

ABSENCE OF SELLING OF AMERICAN STOCKS IN LONDON CAUSED HIGHER PRICES HERE

STOCKS ROSE ON LIGHT SELLING IN LONDON MARKET

Wall Street Had Expected Liquidation of American Issues—New York Central Led Advance.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The fact that American stocks were not sold in London, at the opening of the exchange there, in any such amounts as had been feared, and the fact that prices did not fall to any great extent, although Americans were lower in that market, caused a vigorous rally in prices during the last part of the noon hour throughout the whole list with few exceptions.
