

British Warships Reported Disabled—German Regiment Lost—Regional Banks Now Open—Rain Makes Millions for Farmers

PICTORIAL REPORT OF WORLD'S NEWS OF THE DAY

UNLOADING PART OF $2,000,000 WORTH OF NOTES AT FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

The Federal reserve notes for the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, which opened today, were hauled through central streets, and hundreds of persons passed the heavy trucks which carried the money without realizing such an enormous amount of wealth was within reach.

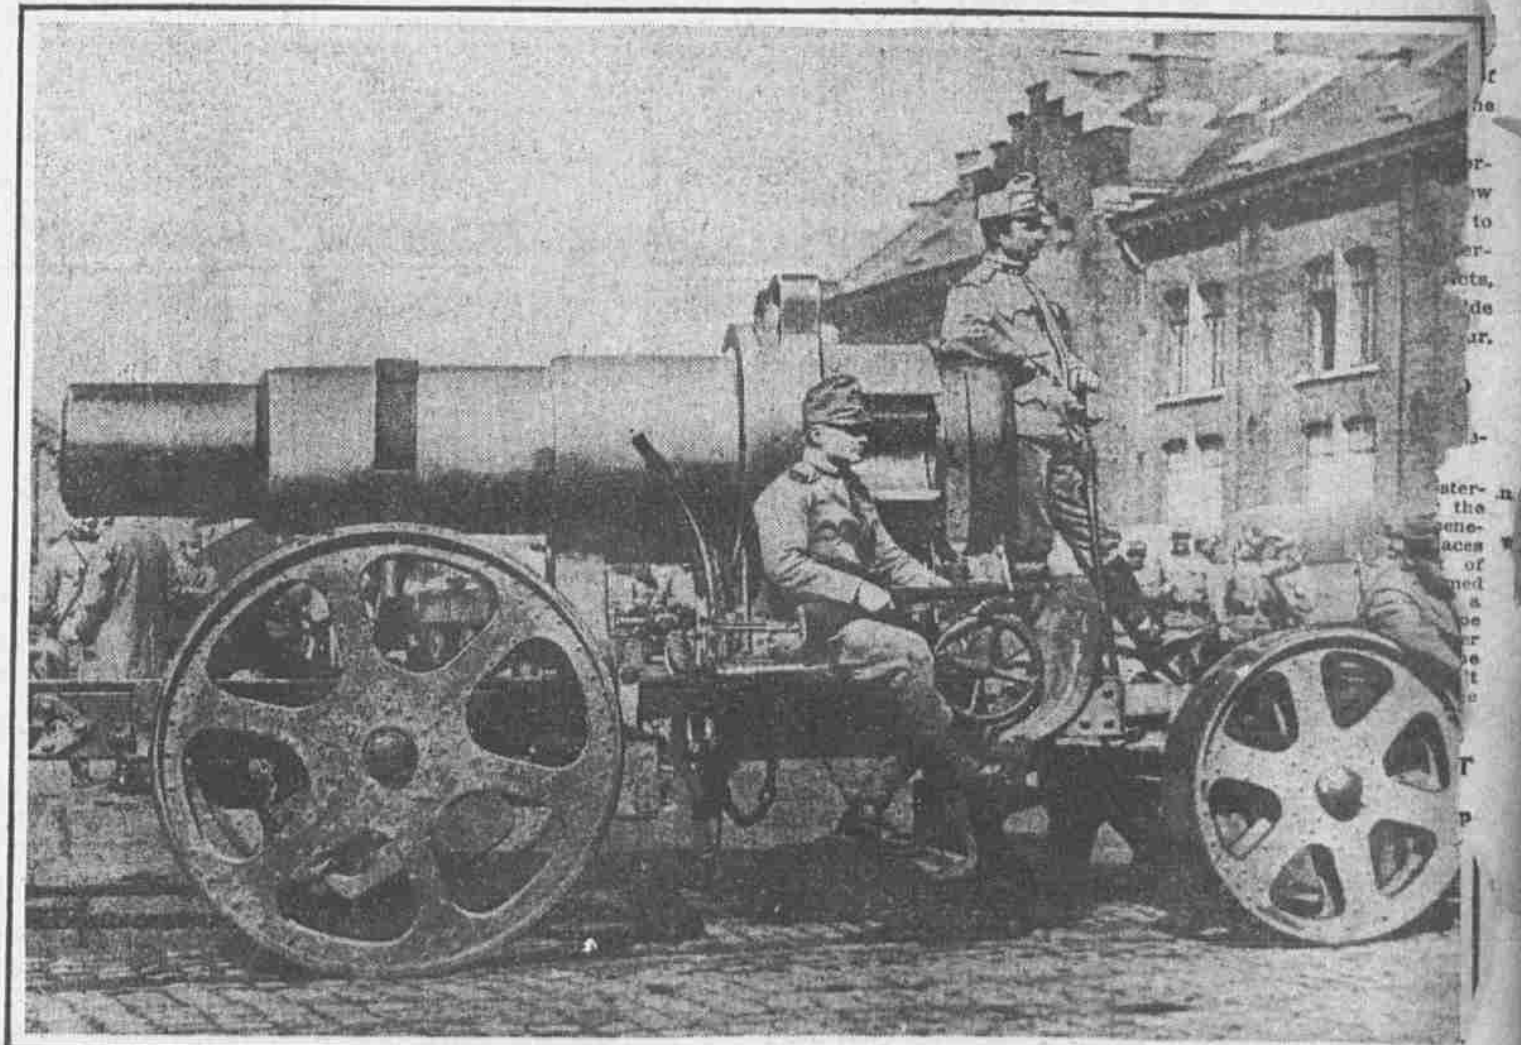

KILLED IN FRONT OF HER RUINED HOME

A Belgian woman in Dixmude, killed by a German shell at the door way of her home as she was rushing from the tumbling structure.

