

NEWS OF THE DAY FROM THE PICTORIAL VIEWPOINT

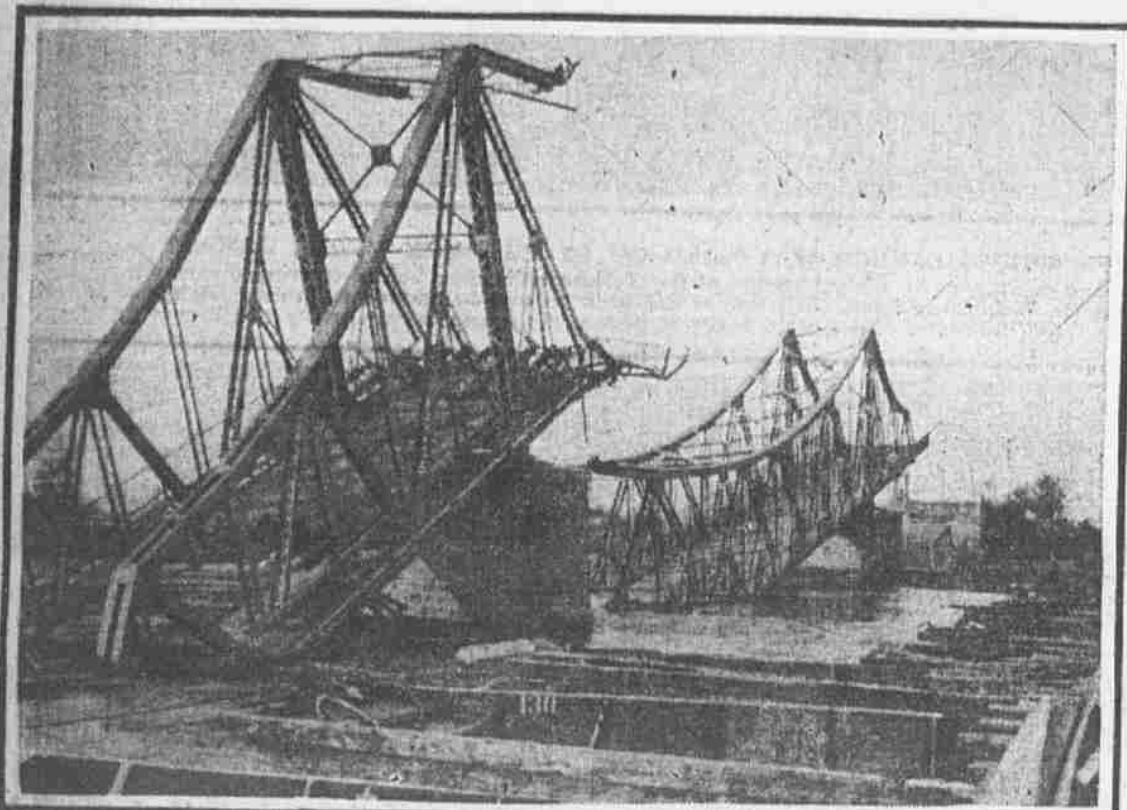

BELGIAN CHURCH AFTER 2000 SHELLS FELL IN YARD
Little was left of the old church in the Flanders village of Peroyse after it had borne its share of 12 bombardments suffered in three weeks. Artillery fire sometimes plays freakish tricks, as in this case, where most of the tower is standing.

READY FOR STATE WOMAN SUFFRAGE CONVENTION AT SCRANTON
Miss Marian Jones as chairman of the Information and Postoffice Committees will be useful to the 300 delegates in helping them find quarters and assigning them to proper posts in the Scranton convention hall.

READY FOR STATE WOMAN SUFFRAGE CONVENTION AT SCRANTON
Mrs. Maxwell Chapman is chairman of the Lackawanna County Woman Suffrage Association and is known as one of the most prominent workers for votes for women among Pennsylvania advocates.

BRIDGE BLOWN UP BY AUSTRIANS
The Austrians, defeated by the Russians, retreated over the River Dnieper over this bridge, which they promptly destroyed to prevent the enemy from following at once. The Russians are now in possession and their pontoon bridges are shown.

