EVENING LEDGER PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1914.

(Copyright, 1914, by Harold McGrath.) SYNOPSIS

Zudora is left an orphan at an early age. Her father is killed in a gold mine he has discovered. Half an hour after learning of the death of her husband, Zudora's mother-a tight-rope walker with a circus-is stricken with vertigo, falls and is killed.

Zudora and the fortune from the mine, which grows to be worth $20,000,000, are left in the guardianship of Frank Keene, brother of Zudora's mother. Zudora, giving promise of great beauty, reaches the age of 18. The uncle, who has set himself up as a Hindu mystic and is known as Hassam Ali, determines in his greed that Zudora must die before she can have a chance to come into her wealth, so that it will be left to him.

CHAPTER I-(Continued.) THE MYSTERY OF THE SPOTTED COLLAR.

He laid his hand upon her dark head, but he did not look down into the youthful and beautiful face raised toward his own. His fingers unconsciously crept into the girl's hair, a trifle too strongly for an affectionate gesture.

"What is it?" she asked, drawing her head away quickly.

"A touch of rheumatism in my arm." he said intuitively. "You know it gives me a twinge once in so often. So you are 18 years old?"

"And you said that on this day I was to come into a fortune."

"That is true. How much do you think it is?"

"Oh. perhaps $50,000."

He laughed. Then he got up and began to walk the floor. She watched him curiously. He was plainly agitated about something. After a while he paused before her.

"Is it * * * lost?" she asked. "No, my child. It is the terrible responsibility which is about to rest upon your young shoulders that makes me sad. Tomorrow morning your lawyers will inform you that you are one of the rickest heiresses in America."

"Uncle, don't make fun of me!" reproachfully.

"I am telling you the truth. To date Zudora has turned out something like twenty millions. It was the express will of your father to have this kept quiet so that you would not be bothered with fortune hunters. Girl, you will marry a duke or a prince. You will become a famous beauty. But my advice is this: that until my guardianship ceases-you will be 21 thenyou will say nothing to any one about this fortune. It would make life unbearable for us both." "I'll gladly agree to that," she said "It is really a bargain?" with all the eagerly.

Mr. McCormack was, frankly, and considering the weather, excusably, in bad volce. In the upper register he was "I know I have my way to make, but foggy, in the middle and lower he was I can assure you that I can give Zuclean and clear. There is not a trace dora all the material comforts she has of baritone darkening in his voice. It is a pure and lovely tenor, grievously and insistent. So was the answer, mishandled. Again and again the voice broke, and Mr. McCormack persisted in trying head tones with fatal effect. Pathos and sentiment cannot withstand a

The songs Mr. McCormack sang ranged from Mascagni to Rachmaninoff, and in-

of Alma Gluck, Mr. McCarmack laid

"I Hear You Calling Me" and "Mother

Machree," were Mr. McCormnek's highest mark. The last stanza of "Skibbereen" was sung with tremendous force and visor; the delicacy in humor and senti-ment of the other songs was expressed in fine justness of spirit. Mr. McCor-mack pointed his jokers a little obviously:

he put his sentiment on heavily. But he scored his points, at any rate, and his sentiment provoked sentiment in his heareis. He moved them neither to great anguish nor to great joy, but he moved

The pity of it! Mr. McCormack's volce too good for what he tried last. What he succeeded in doing was playing a number of classic pleces

"MADE-IN-AMERICA" FETE

CHILDRENS' AFTERNOON AT

in Horticultural Hall.

Elaborate preparations aré being made res. He played with youthful self open to prejudicial comparisons. he Trish songs, including, as encores, breaking tone.

Italian.

is far night.

known." "You * * * " "Yes; I want Zudora for my wife." "It is impossible," replied Hassam

Ali. "Impossible!" echoed the two young people.

"Absolutely!" with growing coldness. "In the first place, I am Zudora's guardian until she is 21; therefore I do not propose that she shall throw herself away on an ordinary lawyer."

