

WETS IN LEGISLATURE WILL TRY TO FORCE LOCAL OPTION ISSUE

Attempt to Discharge Law and Order Committee From Consideration of Bill Planned for Tonight's Session.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. HARRISBURG, March 8.—An attempt will be made to force an early vote on local option when the Legislature reconvenes tonight. The liquor interests have planned to have a motion presented in the House to discharge the House Law and Order Committee...

PALMER AIDS BRUMBAUGH

Sends Letters to Democratic Legislators in Behalf of Local Option. WASHINGTON, March 8.—A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic leader in Pennsylvania and retiring Representative, today advised Governor Brumbaugh...

SUPPORT FOR LOCAL OPTION

Resolutions Adopted at Meeting Calling for Adoption of Measure. More than 1500 men and women unanimously voted for resolutions falling upon the members of the Legislature...

HUMILITY SPIRIT OF LENT

Father Wheeler Warns Against Assumption of Personal Excellence. "The spirit of Lent is humility," said the Rev. John J. Wheeler, in today's noon sermon in the Roman Catholic church...

EX-BOOZER SEEKS CONVERTS

Alfred A. Crawford, who has been around City Hall since he was discharged from the police force for intoxication in 1913, caused some surprise when he walked into the Detective Bureau...

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

"NIGHT RIDERS" IN COURT

Men Accused of Attack on Negro's House Summoned. Six residents of West Philadelphia appeared in Common Pleas Court No. 2, before Judge Sutherland today, in response to summonses, to testify in connection with a race riot last November...

50,000 SUNDAY MEN WILL AID GOVERNOR

Campaign Will Be Begun Tonight to Have Legislators Vote for Local Option. A stirring campaign to force members of the Philadelphia delegation in the Legislature into line for local option will be inaugurated tonight...

A stirring campaign to force members of the Philadelphia delegation in the Legislature into line for local option will be inaugurated tonight, when 13 meetings will be held in various parts of the city by 50,000 "Billy" Sunday Bible class men.

At each meeting the names of the Philadelphia legislators will be read. It is intended that each class member shall make a direct appeal to his representative in the Legislature to stand by the Governor. The meeting places and speakers are: Richmond Presbyterian Church, Richmond street below Ann...

PLAN FOR UNITED HUNTS CLUB IS UNDER WAY

Prominent Sporting Men Begin Work for Co-operation. An association to be called the United Hunts Club of Pennsylvania, to promote interest in horses in and around Philadelphia, flat and steeplechase racing, hunting, polo and horse shows, was proposed by prominent horsemen at a banquet to William C. Wilson, master of the Chester Valley Hunt...

Widow Wins in License Fight

A widow's efforts to retain the saloon license under which she had operated since her husband's death were successful today, when the Stock Yards Company and William E. Brouss withdrew an application to have the license transferred from Mrs. Estelle Dunmore...

North Dakota Coal Rate Law Void

WASHINGTON, March 8.—North Dakota's coal rate law, said by the Northern Pacific and "Bee" Railroads to prescribe rates so low that they yield the roads nothing for use of their property, was declared void today by the Supreme Court.

Policeman, Alone, Quells Riot

Policeman Andrew McNally, of the 51st and Thompson streets station, reported for duty this morning none the worse after the experience of quelling, single-handed, a riot that stirred up the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of May street and Westminister avenue.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

STREET SWEEPER ASSISTS A LADY ACROSS A MUDDY CROSSING

An incident of the week-end snowstorm, showing that the heart of a Sir Walter Raleigh may beat beneath even a white wing's uniform.

FRAUD TRIAL TOMORROW

Much Interest Roused in Case Against Wilmington Men. WILMINGTON, Del., March 8.—More than a score of witnesses have been examined by Government officials in preparation for the trial of the alleged insurance fraud cases which will open in the Federal Court tomorrow.

DELAY FOR WOMEN "JUDGES"

"The four women 'assistant judges' who were 'appointed' by Judge Gorman, of the Municipal Court, to assist in handling cases of delinquent girls, will not take their seats 'on the bench' until President Judge Brown returns from Bermuda next week.

