The big football games on the docket for today somewhat overshadow the usual list of sporting events over the whole country. In the East the Princeton-Yale, Penn-Dartmouth and Harwhile the Cornell-Michigan fray in the West in the most talked-of feature of the football day, As usual, there will be an league, will go to Reading tonight to play almost unending list of athletic events in Philadelphia today, including football, banketball, boxing, cross-country running, racing, golf, soccer, hockey, shoots, dog shows and several events of minor Dartmouth's 34-21 victory over the Penn team last season has greatly increased the interest in this afternoon's contest between these same teams on Franklin Field. The Big Green eleven from Hanover is a decided favorite in the betting, both because of her splendid showing in all the games this season, except the Princeton battle, and because Penn has a because the princeton battle, and because Penn has a because the princeton battle, and because Penn has because the beautiful weak in most deproved to be woefully weak in most de-partments of play.

Yale and Princeton will go into the game today in the Tigers' hair on almos equal terms, so far as the "dope" is con-carned. There is a great deal of betting on the result of the contest, because backers of the Blue and those of the Orange and Black are equally confident of victory. Princeton's weak attack in all the games played to date indicates that if the Tiger is returned a winner it will be either through extreme good fortune or because Yale is much weaker than is generally supposed.

The intersectional fracas between Core gued fortune or because Yale is much weaker than is generally supposed. The intersectional fracas between Cornell and Michigan is apt to be an exceedingly interesting one from every standpoint. Cornell has been coming forward by leaps and bounds, offensively and defensively. Michigan likewise has done brilliant work since her defeat at the hands of Syracuse. The Wolverines' showing against Harvard and their overpowering defeat of Penn last week have made them the favorities in today's game. However, it is certain that Coach Al Sharpe has been teaching his charges how to best meet the varied attack of the Michiganders. If they are able to prevent the Youtmen from successfully working the forward and lateral passes, they have an excellent chance for victory.

NATIONAL CUP GAMES.

Inasmuch as the first round games of the National Cup competition are schedthe National Cup competition are scheduled today for the soccer teams, the Allied American Football Association has only five division games for this afternoon. Viscose will entertain West Philadelphia at Marcus Hook, William Hinds being referes. Putnam will travel to Bethleshem to see what it can do with the Steel Workers, and George Young will referes. Kensington will try to repeat last year's performance by beating the Palls. The latter game will be played at Washington Park, 36th street and Allegheny avenue, with Ed Waldron as referee, and should prove a good attraction. Peabody won its first round game by forfeit from Irish Americans, of Wilmington, who have disbanded. Victor and Dission are to play on the Dission Club grounds, and James Walder will referee.

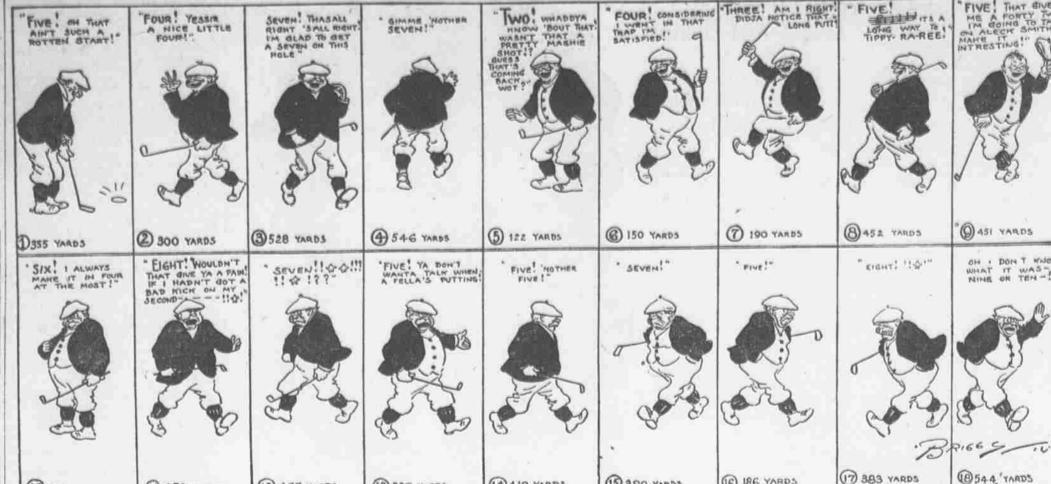

ton Club grounds, and James Walder will referee.

The clubs in the allied first division are so well matched that there is liable to be a difference of only three points in the standing of the first seven clubs after this two games scheduled for today. This is a remarkable state of affairs for a local soccer competition. Twenty-farse games have been played to date. Five have resulted in the games and seven in one-goal victories, while four games have been won by two-goal victories, therefore, only seven sames have been won by three goals or more. In all these divisions, up to date, 20 players have participated in leasue games; 21 here meet were introduced hast Saturday; Parities T. M. L. has used 2 hosen up to find; 20 goals have been scored, the leasue teams having scored life.