"Sir," said Storm, "I do not quite like the tone you use." "Indeed! Young man, I am not only her guardian, but I am her flesh and blood uncle; and I do not propose that she shall bungle her future by a marriage to you."

Not a word about the millions. Zudora thought hard for a moment, and concluded it might be wise to say nothing to her lover until she had this fortune under her hand. "What if I promise never to marry any one clse?" she said. Hassam Ali shrugged. "Come.

come; be sensible. Until you both get over this foolish idea. I must request that Mr. Storm cease calling here."

of the term, first, and great artists after-ward. Geraldine Farrar stopped midway "Very well, sir," said Storm angrily. in a great career to study with Lilli Lehmann. Cannot Mr. McCormack stop a short time and find a teacher who will. "But I warn you that I shall see Zudora outside as often as she is kind enough to permit me. Good evening!" make the broken legato, the strained Storm sent Zudora a reassuring smile forcing of the upper notes, things of the past for him? And can he not, above as he left the room.

Certainly he would not have smiled had he seen Hassam Ali's mind at that moment. and the artistic thing?

"What in the world have you against John?" cried Zudora bewilderedly. "I do not propose to see you sup port a fortune hunter," rather lamely, and two encores. He played with youthful solicitude for accuracy, and at times, with an engaging charm. Edwin Schneider "That's nonsense," she declared with spirit. "John tells the truth was the accompanist-and a very good one he was. His song, "The Cave," sun by Mr. McCormack, was well received. when he says he is able to take care of me." "Still, I forbid it; and legally it is my right." "But I love him. I would not trade him for the greatest prince in Christendom. And if I cannot marry him, Many Delights Are Being Prepared I'll marry no one."

"Well, well," said Hassam Ali, apparently relenting; "if you take such a stand I'll compromise." She gazed at him eagerly.

"Solve my next 20 cases and you can marry him; fail in any single case on sale, and varied entertainments are and you must renounce him." be on rale, and varied entertainments are planned, among them a Punch and Judy show, a "knock the baby down," a grab-bag, fishnond with real fish and ducks, dolt show, sew-saw, swings and "Kelly Zudora agreed instantly, even joyously. For a long time she had been seized with the desire to play the detective; and her uncle had often ad-tective; and her uncle had often ad-mitted that her powers of logical de-duction were remarkable in a woman who, philosophers claimed, was with-out the faculty of sustained reasoning. Mrs. Ralph M. Townsend, chairman; Mrs. Reginald Allen, Mrs. William Pepper, Jr.; Mrs. Edgar William Church, Mrs. Dallas Dixon, Mrs. S. Boyer Davis, Mrs. Edward and answered in accordance with his The men, women and children who work lights, his abilities and his previous conat Lubin's took an evening off last night of course, in French, dition of servitude. The last must be and played. And there wasn't any movie taken to refer to the operatic career in which he sang opposite Mme. Tetrazzini, terity. It was a huge family affair, some only a smattering of the language." Noining else can explain Mr. McCormack. The call of the audience was loud with a vaudeville entertainment, all by calac.

PHOTO John McCormack's Recital Mr. John McCormack, "the favorite of CH HATLE three continents," heard the audience at the Academy calling to him last night

> home talent and all of it good and some Knights, James Cassady and Kempton Greene, Arthur W. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Phillips, Earl Metcalf, Eddle Abbott, Mrs. Marie Sterling, Eddle Abbott, Mrs. Marle Sterling, Walter Law, Betty Marvin and George Trimble

In the audience were Siegmund Lubin. Colonei Joseph W. Smiley, Lille Leslie, Arthur Johnson, Lottie Briscoe, Barry, O'Nell, Ethel Clayton, George Soule Spencer, Edgar Jones, Joseph Kauffman, cluded, perforce, a number of risk bal-ada. The "Romanza" was sung in the best tradition of operatic Italian tenors -a very bad tradition for anyone not Italian. The German-Russian group failed of effect. In attempting a song previously heard here in the perfect tones of Alme Gluck Mr. McCarmesk leid Jack Standing, Ormi Hawley, Eleanore Barry, Justina Huff, Louise Hinf, Thomas F. Hopkins, Ferdinand Tid-marsh, Eleanore Blanchard, Florence Thomas F. Hopeins, Forenes, Forenes, Marsh, Eleanore Blanchard, Florenes Hackett, George W. Terwilliger, John E. Ince, Romains Fielding, Mildred Gregory, Percy Winter, Clarence J. Elmer, Wil-liam Cahill, Irene Kahn and many thers. special feature of the evening's musement was an Esquimo dog. Ned, the picked poker hands out of a pack f cards and did other amazing tricks of this type. Dancing followed.

