEF OF STAFF

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—General Hugh Scott will be named as chief of staff of the War Department on Monday, Secretary of War Garrison announced this afternoon.

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast. WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—For eastern Pennsylvania—Rain tonight, colder in north portion; Saturday fair and colder; fresh southwest to south winds.

Table with weather forecasts for various locations including Philadelphia, New York, and other cities. Columns include location, time, and weather conditions.