THE marriage of Miss Katharine Duane, daughter of Mrs. James May Duane, of New York, and William Strother Jones, Jr., will be solemnized today. The ceremony, which will take place at 4 o'clock, will be performed at the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, New York, and will be followed by a reception at 105 East 58th street. Miss Duane will be given in marriage by her brother, Richard Sachs Duane, and will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Stanton Whitney, as matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Virginia Duane, Miss Mary Jones and Miss Eleanor Townsend.

Miss Duane is the daughter of the late James May Duane, a member of the firm of Brown Brothers, of this city.

THE marriage of Miss Harriet A. H. Fletcher and Joseph F. A. Jackson took place quietly yesterday in St. Clement's Protestant Episcopal Church, 20th and Cherry streets. The Rev. Dr. Charles Hutchinson officiated. Miss Clara T. Howard acted as maid of honor to the bride and Fullerton L. Waldo was best man.

The bride wore a traveling suit of sand-color broadcloth and brown hat and carried lilies of the valley. Miss Howard was in blue charmeuse and lace.

Owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's mother the wedding was a very quiet affair, and was followed by a small breakfast at the St. James Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left on a trip through the South, and on their return will live at 113 South 43d street, this city.
