

NIGHT EXTRA

Evening Ledger

NIGHT EXTRA

VOL. I—NO. 54

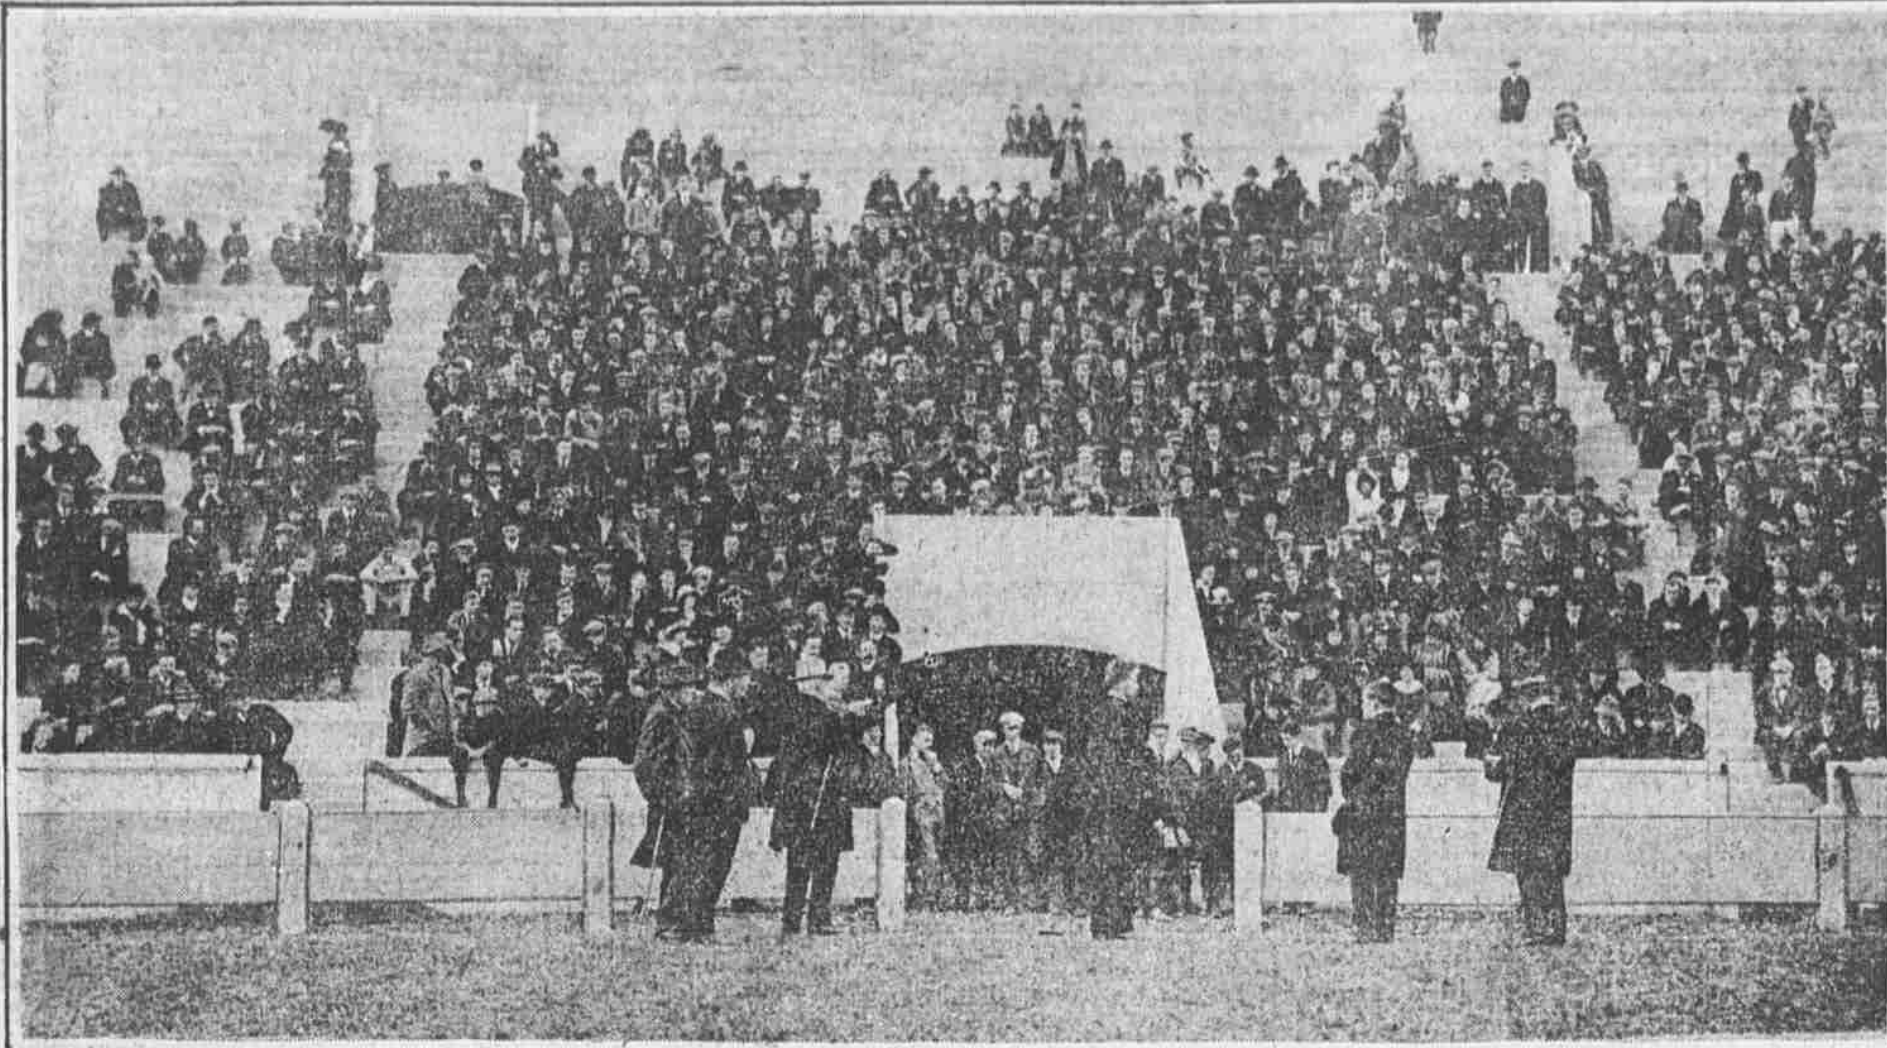

PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1914.

COPYRIGHT, 1914, BY THE PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY.

PRICE ONE CENT

Turks March on Russia—Penn-Dartmouth in Football Battle Anthrax Kills Woman—Keating Alive—Tigers Entertain Yale

NEWS OF THE DAY AS REPORTED BY THE CAMERA

PRESIDENT HIBBEN ADDRESSING PRINCETON STUDENTS IN THE NEW STADIUM

Edgar Palmer, of the Class of 1903, donor of the new stadium, and Dr. Hibben addressed 2000 Princeton men at the field yesterday. They predicted victory for the Tigers in the contest with Yale today, and the ceremony was in the nature of a dedication of the field to its first big game.

DEAN McCLENAHAN, EDGAR PALMER AND DOCTOR HIBBEN

They are shown standing in midfield, surveying the scene of the Yale-Princeton battle today, while Princeton students, seated in the amphitheatre, are trying out new songs and cheers.

