SPORTING EVENTS OF 1914 SEEN IN REVIEW-MACK'S DEFEAT BIGGEST UPSET

YEAR OF 1914 MARKED BY UPSETS IN ATHLETIC WORLD

New Champions Appear in Baseball, Prize Ring, on Golf Links, in Rowing, Polo and Tennis-Football Title Alone Fails to Change.

When old, leg-weary 1914 passes the Irish-American A. C., at Paterson B. P. O. Eaton to his young and sturdy 1915 re-21, 1914. baton to his young and sturdy 1915 relayist he does so with the knowledge that his has been a lap of many surprises. As the Irish are wont to cronicle events by physical signs and wonders, so shall we call the period of 1914 "The Year of the Great Upset"-a fitting epitaph,

In bafeball, pugilism, golf, rowing, polo and tennis new candidates furnished the champions by upsetting holders supposed to be strongly enough intrenched in their positions to withstand flerce attacks. Football also presented many surprises, although Harvard's eleven was able to demonstrate its superiority.

Of all the great upsets of the year the Boston Braves' victory over the Athletics was the crowning surprise. The Stallings National Leaguers by dint of the most remarkable playing over witnessed managed to rise from the lowest rung in the championship ladder to the top of the National League, and then finally to the world's title by decisively whipping the Conule Mack team four straight games. Manager Stallings, on the stage and by writing, has endeavored to tell the world how his team won, but there is no other conclusion to be reached than that the men were supremely confident of their ability to win against great odds and never gave up the ship.

In football Harvard won again largely through the splendid coaching of Percy Haughton and such excellent players as Mahan, Bradlee, Hardwick, Pennock and Logan. Whether it was Haughton or whether it was the material at his com-mand which brought impressive triumph will always be a mooted question. The effect of Brickley's absence must be con-sidered in such a debate. Yale, under the tutelage of Hinkey, was a factor until the crushing defeat in the bowl. Prince-ton, with wonderful material, was a disappointment. The surprise, however, came in the excellent showing made by Cornell and the Army and the still more remarkable games played by Washington and Jefferson, Pittsburgh, Williams and

Two new boxing champions came to the front in "Kid" Williams, of Baltimore, bantamweight, and "Freddie" Welsh, of England, lightweight. Williams knocked out "Johnny" Coulon in the third round at Los Angeles on June 9, and Weish grabbed his claim to fame by outpointing "Willie" Ritchie in London on July 7. Boston claims its third champion in golfer Francis Ouimet, who trimmed the veteran Jerry Travers after he himself had been bester by Weiter Heren a prohad been beaten by Walter Hagen, a pro-fessional, for the open championship, Just what the distinction is between amateur and professional golf would be difficult to state, but if a golfer may have ama-teur status young Oulmet is without a doubt the leader of that class,

Some of the record makers during 1914 and those who achieved highest place in each class is given below in a condensed review of the season:

Would Be Master Stroke of Policy If "Outlaws" Decided to Invade New York City.

chise to the big town. Some folks will argue that the greater city will not support five big league teams -the Brooklyn Dodgers, Brooklyn Feds, New York Yankees, New York Giants and a New York Federal team-but that is a matter that never can be decided until the experiment is made. And the time seems ripe for the Feds to make the experiment.

The Yankees in 1915 will be a mighty uncertain proposition. Even if they change owners and get a first-class ager, it doesn't spell success for the Yarks, and it doesn't make them a draw-ing card. The Yanks need something they haven't got just now-first-class players. There is a little likelihood of any of the other clubs in the big leagues donating a few players to the Yanks, be-

INTERCLUB SQUASH RACQUET SEASON BEGINS TOMORROW

Fight for Championship Will Be Keenest Yet. Germantown and Merion Teams to Have Fast Clash

Another interclub squash racquet snason will get off the mark tomorrow with three important matches. It is probable that the season will be more interesting than ever, and that the fight for the championship will be of the keenest description.

The most important contest scheduled. will take place at the Germantown Cricket Club, Manheim, between Team A. of Germantown, and Team A, of Merion. Both teams will be at full strength. Frank S. White, who played in no competition matches last year, will again be seen in the Germantown ranks, and as he is one of the best players in the country his presence should add strength to the team. The teams will probably be as follows follows: Germinitown, Team A. Merion, Train A. M. Is. Newhall F. S. White I. Lee G. R. White I. Lee Muller I. Lee W. F. Johnson F. G. Pearson E. H. Leboutliller While the first teams of Germantown and Merion are battling it out at Man-helm, the second teams will meet at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford. Hors. too, a good match should be witnessed as all the old players on both teams are available. With the advantage of playing at home Merion abould just about win although the majority of the matches should be extremely hard fought. The teams will be: Merion, Team B. Germantown, Team B.
