CITY HAS BIG CHANCE TO OBTAIN OLYMPIAD IF STADIUM IS BUILT

Dr. R. Tait McKenzie Points Out International Situation and Philadelphia's Opportunity to Obtain Games.

How Philadelphia is to get the Olympic Games for 1915 is a problem which is agi-Inting business, educational and athletic circles of the city. Although it has developed that the preliminary cable report from Paris stating that the International Olympic Committee had awarded the games to this country was premature, it is virtually certain that the United States can have them, providing they are not postponed or there is not a speedy termination of the European war. This presupposes that the American cummitpresupposes that the American commit-tee, through its members on the Interna-tional Olympic Committee, shall ask for them. An exhibition of energy with a concentrated purpose and plan on the part of all Philadelphia interests will give the Quaker City a splendid chance to obtain the transfer of the games from Berlin to this city. Berlin to this city.

Berlin to this city.

This, at least, is the opinion of Dr. R. Tait McKenzie, director of the department of physical education at the University of Pennsylvania and a member of the American Olympic Committee, and of his associates at the university.

"I would like to see the games held in Philadelphia," said Doctor McKenzie, "provided they could be obtained without any ill-feeling. But there is a right and a wrong way to do everything, and in a matter that involves so much diplomacy it is essential not only that we should matter that involves so much diplomacy it is essential not only that we should proceed with the utmost tact, but that there should be complete unanimity among all Philadelphia interests. In particular, we should be united on the character and location of the stadium and there should be harmony in working out all the details. all the details.

THE OLYMPIC SITUATION.

"I fear that some Philadelphians who are so zealous to get the games here do not thoroughly appreciate the Olympic situation. It should be remembered that the games have been formally awarded to Germany and a magnificent stadium has been built for the sports in Berlin. In addition, the German people have spent a great deal of money in their plans to manage the games properly. At no time has the German committee asked the International Olympic Committee to relieve them of the games, nor have the Germans even admitted that they can't hold them. On the contrary, the Germans say they are prepared to hold them, war or no war.

"There can be no definite action by the International Committee in advance of its meeting, which is scheduled for some place in Switzerland, probably in May. At this time, I presume, the proceedure will be somewhat as follows: The International Committee will be somewhat as follows: national Committee will have the Ger-man delegates inform them of the status of their plans. Should these prove un-satisfactory, or the war situation be such satisfactory, or the war situation be such that the committee would feel that Germany could not properly hold the games, some country might lodge a protest against holding the games in Berlin. Then, if the protest were sustained, the committee could award the games to some other country. Naturally, the United States, being the most important of the neutral countries, possessing the greatest number of athletes and the best facilities for the management of so important a set of games, would be given first consideration.

sideration.

"Assuming, then, that the committee decides at its spring meeting to transfer the sixth Olympiad to America, Philadelphia's chances to get the games would depend upon the perfection of its plans for the management of a meet on such a huge scale. Thus the International Committee would have to know in advance the extent of the stadium facilities, the character of the management, etc. The arrangement of the program would undoubtedly be left to the American committee, but the local committee would mittee, but the local committee would have to provide the stadium for the athletic events and a pool for the swimm events, as well as facilities for other

It seems to me that it would be worth while for Philadelphia to be prepared to stage the games, provided there is a chance for America to get them. Per-sonally, I don't see how Germany can hope to hold them, much less to make a success of them, under present con-ditions. Thesefore Philadelphia houst. while for Philadelphia to ditions. Therefore, Philadelphia should organize and be prepared to give the roper guarantees when the International Committee meets.

STADIUM BIGGEST PROBLEM. "The most important problem for Philadelphia to solve is the stadium. Of course, we now have Franklin Field, which, while not the largest, is certainly the most convenient and best fitted athletic field in America. While it might be large enough for crowds on some of the days of the Olympiad, should it be held here, it would not hold the throngs on special occasions, like the opening day and the marathon race. We ought to have a stadium in this city with a seating capacity of from 50,000 to 75,000. I want to see such a stadium built, and with the impetus afforded by the pros-pect and possibility of getting the Olymgames here, it could be secured in University of Pennsylvania, but because of my experience in athletics, I believe the best interests of the city would be served if such a stadium were built in cooperation with the University. The universities of the country have acquired knowledge and experience in managing mosts and building, supervising and naintaining athletic structures. The Uni versity of Pennsylvan was the first institution in this country to construct a stadium and athletic plant, and Frank-In Field, although now too small, still stands as a model. My belief a that the new stadium, if built, should be in a place when a it would be available for the use of the University. That would give us two athletic fields, and one of them sports and similar functions. It seems to me that we are losing valuable time by not ex-operating in the selection of the most avtilable site. If Philadelphia is to hat a lia case properly representato har its case properly represented when the International Clympic Commit-tee meets in Switzerland, there is no time to lose in perfecting plans."

