

SCENES, EVENTS AND PERSONS PROMINENT IN THE DAY'S OUTPUT OF NEWS FROM MANY SOURCES

THE CROWD THAT ALWAYS WAITS AT THE TABERNACLE TO SEE "BILLY" SUNDAY ENTER
The evangelist sometimes comes to the meeting in his big car and sometimes he walks. In either case, he is generally recognized by admirers, who give the policemen guarding the doors a busy few minutes keeping them all back until the former baseball player can cut his way through the throng. Mrs. Sunday can be seen through the forward window of the automobile.

PUPILS OF FRIENDS' SELECT SCHOOL SKATE IN THEIR OWN BACKYARD
The acre within the yard's inclosure contains a running track in the summer, but when freezing weather arrives, it is flooded and becomes a private skating pond on which the 200 pupils can enjoy themselves with no fear of drowning by breaking through.

OLD-TIME GANGPLANK NOW USED TO TAKE ON PASSENGERS AT KAIGHN'S POINT
A relic of a former era in river transportation has come back again since the destruction last Sunday of the ferryhouse at Kaighn avenue, Camden. A temporary platform has been created to serve as a landing place, imparting to the scene a flavor of early days in the Quaker City when traveling conveniences were few in number.

GIRL TAXI-CHAUFFEUR IS BUSINESS-LIKE
Miss Wilma K. Ruzary is New York's latest novelty, with business-made suit, leather leggings and top and cape of leopard's skin.

CITY'S NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS AT HIS DESK
Dr. William C. Jacobs has already begun work on the problems connected with the city's school system and it is believed he will prove a worthy successor to Governor-elect Brumbaugh. He brings to his position a wide experience.

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE PHILADELPHIA EQUAL FRANCHISE LEAGUE IN SESSION