CAUSES HUSBAND'S ARREST

William Millhouse, a plumber of this city, who was arrested at Allentown, Pa., with a woman after he had been shadowed by his wife, Mrs. Helen Millhouse, of 416 Haverford avenue, was brought to this city today.

New York City Wins Water Suit

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The Ramapo Water Company's suit against New York City to block completion of the city's new water supply system from the Catskill Mountains was dismissed today by the Supreme Court.

Widow Wins in License Fight

A widow's efforts to retain the saloon license under which she had operated since her husband's death were successful today, when the Stock Yards Company and William E. Brouss withdrew an application to have the license transferred from Mrs. Estelle Dunmore...

North Dakota Coal Rate Law Void

WASHINGTON, March 8.—North Dakota's coal rate law, said by the Northern Pacific and "Bee" Railroads to prescribe rates so low that they yield the roads nothing for use of their property, was declared void today by the Supreme Court.

Policeman, Alone, Quells Riot

Policeman Andrew McNally, of the 51st and Thompson streets station, reported for duty this morning none the worse after the experience of quelling, single-handed, a riot that stirred up the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of May street and Westminister avenue.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

NO MORE FREAK CLOTHES FOR HIS MAJESTY, BABY

Child Federation Provides Fixed Styles for Newborns' Guidance. The wardrobe of his Majesty, the baby, will no longer be selected in haphazard fashion, but will be carefully ordered. The ladies in waiting, members of the advisory board of the Child Federation and prominent in social circles, will see to it that hereafter only absolutely correct attire is offered this royal personage.

PROPER CARE OF CHILDREN

Will Be Discussed at Monday Conference on Legislation. A discussion on State and city care of children will be held by the Monday Conference on Legislation this afternoon in the Curtis Building, Independence Square.

JURY IN TERRE HAUTE CASE MAY BE SELECTED TONIGHT

Mayor Roberts and 27 Other Politicians on Trial. INDIANAPOLIS, March 8.—The jury to try Mayor Donn M. Roberts and 27 other Terre Haute politicians, charged with conspiring to corrupt the election of Vigo County, probably will be selected tonight or early tomorrow.

MAN AND WIFE IN ONE GRAVE

Hundreds of their relatives and friends attended the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Duncan, who were buried in the same grave at Evergreen Cemetery, Camden, yesterday. Their two orphan children, Arville, 9 years old, and Florence, 7, stood at the grave with the other weeping relatives.

Try to Identify Victim of Cold

The police are trying to identify the body of a man who was found dead from exposure yesterday in an alley at the rear of 15 Fitzwater street. He was found by Policemen Whalen, of the 2d and Christian streets station, frozen in the snow.

Lutheran Ministers Indorse Sunday

Additional indorsement was given to "Billy" Sunday and his campaign by the Lutheran Ministerial Association in the rooms of the Lutheran Publication Society, 142 Arch street, today. Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Delk, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Broad and Mount Vernon streets, read a paper on "The Ethics of Jesus."

North Dakota Coal Rate Law Void

WASHINGTON, March 8.—North Dakota's coal rate law, said by the Northern Pacific and "Bee" Railroads to prescribe rates so low that they yield the roads nothing for use of their property, was declared void today by the Supreme Court.

Policeman, Alone, Quells Riot

Policeman Andrew McNally, of the 51st and Thompson streets station, reported for duty this morning none the worse after the experience of quelling, single-handed, a riot that stirred up the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of May street and Westminister avenue.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

SLAMS DOOR ON HOLD-UP MAN

Thief and Revolver Take a Tumble Into Slush. A would-be hold-up man who thrust a revolver in the face of Robert Stinson, of 73 Luzerne street, got the surprise of his life when Stinson slammed the door in his face with such force he was pitched into the slush of the yard.

