

PERSONS, PLACES AND SCENES PROMINENT IN THE NEWS OF A WORLD'S DOINGS DAY BY DAY

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
ON FLORIDA'S SANDS
A new picture of Miss Cordelia Biddle just taken at Palm Beach, where she is visiting with her fiance, Angier Duke.

CROWDS GREET FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY ON HIS BIRTHDAY
This was the throng that gathered yesterday around the Washington statue in front of Independence Hall to see the colors presented by the Kansas Daughters of the Revolution run up and broken out over the historic building. A similar flag was given to the winds over the Capitol in Topeka, Kan., at the same hour to commemorate the hoisting of the birthday star flag of Kansas over Independence Hall by President Lincoln, 54 years ago.

MISS GERTRUDE LAMBERT
Winner of the Mary Smith prize for her painting, "Casper Bagg," in the Academy show and one of Philadelphia's exhibitors at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The photograph was made by an Evening Ledger staff photographer.

AMONG OUR DAILY SNAPSHOTS
Congressman George S. Graham was found in a spot favorable to a good picture. Louis J. Kolt, the baker man. His friends are saying he would make a good candidate for Mayor.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
SUBJECTS GREET MARDI GRAS KING
The picture shows the monarch's float as it proceeded up Canal street in New Orleans' great annual festival, just ended. Mardi Gras this year was one of the most splendid in the Louisiana city's history.