

Evening ILLUSTRATED Ledger

SATURDAY
March 6, 1915

THE PHILLIES AT PRACTICE DOWN SOUTH AND OTHER PERSONS WHO FIGURE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

FISH, A CATCHER

ADAMS, ANOTHER CATCHER

EDDIE BURNS AT THE BAT

LUDERUS WIELDS THE WILLOW

KILLEFER TAKES CARE OF THOSE THAT ADAMS MISSES

O'CONNOR ON THE BASES

TEACHER-WIFE BATTLES FOR RIGHTS
Following the successful fight of New York teacher-mothers to be restored to duty in the public schools, Mrs. Maude L. Richards, of Portland, Ore., has started a legal battle to compel the Board of Education to give her back her position as a teacher. Mrs. Richards was dismissed for marrying when employed as a teacher. Her fight has caused a stir in Oregon.

BROOKE HOUSE, WHERE SOCIETY ENJOYS ITS TEA AND TROTGING
The Jones Wister home, at 1819 Walnut street, has been opened to dancers under the management of Mrs. Edward Brooke and Mrs. James T. Halsey. Miss Charlotte Brooke is shown on the floor with John Milholland. Refreshments are served at the tables around the walls. The rooms are artistically decorated in a color scheme of yellow.

NEW AUSTRIAN FOREIGN MINISTER
Photo by Underwood & Underwood
Baron Burian has a heavy load to carry in his new capacity. It is asserted that his appointment was caused by the ill feeling in Hungary against the Austrian conduct of the war. The Baron, being Hungarian, appeased the feelings of his countrymen and obtained better organization of the defense against Russia.