

RECOVER OF STEEL IN US IS SLOW BUT POSITIVELY ASSURED

Carnegie Company Receives Order for 32,000 Tons of Skelp Iron - 100 Tank Cars Booked.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—The steel industry continues to make steady progress toward recovery. Improvement is slow but positively assured.

ORDERS FOR SUPPLIES POURING IN FROM EUROPE

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Secretary Nordman of the Pittsburgh Industrial Development Commission, says orders for steel and foodstuffs are pouring into the office of the commission from agents of European countries.

Rush Work on Allies' Shoe Order. LESTERSHIRE, N. Y., Jan. 30.—Night and day shifts have been put to work by the Benedict-Johnson Shoe Company at its plant here in order to rush completion of 1,000,000 pairs of shoes for the allied armies.

CHILDREN PROMISE SUNDAY TO BE GOOD

Continued from Page One. ing from a prominent member of the Catholic Church in Brooklyn. The article, which is being read at all the churches taken from a paper in Brooklyn parish, characterizes Doctor Eliot "the most dangerous teacher in America today."

DIRECTOR PORTER CALLS SULZBERGER DEMOGOGUE

"Blame Him," He Tells Oak Lane Residents, "If You Are Robbed." Director Porter told Oak Lane residents to blame Judge Sulzberger if burglars paid visits to their homes in the neighborhood.

DOGS TRAINED BY FRENCH TO SERVE AS MESSENGERS

Intelligent Airdeals Carry Dispatches From French to French. PARIS, Jan. 27.—Dogs are doing an immense service with the French army as messengers.

MUMMERS REVIVE CAKEWALK

Members of Two Clubs Dance Old Step at Celebration. The cakewalk, now regarded as a step of antiquity by tangoists, was a feature of the cake-cutting ceremonies of two New Year's associations last night.

"UNIVERSITY DAY" PROGRAM

At a meeting of the committee in charge of the "University Day" exercises of the University of Pennsylvania, it was held February 12 at the Academy of Music.

HAPSBURG DOMAIN TO BE DISMEMBERED IF RUSSIA TRIUMPHS

Inspired Article in Petrograd Journal Forecasts Disintegration After Victory Over "Germanism."

PETROGRAD, Jan. 30. Dismemberment of the Austro-Hungarian Empire will be the penalty if that nation is defeated in the present war.

P. R. R. GETS FIRST CARS FOR MAIN LINE ELECTRIC SYSTEM

Eight Out of Equipment of Ninety Arrive; New Service to Begin About the First of June. The first shipment of steel electric cars—eight in number—for use on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad when the electrified system between Broad Street Station and Paoli has been completed.

GENERAL CARRANZA WILL ENTER MEXICO CITY

Oregon in Control—"First Chief" Will Send Food to Capital. VERA CRUZ, Jan. 29.—General Venustiano Carranza, whose aid, General Alvaro Obregon, has installed himself in Mexico City with 20,000 troops.

SHOPKEEPER HANGS HIMSELF

Seranton Man Leaps From Stairway With Neck in Noose. SCRANTON, Jan. 30.—Maurice D. Kaufmann, who conducted a store at 413 Spruce street for some time, hanged himself while in a store today.

THOUGHT FIREMEN "COMPANY"

Sick Woman Undisturbed by Battle With Blaze in Her Home. Firemen in charge of Engine No. 27, of 224 street and Columbia avenue, worked 90 minutes while stifling a chimney fire in the home of John A. Oram, 122 North 19th street, last night.

REPEAL OF FREE SUGAR URGED

Broussard Says Provision Will Cause "Appalling Situation." WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Treasury deficit is due to Democratic leaders' miscalculations of the income and war tax laws, according to Representative Broussard of Louisiana.

WILLS ADMITTED TO PROBATE

Estates of E. Leonard and J. B. Hawk—Personal Property Appraised. Wills admitted to probate today included those of Edward Leonard, late of 1912 Poplar street, making private disposition of his estate valued at $772,731.

LANE NAMES CHIEF CLERK

Man Rises From $40 a Month Post to One Paying $4000 a Year. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—E. J. Ayer, Secretary of the Interior, was appointed chief clerk of the department at a salary of $4000 a year.

Accused of Diamond Theft

A box of diamonds, believed to have been stolen from residents of Overbrook, the police say, was found in the room of Fred Bigard, of 818th street near Fairmount avenue, when the place was searched early today.

