EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1914.

SOCIETY

AND MRS. WARREN FOWERS M LAIRD, of Merion, have issued invitations for a dinner dance at the Acorn Club, to be given after the toa at which they will present their daughter, Miss Mary Hall Laird, Wednesday, November 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Megear, of Haverford, are spending the winter at the Windermere.

invitations have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Dimond, of Rydal, for a dance at the Bellevue-Stratford, on Friday evening, December 18, at 8 o'clock, in honor of their daughter, Miss Henrietta Dimond, who is at present at school at Farmington, Conn. There will be about 59 guests present.

Mrs. Samuel W. Haines, of 315 South 15th street, was the guest of her niece. Miss Estelle S. Haines, of Madison avenue, New York, ever the week-end.

With mid-November here and Thanksgiving week close upon us, the whirl of galety for the debutante is even increasing. Monday will open with a large tea to introduce Miss Susan B. Ingersoll, daughter of Mr. and Mra. Charles Edward Ingersoll, at their home, 1815 Walnut street, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paul Bally, of Ardmore, will give a dance for their niece, Mizz Molly Wood Baily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winter Baily.

On Tuesday Miss Charlotte Fahnestock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fahnestock, of 237 East Rittenhouse square, will make her bow to society at a the dansant at her parents' home. That evening Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fitler will give a theatre party and supper at the Bellevue-Stratford for Miss Margaret Fitler, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Beale will entertain at dinner at the Rabbit, in honor of their daughter, Miss Hope Truxtun Beale.

Miss Elsa Reath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Reath, will be introduced at a tea on Wednesday, which will be given by her parents at 1538 Pine street. A matinee party followed by tea will be given for Miss Eleanore Bispham by her aunts, the Misses Rispham, and Miss Isabel Wurts Page will be guest of honor at a theatre party and tea, which will be given by Mrs. Joseph J. Brown, Jr., and Mrs. William Wurts Harmar. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chauncey Savage will give a dance for their daughter, Miss Marion Eyre Savage.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. George Burton will present Miss Margaret Handy Burton at a tea at the Bellevue-Stratford, Miss Sarah Beecher Finck will also be presented at a tea at her home, 1120 Girard street. Miss Finck will be given a second reception on Friday; Miss Margaret Chrystie will give a luncheon for Miss Margaret Montgomery Thursday, and in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Elliston Perot Bissell will give a theatre party, followed by supper at the Bellevue-Stratford, for their nieces, Miss Mary Stuart Wurts and Miss Hilda Tunis. There will be two dances in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. George Dickle Ogden will give a dinner-dance for Miss Hansell French Earle. and Miss Katharine Zimmerman Ogden, and Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Jr., of the Gladstone, will give a dance at the Sedgley Club in honor of Miss Dorothy Foltz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Clinton Foltz, of Chestnut Hill.

CARDEN

Photo by Jones Yardumian MISS CORDELIA BIDDLE

Miss Biddle, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drexel Biddle, will be the guest of honor at a dance which Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury will give on December 22.

May Campbell, Miss Marie Cladd, Miss Eva Cladd, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. John O'Connell, Mrs. Robert Beatty, Mrs. Clayton Dingee, Mrs. C. Crombarger, Mrs. Clayton Stills, Mrs. Oscar Schmidt, Mrs. Mary Evans, Mrs. Hugh Larrick, Mrs. F. Benezet and Mrs. William F. Baker.

Miss Jessie Bonsal, of Old York road, Oak Lane, will give a luncheon and "500" party temomrow for the Alpha Nu Sorority of the William Penn High School. Autumn foliage and chrysantheinums will form the decorations, and her guests will be Miss Ruth Leas, Miss Laura Smith, Miss Marion Stout, Mrs. James Hindle, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Anna Du Gan, Miss Iva Du Gan. Miss Rebecca Cousart, Miss Inez Cartledge, Miss Ellen Ovington and Miss Grace Ovington.

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Robert Morey, of 257 South 38th street, entertained the West Philadelphia Bridge Club vesterday afternoon. The guests included Mrs. James W. Davis, Mrs. F. H. Burkart, Mrs. M. D. Duncan, Mrs. Frederick Righter, Mrs. Albert Tarlo, Mrs. W. Z. Zimmerman, Mrs. Emerson

MISS ELIZABETH THOMPSON Miss Thompson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Beaton Thompson. She will make her debut at a tea which will be given by her parents December 12.