REALISM GONE RIOT. It happened during the production of "The Gambler," the first Universal film to be staged by the new Rex company under the direction of Frank Lloyd. The scene called for a fight between Mr. Lloyd and George Larkin, his leading man. The players rehearsed the action, and at length everything was ready.

appreciably less, because he was, as has then said in deployable form, and be-cause he lacks, simply, technical con-trol of his voice. He is a world-favorite. "Now." said Mr. Lloyd to Larkin, as a final bit of advice, "when we come to-gether, George, step right into it. Don't Don't Can he not take time now to become a world-artist? The cases have been known before of men who have become be afraid. Mix it up. Make things lively. Put some 'pep' into things. Don't be afraid of hurting me. I can take care of great singers, in the popular acceptance myself. All right, now, camera. Action! Come on, George!'

And George "came on." He came on like a 45-centimeter Krupp before Ant-"came on." He came or werp. Just below Director Lloyd's left car there slowly rose a hump, a protuberance which continued to grow in size with the passing minutes. When it had attained production of head tones, the unpleasant the size of a billiard ball, Lloyd called for all, find those who will teach him that what is worth doing, in singing, and what will eventually win the highest an arolea and mustard compress. Larkin stopped, when he had recovered his breath, to inspect his bruised knuckles and to look at the damage he had in-flicted upon Director Lloyd's classic featularity, is the sincere and the true Donald McBeath, said to be a protege f Fritz Kreisler, assisted Mr. McCormack ures.

"You told me to mix it up," he pleaded in self-defense. "I only followed your in-structions, Mr. Lloyd.

lowed instructions?" sputtered "Followed; did you say? Hang "Followed It. man. you weren't following; you were miles ahead of the procession. It ought to be a good film, though." mused Lloyd, tenderly applying the compress to his contusions, "but I doubt whether the board of censorship will pass such a scene of brutality as has here taken place."

place.

"THE CHRISTIAN" COMING. The success of "The Spollers," the motion-picture drama now on display at the Chestnut Street Opera House, has become a serious inconvenience to the management. The inconvenience arises from the fact that Manager J. J. Mo-Carthy arranged recently to produce "The Christias" in motion pictures at the Opera House following the run of "The Spoilers." There is no let-up in the de-mand for seats, and the Opera House is crowded at each afternoon and evening presentation. Under the circumstances it is not possible to end the run abruptly, and yet William T. Rock, president of the Vitagraph Company of America, is in-sistent that "The Christian" he installed at the Opera House without further delay. secome a serious inconvenience to the for children's afternoon on December 14 at the "Made-in-America" fete which will be held by the Emergency Ald Com-mittee in Horticultural Hall. The affair romises to be one of the banner events f the three-day fete. Everything that delights a child will One of the biggest attractions will be at the Opera House without further delay.

Remarkable Career When May De Sousa, the brilliant star of "The Queen of the Movies," began her two-year Parisian career, she sang,

"But I never understood a word of machine to record their doings for pos- what I sang," said Miss De Sousa, "I'd 100 being present at the Eagles' clubhouse While in Parls Miss De Sousa enjoyed In Spring Garden street. The earlier part a unique honor, being the first American of the evening was passed in company actress to appear at the Comedie Fran-

"You know it is contourney at the of it excellent. Among the entertainers Comedie to give a huge benefit for any were Mr. and Mrs. Colton White, George actor who has played there a number of Hardon, Ferd Obeck, the Four Lubin years and then to retire him with a pension. It was in 1907 and a benefit was arranged for M. Bainille. I was invited to take part and appeared in a sketch with Max Dearly. Naturally, I was quite flattered and happy."

