

CENTRAL HIGH LEADS IN SCHOLASTIC BASKETBALL RACE; WARD TOP SCORER

Men and Dogs
Bow wow, bow wow. The Federa report,
They've traded dogs for men,
And so we've dragged them into court
Where able legal men cavort,

"FANNING" WITH GRANTLAND RICE

Baseball as a Trust
We are in somewhat of a pickle regarding one or two phases of the trust idea in baseball. As follows:

SOMEBODY IS ALWAYS TAKING THE JOY OUT OF LIFE

COAST FIGHTERS COMING EAST FOR RING ENCOUNTERS

Bob McAllister Has Arrived
Here—Several Other Professional Stars Are on Their Way—Easterners Profit
Since the general exodus of many fighters has taken place in California...

WELSH CANNOT NAME BIG SCRAP WINNER

By FREDDIE WELSH
World's Lightweight Champion
In New York American.
Leach Cross and Joe Shugrue will meet tonight at Madison Square Garden in a ten-round bout.

BASEBALL NUGGETS

The following Central League players have been released by purchase: By Terre Haute to Cincinnati, Thomas Sheehan; by Louisville to Evansville, Robert Roche; by Henderson to Terre Haute, McKinley Allen and Jessa Dancy.

SHOTS FOT THE BASKET

CLIFTON HEIGHTS, Pa., Jan. 13.—Clifton Heights defeated Williamson School Reserve, 37 to 15.
HAVERFORD, Pa., Jan. 13.—Haverford School won its second victory of the season getting 25 points to 22 against Wharton School.

WINS GOLF CUP WITHOUT A PLAY

ARBECON, N. J., Jan. 13.—The novel situation of winning a division cup without playing for it was brought about yesterday in the first match play of the tournament of the Seaview Golf Club.

STRIKES AND SPARES

Mulford Company, the leaders of Drut Lenoire, won two games out of three from Lilly Company last night, and made a slight gain in their nearest competitors, P. W. D. S. K. and F. Company, the latter again rolling in their usual good form after a four weeks' slump.

BASEBALL NUGGETS

—The stockholders of the Kansas City Federal Baseball Club voted yesterday at Kansas City, Mo., to increase the stock of the organization from $20,000 to $150,000. The increase is to be made by issuing bonds of $100,000 and a new bond issue was increased from five to nine. Tomorrow a president will be elected.

WITH THE CUEISTS

In the most exciting game so far in the elimination pool tournament of the St. Francis Xavier's A. C. Billiard Club, Frank Foley defeated George McHugh 25 to 21. The last frame started with the score 22 to 21 in favor of Quinn, with Foley breaking, and he opened them up and Quinn ran two balls, failing on his third and 23th ball.

WARD IS STILL LEADING IN SCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

Tallied Thirty-three Points in Two Games—Central Tops League
SCHOLASTIC LEAGUE STANDINGS
SECOND DIVISION STANDINGS
W. L. P. C.
Central High 2 0 1 000 N. E. High 1 1 0 000

GREBB EARNS DRAW

Substitute at National A. C. Holds Miskie Nicely.
Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, who substituted for Tommy Coleman in the main bout at the Fairmount Athletic Club last night, earned a good draw with Billy Miskie, of St. Paul.

MILLROSE GAME TOMORROW

A Number of Philadelphians Are Entered.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The athletic eyes of the whole country will be focused tomorrow night on Madison Square Garden, when one of the greatest athletic carnivals in the annals of indoor sports will be staged by the Millrose Athletic Association.

HEFFERMAN HAS BROKEN HAND

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 13.—Only three bouts were staged before a small house at Hefferman's athletic club here last night. Joe Hefferman, of Philadelphia, was to have met Jack Pink, of Camden, in the wind-up, but was announced that he had a broken hand.

N. Y. A. C. to Remain in A. A. U.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The New York Athletic Club has decided last night not to withdraw from the Amateur Athletic Union as a result of the victory scored by the club's athletic committee last Thursday when the registration of the club was refused.

DELAVAR BOYS VICTORIOUS

Delaware Boys' Club traveled to Millville and defeated the High School team in an interesting 40-minute fracas, 21 to 18. Delaware will play the Army St. Columbia five of the American League at the latter half Saturday evening.

DUFFY-DUNDEE BOT INTERESTS

CHESTER, Jan. 13.—Jimmy Duffy arrived here today and began training for his clash with Johnny Dundee Friday night. Dundee left for Millville today, where the Scotchman will conclude training.

ANNOUNCE BASEBALL SCHEDULE

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 13.—The schedule of the Southern trip to be taken by the Holy Cross baseball team next spring was announced yesterday as follows: March 30, St. John's College, at Annapolis; March 31, St. Mary's College, at Emmitsburg; April 1, Navy College, at Annapolis; April 2, Catholic University, at Washington; April 3, Georgetown, at Washington; April 4, Columbia University, at New York.

DELAVAR BOYS VICTORIOUS

Delaware Boys' Club traveled to Millville and defeated the High School team in an interesting 40-minute fracas, 21 to 18. Delaware will play the Army St. Columbia five of the American League at the latter half Saturday evening.

