FEDS DETERMINED TO PLACE TEAM IN NEWARK, N. J.

If Courts Decide Against Transfer of Kansas City Club, Indianapolis Team May Be Shifted to New Jersey Town.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 26,-There will be a Federal League club in Newark, N. J., in 1915, no matter what is the out-come of the legal battle being waged by the former stockholders of the Kansas City Federal Club to halt the transfer of the team to the Jersey town.

"If we can't do anything else we'll transfer some other club to Newark," said one of the leaders of the Federal League. which is holding its scanion here. It was intimated that the Indianapolis team might be the one shifted, in case of ried by the injunction proceedings of the Kansas City folks, despite their state-ments that the matter will be adjusted smloably within a short time. The legal action of the Kansas City people today halted the plans of the magnates, who planned to draft the schedule today.

The magnates met in secret session prior to the regular "get together" meet-ing and the Kansas City-Newark situs-

on was discussed from every angle. The magnates after the session declared that it a battle in the courts was forced upon them they could demonstrate very quickly that their action in transferring the franchise from Kaneas City was justified because of the failure of the Kaneas City officials to live up to the league's demonda

The racing game is beginning to edge back in other directions, which shows at which queer angles the pendulum of sport often swings. Some years ago racing was popular and boxing was heavily under the seneral ban. In Tennesses, for example, no one ever thought that racing would ever be chased out or that boxing would ever be revived. Yet the boxing would ever be revived. Yet the State Legislature attached the can to the so-called Sport of Kings and shortly afterward legalised boxing matches.