SOCIETY AT FOOTBALL

Many Will Attend the Annual Yale-Princeton Game at Princeton.

All roads lead to Princeton today, as the hale-Princeton game is drawing many devotces of the gridiron to that little seat of learning in New Jersey, and innumerable motor parties have been organized for the afternoon. Happy are the little debutantes who have been fortrinate enough to be included in the parties. Mr. and Mrs. Ferree Brinton are taking a number of young people to the game, in addition to their debutante daughters, Miss Caroline Ives Brinton and Miss Anna Binney Brinton. Their guests will motor up for the afternoon and later return to Windybrow, the Brinton home at St. David's, where an informal dinner-dance will be given. Among those who will go will be Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Kate Furness Jayne, Miss Marjorie Paul Morris, Miss Helena Robinson, Joseph H. Dulles, Sydney E. Morris, Robert Cornish, Heyward Peck Edward Kneass and Samuel Wagner, Jr.

Another group of debutantes will be entertained by Mrs. Robert W. Downing, who will motor up with her daughter, Miss Robert B. Downing; Miss Huberta Potter, Miss Mae Patterson, G. Rowland Scrgeant, Walter Fotterall, Norman Dunning and Joseph M. Patterson, 20. In the evening they will attend a theatre party.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson Freeman, who are giving a week-end house party, will take their guests to the game, returning to the city for the evening.

Miss Catharine Cassard, who has as her guest Miss Adeline Hotchkiss, of Rye, N. Y., will also attend the game with a party of friends. Among others who will go up will be Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tevis Huhn, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Hirst, Mrs. William Roberts II. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Corkran, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker Wear, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, Jr., Mrs. J. Nelson Purviance, Mr. and Mrs. William Wurts Harmar, Harry C. Yarrow, Miss Elizabeth Wister, Alfied Scull Reeves, Miss Kathryn P. Jones and B. Warren Corkran.

DEBUTANTE AFFAIRS Miss Isobel Milne Rodgers Will Be Introduced Today at Dansant.

Mrs. L. Willard Rodgers, of 2403 Spruce street, will present her daughter, diss Isobel Milne Rodgers, at a large dansant this afternoon at the Theatre Helene in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Shelton, 230 South 21st street, from 4 until 7 o'clock. The beautiful little theatre is handsomely decorated with palms and great ferns and the very many baskets and bouquets received by Miss Rodgers, Those who will receive with Mrs. Rodgers will be Mrs. Frederick Hart Shelton, Mrs. William W. Porter, Mrs. Davidson Kennedy, Mrs. L. Webster Fox, Mrs. Joseph Leidy, Mrs. Henry Bartol Brazier and Mrs. Ellis Jackson. The former buds will be Miss Mary W. Colket, Miss Isabel A. Graff, Miss Katharine Holden, Miss Margaret Milne, Miss Winifred O. Clarke and Miss Louise Rodgers. Among the debutantes who will receive with Miss Rodgers will be Miss Dorothea Oberteuffer, Miss Mary E. Clayton, Miss Hope B. McMichael, Miss Elizabeth C. Yardley, Miss Katharine Tenney, Miss Jean Morris Lillie, Miss Eleanor B. Watt, Miss Edith Harrold Gillingham, Miss Kate Furness Jayne, Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Ethel Hastings, Mics Mildred Willard, Miss Dorothy De H. Deucon, Miss Eleanor Bispham, Miss Lucia A. Warden, Miss Mary Hall Laird and Miss Rosalind Ewing, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stockley entertained last evening at a bridge party at their home, 1812 South Broad street. Supper for twelve was served after the game. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George McLaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rowand, Dr. and Mrs. William E. Weit,

GOWNS

JACK FROST'S coming was beralded this week and his much wind, nipped the tip of even milady's nose as she braved the first cold days, knowing full well that a walk in the cold air would bring the color more deeply into her cheeks and the sparkle to her eyes. For whore are the frail buds of vester-year? In their place one sees healthy, hearty, breezy young women, who would scorn fainting, let alone be heartily ashamed of shrinking from said Jack Frost. If the popularity of furs were an indication of a severe whiter, we could expect zero weather, for seldom has so much fur been seen in use for all occasions as stoles on suits and trimming afternoon and even some evening gowns, although for the latter it is not as popular as it was several years ago.

