

A PAGE OF BILLY SUNDAY AND SOME OF THE SCENES HIS COMING BROUGHT TO TOWN

"GLAD TO BE HERE"
A favorite attitude, astride a chair, from which "Billy" Sunday likes to talk when conversing familiarly with friends.

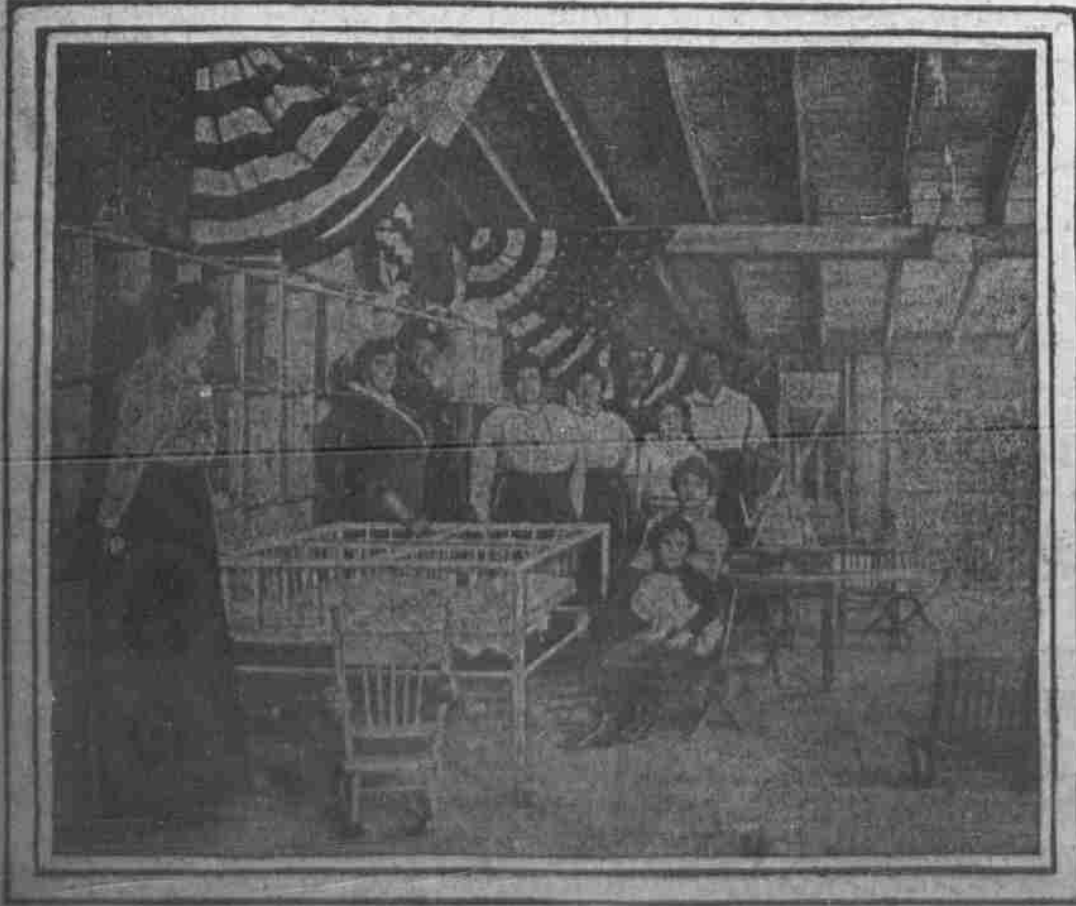

"BILLY" SUNDAY'S BEDROOM SHOWS "KEEP SMILING" SIGN
The four-story house, at 1914 Spring Garden street, will be occupied by the evangelist and his staff during their stay in this city. A large bedroom and study have been provided for his exclusive use.

THROUGH POURING OUT OF TABERNACLE'S NUMEROUS DOORS
There are 29 entrances and exits in the auditorium building and since all vehicular traffic is kept away from the building itself, the tabernacle can be quickly emptied. It is estimated that 65,000 persons heard the evangelist in his three sermons of the first day.

"HOW MANY OF YOU WILL CHARGE FOR GOD?"
A characteristic pose on the platform—spinning like a top with one foot as a pivot.

NURSERY AT TABERNACLE WHERE BABIES MAY BE CHECKED
Almost 100 children can be taken care of in the building across the Parkway from the tabernacle. A superintendent, a physician and 12 nurses are in charge.

PART OF THE CROWD OF 19,000 WHICH HEARD FIRST SERMON OF PRESENT CAMPAIGN
Persons took their places in line before the doors an hour before dawn in order to make sure of seats at the opening service. Almost 1000 were in line before 6 a. m., some coming many miles.

"WE'LL PUT THE DEVIL IN THE HOSPITAL"