

THE NEWS FROM THE CITY, NATION AND WAR AREA SEEN THROUGH THE CAMERA LENS

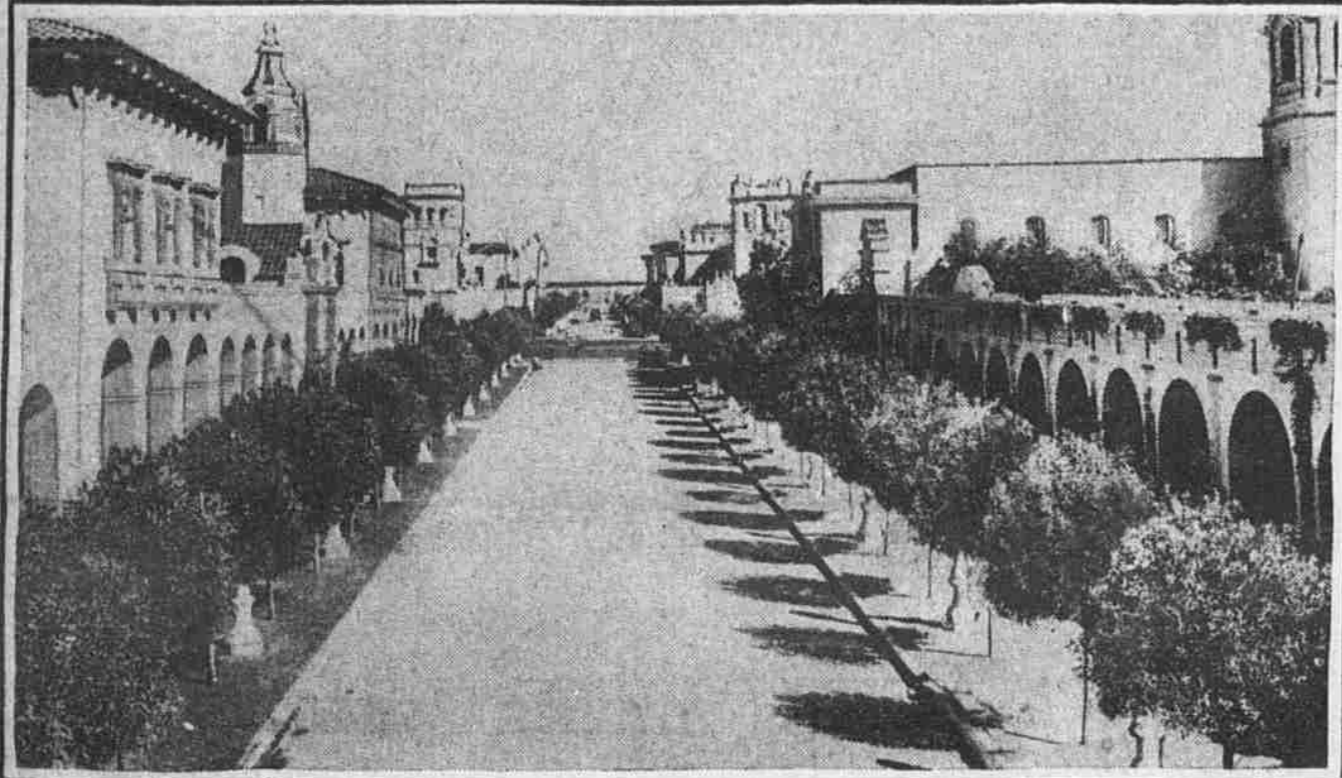

RUSSIAN BATTERY AWAITING RANGE SIGNAL

One of the most striking photographs that has come from the war zone. The contrast of the grim guns against the peaceful white snow and the frost-laden firs in the background makes an excellent picture.

