

FEDERAL LEAGUE BACKERS MEETING IN CHICAGO TODAY

Delegates Present From Eight Cities and Draw Up Tentative Schedule—May Spring List of Stars.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Ways and means for financing another year's campaign was the chief problem before the Federal League migrators' meeting here today. H. W. Ward and George Ward of Brooklyn, who with Charles H. Weeghman of the Chicago, proved the backbone of the organization last season, were first of the out-of-town officials to reach the city, and they were in conference with President Gilmore until an early hour today. The names of National and American League stars secretly signed may be made public. Announcement that the 1916 schedule will be tentatively drawn in 1915 that the Federal circuit has been agreed upon. The accredited delegates present when the meeting opened at 10 o'clock were: Chicago—Charles Weeghman and William Walker.

BAD AIR, EXPOSURE, CAUSE OF ALARMING NUMBER OF DEATHS

Diphtheria and Pneumonia Big Factors in Mortality, Despite Dr. Harte's Warnings.

Diphtheria and pneumonia have become alarming factors among the diseases causing deaths in the city since the beginning of the cold weather. In spite of the warnings of Doctor Harte, Director of the Department of Health and Charities, against dangers from neglect of colds, lack of fresh air and exposure, diseases of the lungs and air passages caused 127 of the 423 deaths in Philadelphia this week. Of that number, tuberculosis of the lungs was responsible for 43 deaths; pneumonia, 37; diphtheria, 25, and diphtheria, 9.

Doctor Harte today declared that reduction of the death rate from lung and throat diseases is largely a matter of education of the individual in proper care of the body with the change of the season.

Increase in the number of deaths from pneumonia and diphtheria during the weeks of November are shown by the following table:

Table showing death statistics for various diseases from Nov. 21 to Nov. 27. Columns include Disease, Deaths, and Percentages.

McVey and Wells Matched

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28.—Sam McVey and Harry Wells, negro heavyweights, have been matched for a 20-round bout here December 20.

HOTELS' ARMY-NAVY GUESTS

A Partial List of Visitors at City's Leading Hostels.

Following is a partial list of those visiting the city for Army-Navy game registered at the hotels:

At the Bellevue-Stratford: Percival S. Hill, Congressman George W. Edmonds, Mayor J. Mitchell of New York; Commissioner R. A. C. Smith, of New York; former Commissioner Rhineclauder Waldo, New York; Governor and Mrs. Tanager Udall of Pennsylvania; Governor Goldsborough of Maryland; Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrison; Colonel George W. Harvey, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Holt, Jr., New York; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Graham Miles, New York; Joseph B. McCall, Judge D. Webster Dougherty, W. H. T. Hume, Samuel P. Hume, W. E. Curry, Pittsburgh; John T. Windley, W. H. Balainger, J. L. Replogle, Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Raugh, Annapolis; Harry Hemstead, P. N. Hofstad, Pittsburgh; Captain James F. Bell, United States Army; H. Brewster, Baltimore, Md.; Captain M. C. Bristol, United States Army; P. G. Lee, New York; Captain C. H. Patterson, U. S. A.; Dr. Robert E. Leconte, Lieutenant Geo. D. Riley, U. S. A.; Mrs. E. P. Wilbur, Bethlehem, Pa.; Mr. Maxwell W. Bethel, U. S. A.; Lt. Col. W. S. D. Williams, U. S. A.; Rear Admiral P. J. Flanagan, U. S. A.; Captain S. E. McQuade, Washington.

NOTABLE HOST SEES CONTEST

Continued from Page One

Each man carried a Navy pennant of blue and gold, which hung down from the waist forming a striking contrast with the dark blue overcoat. They formed single file and marched to their seats in the center of the stand while the band played patriotic airs.

WEST POINTERS MARCH The West Pointers began their march into the field in silence. Their band came through the northwest entrance and remained silent until the future generals, who had entered by the southwest gate, had massed behind them.

The flat topped caps of the middies were whipped off at the behest of the cheer leaders and a Navy yell that shook the stand rang out. This was followed by a similar yell for the University of Pennsylvania. Penn's loyal students, clustered in the west stand, made the well-known ring with a complimentary return cheer.

At 1.15 the Army band broke into melody and the Cadets began their evolutions by the stand, erect and as sturdy as their competitors, they trotted back and forth in column four. The white lining of the dark blue coats of the bandmen was displayed by draping the coat across their backs.

Finally they swung into 10 solid columns stretching across the gridiron for a distance of 40 yards. As the band played a Scottish hornpipe they trotted quick time to their seats in the centre of the South Stand.

A. J. Graham, official goal keeper, was accorded a rousing welcome as he appeared in the field with the Navy's goal resplendent in Navy colors. The goal was brought to the field in state, riding in a tumbler.

Moving picture men and the usual camera sound rushed to and fro in their frantic endeavors to miss nothing in their first song to the goal. The scene was a "Long Way to Tipperary."

It was made more effective by the systematic swinging of flags. As it concluded, both teams dashed out on the field and bedlam broke loose.

No attempt was made at organized cheering and the volume and vigor of the sporadic yells were deafening. When both sides had apparently exhausted themselves in a futile effort to outshout the other, the Navy sprang a sensational long whistling yell.

ARMY WILD OVER PRICHARD'S RUN. The Army cadets formed the letter A in their seating arrangement, yellow caps thrown back and the light blue of their front worked to make the proper combination. Thunderous was the label as the ball was kicked off. Fifteen hundred uniformed men danced insanely and waved flags in wild disorder.

When an Army back made a spectacular dash 50 yards on a fake kick in the early part of the game, some of the ginger disappeared from the cheers of the Middles. The Cadets, on the other hand, had another frenzied fit. The "Middle" depression lasted only a few seconds. Navy stalwarts on the field held splendidly and Army's attempt at a place kick for a goal failed.

