

PROMINENT INHABITANTS OF THE ZOO POSE AS SPRING'S APPROACH CALLS THEM OUT OF DOORS

THE ELK IS FAT AND HEALTHY

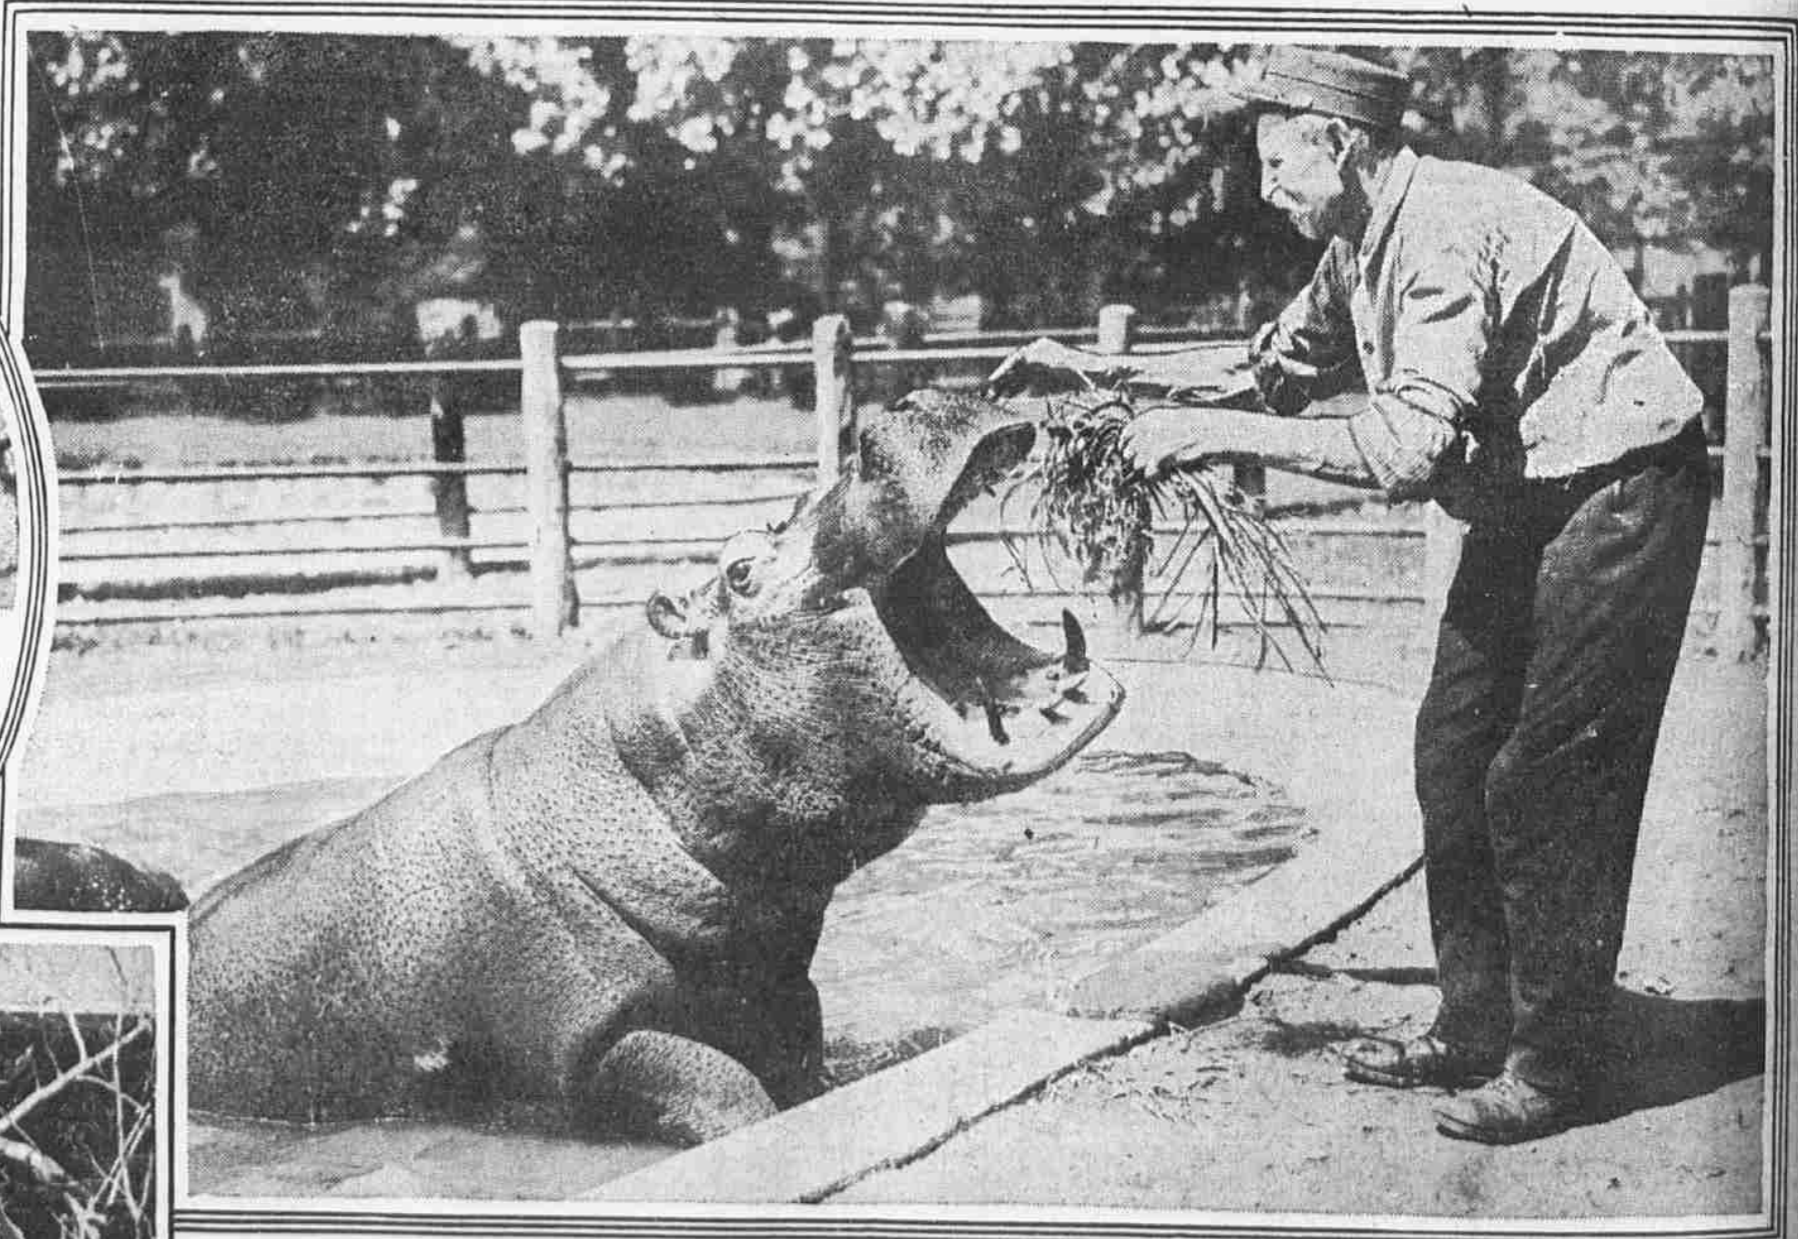

DIDN'T WANT HIS PICTURE TAKEN