ELECTRIC CARS HERE FOR USE ON PENNSYLVANIA MAIN LINE

Eight steel cars, fitted with the pantographs on top that transmit the electricity to the wheel motors, are now in the West Philadelphia yards where employees will learn how to operate them before the electrified service is opened between Broad Street Station and Paoli next June.

PINCHOT ADVOCATES U. S. OWNERSHIP OF RAILROAD AND MINE

Lawyer Tells U. S. Probers Government Must Hold Resources—Says Foundations Are Dangerous. NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Government ownership of railroads, mines and other natural resources is needed to give work to the unemployed in the opinion of Amos Pinchot, lawyer and reformer.

KEEN COMPETITION IN MILK

Venders Meet in Hand-to-hand Battles for Customers. Competition in milk is keen. Strenuous methods resorted to for increased business by Harry Garrettsfeld and Harry Fink ended with Fink getting a black eye and going to jail.

URGES PEACE MOVEMENT

International peace was urged by E. M. Newman in his travel talk on "The War Capital" at the Academy of Music last night. While showing the various armies of the various warring nations during mobilization and in the field, Mr. Newman impressed upon the large audience the necessity of beginning a peace movement in this country immediately.

DRIVERS AND MOTORISTS WHO HAPPENED TO BE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF 14th and Spring Garden streets today were amazed to see a woman in a policeman's uniform directing traffic.

When Bitosky did get there, his wife was asleep and his key wouldn't fit the door. He found a ladder outside a nearby store and climbed to the second-story window. Mrs. Bitosky heard the window rattle and saw a strange smooth-faced, neatly dressed man trying to get in her room. She yelled for the police.

REPEAL OF FREE SUGAR URGED

Broussard Says Provision Will Cause "Appalling Situation." WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Treasury deficit is due to Democratic leaders' miscalculations of the income and war tax laws, according to Representative Broussard of Louisiana.

WILLS ADMITTED TO PROBATE

Estates of E. Leonard and J. B. Hawk—Personal Property Appraised. Wills admitted to probate today included those of Edward Leonard, late of 1912 Poplar street, making private disposition of his estate valued at $772,731.

LANE NAMES CHIEF CLERK

Man Rises From $40 a Month Post to One Paying $4000 a Year. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—E. J. Ayer, Secretary of the Interior, was appointed chief clerk of the department at a salary of $4000 a year.

Accused of Diamond Theft

A box of diamonds, believed to have been stolen from residents of Overbrook, the police say, was found in the room of Fred Bigard, of 818th street near Fairmount avenue, when the place was searched early today.

SMOOT'S 12-HOUR SPEECH IN SENATE BREAKS RECORDS

Utah Man Unaided by a Single Rollcall in Lone Filibuster Against the Shipping Bill. WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A record-breaking endurance speech in Senate filibustering was concluded by Senator Smoot of Utah against the ship purchase bill at 9:20 o'clock this morning.

TRANSIT CRITIC HAS ULTERIOR MOTIVES, TAYLOR DECLARES

Denies Statements in Pamphlet Circulated Among Rapid Transit Stockholders to Arouse Opposition. Efforts on the part of real estate operators and others to hamper the city's transit plans were deprecated today by Director Taylor.

FOR THE TRANSIT PLAN

THE EVENING LEDGER WEAVERS THE BUTTON. A pamphlet, issued over the name of D. E. Dallam, a real estate operator with offices at 5th and Walnut streets, was declared by Director Taylor to be a "red herring" and he said Mr. Dallam was motivated by ulterior motives in stirring up dissatisfaction among stockholders of the company.

MAN FOUND DYING IN YARD

Badly Wounded and His Body Partly Stripped of Clothing. Mystery surrounds the finding of a badly hurt man in the back yard of Alexander Zackroick, at 2314 Edgemoor street, with a severe wound in the back of his head.

POSTOFFICE HAD BIG YEAR

Business in This City During 1914 Aggregated $9,100,000. In quoting from memory the report of the Philadelphia Postoffice for 1914, which is almost ready for publication, Assistant Postmaster John E. Lester declared that business during 1914 aggregated $9,100,000, and that the net revenue was $2,000,000 and $3,600,000.

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast. For eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey: Unsettled and warmer with snow late tonight or on Sunday; moderate east wind.

