ROAST PIG THE VERY ACME OF DELIGHT IN NEW YEAR DINNER

Dainty Dish Has Epicure's O. K. and Will Grace Many a Festive Board. Market Basket News.

Have you a little pig in your home? That is, of course, a little stuffed pig. for your New Year's dinner? If not, you have failed to follow the dictates of those who formulate the fashion in boilday dinners, for a little roasted and stuffed suckling piggle, with an apple in his mouth, has been pronounced the latest thing in 1913 New Year's dinners.

These deficacies can be purchased at prices as low as that of the Thanksgiving turkey, for which you woefully paid 30 or 22 cents for each pound purchased, for you can get the nice little "squealers" at prices ranging from $3 to $5, and they will weigh anywhere from 14 to 20 pounds. Of course, there are "pigs and pigs." The variety known as "sloppers" can be purchased at figures running as low as $1.50, but they are very lean and hungry looking, and then they have a taste reminding one of linseed oil. They are good, but hardly suitable for those who are looking for a first-class dinner. The other little pigs, those sold at prices ranging from 53 up, are fat and appetizing in appearance, and are known as "corn-fed aucklings.

ulinary experts differ as to the most sustable stuffing for the little pigs. German chefs delight in a stuffing in which sauerkraut figures prominently, which sauerkraut figures prominently, but many "who ought to know" say that a dry dreasing is necessary to take up the great quantities of grease in the animals, and advocate a Spanish chestnut dressing such as is often used in turkeys. Others who wish a "fancy" dish remove all the bones from the pigs and stuff them with sausare, declaring the result the acme of kitchen products.

Housewives to whom anything but turkey for the winter holidays is a sacri-

Housewives to whom anything but turkey for the winter holidays is a sacrilese are delighted to find that the market on these birds has weakened decidedly, the very choicest "nearbys" being obtainable at 25 cents a pound, while very good turkeys from the West and birds chilled in shipment can be had at prices ranging from 20 to 24 cents a pound. "Rubbed" turkeys—those bruised in shipment and those with crocked breastbones—are seling at 19 cents a pound. pound.

The reason for this sudden drop in the price of gobblers is attributed by experts to the fact that the market was over-crowded with the birds at Christmas time and in addition to this many farmers. seizing a last opportunity to dispose of their flocks, have killed all birds re-maining and shipped them to the cities. willing to sell them at almost any figure. Strawberries from the South have ap-peared in the markets of this city, and peared in the markets of this city, and are quoted at prices ranging from 60 to 80 cents a quart. Other Southern products have dropped slightly in price, oranges selling at prices ranging from 25 to 30 cents a dozen, grapefruit at from 50 cents to $1.50 n dozen and kumquats from Florida at 20 cents a quart.

Although fresh vegetables have not disappeared entirely from the markets, prices are so high as to be almost prohibitive.

are so high as to be almost prohibitive.

Green peas and lima beans are quoted at a half peck, string beans at 70 cents a half peck and other hothouse products at figures proportionately "steep."

In the game markets venison continues to be sold at 70 cents, named to be sold at 70 cents a pound and bear meat at 40 cents. Rabbits are quoted at from 50 to 80 cents a pair and Belgian hares at $1 each. Mallard ducks are selling at $2 a pair, canvasbacks at $3.50 a pair and blackheads and redheads at $1.26 and $3 a pair, respectively.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION FACES PERIL OF REJECTION

Brumbaugh Expected to Ask Senate Not to Confirm Several Nominations. Gaither's Fitness Challenged.

Governor-elect Brumbaugh probably will ask the State Senate to refuse to confirm the appointment of several members of the State Public Service Commission. Governor Tener's nomination of his pri-$10,000 post on the commission to succeed brought out a storm of protest, with the result that the members of the Senate will learn Governor Brumbaugh's views before they proceed to confirm the appointments.

Not only Mr. Gaither's name, but the name of every other member of the commission, must come before the Senate for confirmation. They were appointed in July, 1913, after the Legislature had adjourned. When Senator Vare was asked whether he would vote to confirm Galther's appointment, he said:

"You must remember that the whole commission has yet to be confirmed. And as Doctor Brumbaugh is soon to be Governor he will maturally be interested not only in Gaither, but also in the other appeintees. This commission will per-form its duties under Governor Brum-baugh as it has also been serving under Sovernor Tener. Doctor Brumbaugh, no doubt, has his own ideas as to a Public Service. Commission, and certainly it would be more satisfactory to him if the commission were in sympathy with his views as to public service. As the commission is at present constituted, it may or may not be satisfactory; therefore, before I say whether or not I'll vote for Gaither or any one else in this connec-tion, I will, as a courtesy to the new Governor, learn his views. It's the logical thing to do. The State Senate, as a body, I believe, will be giad to have the Doc-tor's opinion."

"The effect of the Sunday meetings in Pittsburgh had certain definite results.
"There was established a religious atmosphere which gave a receptive hearing to all ministers and Christian workers at any time and in any place. In a material city this is of the greatest importance and values tance and value.
"The strength of Mr. Sunday's preaching lies in the fact that he deals in vital subjects and presents the evangelical doc-trines of the gospel fearlessly and effectively.

"In Pittsburgh the remarkable thing was that those influenced were from every class. They included the rich and poor, the cultivated as well as the ignober of converts of the Sunday meetings who hold out as well as those received into the churches in the ordinary way."

Doctor Alexander is the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, one of the largest, wealthlest and most influential in western Fennsylvania, Following the Sunday meetings in Pittsburgh, he says, his church received 400 new members.

There has been a growing disallection between the Society for Organizing cluster the mission were discussed two years ago, hefore the building at 1011 Locust street was put up. Since then the mission has been regarded with disfavor by the society officials, George Long says.