Mrs. Charles B. Wright, who has returned to her native city as stunning as ever, was noticed dancing at the Drexcl-Biddle tea, wearing a superb gown of tete de negre allk, which was topped with one of the new wide flaring tunics of embroidered net edged with wide bandings of skunk for. The gown was made with a very wide girdie of satin. Mrs. Wright's hat was a quite large model of black fallle, and it was trimmed with farge black and white offrich feathers.

Mrs. William Coleman Freeman has selected a stunning gown of fawn-colored broadcloth and embroldered net. The long tunic reaches almost to the edge of the narrow skirt, and is edged with fur. The open neck of the gown is finished with a Medici collar of shadow lace. With this costume Mrs. Freeman wears a small black velvet chapcau, which is devoid of trimming and is cocked slightly at one side of the head.

One of last year's debutantes is Miss Frances Watts, whose return to this country for the winter was the cause of much rejoicing by her many friends, even though her reason for doing so was most regrettable. Miss Watts was shopping one day last week wearing a smart talliour of sage-green cheviot, with a short belted jacket devoid of trimming but for the high-standing collar and the cuffs, which were of skunk fur. With this was worn a black hat flaring at the side. Another bud of last season. Miss Phoebe Adams, is wearing a walking suit of navy-blue serge, topped by a small close-fitting hat of black velvet, worn tilted to one side. A brilliant color note is added by the cerise Angora muffler. Mrs. B. Dobson Altenus is wearing a stunning street costume of black. The skirt has a narrow underskirt of velvet, which shows a few inches below a Russian tunic of black broadcloth. Black velvet forms the unusual and striking coat, which has epaulottes and a girdle of jet bugles about two inclus wide. There is a standing collar of velvet edged with fur, a style which Mrs. Altenus invariably affects. Her hat is a close fitting one of velvet, the crown being pointed from back to front and trimmed with a jet ornament.

A charming afternoon frock of Allee blue is being worn by Mrs. Henry Paul Brown, who before her recent marriage was Miss Edith Houston. The skirt, which is made on plain lines, is topped by a bodice of chiffon of the same shade of blue, and with the gown Mrs. Brown wears a large black velvet picture hat, the sole trimming being a single huge pink 计心理论 Miss Coarlotte Harding Brown, who is one of the most popular of this year's debutantes, was receiving at the Harding ten Tuesday in the quaintest gown, which gave her the appearance of having stepped from a picture frame. The trock was of white silk, and the overskirt was fushioned of a succession of rather narrow ruffies of net, which were edged with narrow dark red velvet ribbon. The bodice was the conventional square-necked effect with the wide girdle. The red on the gown was particularly becoming to Miss Brown, who is of a brunette

PASSED BY THE CENSOR

* 5

TT HAPPENED in a certain local court. A man was on trial for theft. His inwger marshaled every fact (and some not facts) in his client's behalf. Then he addressed the jury. With a quaver in his voice and moist. TT eyes he pleaded with the 12 good men and Icue to send the prisoner home to his trusting wife and five small children. He recounted the fittle home in West Philadelphia, with its preverbial front porch; its vine-clad back yard; is happiness, about to be wrecked if the gentiemen of the jury did not find for the defendant.

The jury retired and then brought in a verdict of not guilty.

"Nobody else on earth could have done that," exclaimed the acquitted man with deep feeling as he wrung the lawyer's hand well nigh off. "And I'm not married at that!"

THES Hohenzollerns are represented on this side of the Atlantic by a gigantic, redhaired man, brilliantly educated-a gentleman to his fingertips and-a reporter on a German. daily in New York city. He is the son of Emperor Frederick, who reigned for a few months, the mother being a gardener's daughter. According to the story, and the man never speaks of his antecedents, the future; Emperor met the girl, fell in love, but did not marry her. And their son came to this country to fight the battle of life for himself. Far years he has worked on, disdaining the aid effered by his half-brother, the Kaiser,

He is not the only near-scion of royalty, for somewhere in this world, probably in their old home in London, live the two daughters of Napoleon III-the love issue of the Emperor and an English governess.

