

THE HOME OF THE WOMAN—PRIZES OFFERED FOR ORIGINAL IDEAS AND SUGGESTIONS

HUSBANDLY FAILINGS

By ELLEN ADAIR

Little Trifles That Cause a Rift in the Conjugal Lute.

The matrimonial pathway is by no means strewn with roses, as so many sentimentalists fondly imagine. Too frequently do thorns appear. And the thorns are often very tiny little affairs, but none the less prickly for that. For a little thorn can be just as aggravating as a big one.

DRYING CLOTHES IN WINTER TIME

By MRS. CHRISTINE FREDERICK

With stormy weather, the problem of drying clothes becomes a serious one. It is no wonder that with the inadequate facilities offered by the average apartment the tendency is more and more to send clothes to a commercial laundry.

AN ATTRACTIVE TOP COAT FOR MIDWINTER

A SMART GIRL'S DIARY

Motoring in winter time is really very delightful and exhilarating if only one can keep warm enough! One sees so many blue cheeks and red noses in automobiles these days that the pleasure of the thing seems doubtful.

Popular Banana Dishes

Few people nowadays like bananas, but this is often the fault of the person who prepares them. You can get indigestion very easily from a watery dish of fried or stewed bananas.

THE NEW MILITARY HAT

Chocolate Cream Required: Three-quarters of an ounce of gelatin, one quart of milk, four large tablespoons of grated chocolate, one ounce of sugar, vanilla flavoring, cream.

The "Man's Girl"

"Well, Salie, did you have a good time at the Evans' house party? Sit down there and tell me every teeny-weeny bit of gossip you heard and what everybody said, and most of all, what Doris Beton did to the male population in general."

JOHN ERLEIGH, SCHOOLMASTER

A GRIPPING STORY OF LOVE, MYSTERY AND KIDNAPPING By CLAVER MORRIS

John Erleigh, son of Anne, the Marchioness of Warwick, is a private school, of which John Erleigh is headmaster. John and Anne are engaged to be married. The other children of Guy Wimberley, who has a hold on John Erleigh, are Verity, a science master at Harpree, who has a hold on John Erleigh, and a sister, Mrs. Travers, who is a nurse.

PRIZES OFFERED DAILY!

The Editor of the Woman's Page offers readers of the EVENING LEDGER a number of daily prizes for original ideas and helpful suggestions. These may deal with any subject which is of general interest to women, and include Ways of Making Extra Money, Entertainments and Parties, Sewing Devices, Management of Children, Sickroom Suggestions, Labor-saving Devices, Household Helps, Renovation of Clothes, Home Decoration, Educational Hints, and a wide variety of topics not indicated.

Lemon Sponge

Put one ounce of gelatin in a pint of water, with the rind of a lemon and one-half pound of lump sugar. Let this stand overnight for half an hour. Strain through a sieve, and when nearly cold add the juice of three lemons, and whites of three eggs, beaten to a stiff froth.