UNCLE SAM'S "O. K." MAY STOP SEIZURE OF SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.-Belief that an amicable settlement of the diplomatic issue between Great Britain and the United States regarding seizure of American cargoes would be reached continued firm here today. The opinion was held in official quarters that a mutual understanding might be reached whereby legitimate cargoes could be certified before their departure from this country, and thereby made immune from detention.

High officials of the Washington Govnment were somewhat surprised that the American note has been regarded as "brusque" in some London quarters. They said the British Cabinet, which has it under consideration, after a single reading of the document must be convinced that the United States. hat the United States had spoken in the most friendly spirit, though none the less carnestly and emphatically on points on which it considers itself thoroughly justified under the laws of nations. In all, it became known today, 30 Amercan ships and cargoes, their values totaling millions, have been detained. The American note points out specifically, however, that reimbursement for previous damages alone cannot cure the situation, as the activity of the British fleet has restrained muny American exporters, whose business has become stagmant for fear of the numerous technicalities and risks involved in shipments.

With respect to college shipments.

With respect to cotton shipments, the case of one or two illegitimate cargoes, it is recognized, has caused the British Government to suspect all shipments. Secretary Bryan said that he had no present intention of inviting any other country to line up with the United States in the position it has taken. He said that the note represented a generalization of protests which have been made by this Government concerning the various setzures made by Great Britain since the beginning of the war.

will be urged to increase the fines and punishment for making false manifests. Under the present Federal statutes a shipper who makes a false manifest is amenable to a fine of $600 only.

Senator Walsh announced that British cruisers held up two American cargoes of copper last Monday. The vessels detained are the Swedish steamship New Sweden, carrying 700 tons of American copper, at Newcastle, and the Norwegian steamship Sorland, carrying 500 tons, at Leith. The American Smelting and Refining Company reported the cases to the State Department. The New Sweden sailed from New York December & for Gethanthurg, via Kirkweil, and the Soriend sailed from New York on Movember $1 for the same plants.

Wayfarers' Lodge Rejects Derelicts From Inasmuch Mission Because of Opposition to Bread Line.

Charlty circles were stirred today over the order issued to the Wayfarers' Lodge, 1750 Lombard street, that derelicts sent there from the Inasmuch Mission, 1011 Locust street, should not be taken in because the Society for Organizing Charity, which operates the Lodge, was opposed to the bread line supported by the Inasmuch Four men who were sent last night from the Inasmuch Mission because there was no room for them there were told they could not be accommodated. The returned to the Innamuch building and two of them spent the night standing against the wall in the corner of a crowded room on the first floor. When George Long, superintendent of the Instanuch, asked the Wayfarers' Lodge officials why they had turned away the men he was told that the Rev. Riley M. Little, secretary of the Society for Organizing Charity, had ordered that they could not take in men from the Innsmuch Mission because Mr. Little did not approve of the bread line run there.

OPPOSED TO BREAD LINE. That this was the reason the four men were turned away was confirmed this morning by C. E. Vandewalker, superintendent of the Wayfarers' Lodge. Mr. Vandewalker said he had been acting under orders from Doctor Little. At first he refused to discuss the reason the men had been refused accommodation. Then

"We're not taking men from the Inasmuch Mission now because we have strong objections to the bread line they Yesterday I had orders from Mr. Little that we were not to take in any men the Inasmuch Mission sent to us. EMPTY BEDS AT THE LODGE. There were empty beds at the Wayfarers' Lodge last night when the four men were turned away.

Down at the Innsmuch Mission, George Long had 500 men sleeping on the floors and in every available bed the mission could muster. After the mission services were over, a few minutes after 19 o'clock the men who had gathered during the and wonderfully interested.

CABBY DRIVES MAN THREE HOURS; LOOKING FOR HOME

Ends by Taking Customer to Police Station and Demands Fare.

A five-dollar bill was all J. W. Howell. A two-doing bill was all J. W. Howell, 106 South 38th street, could produce when Herman Kempon, a taxi chauffeur, 126 Manton street, demanded payment for a three hours' ride around West Philadel phia last night. Howell had $8.76 left from a Joy-provoking roll when he turned out his pockets before Magistrate Harris at the 22d street and Woodland avenue station. The Magistrate ordered him to pay $5 and call it square with the chaufstation.

Howell rode in the Kempen cab for nearly four hours, ordering it driven from one apartment house to another in hope of finding the one he lived in. He had appealed to Kempon at 15th and Market streets before midnight, saying he thought he lived at the Hamilton Court Apartments. The cab went there, but Howell was mistaken. For the next two hours the cab went from one house a another without finding Howell's home.

Timally Kempon got disgusted.

"Look here," he shouted through the window, "I know where you live. I'll take you home." Howell was willing enough and the cab drove to the police station. Not until he was inside a cell did Howeli realize he was not at home. He was discharged this morning.

FAULTS IN SEAMEN'S BILL Philadelphia Shipping Interests Criticise Sundry Features.

Philadelphia shipping interests are following with anxious eyes the progress of the seamen's bill which the Senate Commerces Committee took action on today. Their opposition has already been expressed in resolutions sent to Washington by various trades bodies and the Maritime Exchange.

One of the sections of the bill deemed absurd by shipping men is that which absurd by shipping men is that which requires two seamen to every lifeboat and 100 per cent. lifeboat capacity for pas-and 100 per cent. Heroat capengers.

An illustration of the result of the enforcement of this law is given in the fact that the Ericsson Line steamships Penn and Lord Baltimore, running between this port and Baltimore via the Chesapeake and Delawars Canal, would have to carry about 20 lifeboats and a crew of 40 men to man them.