NAPOLEON was a queer mixture of the most of his conceptions, he yet rose to true majesty in others. Orsini had attempted his life-many had died in the attack on the Frenchruler, and Orsini had been sentenced to death. The day after his death Napoleon sent Oralni's two young daughters to school in England . and paid for their maintenance and education out of his private purse.

THAT has become of the splendid New-Wfoundland dog of other days? Intelligent, brave, handsome, it seems to have disappeared from the haunts of men. Only the other day, Alan Cunningham, well-known in IL the journalistic world, returned from Newfoundland, bringing with him a really beautiful puppy of that breed. Its silky hair, almost human eyes and evidence of intelligence make it an exceptionally lovable pet, and Mr. Cunningham is perchance justly proud of his pos-

MISS GRACE GRAY, who takes the public sure. of the Little Theatre are concerned, being its publicity representative--which sounds better than press agent-has made the interesting announcement that Mrs. Jay's enterprise has reached the self-supporting stage.

It is Mra. Jay's present intention to continue the production of standard plays until after the new year, when she will launch upon the hazardous enterprise of producing new plays by American authora, Just now, she and Mian Gray are using their waking moments in reading manuscripts-hundreds of them literally. The pile is being reduced gradually, and already they believe that they have found two or three worthy of production.

THE news that John D. Bockefeller, grown I tired of the beauties of his Pocantico Hills eatate, is yearning to return to Cleveland-provided that he can come to an agreement with. the assessors about that $12,000,000 tax, calls attention to a couple of other rich men who, seldom, if ever, get into the news. One of these is Zenjiro Yasuda, of Tokio, Japan, worth $30.-600,000. Born the son of a gardener, Zenjido worked at copying books at 1 cent a day for seven years that he might get a primary education. For another seven years he was an apprentice in a toy shop. Then he went into the grocery business, lending money between meals. Now he is a banker and considered Japan's greatest financier. The other unknown is J. B. Robinson, of South Africa. In days gone by wondrous tales were woven about the gold and diamond kings of South Africa, and some were even true, Alfred Beit must have made between three and four hunored million dollars in promoting mining companies. Cecil Rhodea accumulated millions; Barney Barnato lost them; and J. B. Robinson made his hundreds of millions in cattle and sheep raising, building operations and only incidentally in mining Ventures. As a b matter of fact, he is probably the richest man in the Cape of Good Hope, for cows and steers and sheep do not deteriorate because a railroad parses a dividend.

Friday afternoon Miss Hansell French Earle. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earle, will be introduced at a tea at the Acorn Club, and Mrs. Joseph B, Dillingham, of 2206 Walnut street, will present her granddaughter, Miss Alice Atlee, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis W. Atlee, at her home. In the evening Mrs. Percy C. Madeira will give a dinner for Miss Marie Louise Wanamaker and Miss Mary Brown Warburton before the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Warburton will give at Lindenhurst for Miss Wanamaker

Miss Anna Mary Walthour's presentation will take place on Saturday afternoon at a tea which will be given by her mother at 1814 Da Lancey place. In the evening Miss May Brinton will be honor guest at a theatre party and supper, which will be given by her father, Binney Brinton, and Dr. Frank D. Dickson will give a dinner, to be followed by dancing, in honor of his niece, Miss Roberta B. Downing.

Miss Emma Walton, of 135 South 18th street, will entertain at luncheon Tuesday, November 25, in honor of Miss Marguerite Hollopeter, of Merion, whose engagement to A. Morris Herkness, of Wyncote, was recently announced.

Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Woods and their famfly, of 1307 South Broad street, have returned from their stay in Atlantic City, and will continue their Tuesday evening conversations as usual. The subject of conversation for the coming Tuesday will be Dr. Samuel Johnson.

The Misses Williamson are now occupying their apartments at The Burlington, after an extensive trip in Europe.

Owing to the death of a relative. Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Jr., will not receive at the dance. Doctor and Mrs. Folts will receive the guests.

Edward D. Toland left on Thursday for Great River, L. L. where he will be the guest of Julian T. Davies over the week-end.

GERMANTOWN

u#

Miss Helen Buehler, of 314 Hansberry street, will return to her home today from a motoring trip with friends to Atlantic City, N. J.