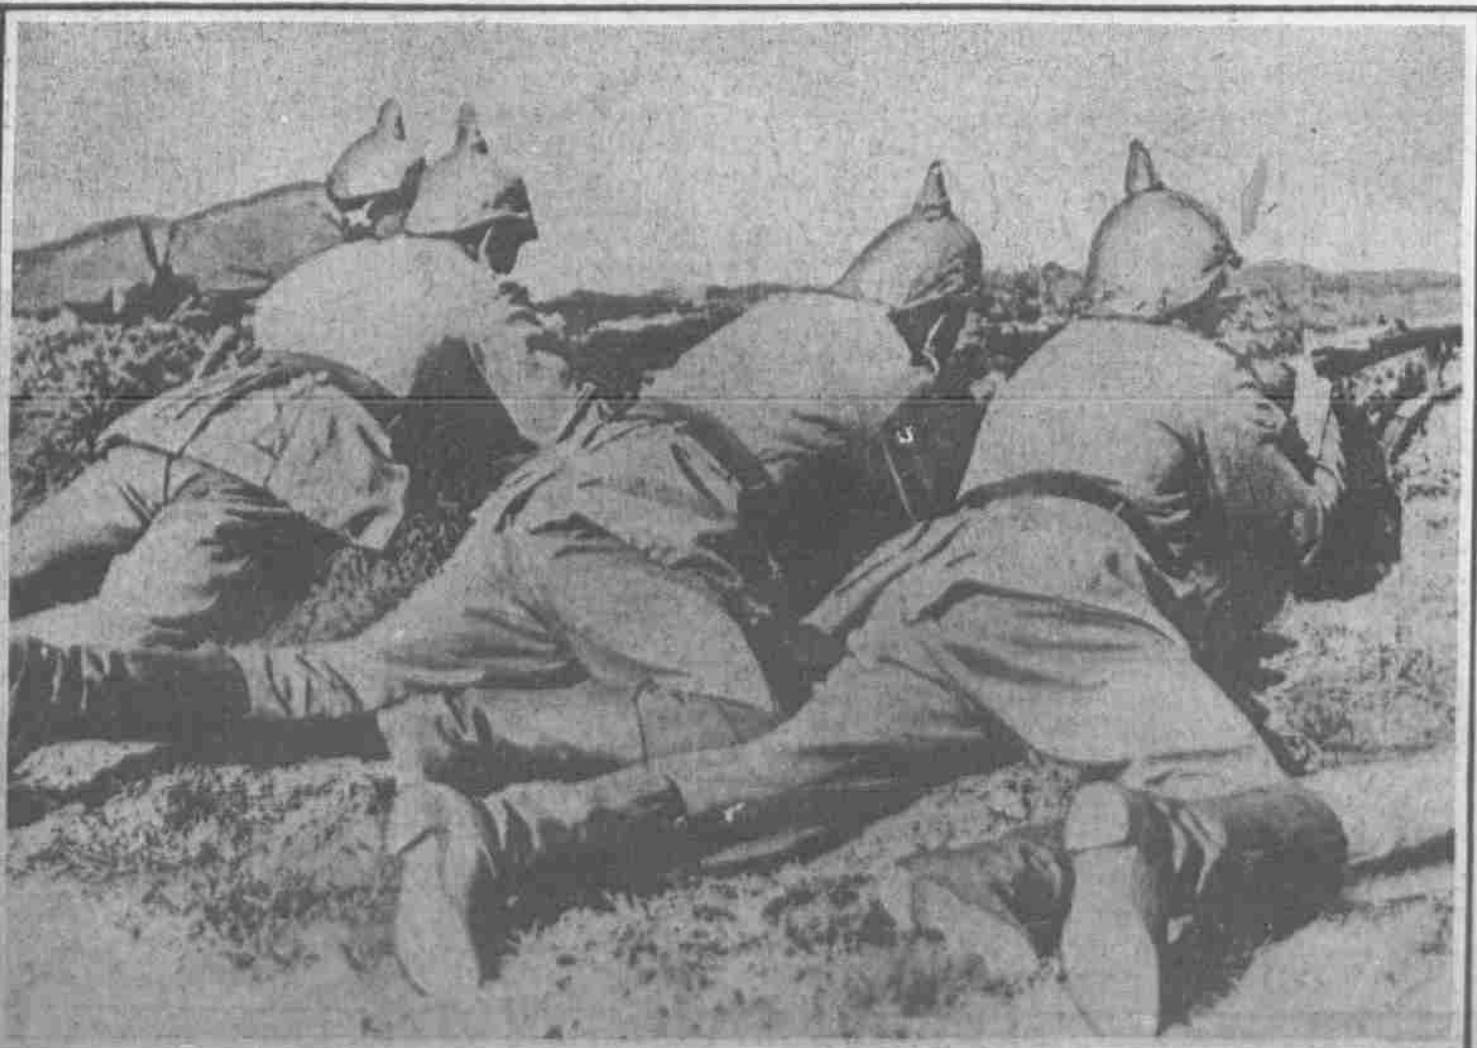

CANADIANS ON WAY TO CAMP ON MOTORBUS

The first contingent of the Canadian expeditionary force arrived at Plymouth amid great enthusiasm and after disembarking proceeded to their camp on Salisbury Plain. They are a splendid body of men and every one looks fit and well.

