

SCENES AND PERSONS PROMINENT IN TODAY'S INAUGURATION AT HARRISBURG

SOUTH PHILADELPHIANS UNDER REPRESENTATIVE VARE MARCHING THROUGH STREETS OF HARRISBURG
There were reports that the Vare delegation was not pleased with the position in the inauguration line of march, but it is believed the appointments announced by Governor Brumbaugh will do much to allay any ruffled feelings.

THE NEW GOVERNOR AND HIS NEW SECRETARY
Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh is shown in conference with his right-hand man, James S. Hiatt, of Philadelphia, who has long been associated with his chief.

HIS APPOINTMENT SURPRISED SOME
This is Francis Shunk Brown, the new Attorney General, as snapped on the street. He has been attorney for the Vares and for some years has been very close to them.

McNICHOL-LANE DELEGATION PROCEEDING TO PLACES IN INAUGURAL LINE OF MARCH
The men from the 10th and 20th Philadelphia Wards wore coats of a grayish color in distinction from the black garb of the stalwarts from the opposite side of City Hall. But both delegations were dressed with "class."

CYRUS E. WOODS, OF WESTMORELAND
Named as Secretary of the Commonwealth on his "lucky day," January 18, on which date other prizes have fallen to him.

HIS LAST TIME AT THE EXECUTIVE DESK
Retiring Governor John K. Tener posed for one final photograph of himself at the magnificent mahogany desk in the Capitol before bowing to his successor.

SECRETARY HIATT IN HIS BUSINESS DEEP
His official appointment, as generally forecasted, was made last night and caused no surprise among the knowing.