JERSEY METHODISTS FOR LOCAL OPTION BILL

Conference Urges House of Assembly to Confirm Action of Senate. ATLANTIC CITY, March 8.—Foreseeing a fight in the House at Trenton against the local option bill, rushed through the Senate last week, the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal Conference this morning, on motion of the Rev. J. Ward Gamble, of Pennington, hurled a direct appeal to the lower branch of the Legislature for similar action.

They are the remainders of our own stocks of last Spring and Fall, many of them practically New Coats, and exactly suitable for

Rousing Clean-Up of Spring Overcoats at $7, $9, $11 that we sold for $15, $18, $20. They are the remainders of our own stocks of last Spring and Fall, many of them practically New Coats, and exactly suitable for

Blas Breaks Water Main

A blast of dynamite set off by the contractors engaged in grading McMichael street between Roberts and Abbotford avenues is given by the Water Bureau as the cause of the breaking of a 48-inch water main this morning.

Falls Downstairs; Breaks Neck

Arrangements are being made for the funeral of John McQuistion, who fell down a flight of steps at the factory of Carl Griebman & Sons yesterday, after returning from the services at the tabernacle, and broke his neck. He was found by John A. Haley, a bookkeeper for the company, which is located at 14 Arch street.

Six Couples Married at Elkton

ELKTON, Md., March 8.—Six marriages were performed in Elkton this morning, as follows: Commodore W. Korgey and Bertha Schuler, Allentown; George M. Reber, Phoenixville, and Lillian M. Smith, Valley Forge; Charles A. MacHardy, Allentown; and Edith Shellenbarger, Newark, Del.; John F. Potts, Baltimore, and Edith Welsh, Chester; George G. Gerry and Susanna Brown, Rising Sun, Md.; and William L. Wells and Cora M. Bucher, Washington, D. C.

Try to Identify Victim of Cold

The police are trying to identify the body of a man who was found dead from exposure yesterday in an alley at the rear of 15 Fitzwater street. He was found by Policemen Whalen, of the 2d and Christian streets station, frozen in the snow.

Lutheran Ministers Indorse Sunday

Additional indorsement was given to "Billy" Sunday and his campaign by the Lutheran Ministerial Association in the rooms of the Lutheran Publication Society, 142 Arch street, today. Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Delk, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Broad and Mount Vernon streets, read a paper on "The Ethics of Jesus."

North Dakota Coal Rate Law Void

WASHINGTON, March 8.—North Dakota's coal rate law, said by the Northern Pacific and "Bee" Railroads to prescribe rates so low that they yield the roads nothing for use of their property, was declared void today by the Supreme Court.

Policeman, Alone, Quells Riot

Policeman Andrew McNally, of the 51st and Thompson streets station, reported for duty this morning none the worse after the experience of quelling, single-handed, a riot that stirred up the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of May street and Westminister avenue.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

SOCIAL STARS AND PRISON STRIPES TO MIX AT PARTY

Wealthy Sportsman Will Entertain Convicts on Memorial Day. BOSTON, March 8.—Harry Worcester Smith, a wealthy sportsman, known as one of the best amateur equestrians in the country, today announced that he had invited the inmates of Worcester County Jail to enjoy Memorial Day with the bluest-blooded society folk of Massachusetts at a mammoth party at Jordvale, his 600-acre estate at North Grafton.

Blas Breaks Water Main

A blast of dynamite set off by the contractors engaged in grading McMichael street between Roberts and Abbotford avenues is given by the Water Bureau as the cause of the breaking of a 48-inch water main this morning.

Falls Downstairs; Breaks Neck

Arrangements are being made for the funeral of John McQuistion, who fell down a flight of steps at the factory of Carl Griebman & Sons yesterday, after returning from the services at the tabernacle, and broke his neck. He was found by John A. Haley, a bookkeeper for the company, which is located at 14 Arch street.

Six Couples Married at Elkton

ELKTON, Md., March 8.—Six marriages were performed in Elkton this morning, as follows: Commodore W. Korgey and Bertha Schuler, Allentown; George M. Reber, Phoenixville, and Lillian M. Smith, Valley Forge; Charles A. MacHardy, Allentown; and Edith Shellenbarger, Newark, Del.; John F. Potts, Baltimore, and Edith Welsh, Chester; George G. Gerry and Susanna Brown, Rising Sun, Md.; and William L. Wells and Cora M. Bucher, Washington, D. C.