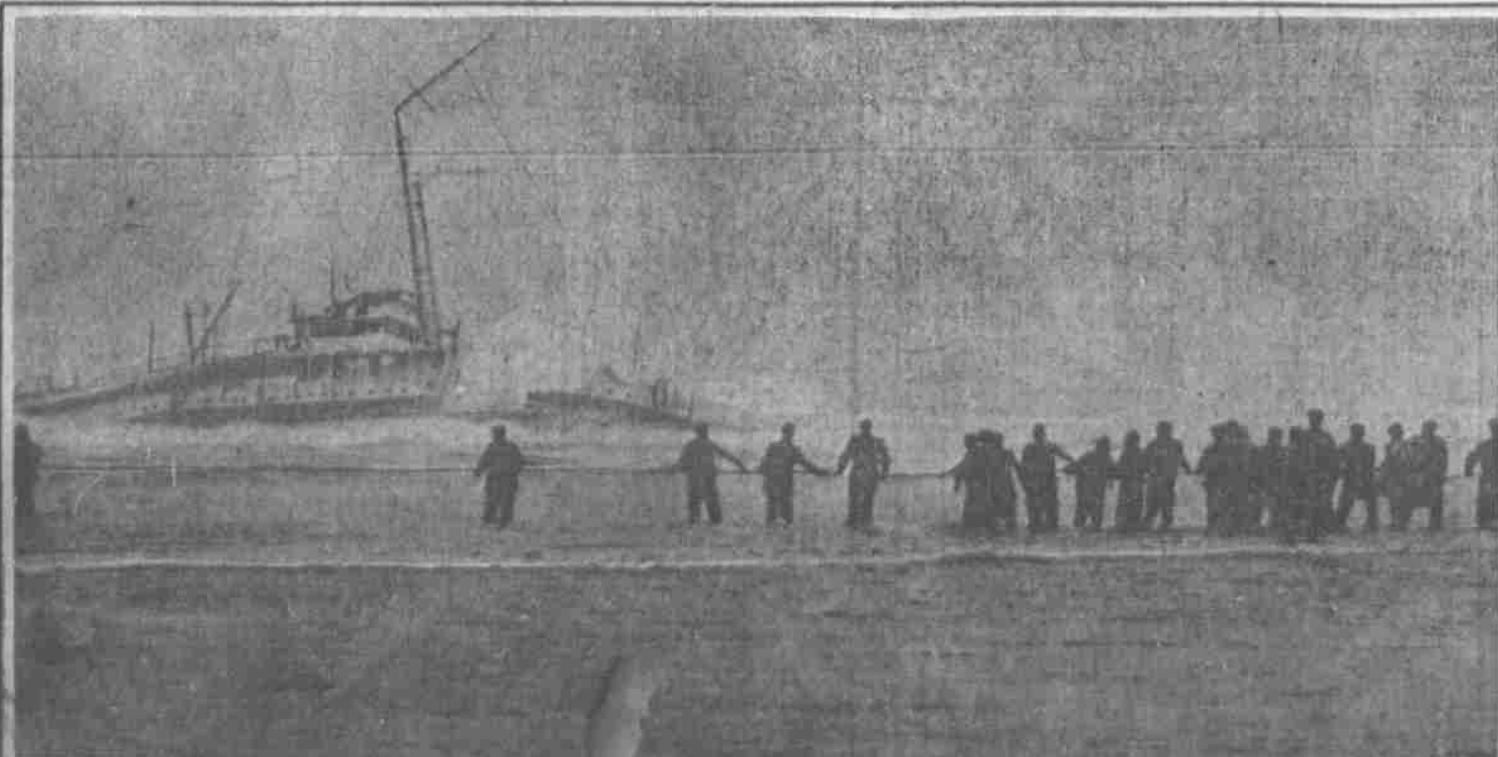

FIGHTING A FOREST FIRE IN WEST PHILADELPHIA

Firemen at 60th street and Lancaster avenue pulling down a blazing tree to stop the progress of the flames. The long drought has caused many forest fires in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, and the fire in West Philadelphia yesterday was a miniature example of the general condition.

DELUGING THE EMBERS IN CITY FOREST FIRE

Firemen soon stopped a blaze at 60th street and Lancaster avenue yesterday afternoon, which for a time threatened to spread to buildings.

BRITISH HOSPITAL SHIP ON THE ROCKS

The wreck of the British hospital ship Rohilla, breaking up on the rocks off Whitby, England, early in November.

BIGGEST BOOK IN THE WORLD IN THE LABOR PARADE

This blank book, borne on the float of the Brotherhood of Bookbinders, Local No. 181, is eight feet long, six feet wide and two feet thick. It is shown being drawn through the Court of Honor on Broad street last night.