

FLASHLIGHT OUTSIDE THE TRANSIT MEETING AND THE FRESHEST PICTURES FROM THE WAR ZONE

EMPLOYEES OF BUREAU OF CITY PROPERTY GATHERED AROUND DOORS OF ACADEMY AT LAST NIGHT'S TRANSIT MEETING

CHECKERBOARD AS SOLDIER'S GARMENT

When the bullets are not flying and when there is no active work to be done by the British in the trenches they while the time away with checkers. By means of this knitted checkerboard, whole companies can gather and watch two "cracks" having it out.

RUSSIAN ARTILLERY RIDING INTO ACTION

Russian artillery has become famous as the most useful and efficient branch of the Czar's forces in the field. A gun crew and the horses are seen here pulling their guns through a stream at full speed. The detachment shown here is part of the Black Sea Division.

CANADIAN CONTINGENT PASSING OVER ROUGH COUNTRY

The picture shows some of the Canadian troops who are at present conducting themselves with valor at the battlefield in France. They are shown here making a hasty march to relieve hard-pressed comrades.

Photos by Underwood & Underwood