

PERSONS AND THINGS YOU READ ABOUT IN THE DAY'S GRIST OF NEWS FROM A BUSY WORLD

W. G. McADOO SPEAKS AT SAN DIEGO EXPOSITION
The Secretary of the Treasury is addressing the throngs at the opening of the Panama-California Fair as the representative of the President. Behind him, from left to right, are Count del Valle de Salazar, Envoy from Spain, and Rear Admiral T. B. Howard, commander of the Pacific fleet.

ALLIES' WOUNDED REST AT AMERICAN HOSPITAL IN PARIS
One of the most comfortable and best equipped hospitals in Europe is that of the American Red Cross at Neuilly-sur-Seine, a suburb of Paris. A roof garden is provided for convalescents from both the French and British armies. The nurses are all young American women.

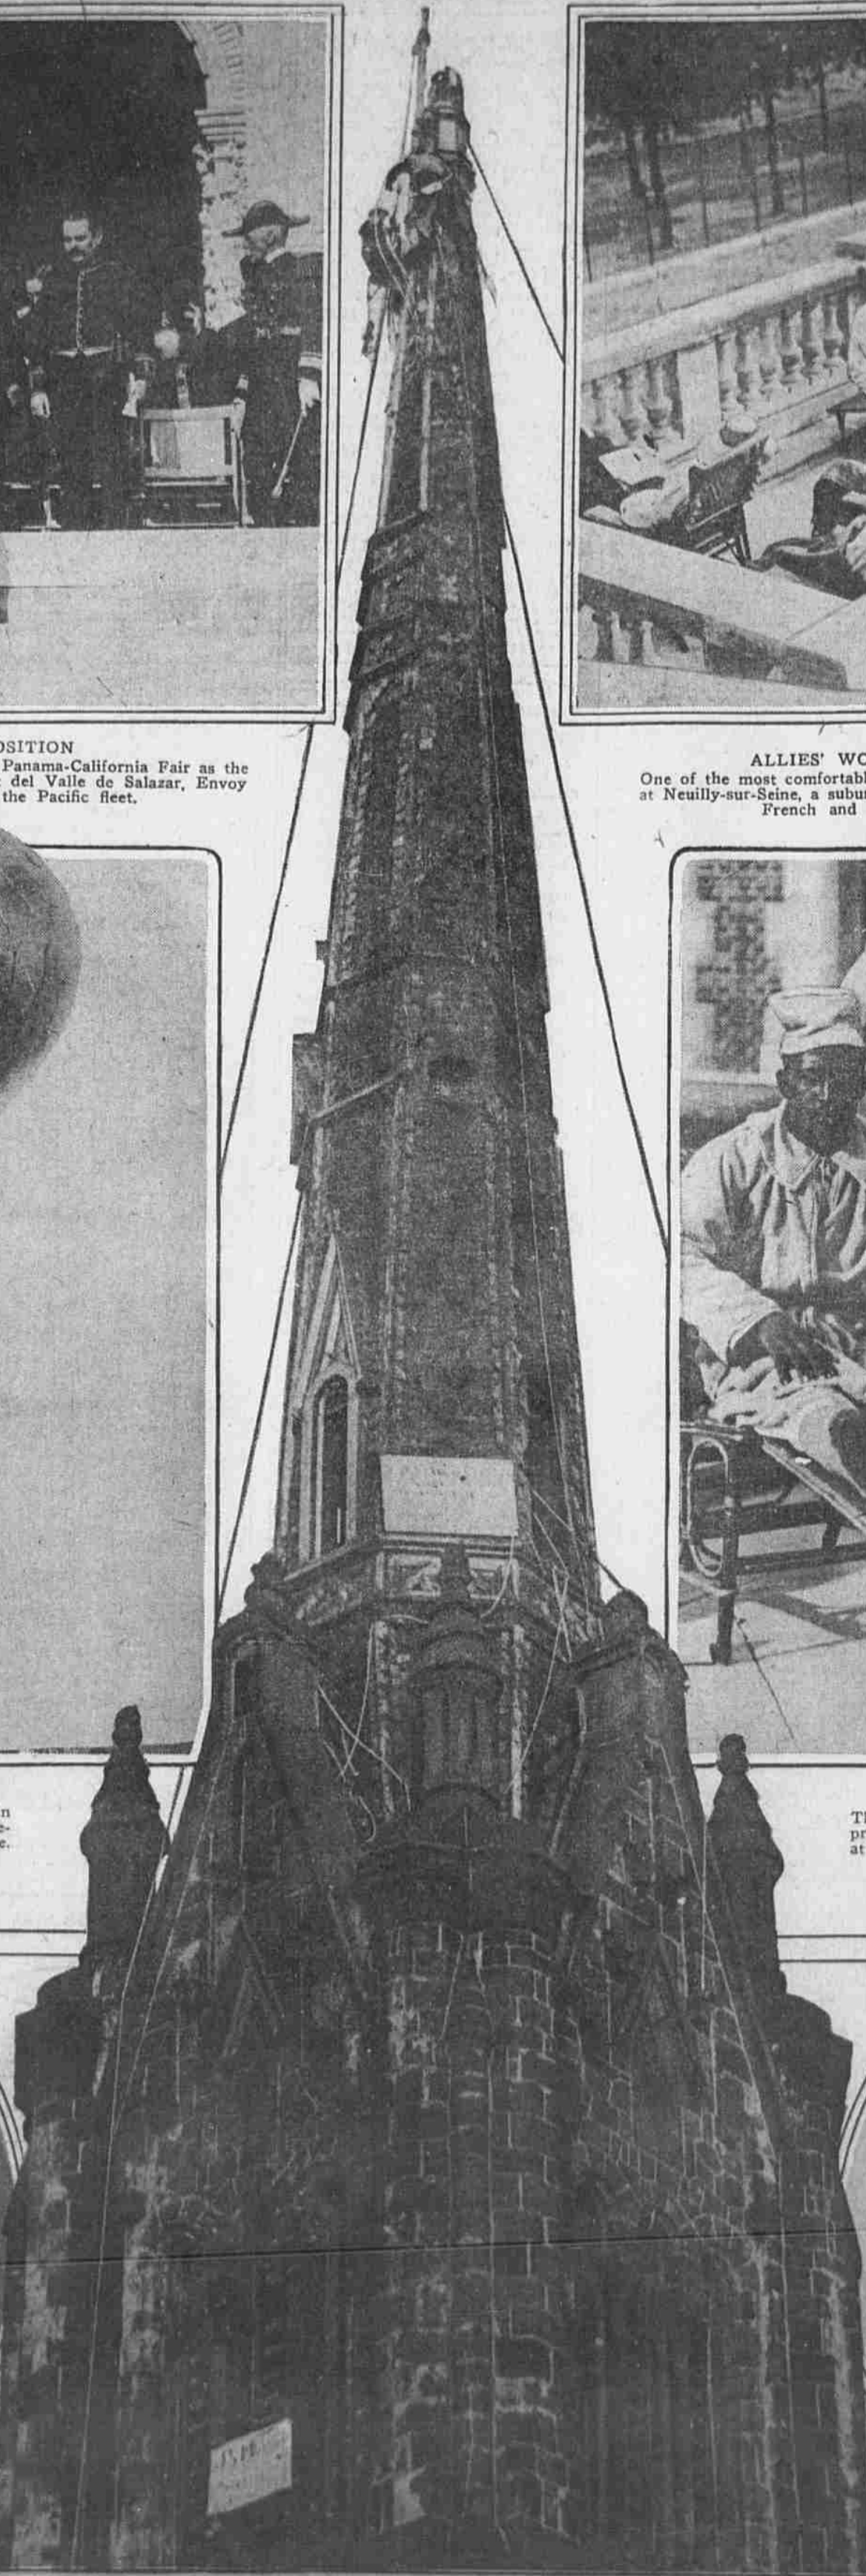

GERMAN WAR BALLOON IN ARGONNE REGION
This is an air craft of the semi-rigid type favored by the Kaiser's forces in obtaining the enemy's range, which nowadays can be calculated with mathematical accuracy. Communication with the ground is kept up by telephone.

AMERICAN GIRLS NURSE WOUNDED ALGERIANS
The dark-skinned Turcos from Northern Africa are said to be highly appreciative of the attention they receive at the American Red Cross Hospital at Neuilly, which is supported by the contributions of rich women.

CENTRAL FIGURE IN STRANGE LOVE TRAGEDY
Mrs. Ida Spiffen Rogers, shown here, poisoned her two children because she feared she was losing the affections of Loris Elson Rogers, who was married to another woman. He was divorced from his first wife.

STEEPLEJACKS TEARING DOWN CONDEMNED CHURCH SPIRE
The city has condemned the 196-foot spire of the Oxford Presbyterian Church, at Broad and Oxford streets, and Contractor John Monop and assistants have been busy all week dismantling it. It was built in 1864 and was one of the tallest in the city.

SHE'S AN OREGON LEGISLATOR
Miss Marion B. Towne is the only woman member of the Oregon Assembly and almost the only Democrat. She won without making a single speech. She canvassed from house to house.