After playing in Paris Miss De Rouss went to Monte Carlo to play. But she didn't. She got an attack of appendicitin dicits. "It was my first attack," she said. "Your first?" "Yes, I'm an unfortunate person in many respects-my attacks always come on first nights. I never show when I'm going to get appendicitis or when I'm cured. One docting advises the second ured. One doctor advises the use of a old water bottle, another a hot. I'm dways in terror of it."

always in terror of it." Miss De Souss has starred, not only in London, Paris, New York, Philadelphia, etc., but in South Africa. The Trans-vaal, she said, is the most wonderful country in the world. "And," she added, "the treatment accorded actors there is the most hespliable. The circuit which covers the theatres takes care of you in a princip manner." Miss De Sousa is a a princip manner." Miss De Sousa is a close friend of Violet Markham, the au-thoress, who is a South African. Coming from South Africa, the people on the ship called her the "South African kit-

But why 'the South African kitten' ?" the vivacious actress was asked. She shrugged her shoulders. "Ah. I suppose I do look like a cat." Richard Bonnett has been engaged by

A. H. Woods for the Sheldon play, "The Song of Songs," He will play the role in which Cyril Keightley appeared in the recent Frohman production of the play. John Mason will also be seen in the play in Lee Baker's former role The nouveau riche have been used as the "butt" of many a joke, but Rena Det-ing, a charming prima donna in "Sari," renders a new version: "A stout, overdressed woman, talking to a friend, said.

"That must be charming" broke in the other. 'You can have all the fresh eggs you want, and-

'Ob, well,' hastly interrupted the first. speaker, 'of course the hens can lay if they like to, but in our position it lan't at all necessary.'" of his stage career was he half so nervous as on the first night of "Hindle

THREE CONCERTS TODAY

The busiest day of the busiest week in music this season comes today. Three concerts are scheduled for the day and evening. Paul Draper's program at Witherspoon Hall this afternoon consists of three groups of songs. Three "Gesaengs des Harfners." by Schubert, and 16 songs in the "Dichterliebe" cycle of Schumann are followed by a series of songs by Karol Szymanowski, whom Mr. Draper is introducing to America. Mr. Draper has won high praise on the Continent and players. in his native England. He has already

In his native England. He has already made one trip to America. This evening is divided, musically, he-tween the concert of Mme, Louise Homer and that of the Kneisel Quartet. Mme, Homer will give her only recital of the season in Philadelphia at the Academy, it is for the benefit of the Children's Homeopathic Hospital. The great con-trained is in fine voice this year, as matraite is in fine voice this year, as was shown when she came with the Phila-delphia Orchestra some weeks ago. The Kneisels will come to Witherspoon Hall without Mr. Letz, their second violin

PHOTOPLAYS.

THE SPOILERS Twice Daily. Afts. 2:80. Evenings 8:30. Preceded by daily change First-Run Pictures

KNICKERBOCKER

ZUDORA

IRIS THEATBE TODAY Sackie Saunders in Rose of the Alley (a parta). A Scenario Editor's Dram, When Their Bridge Got Mixed. Others.

Home of World's Greatest Photop Afternoons 1 to 5, 10 and 15c. Evenings 7 to 11, 10, 15 and 35c FOURTH CAPACITY WEEK without and Letz, their second violin, who is detailed in Europe. His place is ac-ceptably taken by Samuel Gardner. The three quartets they will play are the Schumans in A major, the Mozart in S flat, and a novelly, by Zoltan Kodaly, in C major. Kodaly is both musician and theorist, and his work is said to be at her villa near Marseilles, France, brings the information that the diva is about to come to America, and expects to arrive in January. She has made no hand. BROAD-"The Secret." by Henri Bernstein, adapted by David Belanco. A study of fam-initie jealouse in which Gabrielle Jannelos, the heroine, seeks to destroy people's impo-ness. Frances Blarr proves herself an actress of exceptional talents in an unpleas-ant role.

