ENTERTAINMENTS
"Masque of the Primitive Peoples" to Be Held Easter Tuesday.

Attractive from their very quaintness are the invitations for the "Masque of the Primitive Peoples" which will be held Tuesday after Easter Sunday. The unique entertainment is explained in this greeting: "The Purpose of this holiday, Gentle Reader, is to carve most courteously the Honour of your Presence at a most unusual Entertainment to be given at the 3d Quarter of the Moon—which being translated, means Tuesday, April 4th, at 8 o'clock—and at the Hall of Horticulture, which is in Broad street, near Locust. On this occasion the Spirits of the Pagan Past will return again to earth, and disport themselves, masque fashion, for your Delectation. There will be Scenery most weird and gorgeous with Dances barbaric, and Music and Costumes which shall entrance you by their richness. Here you will see old Rameis and his train fresh come from the Pyramids under the care of the Fellowship of the Academy of the Fine Arts. Or do you prefer America? Have patience—in a trice the scene will change to Mexico and the Aztecs, reared by the T-Square Club. If your fancy craves Byzantium, it shall be at your beckoning with the help of the Pennsylvania Museum School of Industrial Art; or China and its Mandarins and the whole civilization of Cathay directed by the ladies of the Plastic Club. There, too, will appear the Indians of the West, shown to you in their original civilization, and without circus tawdriness, by the Sketch Club. Yet again Imperial Rome—you have it anew with all the resource that the Art Club has at its disposal; and lastly the Occult civilization of Persia, which shall come to you with the School of Design."

"In 2 or 3 turns of the Hour Glass you will travel to the uttermost parts of the earth, and into the very pit of Time, all in goodliest company. And when the Masque is finished there will be Dancing until the morning hours, when you may clasp the hand of Araby and Egypt and show them a thing or two of our modern foot flinging."

The masque will be given under the direction of John F. Harbeson, with the following committee: Mrs. C. Shillard Smith, School of Design for Women; Mrs. Stauffer Oliver, Plastic Club; Miss Emma W. Thomas, Fellowship of the Academy of the Fine Arts; Henry R. Rittenberg, Art Club; Charles K. Stephens, Sketch Club; J. Frank Copeland, School of Industrial Art, and E. Lewis Lewis, T-Square Club.

John Frederick Davis is honorary chairman, and the honorary committee includes Mrs. Cornelius Stevenson, Miss Violet Oakley, Miss Emily Sartain, Miss Cecilia Beaux, Miss Harriet Sartain, Leslie W. Miller, Charles Grafley, Hugh H. Breckenridge, Dr. Thomas H. Fenton, Herbert Welsh, Dr. A. C. Abbott, Henry McCarter, Charles L. Borie, Jr., and Abbott McCure.

CAMDEN AND VICINITY
Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Helen Whitaker, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Arthur C. Whitaker, of Bridgeton, to Dr. Alfred M. Eisel, of 497 Cooper street, on March 23.

Dr. E. A. Y. Schellinger, of 8th and Cooper streets, is still confined to his home with illness.

Mrs. William MacAllister, of Merchantville, is recuperating from her recent illness at Atlantic City.

Letters from the Southland which constantly arrive telling us of the many dances which are given morning, noon and night at the beach clubs or hotels would make it appear that there is a dearth of social gaiety here in the North, but this is by no means the case for, although the large formal affairs may be given over until another season, numerous smaller affairs are continually cropping up, and these, with the regular sewing and study classes, not to mention the dancing classes, which are an essential part of the Lenten season, keep society from being overcome with ennui.