CURLEY HAS CONTRACT Returns With Jack Johnson's Signature to Fight Willard.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Jack Curley, who obtained Jack Johnson's signature to a contract for a fight with Bill Willard, returned to the Louisiana last night. Curley has the right of the name, some of the heavy weight title of the world and will surely take his prize.

Martin Wins From Kairer

W. Martin, of Luzerne, defeated Doctor Kairer of Knickerbocker, by a score of 100 to 92 in the Snooker League knockout match last night at the Luzerne park. The game was interesting, from start to finish, and there was a large crowd present.

"LAST MEN" OF OMEGA CLUB, WHO DINE TONIGHT

OVERHEARD IN THE HOTELS JUST BEFORE THE BIG GAME Wit and Folly Win Laughs Easily from Good-natured Crowds in Lobbies and on the Streets.

"Bah! Bah! Bah!" yelled one newswoman when she saw the Army team go by. "Go away," said his buddy, "these ain't no college dudes. These guys is soldiers; they do all their cheering with bugle calls." "Are we here?" "Well, here at least the crowd looks good to me," came the reply.

VILLA OFF TO HIDALGO

Guadalajara Captured by Zapatista-Caballero Deserts Carranza.

BRITISH RUSH MEN TO FRONT

More Than 1,000,000 Fresh Troops to Be Landed in France.

SEEK FASTIDIOUS THIEF

Wilmington Man Declines Office

Christmas Funds for Belgians

Wilmington Man Declines Office

Particular Folk

George Allen, Inc.

LADIES' 14 KT. GOLD WATCHES

LAST MAN'S CLUB MEMBERS RENEW PLEDGE TONIGHT

Thirtieth Annual Reunion of the Omega Will Bring Together Seven Survivors of Unique Organization.

The Omega, one of the oldest last man's clubs in Philadelphia, will hold its annual reunion and banquet tonight in the home of Thomas A. Wincott, 1529 Butler street. This is the 30th time the Omegas have assembled for the purpose of recalling the memories of the years that have gone into history.

The organization was formed in this city at a time when all of the members were young men. The members all originally lived in South Philadelphia. Since that time many changes have taken place. The membership has become widely separated, but in keeping with the promise made when the Omega first came into existence, every member makes it his special pride and duty to come to the annual gathering.

SPECIAL DELIVERY BOY HELD FOR ROBBERY MAIL

Committed on Charge of Taking Money From Letters.

MAN FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Upholsterer Nearly Asphyxiated in His Own Shop.

SEEK FASTIDIOUS THIEF

Wilmington Man Declines Office

Christmas Funds for Belgians

Wilmington Man Declines Office

Particular Folk

George Allen, Inc.

LADIES' 14 KT. GOLD WATCHES

CABINET MEMBERS AND NOTABLES SEE ARMY-NAVY GAME

Army-Navy Classic Draws Scores of Nation's Distinguished to Philadelphia. Many Box Parties.

President Wilson would have been the premier attraction at Franklin Field today had not his grief over the loss of his wife caused him to be absent. He is represented by three of his Cabinet, Secretaries Garrison, Daniels and Ians. They are accompanied by members of their families and their friends, among whom are many debutantes of the White House circle.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House, is the guest of Assistant Secretary of War Breckinridge. The box is located on the Army side of the field. Secretary Daniels is accompanied by his wife, mother and three of his sons. The Misses Bagley are also guests of the Secretary of the Navy in his box in the Navy's stand.

Secretary of Labor Wilson's daughter, Miss Agnes Wilson; Miss Lucy Burleigh, daughter of Postmaster General Burleigh; and Miss Jane Gregory, daughter of the Attorney General, were among the early arrivals from Washington.

Every train from Washington brought a number of Capitol officials. Senators and Representatives, who had returned home after the adjournment of Congress, came from all quarters.

James Hays, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, was accompanied by many of the committee and their families. Adjutant General McCann is Mr. Hays's guest.

Members of the staff of Chief of Staff Major General Hugh L. Scott, U. S. A., have a north stand box. Their families are with them.

Major General W. W. Wetherup, until recently Chief of Staff, and Brigadier General Enoch H. Crowder, Judge Advocate General, are the hosts of a large party.

Brigadier General E. A. Garlington, Inspector general, and Brigadier General Dan C. Kingman, Chief of Engineers, and their families are in the north stand.

Major General John B. Brooke, retired, and Brigadier General John A. Johnson, also retired, have a box.

Major General Leonard Wood, commanding the Department of the East, and Brigadier General Tanker H. Bliss, assistant chief of the General Staff, will be accompanied by aides and members of their families, all ardent Army rosters.

Other notables are Brigadier General J. B. Alshire, Quartermaster General, and Brigadier General George P. Scriven, chief of the Bureau of Militia Affairs; Brigadier General William Crozier and Brigadier General E. M. Weaver, chief of artillery; General Albert L. Mills, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs; Brigadier General George Barnett, U. S. M. C., has Mr. and Mrs. Charlesway Tower as his guests.

Commander Henry A. Wiley, U. S. N., is entertaining a party of young folks, among whom is Miss Elizabeth Wiley, one of the season's debutantes.

Advertisement for DREKA Beautiful Enameled Articles, featuring push boxes, smelling salts, pencils, fountain pens, cigarette cases, and holders. Also includes a price list for BELLAK watches and a list of jewelry items.

Advertisement for PLATINUM CLUSTER RINGS, featuring prices for 14 Pure White Diamonds, 17 Pure White Diamonds, and 18 Pure White Diamonds. Includes contact information for TROY STEAM LAUNDRY.