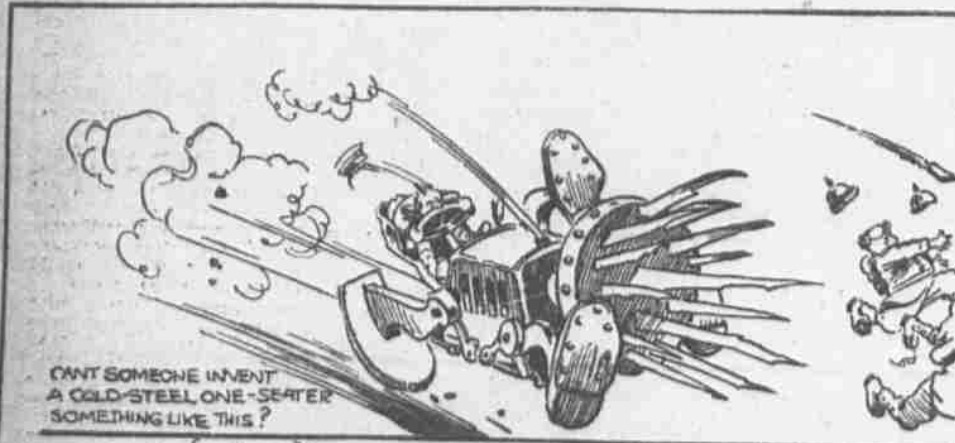

NIEUPORT'S 'MINSTER' AS IT LOOKS TODAY
This famous old church, a landmark for centuries, quickly crumbled in the desperate artillery battles that centred around the head of the Yser Canal when the Germans strove to push down the Belgian coast to Dunkirk and other French ports.

ON THE WEST BANK OF THE YSER
Effects of the terrible struggle that has been raging on the Yser River, in northwest Belgium, between the Germans and the Allies. One shell ripped the side out of this huge building.

WITH THE WITS AT HOME AND ABROAD

CAN'T SOMEONE INVENT A GOLD-STEEL ONE-SEATER SOMETHING LIKE THIS?

COULDN'T WE DEVISE A CRYOLINE PEPPER SHRAPNEL FOR CLEARING THE ENEMY'S TRENCHES?

HAS THE WAR OFFICE SERIOUSLY CONSIDERED DROPPING LARGE FLY-PAPERS FROM AIR-CRAFT?

OH MR. HICKS HOW PERFECTLY LOVELY YOU ARE GOING TO MARRY A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG HEIRESS

ZASSO. FINE BUSINESS HEH-HEH HEH

AND YOU'LL BE VERY SUCCESSFUL IN WHATSOEVER YOU DO - LOTS OF MONEY INFLUENCE HAPPINESS!

HEH-HEH HEH-HEH YOU NEVER CAN TELL I BELIEVE THERE'S A GOOD DEAL IN FORTUNES!

WHY - MR. HICKS! WHAT DO I SEE? MERCY!

I SEE BLOOD! THAT MEANS A MURDER OR SOMETHING DREADFUL IN YOUR LIFE!

YOU WILL LATER LOSE YOUR FORTUNE AND DIE IN EXTREME POVERTY

THE MISSING ALLY

IN A BERLIN CAFE

HELP FOR NEEDY

WHEN THEIR SHIP COMES IN

AN ORIENTAL REVISION

MORE SURPRISES FOR THE GERMANS
—From London Sketch.
An English comic-artist comes forward with suggestions for repelling Teutonic assaults. He has evidently been stimulated by the Kaiser's own war novelties like the great and famous 42-centimetre siege gun.

THE MISSING ALLY
—From the Sydney Bulletin.
Wilhelm—Since Heaven has failed to respond to my demand for help I shall send it an ultimatum.

IN A BERLIN CAFE
—From Simplicity.
The cartoonist shows a cafe customer in Germany rejecting coffee that he suspects was prepared by French spies.

HELP FOR NEEDY
—From the Tattler.
"I'm out of employment owing to the war."
"Well, come in 'ere and let's see yer at work."

AN ORIENTAL REVISION
—From the Chicago News.
The cartoonist depicts a patient Mandarin making a change in a celebrated saying, after witnessing his country invaded by Japanese in assaulting Germany.