Lafayette and Albright to Battle for Honors Today.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 14.—A number of things end to place the odds on Albright in the game oday against Lafayette. The first is that Hence the mainstay and the All-American backlell man of the visitors, is going to play totally for the first time since he was injured two months ago, thereby adding to the strength of the team 20 per cent. Another reason is hat Kelley, Lafayette's famous punter and utilizade, is on the sick list, together with five of his teammates, and lastly Hartman, variety left and, has been unable to practice all sects.

PERSONAL TOUCHES IN SPORT

what can be done if the proposition is properly pushed. There is far more need of a stadium in Philadelphia than there is at little New Haven, the first annual scratch Marathon ever yet in that small college town this monument to athletics has been erected, having a seating more than 72,000 applications for seats to the Yaie-Harvard game a capacity crowd will be present, or at least tickets will be sold for every seat, which in turn means that the proceeds of that one game alone will be at least 100,000. The major postup of that sees the proceeds of the control of the season of the control of the season of the control of the season of the control o $100,000. The major portion of that goes to Yale; hence it is easy to see that the bowl will pay for itself in an exceedingly short time. This same thing could be accomplished in our own city if some one were willing to back the proposition, but there seems to be a lack of "punch" among those who could do it. It would take no longer to pay for a stadium here than it would in New Haven, for the reason that there are events in Philadelphia going on nine months in the year which would be held there, thus giving the men who put up the money for the stadium a chance not only to get it back quickly, but to make a big annual percentage.

This morning hundreds of autos went through Trenton on their way to Princeton. The same thing happenest recently when the De Neri basketball twam met the Steelers, except the cage men were not Princeton bound.

"Larney" Litchenstein, manager for "Jimmy" Clabby, who claims the middleweight champlenship, wants $10,000 guarantee for himan to meet "Mike" Gibbons at Madison Square Garden, Matchmaker "Jimmy" Johnson offered Clabby's manager $7000, but Litchenstein booated the offer by $3000.

The new English lightweight boxer. "Kid" Lewis, made a very favorable impression in his initial appearance in this country. He easily outpointed "Phil" Bloom, of Brooklyn, in a 10-round affair in Madison Square Garden. Lewis is another speed marcel, but failed to impress the experts that he was the equal of "Jem" Driscoli. The latter was all ease and grace, while Lewis at times becomes very careless, and awings like a slugger, thereby giving his opponent a chance for an opening.

The passing of boxing in California, as a result of the recent election, should be the means of improving the quality of the bouts in New York, California has been the Mecca for all championship contests, because the battles were of 20 rounds duration and a decision was given.

New Orleans will have 20-round affairs, but the purses offered there are so small that the champions will prefer to come to New York, where they are sure of getting hig money. Milwaukee, it is said, will compete keenly with the hig city for all the interesting events. If this is true, and no doubt it is, the boxing same will improve because the gromoters will try to outdraw each other by the class of matches put before the lovers of the sport.

The All-Winter Car

You've probably noticed that the Hup is one car that is seldom laid up for the winter, says Mr. G. G. Brownles.

During the coming winter I predict you'll see more Hups than ever used right through from first snowfall to first buttercups.

The detachable sedan and coupe tops for the new touring car and roadster will bring about this increase in winter driving.

Best things of the kind you ever saw. Especially designed for the Hup. built strongly and substantially in the Hup factory.

Give you all the advantages of the permanent enclosed car — com-pletely weather-tight, and hand-somely finished inside.

And the best thing of all is that in the spring, when you want openair driving again, take off the winter top, store it away and fit the extension top.

Practically two cars in one a great big feature that is making a poworful appeal to most fall buyers.

Penn's Champion Strongheart, Dorizas, to Match Heft and Skill With Spears, of Dartmouth.

TO TAKE PLACE ON

GRIDIRON TODAY

When Dartmouth and Pennsylvania meet this afternoon on Franklin Field one of the best games of the season is sure to be seen. In spite of Penn's defeat at Michigan last Saturday, or it may be because of that defeat, the Red and Blue eleven is sure to fight most desperately today. Last year Penn was thought to have practically no chance of winning against Dartmouth Sbut they put up the most spectacular game, that had ever been seen on Franklin Field, the final score being 24 to 21. Knowing that a defeat today will set them far down in the ranking for the year, the Pennsylvania men will fight to the last.

One feature of the play this afternoon is sure to be most interesting. It will be noticed in the line-up that Dorkas, the giant Greek, has been shifted to left guard. This has been done to put him opposite Spears, of Dartmouth, who is a man even larger than Dorkas, as he is only 5 feet 9 inches tall. In all the games to date he has been playing with his opponents, opening big heles on the offense for his backs to come through and breaking up many plays when on the defensive. He will find in Dorkas a worthy foe, and this little duel between these two giants should form one of the most interesting side lights of the afternoon.
