

KILBANE AND WILLIAMS FIGHT HERE MARCH 17—FINANCIAL OUTLOOK FOR ATHLETICS

WILLIAMS WILL BOX KILBANE AT OLYMPIA ARENA ON MARCH 17

Harris Signs Contract; Dunn's Signature and Forfeit on Way; Bantam Champion Will Train at Riverside Mansion.

Johnny Kilbane and Kid Williams will box at the Olympia A. A. March 17, Jack Hanlon, matchmaker of the Broad street arena, returned from New York this morning with the signed contract of Sammy Harris, manager of the bantam champion, Jimmy Dunn, Kilbane's handier, agreed to the match by wire late this afternoon.

Dunn's message follows: "Jack Hanlon, Matchmaker, Olympia A. A.—Your terms O. K. Sending signed articles today. McO'Negan cannot expect to hold me. If Williams will not box for him, any one responsible will suit me to hold the money. Am sending forfeit with articles."

The purse offered by Kilbane, $10,000, is the biggest ever hung up for a six-round bout. Kilbane and Williams will split the guarantee, $5000 each, with a privilege of 35 per cent. of the receipts.

Before Hanlon left New York for this city Harris informed him that Williams will be here two weeks before the date of the fight. The fighting boy will finish his training at the Riverside Mansion, Fairmount Park, where Battling Nelson and Terry McGovern worked out for their bout here in 1906.

Kilbane will do his training in Cleveland until a week before the fight. He will then come to Philadelphia and put the finishing touches to his preparations at a local gymnasium.

The forfeit referred to in Dunn's telegram is $1000, half of which will be for weight, 122 pounds, ringside, and the rest for appearance. Frank O'Brien, official referee of the Olympia Club, will be the third man in the ring.

Jack McEuligan, matchmaker and promoter of the National A. C., was non-committal this afternoon when asked if he would attempt to hold Jimmy Dunn to his contract Dunn signed for Kilbane to box Kid Williams at the National for a guarantee of $5000.

INDOOR BALL PRACTICE HELD Penn Teams Try Bunting—Rowers Brave Rain on River.

The University of Pennsylvania baseball teams, varsity and freshman, were driven indoors by the rain this afternoon. Coach Roy Thomas utilized the afternoon with a bunting practice on the gymnasium floor. It was the first time in 10 days that the men had been unable to work on the field outdoors.

In spite of the rain the Quaker crews went on the river. There were five varsity eights, the freshman eight and a four. The candidates for the engineering crew used the rowing machines in the gymnasium.

KELLEY TO COACH INDIANS Carlisle "Grad," Full-Blooded Red, Takes Warner's Place.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Victor M. Kelley, of Durant, Okla., a graduate of the Carlisle Indian School, has been appointed coach of the football team in that institution, to succeed Glen Warner, resigned.

Kelley, a full-blooded Indian, is known as "Choc." He was a quarterback while at Carlisle. Lately he has been coach at the Texas College of Agriculture. His salary as coach of the Indians will be $4000 a year.

BUCK O'BRIEN BALKS BROCKTON, Mass., Feb. 24.—Buck O'Brien, former Red Sox pitcher, has refused to sign with the Montreal Canadiens, because his contract calls for a cut in salary.