Daniel Davis left Thursday for Chicago, Ill., to be gone until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Williams have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Atwater Kent, of Rosemont.

Miss Marie Rose will spend the week-end in New York.

Captain B. B. Biarer, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bierer, 'accompanied by Naval Constructor Edward Kintner, U. S. N., and Mrs. Kininer, motored to Princeton to attend the Yale-Prince-193 gums today.

ALONG THE READING

Mrs. Leighton Cramer entertained her bridge club at cards this afternoon at her home in Malrose Park. The game was followed by a buffet luncheon. Her guests were Miss Charlotte Brennocks, Miss Gertrude Hichens, Mrs. David Archithald, Miss Caroline Brunar, Mrs. Lanuard R. Weitzel, Miss Minshoth Clark, Miss Sausser, Mrs. M. E. Gleim, Mrs. R. E. Stonehach, Mrs. M. W. Nichols and Mrs. Phillip Adams.

Miss Mary Murphy and Miss Margaret Murphy entertained last evening at their home, 4309 Westminster avenue, at a suchre party, Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. McElwaine, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Graeff, Mr. and Mrs. William Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ludwig, Miss Catherine O'Riordon, Miss Agnes O'Riordon, Misa Anna O'Donnell, Miss Lillian Page, Miss Catherine Page, Miss Margaret Murphy, Miss Catherine Dealy, Miss M. A. Baker, Miss Nan Meehan, Miss Anna Smith, Miss Marie Lopez, Miss Helen Kellerher, Mrs. William Bogan, Miss Sephan Fenn, Miss Helen Fenn, Dr. William H. Long, Frank McDonnel, Luke Foley, John Nolen, Joseph Leithgow, William Kerns, John Conboy, John Dealey, Harold Smith, James Fallon, and Mr. and Mrs. George Ruhlback.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Williams, of 5043 Walnut street, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elsie Miller Williams, and Frank Freeman Davenport, of Pomfret, Conn., on Tuesday, November 34, at their home.

Mrs. Henry Van Antwerpt, of New York, is the guest of the Misses Triller at their home, 6107 Hazel avenue.

Miss Hattie Osborn, who recently returned to this country after a number of years spent in China, spent a short time this week with the Misses Triller, and is now at her home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

LANSDOWNE

Miss Agnes Ryan, of La Crosse avenue, is visiting Mrs. J. McCrudden, of Harvey avenue, Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mingy have returned from Chelsea, and have taken up their residence on East Fairview avenue.

Mrs. John G. Roberts, Mrs. J. P. Whitehorn and Mrs. Paul Lachenmyer were among those who helped serve luncheon at the suffrage headquarters in Media this week.

Mrs. Clauche A. Simpler has returned to her residence, 215 North Lansdowne, from a visit to New York.

The dance of the Pi Sigma Fraternity will be hald in the Twantieth Century Club tonight. The members are Louis McLean, Cook Mc-Lean, Eugene Baker, Paul Wright, Lewin Courter, Charles Powell, Archie Dunlap, Herbert Matsinger, E. Rush Fachier, Jr., and Craig Greiner.

WILMINGTON

Mine Ethel Tallman has gone to New York city to spend the winter studying music.

Miss Edith Tener, of Sewickley, Pu., has been spending a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Miller.

Mrs. George A. Elflott's dancing class, which ments Friday nights, is one of the delightful nocial guitherings of this season. The class is instructed by Walter Jarvis, of Philadelphia.

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Class of 1911, Notre Dame Centre of the Catholic Girls' High School, held a reunion at the home of Miss Marcella Morrow, 1234 North 18th street. Those present, who included all the members of the class except two, were Miss Helen Brown, Miss Margaret Catroll, Mrs. George Hughes, Miss Ross Farley, Miss Helen R. Gorman, Miss Anna Hinch, Miss Grace Mc-Lain, Miss Florence O'Hara, Miss Marie Ounan, Miss Margaret Sanders, Miss Alice Waldon and Miss Emma Farley.

Mrs. William Alexander, of 1129 Rockland street, entertained the members of the "Fortnightly Club" yesterday afternoon at a delightful luncheon. Covers were laid for twelve, Her guests were Mrs. Thomas Poole, Mrs. Thomas Jackson, Mrs. James Costello, Mrs. Morris Peterman, Mrs. Melnotte Schrufer, Mrs. Frank Gimbel, Mrs. Robert Kinkalde, Mrs. Fred Kreds, Mrs. Frank Kilgore, Mrs. George Lord and Mrs. Paul Huyette. The "Fortnightly Card Club" meets every other Friday afternoon at the home of a different member.

