

PERSONS, PLACES AND SCENES PROMINENT IN THE NEWS OF A WORLD'S DOINGS DAY BY DAY

COUNTLESS FLOUR BAGS FOR THE BELGIANS
 The steamer South Point, which has been taking on cargo for several days, expects to clear tomorrow with 6000 tons aboard.

WITHOUT THEIR USUAL DRESS CLOTHES
 Leopold Stokowski, director of the Philadelphia Orchestra, and C. A. Braum, a member.

A HINT OF COMING SPRING
 At any rate, it's not too early to turn the soil of Washington Square Park to receive the seed of spring flowers.

DOING THE NEXT BEST
 He can't reach the war, so he sells German funny papers that ridicule the British.

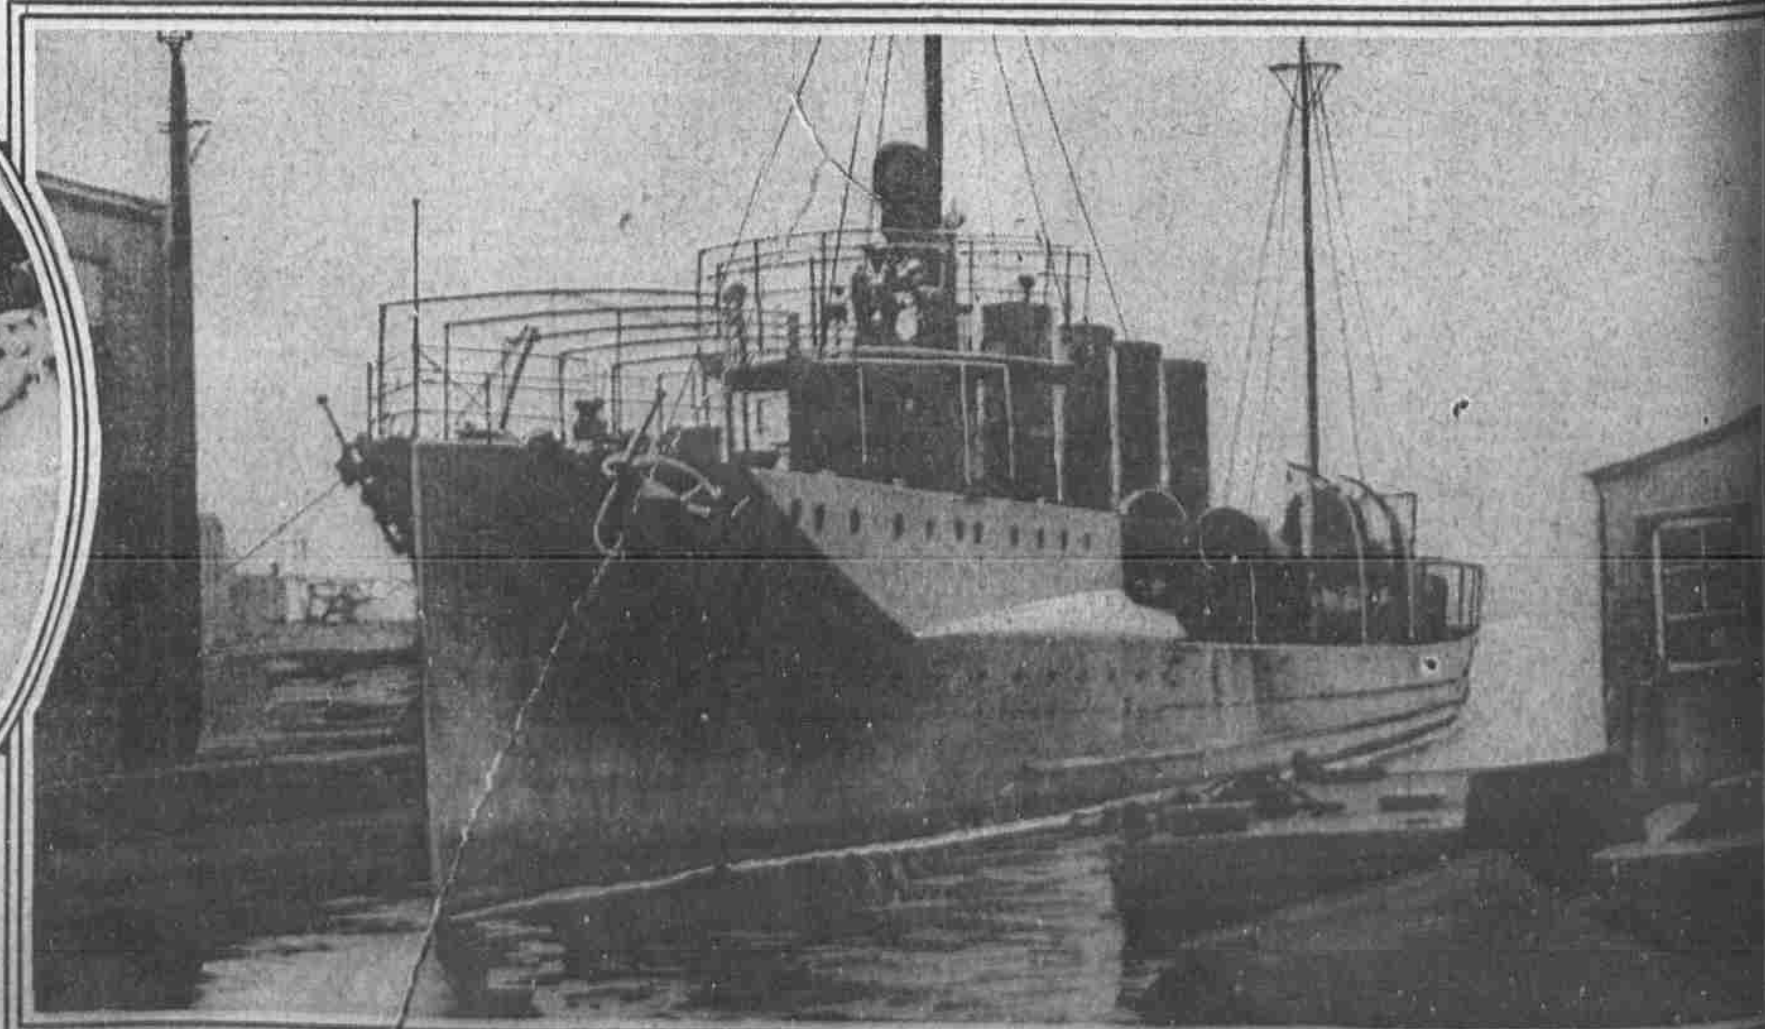

FEMINE ATHLETES OF TEMPLE UNIVERSITY'S BASKETBALL TEAM
 Right to left—Irene Morrison (captain), Willamina Gates, Frances Hannington, Sara Taylor, Mabel Bockelmann, Anita Preston, Sara Ferris, Mary Zesinger, Bessie Taylor. They are capable of making some masculine teams hustle.

Photo by Betty & W&S

ANOTHER SIGN OF SOFTER DAYS
 A pause for a near-spring boutonniere. He was a bit suspicious till he found it was an Evening Ledger picture man.

THE BRAND NEW O'BRIEN IN FROM HER SUCCESSFUL TRIAL TRIP
 This latest addition to the United States torpedoboat fleet cost $800,000. She can make 30.85 knots when tuned up. Cramp's built her. Her sister, the Winslow, will get a taste of water for the first time tomorrow.