THEATRICAL BAEDERER

ADELPHI- "Today." by George Broadhuist and Abraham Schomer. A. wife, excellently played by Ethel Valentine, seeks lumary by The sealest way" and is killed by hey hus-hand.

the herolme, seeks to destroy people's importances. Frances Blarr proves herself an actrees of exceptional talents in an unpleasing role.
FORREST.-'The Queen of the Movies'.' a Maleidescepte multical concredy, realise with within a popers as a screaming by funny reform professor, and May Le Bouss a facility of movie' strend.
GARRICK.-'Toke Queen of the Movies'.' a Maleidescepte multical concredy, realise with within a popers as a screaming by funny reform professor, and May Le Bouss a facility from reformant and perimutar'.' dramatisation of the famous screaming of the screaming by funny reform professor, and May Le Bouss a facility of plass under capitally seminang plass of years, human, appealing to al.
KETHYS-Ethel Barrynero in a physick. 'Drift again of the famous screaming by the screamin plans for the season, and comes to Amer-ica because of the distress and ruin wrought in France and Europe by the war.

Blanche Ring has a receipt for happiness. "Show me the man or woman whose smile begins in the heart and is reflected on the face," she says, "and I will tell you without asking that doctors and medicine play only unimportant parts in that person's life. You can always smile if you look at a thing from the right viewpoint. It is very simple. Begin with the resolve to amile every time you are tempted to a hasty word or a selifan thought. Give it a fair trial just as you would any other treatment, and you will be surprised to find how much more joy there is in life than you ever knew and how much better you may feel both bodily and mentally."

haracter and juvenile roles at the Little Cheatre has been a feature of the sea-on, is an Englishman and a graduate of Young Buster Collier has lately beroung Huster Collier has lately be-trayed an economic streak. When Pa-William Collier arrived at his home re-cently he found that the youngster had purchased a new cast-from savings bank. "The idea is," explained Buster, "that the bank can't be opened until it contains 50 worth of dimes, quarters and 50-cent picces. Then it comes open, and I start over again." debut in his own personality. He de-clares, too, never even on the first night over again." "Here's $10 now for your bank," re-plied the elder Collier. "I'm buying it. I don't intend to be held up for all my eliver every time I enter this house." And the deal was closed.

What's Doing in Town Tonight

Browning Society, New Century Club, 8 Food exposition, Reading Terminal Market.

Pres. American Institute of Chemical Engineers' convention, tour of city planta, morning and afternoon: banquet, Hotel Adelphia, T.p. m. Society banar for charity, Hortheultural Hall, S.p. m. Free, Single Tax Society, 1500 Walnut street, S. o. m. Free.

[all, S. p. m. Free. Single Tax Society, 1503 Walnut street, # m. Free. University of Pennaylvania Society of Musi-al Alumni dinner, Hotel Aldine, 7 p. m. Thirty-seventh Ward Republican Club ban-uet 1008 Lebigh avenue, 7 p. m. Buchreye Corn Raisers' banquet, Hellevue-tratford, T. p. m. Military exercises and review bonor Cohonel Anries E. Hyait, armory John Wanamaker Commercial Institute, 730 p. m. Free Knetsel Guartat, Witherspoon Hall, 8 p. m. Lutheran Social Union dinner, Downtown Joh, 6.30 p. m. nul production of "The Chocolate Sol-dier," has been engaged by the Shuberts

Knehel Quartet, Witherspoon Hall, S. m. Lutheran Social Union dinner, Downtown Club, 6:30 p. m. Lecture, Modern Views on the Constitution of the Atam. Dr. A. S. Eve. Franklin In-situte, S. p. m. Free. Concert for Children's Homeopathic Hespital. Madame Louise Homer, Academy of Music; S:15 p. m. Organ concert, Ralph Kinder, Drezel In-situte, S. p. m. West Philadelphia Business Men, 50th and Baltimore avenue. Free. Tioga Business Mon, 3543 Germantown ave-nue. Free. Colocilrich B. Jainess Men, 7th street and Gurmantown avenue. Free.