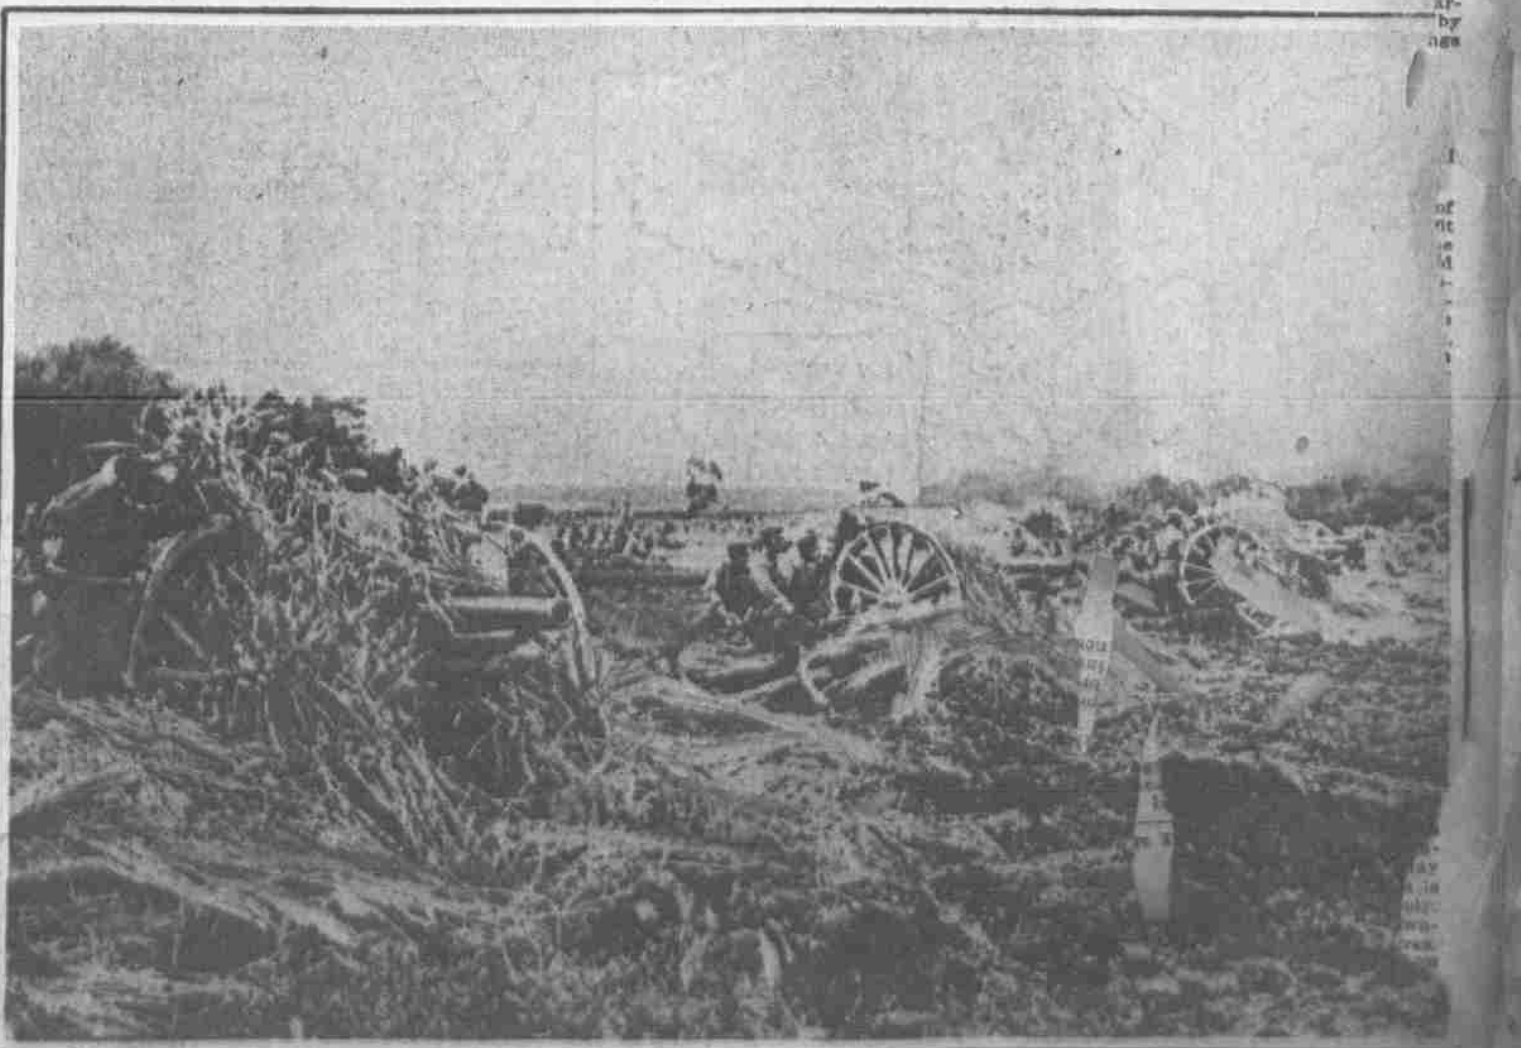

AUSTRIAN MOTOR BATTERY

This piece did great execution at the siege of Belgian fortresses, and is now in use on the French fortresses.

IN THE GERMAN TRENCHES

On the firing line with the Kaiser's infantry in Belgium. Soldiers are shown in the action of Eppohem.

JAPANESE ATTACK ON TSING-TAO

The Mikado's artillerymen concealed their field pieces under sheaves of wheat rice.