Miss Marie Tiedeken, of 1838 Ingersoll street, spent the week-end visiting friends in Riverside.

TIOGA

The marriage of Miss Bernadine Uphon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Uphoff, of 2649 York road, and Frank J. McCarron will take place on Tuesday, November 34, in St. Stephen's Catholic Church, Broad and Butler streets. Miss Uphoff has selected Miss Anna C. Kelly for mald of honor, and Mr. McCarron will have his brother, John McCarron, for best man

Miss Mae Hoffman, of 2812 North Broad street, will entertain her bridge club next Wednesday night. Her guests will be Miss Anna Wade, Miss Helen Murray, Miss Ida Elchman, Miss Lucy Eichman, Miss Ethel Steigerwalt, Miss Grace Wade and Miss Helen Magen.

KENSINGTON

An attractive entertainment was given last evening at Beil's Hall under the suspices of the members of the East Baptist Church. A. minstrel show, entitled "A Night On the Plantation," was very well given and afforded great pleasure to those who attended. Following this was a sketch entitled "A Bowery Night School," which also was well acted. The affair proved a great success, and many more of its kind will be given during the winter.

Mrs. Carris Smith, of 417 East Girard avenue, will give a card party on Tuesday evening. November 17. Among those who will attend will be Mr. and Mrs. L. Jonaton, of Oak Lane; Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Mr. Parcell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cotton and J. E. Gegenheimer,

The Bibis Institute masting of the East Baptist Church will be hold on Tuceday evening. November II.

and Mrs. Jules Class and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McMorris,

Miss Margaret Mooney will entertain the members of her "500" club on Monday evening at her home, 2337 St. Albans Place. Her guests will be Miss Ella McDonald, Miss Clara Cooke, Miss Loretto Cooke, Miss Margaret Hunter, Miss Margaret Hannigan, Miss Florence Blach. Miss Mabel McCoach, Miss Mary Mooney and Muss Viola Minter.

Many prominent women are interested in the hazaar to be held on Wednesday next for the benefit of the Home for Poor Children at Doylestown. Many beautiful hand-made articles will be on sale, and prudent Christmas shoppers, who are eager for unusual and dainty gifts, would do well to visit the bazaar. The cause is a most worthy one. Among the women interested are Mrs. Edwin H. Vare, Mrs. Albert Slegel, Mrs. Lewis Slegel, Miss Sarah Kolb, Miss Kolb and Mrs. Rust. The sale will be held at 1414 Arch street.

ROXBOROUGH

Miss Anna E. Fussell, of 421 Lyceum avenue, and Miss Alma Bromley, of Wissahickon, have organized a children's dancing class, which will meet on Friday afternoons at Woodvale, the clubhouse of the American Bridge Company. The class, which is composed of children from the prominent families of Roxborough and Wisschickon, includes Mary Alburger, Betty and George Bowker, Thomas Boone, Adaline Bins, Marian Birkmire, Catharine Cox, Bertha, Adolph and Marie Christensen, Francis Castleman, Richard and John Entwiste, Isabel and John Foulkrod, Isabel Fussell, Lavalette Gane. Helen and Robert Haig, Elizabeth Hardman, Francis Hulsey, Paul Kenworthy, John Kenworthy, Dorothy Keely, Constance Keely, Sarah Lindsay, Mary Long, Katharine and Eleanor Littlewood, Elizabeth Littleword, Dorothy Layton, Ruth and Charlotte Merris, Clifford Milner, Elizabeth Redman, Lydia Scott, Elizabeth Simpson, Alice Springer, Margaret Stafford, Vera Weber and Robert and Anna Yahn.

A wedding of much interest to Frankford and vicinity will be that of Miss Catherine Cecilia Deni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deni, to Mr. Conrad E. Bock, Jr., November

The ceremony will be performed at the home of Miss Deni's parents, 1906 Unity street, at 4 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception at Peiner's Hall, Orthodox and Cambridge streets, at 6 o'clock.