"Polygamy," by Harvey O'Higgins and Harriet Ford, who wrote "The Dummy," has opened in New York. The play takes its title from a question propounded in the first of its four acts, "Are all men natural polygamists?" The story is the study of the limits to which a wife's love will go when she finds out about the other woman. The cast includes Chrystal Herne, Mary Shaw, William B. Mack, Howard Kyle, Kath-erine Emmeti.Lizzle Hudson Coller.Ram-sey Wallace, Stephen Wright and 20 other

Junuary 4.

licola in

STELLA HOBAN-"The Queen of the Movies"-Forrest.

Flashes From "Stars"

Wallis Clark, whose playing of both Ealing College. He made his debut at the age of 21, and since then has played almost entirely the roles of elderly men. such as Scrooge in "A Christmas Carol,"

"A Tale of Two Citles." As Alan in 'Hindle Wakes" he really makes his

P. J. Doyle, who appeared in the origifor "The Peasant Girl," the musical com-edy which will be seen here shortly, with Emma Trentini as the star.

Winthrop Ames' production of the Amer-ican prize play, "Children of Earth," by Alice Brown, originally announced for Thanksgiving, has been postponed till

A letter from Marguerita Sylva, who is ola in "Arms and the Man." Sir An-ny in "The Rivals." and Defarge in Tale of Two Citles." As Alan in his

The cast

"Whenever you require a large sum of money you will write the attorneys and they will send it. Think of the notoriety, the busy reporters, the like.Storm, why, the choice is yours, broken-down nobles, indigent society folk!"

She faughed at the picture. He was right. If she desired peace and comfort she must keep this fortune away from the public eye.

"Zudora, there is one pleasant fancy you must henceforth put entirely out of your mind."

"And what is that?"

"This fancy for John Storm. For all that you have inherited this vast sum of money, you are still under my guardianship for three years."

What Zudora would have replied to this half-veiled demand will never be known. The bell rang, and shortly after that John Storm himself was ushered into the room. Hassam Ali nodded coldly, but the girl sprang to greet her lover. The young man amiled down at her. He made no ef-fort to hide the adoration in his eyes. "How's the case going?" she asked. "Fretty well. I think I shall win out against Bienreith." known. The bell rang, and shortly out against Bienreith."

"He hates you."

"No doubt of it. He'd like nothing "No doubt of it. He'd like nothing etter than to stick a knife in my ack." Hassam Ali's eyes narrowed. An les had come to him. Band come to him. better than to stick a knife in my back."

Idea had come to him.

"Mr. Keene," said Storm suddenly, Handry was employed as a traveling salesman by a Market street firm.

confidence of youth. "It is. If you are willing to risk Dixon. Mrs. 8. Boyer Davis, Mrs. Edward the dangers for the sake of a man Crozer and Mrs. William Clothier. "It is. If you are willing to risk Then he left her:

(CONTINUED TOMORROW.) WOMEN'S BAZAAR A SUCCESS

cation

Display by Ethical Culture Club Draws Large Patronage.

A new method of reducing infant mortality and one expected to prove a success has been adopted by the Bables' Welfare Association, comprising all the organizations in this city working for the improvement of children. The tele-phone is the newest aid of the child Attendance continued heavy today at the fair of the Women's Club of the Ethloal Culture Society, which opened yesterday in the new home of the club, rkers yesterday in the new nome of the club, Juniper and Spruce streets, and will con-tinue until tomorrow night. It was an-nounced today that the object of the bagaar-to raise $2000 to pay the last instalment due for the building of the new headquarters-will surely be realized if yesterday's attendance is any indi-cation workers. Mothers whose children are ill and who are at a loss what to do may obtain in-stant and expert advice by calling up Electrical 21. Information as to the nearest physician to any home, or the nearest hospital or charitable dispensary, will be given free. The exhibit of the Child Federation in Carb Hell lost emprove has been lossed

The entire building is elaborately dec-City Hall last summer has been loaned to William Freihofer, president of the Freihofer Baking Company, who has installed it at 22 Nouth 52d street, for the orated and each floor is devoted to various departments of the bazaar. the benefit of mothers in that section.

