SUNDAY'S SERMON TODAY

"THINK ON THESE THINGS" "Text: 'Whoever things are true... think on these things.'—Philippians, iv, 8.

"It pays in a thousand ways to be in line and harmony with things that are demonstrated to be true. It is a fact that a certain direction is always north and has been the salvation of every ship to guide its course by the compass, which always points in that direction.

The Bible wasn't intended for a history or a cook book. It was intended to keep the people from going to hell.

"When the dead in a battle are gathered together some are manly almost beyond recognition, and some are almost unmarked, but those that are unmarked are as dead as those that are manly.

"All the good that was ever accomplished came from some one stopping to think. Watt stopped to think when he thought of the spark of electricity.

"The Bible is the real man, and truth which affects body, but not soul. You think and feel, but you don't think and feel.

need in this world will be salvation—not food, nor clothes, but salvation.

"The age-long cry of the human heart has been for the revelation of a supernatural saviour. The cry was heard from the day of Job down through the centuries.

"All men must die—and after death the judgment. We all must die. Our lives may be snuffed out in a moment or we may die after a long illness, but we'll all die some time, that's sure.

"The heathen nations believe in a judgment. Isn't that queer? Can you understand it? It is to appease his gods that the Indian snake dancer dances while he wreathes himself with writhing snakes.

"Captain Aekwright ascended the Alps in Switzerland and he slipped and fell into a river and met his death.

"The Bible says that there is a heaven, but it isn't for everybody. It is a place set apart for those who believe in Jesus Christ.

"The judgment will be your eternal destiny. It's true that there is a hell. Jesus talked more about hell than He did about heaven—didn't try to describe it to us all.
