LAJOIE, IN OLD-TIME FORM, GIVES FLORIDA FANS NEW THRILLERS

"Larruping Larry" the Talk of Balldom in Southern Camp - Personal Popularity Will Be Big Asset to Athletics.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 5.—The combination of Larry Lajoie's being in this city to train and being a member of the Athletics has caused more local or the Athletics has caused more local comment and interest than anything that has happened in the realm of basebail in recent years. The fans of Jacksonville have become more or less blase during the past few years. Last season they haw the Athletics, Cubs, Cardinals, Browns and Louisville. This season they will see the Phillies and Brooklyn.

So much good baseball has tended to make them somewhat indifferent, or at least he made them feet that they are seeing merely what is their right to see. But Lajoie's presence has created a new enthusiasm. The big Frenchman has been the cynosure of all eyes since his arrival. He is constantly being sought out at his hotel by those who would rake up an acquaintance on the strength of having seen his picture in the newspapers. At Sunset Park, too, where Larry is now getting in shape for the American League season more people are d'awn to watch "Larruping Larry" than Home-run Beker and Collins combined.

Tommy Lennon, a freshman at the Uniersity of Pennsylvania, but who represents the New York A. C. in open compessions of Central, is given the other forward place.

Northeast High School, winner of the variety championship after the most torrid race in the history of the organization, has two men on the first five, Wallace, centre, and Hedelt, guard, while West Philadelphia High also has a brace of representatives in the line-up, Cleeland, forward, and Abrams, guard, and Ward, of Central, is given the other forward place.

Shelton and Asquith, the champion' star forwards, are both selected for the second team, with Tarr, Central High's lanky pivet man at centre, and Butler and Weinstein, of the Central and South-ern, respectively, at the guard positions. As Cleeland, of the Speedboys, proved himself the coolest player in the league and the best individual scorer, he is picked for the captaincy of the first team.
Of the men chosen for the second quintet, Shelton seems to be the logical player for the leadership.