> GRACE BAPTIST TEMPLE FAIR Last Indebtedness of the Institution

FREE ADVICE TO MOTHERS

Questions Concerning Welfare of Babies Answered by Telephone.

to Be Paid Off.

Members of Grace Baptist Temple, Broad and Berks streets, of which the Rev. Dr. Russell H. Conwell is pastor, are expecting to pay off the last of the Tample's indebtedness amounting to about $25,000 through the Sith annual fair, which is to prove a the church this work REWARD FOR FINDING MAN 625,000 through the 50th annual fair, which is in progress at the church this week. Every organization of the temple is participating in the affair, and there are is heautiful booths at which almost any imaginable article may be purchased. Each evening suppor is served and there is music and special entertainment. The fair will end Saturday night.

Hall Caine, was produced with a big company on the Isle of Man by the Vila-graph-Liebler Company. The pictures have been shown in New York, but Philtheorist, and his work is said to l exposition of a truly national Hung music, untainted by gipsy rhythms.

adelphis is still to have a view of the production. Unless Mr. McCarthy will bring the production to this city in a short time he is threatened with legal "Wilsons" a New Variety of Apple Darius Esterday, a farmer of Harmon, township, N. J., will go to Washington short time he is threatened with legal action, to be taken by Mr. Rock and his associates, who are impatient of the de-lay. It is expected that Mr. McCarthy will have to make a definite announce-ment in a few days, although he is said to have the advantage of a contract fa-verable to a continuance of "The Spoll-ers" production here.

Originality in every phase is promised to those who attend the grand bazaar in Horticultural Hall today, tomorrow and Saturday. The affair is being conducted inder the auspices of the Episcopal Diocess of Pennsylvania. The proceeds will be donated for the support and main-tenance of St. Martha's Settlement Heuse, 8th street and Snyder avenue. The needs of the settlement house have aroused general sympahty among the Fenseonalians. Episcopalians.

THIRD EPISODS. "THE MYSTERY OF THE DUTCH CHEESE MAKER," shown here Man., Tues, & Wed, See It Here First, Nearly every Episcopal parish of the Nearly every hipsecoal period of the city has its representatives working to make the bazaar successful. The nov-elites displayed are numerous and the enterialments and side shows are de-inghtful. The hall has been lavishly LAFAYETTE Scenation Ave. DOUBLE FEATURES TODAY ZUDORA and FLEUR DE LIS RING Midnight Tragedy Regulate Comedy decorated.

MODERN DANCING MISS MARGUERITE C. WALZ Studio of Modern Dances 1604 WALNUT STREET Mrs. Elizabeth W. Red, Chaperona. Burura SEL

West Allegheny THEATRE TODAY THE POISONED HITE FABLE OF THE FAMILY AND NELLIE OF THE FAMILY AND NELLIE OTHERS BUTUES STEL. WANT TO FORM YOUR OWN CLASS or take a Strictly private Lesson Consult Arm-Brust, Chestnut St. 113. SPECIALIST in up-to-the-minute dances. The C. Ellwood Carpeniar School, 1173 Chest-nut st. Experiences instructors. Teach the very latest signs daily from 10 s. m. Branches everywhere. Telephone, Filtert 4207. SOMERSET THEATHE TODAY 2775 Kensington Ave. SPECIAL FEATURE-SAPHO (5 Parts

Ledger Central will supply you with full information about winter resorts in any section of the country. Tell you exact locations, seasons, attractions, and facilities for recreation or rest. Give you particulars regarding train schedules and connections, sailing dates of steamship lines for any port, Pullman and boat accommodations, cost of travel, and hotel rates en route and at resorts.

This service is entirely without charge. Simply call at the BALCONY

LEDGER CENTRAL Broad and Chestnut Sts.