After their return from an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bock will realds at 5722 Vandyke street, Wissinoming.

CAMDEN AND VICINITY

The engagement of Miss Sarah Hudson, of 6th and State streets, and Mr. W. C. Pellock, of Philadelphia, has been announced, the marriage to take place in February.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ake, of 3d and Penn atreats, will leave the latter part of this month for Florida, where they have taken a furnished house for the sesson. Mizs Helsn Akp will remain with her sister in North Philadelphis for the winter.

Gray corduroy velvet has been selected by Mrs. James Potter for a street suit. The skirt is made quite plain with square pieces stitched over the hips to simulate pockets. A narrow belt being stitchen fast. Collar and cuffs of scal line. The coat is in Norfolk jacket effect, the belt being stitched fast. Collar and cuffs of seal fur add un attractive touch. With this Mrs. Potter wears a chie sallor hat of watermelon pink satin with a soft crown.

DEVIDE:

Mrs. Isaac Starr looks well in a top coat of blue and black figured cloth, made long and rounding in the back and cut away in the front. There is a collar of astrakhan fur. A small close-fitting black velvet hat, entirely covered with green breast feathers which terminute in a long feather fancy in the back, completes the costume.

DANCING CLASS FORMED

Five Women Have Arranged a Series of Classes for the Winter.

A committee composed of Mrs. Rowland Cadwalader Evans, Mrs. J. Colton Deal, Mrs. Thomas Shallcross, Mrs. Walter C. Hancock and Mrs. Ralph Chambers Stewart have arranged a series of subscription dances to be given throughout the winter at the Rittenhouse. The first dance took place last night, and the five remaining dances will occur on December H. January 8, February 12, March 12 and April 2.

The members of the class include Mr. and Mrs. William H. Arrott, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Story, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Abbott, Dr. and Mrs. Archibald C. Eglin, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Bookmyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt, Dr. and Mrs. James Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Schaum, Mr. and Mrs. Steen, Mr. and Mrs. John Coates, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Benezet, Dr and Mrs, Francis J. Kelly, Mr. and Mrz. Edward A. Waltz, Mr. and Mrz. Granville H. Le Maitre, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Coane, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lallou, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Whiteman, Dr. and Mrs. S. Merrill Weeks, Dr. and Mrs. Colgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Addison A. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Couover, Mr. and Mrs. Charles "Bair, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Milden, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Landis

Detwiler, Mr. anti Mrs. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Delahunty, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Ocllors, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Rich, Dr. and Mrs. J. Colton Deal, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shallcross, Mrs. Maola Sills Schuyler and Captam Dobbins

OF ALL the South African millionatres, Barnato was the most picturesque Born in the Whitechapel district of London, his real name was Barney Isaacs. With a brother ha garnered stray coins on the sidewalks of his; native heath by amusing the idlers with acrobatic feats and by contorting his body into bowknots. Then, when diamonds had been discovered near the Vaal River, he went to South Africa, tuking up his residence in Kimherley. He bought and sold diamonds-his enemies declared that he hought stolen gems, but this was never proved against him-but no matter what he may have done. Kimberley remembers him best as Hamlet, which role he once played in the Queen's Theatre-once, mind. you, for not even a patient, peace-loving andlonce of doppers, Afrikanders and ulthunders . could stand that Hamlet more than once.

THEIS lient is exclusively for women. It concerns the ancestry and aboriginal traits of the allt skirt, now gone out of fashion, but said to have come from Paris originally. As a matter of fact, Paris was morely some canfortes behind the fashion, for the alit skiri had been in vogue in Papua since time immemorial. When Judge Murray visited the Fly River recently, he discovered a tribe who had never even a white man. And lo and behold, the women, young and old, wore all aktiva. Inquiries from the oldest inhabitant revealed that as far back as memory went, the all in the shirt had been en regie, chic and strictly up to date.

OT. PETERSSURG may have been rensmon OPstrograd because of Muscovits distille for anything amattering of the Teutonic, but T Petersburg is of Dutch, not German deat Peter the Great learned the art of guing, in Holland, and when he erected a car to SS. Peter and Paul on the austiness Petrograd now stands, he named then fort Pleterburght "Burgh" is essentia-" my that Nicholas has evidently up mining a applied to world derived wrant

FRANKFORD