

Scenes and Events in the News of the Day

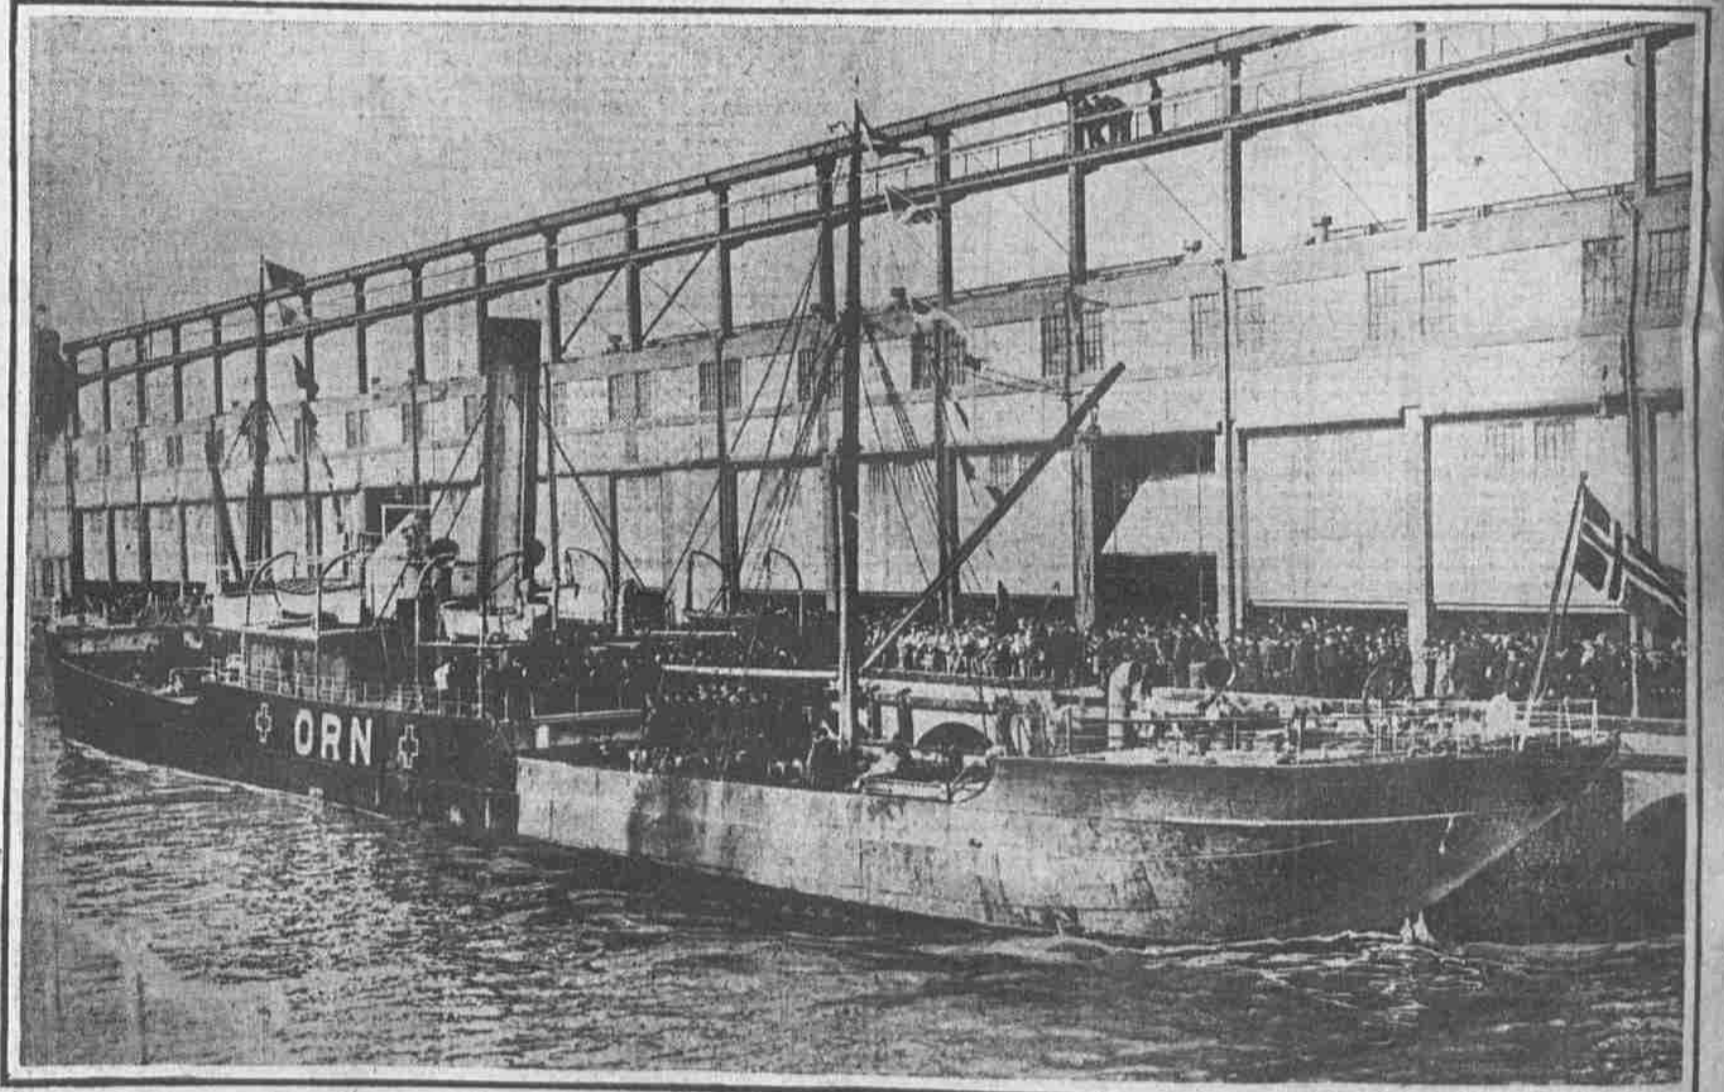

BLESSING THE BELGIAN RELIEF SHIP ORN JUST BEFORE SHE SAILED
From left to right in the front row are shown Director of Public Safety Porter, Director of Supplies Loeb, John Wanamaker, Mme. Van der Velde, Mayor Blankenburg and Rabbi Joseph Krauskopf pronouncing the invocation.

MAYOR WAVING GOOD-BYE TO THE ORN
The city's chief executive took an active part in the ceremonies surrounding the departure of the relief ship today. He cast off the last hawser that held the ship to her pier and then stood back to wave a farewell.

TURKEYS AS PRESENTS FROM "THE COMPANY"
The oldest employes of the Philadelphia office of the Wells-Fargo Express Company are seen here evidencing their pleasure over gifts of fat birds for their Thanksgiving dinners.