Try to Identify Victim of Cold

The police are trying to identify the body of a man who was found dead from exposure yesterday in an alley at the rear of 15 Fitzwater street. He was found by Policemen Whalen, of the 2d and Christian streets station, frozen in the snow.

Lutheran Ministers Indorse Sunday

Additional indorsement was given to "Billy" Sunday and his campaign by the Lutheran Ministerial Association in the rooms of the Lutheran Publication Society, 142 Arch street, today. Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Delk, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Broad and Mount Vernon streets, read a paper on "The Ethics of Jesus."

North Dakota Coal Rate Law Void

WASHINGTON, March 8.—North Dakota's coal rate law, said by the Northern Pacific and "Bee" Railroads to prescribe rates so low that they yield the roads nothing for use of their property, was declared void today by the Supreme Court.

Policeman, Alone, Quells Riot

Policeman Andrew McNally, of the 51st and Thompson streets station, reported for duty this morning none the worse after the experience of quelling, single-handed, a riot that stirred up the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of May street and Westminister avenue.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Blas Breaks Water Main

A blast of dynamite set off by the contractors engaged in grading McMichael street between Roberts and Abbotford avenues is given by the Water Bureau as the cause of the breaking of a 48-inch water main this morning.

Falls Downstairs; Breaks Neck

Arrangements are being made for the funeral of John McQuistion, who fell down a flight of steps at the factory of Carl Griebman & Sons yesterday, after returning from the services at the tabernacle, and broke his neck. He was found by John A. Haley, a bookkeeper for the company, which is located at 14 Arch street.

Six Couples Married at Elkton

ELKTON, Md., March 8.—Six marriages were performed in Elkton this morning, as follows: Commodore W. Korgey and Bertha Schuler, Allentown; George M. Reber, Phoenixville, and Lillian M. Smith, Valley Forge; Charles A. MacHardy, Allentown; and Edith Shellenbarger, Newark, Del.; John F. Potts, Baltimore, and Edith Welsh, Chester; George G. Gerry and Susanna Brown, Rising Sun, Md.; and William L. Wells and Cora M. Bucher, Washington, D. C.

Try to Identify Victim of Cold

The police are trying to identify the body of a man who was found dead from exposure yesterday in an alley at the rear of 15 Fitzwater street. He was found by Policemen Whalen, of the 2d and Christian streets station, frozen in the snow.

Lutheran Ministers Indorse Sunday

Additional indorsement was given to "Billy" Sunday and his campaign by the Lutheran Ministerial Association in the rooms of the Lutheran Publication Society, 142 Arch street, today. Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Delk, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Broad and Mount Vernon streets, read a paper on "The Ethics of Jesus."

North Dakota Coal Rate Law Void

WASHINGTON, March 8.—North Dakota's coal rate law, said by the Northern Pacific and "Bee" Railroads to prescribe rates so low that they yield the roads nothing for use of their property, was declared void today by the Supreme Court.

Policeman, Alone, Quells Riot

Policeman Andrew McNally, of the 51st and Thompson streets station, reported for duty this morning none the worse after the experience of quelling, single-handed, a riot that stirred up the entire neighborhood in the vicinity of May street and Westminister avenue.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.

Chicken a la King

A royal palate tickler for the secondary snack. Weiner's Tunnel. N. W. Cor. 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Witnessed Battle Along Steam

Officers and crew of the British steamship Naneric, which arrived here yesterday from Calcutta, report having witnessed a battle between forces of the Allies and Turks near the Suez Canal.

Capt. Dimitri Vassilief

NEW YORK, March 8.—Captain Dimitri Vassilief, naval attaché of the Russian Embassy at Washington, died yesterday in his hotel apartment here, following an illness of two months' duration from a stomach disease.