LONG SENATE SPEECHES OUTLASTED BY SMOOT'S

Utah Man Unaided by a Single Rollcall in Lone Filibuster Against the Shipping Bill. WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A record-breaking endurance speech in Senate filibustering was concluded by Senator Smoot of Utah against the ship purchase bill at 9:20 o'clock this morning.

TRANSIT CRITIC HAS ULTERIOR MOTIVES, TAYLOR DECLARES

Denies Statements in Pamphlet Circulated Among Rapid Transit Stockholders to Arouse Opposition. Efforts on the part of real estate operators and others to hamper the city's transit plans were deprecated today by Director Taylor.

FOR THE TRANSIT PLAN

THE EVENING LEDGER WEAVERS THE BUTTON. A pamphlet, issued over the name of D. E. Dallam, a real estate operator with offices at 5th and Walnut streets, was declared by Director Taylor to be a "red herring" and he said Mr. Dallam was motivated by ulterior motives in stirring up dissatisfaction among stockholders of the company.

MAN FOUND DYING IN YARD

Badly Wounded and His Body Partly Stripped of Clothing. Mystery surrounds the finding of a badly hurt man in the back yard of Alexander Zackroick, at 2314 Edgemoor street, with a severe wound in the back of his head.

POSTOFFICE HAD BIG YEAR

Business in This City During 1914 Aggregated $9,100,000. In quoting from memory the report of the Philadelphia Postoffice for 1914, which is almost ready for publication, Assistant Postmaster John E. Lester declared that business during 1914 aggregated $9,100,000, and that the net revenue was $2,000,000 and $3,600,000.

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast. For eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey: Unsettled and warmer with snow late tonight or on Sunday; moderate east wind.

DRIVERS AND MOTORISTS WHO HAPPENED TO BE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF 14th and Spring Garden streets today were amazed to see a woman in a policeman's uniform directing traffic.

SHOPKEEPER HANGS HIMSELF. Seranton Man Leaps From Stairway With Neck in Noose.

THOUGHT FIREMEN "COMPANY". Sick Woman Undisturbed by Battle With Blaze in Her Home.

REPEAL OF FREE SUGAR URGED. Broussard Says Provision Will Cause "Appalling Situation."

WILLS ADMITTED TO PROBATE. Estates of E. Leonard and J. B. Hawk—Personal Property Appraised.

LANE NAMES CHIEF CLERK. Man Rises From $40 a Month Post to One Paying $4000 a Year.

SMOOT'S 12-HOUR SPEECH IN SENATE BREAKS RECORDS. Utah Man Unaided by a Single Rollcall in Lone Filibuster Against the Shipping Bill.

TRANSIT CRITIC HAS ULTERIOR MOTIVES, TAYLOR DECLARES. Denies Statements in Pamphlet Circulated Among Rapid Transit Stockholders to Arouse Opposition.

FOR THE TRANSIT PLAN. THE EVENING LEDGER WEAVERS THE BUTTON. A pamphlet, issued over the name of D. E. Dallam, a real estate operator with offices at 5th and Walnut streets, was declared by Director Taylor to be a "red herring" and he said Mr. Dallam was motivated by ulterior motives in stirring up dissatisfaction among stockholders of the company.

MAN FOUND DYING IN YARD. Badly Wounded and His Body Partly Stripped of Clothing. Mystery surrounds the finding of a badly hurt man in the back yard of Alexander Zackroick, at 2314 Edgemoor street, with a severe wound in the back of his head.

POSTOFFICE HAD BIG YEAR. Business in This City During 1914 Aggregated $9,100,000. In quoting from memory the report of the Philadelphia Postoffice for 1914, which is almost ready for publication, Assistant Postmaster John E. Lester declared that business during 1914 aggregated $9,100,000, and that the net revenue was $2,000,000 and $3,600,000.

THE WEATHER. Official Forecast. For eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey: Unsettled and warmer with snow late tonight or on Sunday; moderate east wind.

Accused of Diamond Theft. A box of diamonds, believed to have been stolen from residents of Overbrook, the police say, was found in the room of Fred Bigard, of 818th street near Fairmount avenue, when the place was searched early today.

LANE NAMES CHIEF CLERK. Man Rises From $40 a Month Post to One Paying $4000 a Year. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—E. J. Ayer, Secretary of the Interior, was appointed chief clerk of the department at a salary of $4000 a year.

Accused of Diamond Theft. A box of diamonds, believed to have been stolen from residents of Overbrook, the police say, was found in the room of Fred Bigard, of 818th street near Fairmount avenue, when the place was searched early today.