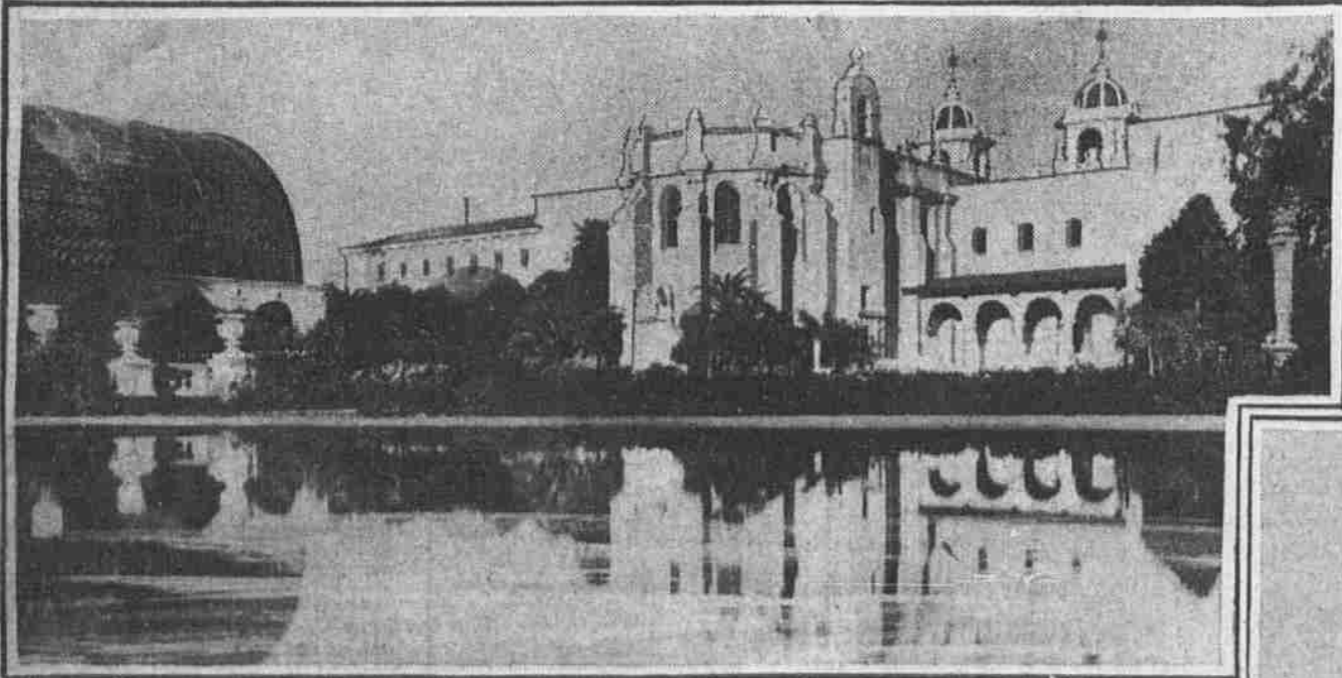

BRINGING THE WAR HOME TO ENGLAND
A workman's cottage in West Hartlepool after the raiding German squadron of cruisers had done its work.

CHARMS OF PANAMA-CALIFORNIA EXPOSITION AT SAN DIEGO TO BE REVEALED ON NEW YEAR'S DAY
Scene along the Prado, which will be opened to the public gaze on Friday.

AMERICAN GIRL TO MARRY GERMAN SAILOR-PRINCE
Miss Elizabeth Reid Rogers, of Washington, and Prince Christian of Hesse met first in Cairo. Before the war the Kaiser gave his consent. Now Miss Rogers is in Berlin and Prince Christian is on a battleship in the Kiel Canal. The Prince was an officer with the German squadron which visited America in 1912.

CHILD PERFORMERS IN THE PLAY "BIBI"

Miss Louise Segal, in the doll costume, and Miss Ella Cohen were two small stars in the production at The Little Theatre yesterday afternoon, given for the benefit of the Southwark Neighborhood House. The play dealt with certain adventures in Toyland.

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN ENTERTAINED BY REPRESENTATIVE VARE AT THEATRE PARTY

Youngsters from all sections of South Philadelphia poured in to the Mass Theatre at Broad and Porter streets, yesterday where Congressman William S. Vare had provided vaudeville entertainment. Each young guest received a small gift.