THE HIPPOS START THE BATHING SEASON EARLY

THE ALASKAN BEAR WAS SUSPICIOUS OF THE CAMERA MAN

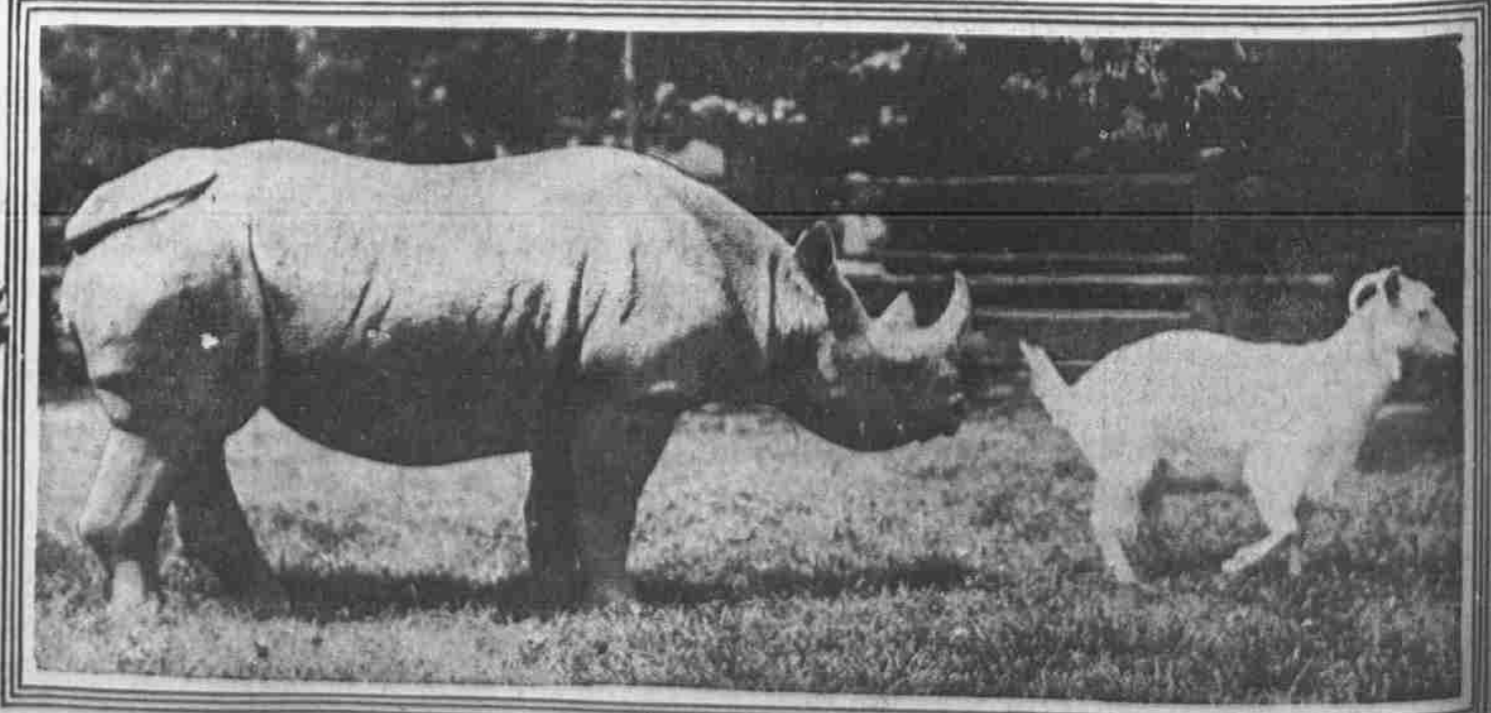

THE KEEPER IS STRUGGLING AGAINST THE TEMPTATION TO FALL IN

SEA LIONS ARE HEARTY EATERS

A FLOAT ON A PLACID POND

THE RHINO HOLDS A SPRING GAMBOL WITH HIS FAVORITE CHUM

These photographs are the latest taken by the Zoological Society of Philadelphia, by whose courtesy they are here published.