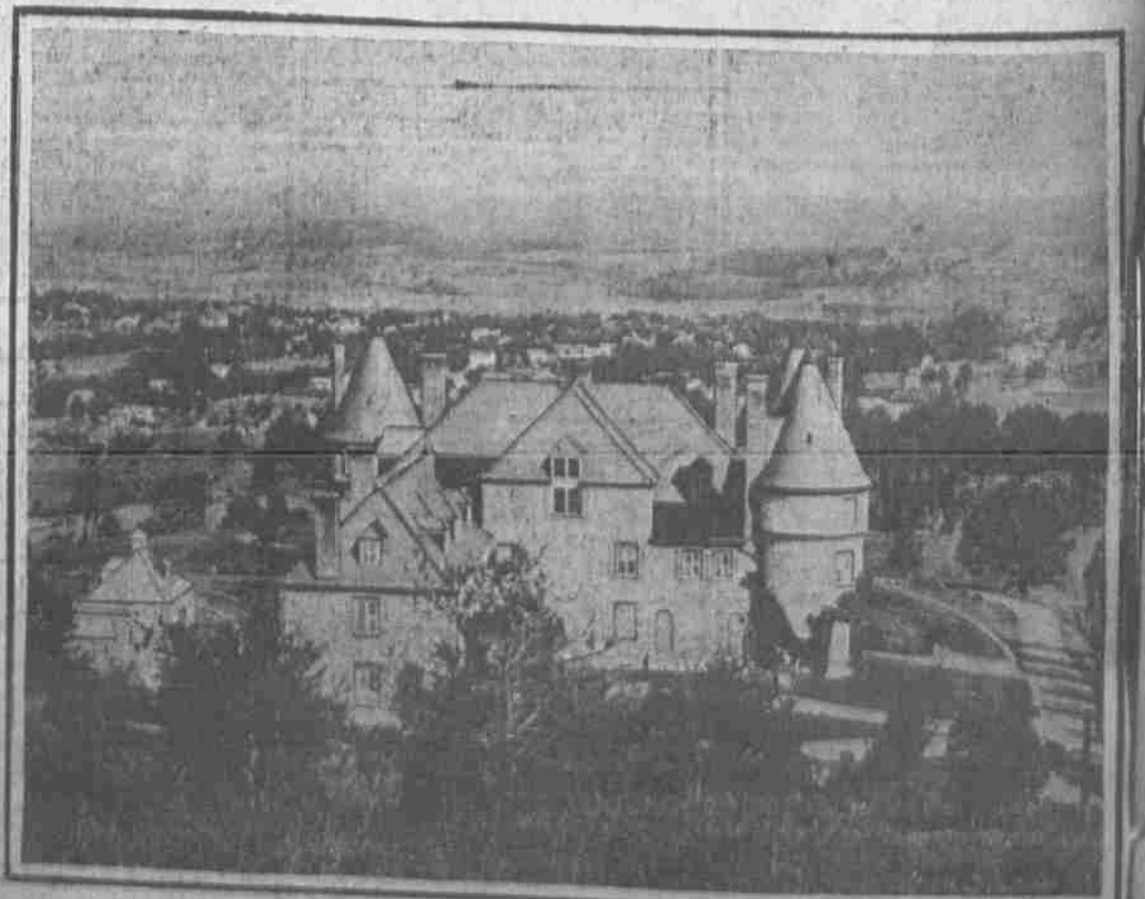

PHILADELPHIA'S THANKSGIVING GIFT TO THE WAR-STRICKEN SUFFERERS OF BELGIUM
The Orn, the city's second relief ship, is shown ready for the starting signal, with the thousands that crowded the dock singing the doxology. The Girard College band is shown slightly back of the ship's after mast. It played the Belgian national anthem just before the Rev. Russell H. Conwell handed over the ship to the Red Cross Society. Paul Hagemans, Belgian Consul General, then accepted the ship and contents on behalf of the Belgian people. The benediction was pronounced by the Very Rev. Henry T. Drumgoole.

COACH "AL" SHARPE AND COACH GEORGE BROOKE, OF PENN
The teams trained by these two football experts will exhibit the result of their teachings on Franklin Field tomorrow, when the big Red team clashes with the more inexperienced Red and Blue. Coach Brooke is the figure with the football.

LEFT LEAGUE ISLAND NAVY YARD
Rear Admiral William B. Caperton this afternoon transferred his colors from the Atlantic reserve fleet at League Island to the Washington, heading the newly formed cruiser squadron. It is to include the Tennessee and the North Carolina, now off the Turkish coast.

PENNSYLVANIA HOME OF GIFFORD PINCHOT
It is announced Mr. Pinchot will give up his residence in Washington to become a permanent inhabitant of Milford, Pike County, where he owns the handsome estate, Grey Towers. He will have offices in Philadelphia, it is said.