HEFFERMAN HAS BROKEN HAND

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 13.—Only three bouts were staged before a small house at Hefferman's athletic club here last night. Joe Hefferman, of Philadelphia, was to have met Jack Pink, of Camden, in the wind-up, but was announced that he had a broken hand.

N. Y. A. C. to Remain in A. A. U.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The New York Athletic Club has decided last night not to withdraw from the Amateur Athletic Union as a result of the victory scored by the club's athletic committee last Thursday when the registration of the club was refused.

DELAVAR BOYS VICTORIOUS

Delaware Boys' Club traveled to Millville and defeated the High School team in an interesting 40-minute fracas, 21 to 18. Delaware will play the Army St. Columbia five of the American League at the latter half Saturday evening.

DUFFY-DUNDEE BOT INTERESTS

CHESTER, Jan. 13.—Jimmy Duffy arrived here today and began training for his clash with Johnny Dundee Friday night. Dundee left for Millville today, where the Scotchman will conclude training.

CONWAY NOT IMPRESSED WITH JUARES

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 13.—Frankie Conway, a Philadelphia featherweight, who has been touring the Southwest, passed through Cincinnati yesterday on his way home. Conway fought one bout at Juarez, where Johnson and Willard are to fight, and says he was not well impressed with Juarez as a boxing center.

WHITE MEETS ALL COMERS

CHESTER, Jan. 13.—Charles White will meet all comers in four-round bouts Thursday and Friday in exhibition matches for the benefit of the Red Cross. White leaves Saturday for New York, where he meets Freddie Welsh January 29.

TO MEET AFTER LONG LAPSE

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Manager Joe Doth of the Fordham football team, has succeeded in persuading both Georgetown and Holy Cross to meet the Fordham eleven on the Marston field next fall. These two teams have not appeared at Fordham for five years.

HOT SPRINGS GOLF TREAT FRIDAY

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 13.—Phillips Hackett, of the Stockbridge, Mass., Golf Club, and C. A. Kerr, of the Evanston Country Club, of Kansas City, won the foursome from J. B. Lewis, of the Englewood, N. J. Field Club, and E. Chester, of the Hot Springs Country Club, on the Country Club course yesterday by 4 up and 3 to play. Play commences Friday in the annual midwinter tournament.

DANIEL BACON COMMODORE

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Daniel Bacon, owner of the yacht 'Plover', of the Bohemian Yacht Club, was elected vice commodore at a meeting of the Seawanhauk Corinthian Yacht Club.

LEWIS SCORES KNOCKOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Benny Lewis, the aggressive bantamweight of Newark, last night knocked out Jimmy Welsh, alias of Newark, in the third round of the scheduled ten-round bout at Brogan's Gymnasium A. A.

AGNEW MAY BECOME YANKEES

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Sam Agnew, first-string catcher for the St. Louis Browns, may wear a Yankee uniform next season. It is the deal that is hanging fire between the two clubs. Agnew is being offered for the monthly salary of $1500, and says he is not well impressed with Juarez as a boxing center.

TO MEET AFTER LONG LAPSE

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Manager Joe Doth of the Fordham football team, has succeeded in persuading both Georgetown and Holy Cross to meet the Fordham eleven on the Marston field next fall. These two teams have not appeared at Fordham for five years.

HOT SPRINGS GOLF TREAT FRIDAY

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 13.—Phillips Hackett, of the Stockbridge, Mass., Golf Club, and C. A. Kerr, of the Evanston Country Club, of Kansas City, won the foursome from J. B. Lewis, of the Englewood, N. J. Field Club, and E. Chester, of the Hot Springs Country Club, on the Country Club course yesterday by 4 up and 3 to play. Play commences Friday in the annual midwinter tournament.

DANIEL BACON COMMODORE

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Daniel Bacon, owner of the yacht 'Plover', of the Bohemian Yacht Club, was elected vice commodore at a meeting of the Seawanhauk Corinthian Yacht Club.

LEWIS SCORES KNOCKOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Benny Lewis, the aggressive bantamweight of Newark, last night knocked out Jimmy Welsh, alias of Newark, in the third round of the scheduled ten-round bout at Brogan's Gymnasium A. A.

AGNEW MAY BECOME YANKEES

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Sam Agnew, first-string catcher for the St. Louis Browns, may wear a Yankee uniform next season. It is the deal that is hanging fire between the two clubs. Agnew is being offered for the monthly salary of $1500, and says he is not well impressed with Juarez as a boxing center.

A MUSICAL COMEDY—SING IT, WHISTLE IT, TRY IT ON YOUR PIANO

Advertisement for a musical comedy featuring a piano and a plum. Includes text: 'SAY BO, WHAT'S THE DIFF. BETWEEN A PLUMBER AND A MINSTREL?' and 'DON'T THINK THAT YOU CAN RAT - TLE ME WITH SUCH A NUT YOU JAY!'.

Advertisement for a plumber. Includes text: 'AND THE PELICAN SAID "WHY DIDN'T THE PLUMBER SMOKE HIS PIPE?"' and 'THE PLUMBER LAYS HIS PIPE, YOU SEE, AND THE MIN-STREL PIPES HIS LAY.'