ATHLETICS TO HAVE LONGER WORKOUT THIS AFTERNOON

Pitchers Are Shaping Up So Well That Thomas Will Allow Them to Put Something on Ball Whenever They Like.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 4.- The Athletics began their third day of spring practice under good weather conditions. Wack stated that he would give the playgo a longer drill this afternoon than yeaerday, but the morning work was planred according to the daily routine.

Now that the pitchers have shown up so well, Thomas will allow them to begin putting something on the ball as soon as they desire to do so. Control is the sermon which ira is preaching a dozen times a day to the young members of

The only physical trouble at present with the Athletics is the prevalence of severe colds. Doe libling has seen to it ist so muscular strains develop. Father McDorkey, of Camden, has arrived for a several weeks' stay.

Already Larry Lajole's work is the omment of the camp. The veteran, sually slow in rounding into shape, appears to be in midseason form. The new inteld, McInnis, Lajoie, Barry and Kopf, works like a well-oiled machine. The practice game of yesterday was a ged tryout for the new combination, Mack and Davis, who collaborated on the election of the contending teams, decided to make a shift in the Yanigan infield. Crane was moved from second to short, Bestwick went from third to second and McConnell was moved from the short feld position to the last sack.

PRESIDENT BAKER ON WAY TO CAMP

Phillies' Chieftain Is Expected Late Tonight and Comes by Automobile.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March L-The Phillies players arose at the usual hour his morning and set out for practice at Coffee Por Park, Weather conditions were not allogether in favor of the national pastime, as the air was penetrating and threatening clouds hung over the city. Manager Moran had planned to held a practice game, but owing to the short time remaining before the opening of the numerous exhibition games he decided to continue giving the youngsters individ-ual instructions. He will divide the squad into two sections, assuming generalship of the second string, and assigning Captain Luderus to the leaders.

It was announced in camp this morning at breakfast time that President W. F. Baker is on his way to the training camp. He and a party of friends are stopping at the Belleview Hotel, Bellair, some distance on the way up to Jacksonville, President Baker is expected here into to-night by automobile and his visit here will be his first to Coffee Pot Park. Business Manager Al. Lang, of the baseball interests here, is planning to close a deal by which the Quakers will make this place become their permanent spring training camp. The Usual Steam Roller

The Boston Record says that with Harry Dayls on the Mackian board of strategy the Philadelphia "steam roller will roll its ponderous way through the American League, even though bereft of the mechanism—Plank, Bender, Collins and Haker." And he might have added crushing seven other chibs, provided the MEADOWBROOK MAR led Sox do not take it into their heads to play ball this season.

Roger Bresnahan advises his players that it is not good baseball form to throw the ball into centre field with the bases choked, none out and one run needed to win. Come to think of it that does sound like good advice.

New Giant Phenom

New Giant Phenom

McGraw, pilot of the Giants, has uncovered another slugging wonder at Marlin. Among the catching recruits is Robert Marshall, a youngster of extreme build, who is just learning baseball. He played the latter part of last season with Davenport in the "Three I" League, and did so well that Denver drafted him, and there the Giants purchased him. While with Davenport he gained the name of being the "42 centimeter gun" of the league, and comes to the Giants tagged as "fence buster" who can knock boards off any concrete wall in the major cities.

"The Irish in baseball," writes Erln, "have not only been elevated to managerial positions, but there is still a pretty fair trish team to be picked. Jimmy Archer was born in Ireland. So was Roger Bresnahan. And there are Mc-Innis, Evers. Doyle, Maranville and Moriarty for an infield. And there are Burns, Sherwood Magee and Connolly for an outfield. No, they are not all gone

The hig difference is that the majority are no longer Irish. The game once belonged to old Erin, almost in bulk. Now it knows no nationality, unless the hyphen is lifted and the term American is ap-plied-which is fair enough as nationali-