THIEF SHOWS INCENUITY

Steals Nickels From Telephone Receptacles by Novel Method. new way to get money from teleph slot machines was disclosed to the police when inspectors of the Bell Telephone Company reported that thieves are making a fairly good living by catching nick-is from the refund receptacle by a very simple contrivance. In all parts of the symptotisms have been found in the symptotisms have been found in the symptotisms of public phones. The scheme runtin of stopping up the slot through the its nickels are refunded when the calling does not receive a connec-A piece of wort cloth is inserted in a more which the nickel falls noise-are without attracting the arranof eithout attracting the atten-the person making the call. The three accumulating rest securely spen suits the third evens, sions

METHODISTS REPORT 16,000 CONVERSIONS IN LAST 12 MONTHS

Conference, in Session at Norristown, Applauds Arraignment of Liquor Traffic as "the Cancer of Christendom."

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

NORRISTOWN, March 18.—Methodist ministers appliated a report read in today's session of the Philialephia Conference that of every eight converts reported by churches of the Northwest District only one was a "trail-hitter" from the "Billy" Sunday tabernacle.

The statement was more by the Rev.

The statement was made by the Rev. William Powick, superintendent of the district, which includes charges in Manayunk, Falls of Schuylkill and Roxbor ough, as well as churches in German town and Chestnut Hill. The number o conversions in the district during the year was 32%, of which 421 were the re-sull of the "Billy" Sunday services, Mr. Powick said that further recruits from the tabernacle were expected.

The people of Pennsylvania were never o strongly in opposition to the liquo so strongly in opposition to the inter-traffic as they now are. Superintendent E. E. Burriss, of the South District, said in his report. Applause followed his arraignment of it as "the cancer of Christendom" and his prophecy that it vould be killed.

Conversions to Christianty numbered 8,000 in the churches of the conference during the last 12 months.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Only a handful of clergymen was present when Bishop McDowell's gayet fell at 8:30 o'clock. An hour later the church was filled by the delegates from In churches of the conference, Bishop McDowell made an address at the opening of the session, full of crisp and pithy phrases. He alluded to a "shotgun prescription, which hits anything that Customary Christian humility is associated with Uriah Heep instead of with Jhn the Baptist," he said, in describing

The illness of the Rev. Henry H. Bodine at his home in Lansdale, was the subject of a resolution of sympathy. Mr. Bodine is the oldest member of the Conference, which he entered 71 years ago.
The Rev. Henry Wheeler, retired, and living in Ocean Grove, N. J., responded to a resolution passed in honor of his 53 years' service in this Conference. He is the oldest member in point of service, excepting Mr. Bodine.

A resolution of condolence was sent to the family of the Rev. Dr. J. Morgan Reed, paster of the Methodist Church of New Brunswick, N. J., who died yester-

Speculation as to how great a "shake-up" will be made by the bishop in as-signing new charges to ministers became ore general when he declared this mornng that he had not known that Mr. Powick automatically retired from the superintendency of the Northwest District cause of the national rule limiting such term to six years. St. Luke's Church, South Broad street, ext year, A telegram from "Billy" Sunday read t the close of the session said that the vangelist had not decided on what day he would address the conference. After the noon recess the ministers hiladelphia, promises to make a strong fort to house the conference session:

went into executive session in the Cul-cary Baptist Church, across the street from the Haws Avenue Church, while the from the Haws Avenue Church, while the women of the conference conducted in anniversary service of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. Addresses were made by Miss Laura M. White, of Nanking, China, who spoke on "Chinae Girls," and Miss Susan C. Lodge, of the Philadelphia branch, on the topic, "Our Conference Share in the Jubilee."

A Pentecostal service will be held, as yesterday, at 4 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Charles M. Boswell, with music di-rected by J. Lincoln Hall.

The Rev. Freeman D. Boyard and the Rev. C. M. Boswell, corresponding secretaries, will address the evening meeting sions and Church Extensions.

PROBABLE CHANGES DISCUSSED. Discussion as to changes which may be made in the assignment of charges for the ensuing year was the subject of conversation among scores of clergymen. The rumors as to the probable district superintendents have narrowed the field down to four men. From these it is thought two vacancies will be filled One is caused by the Rev. William Powick's completion of his allotted six years at the head of the Northwest Dis-The other is looked for on the seition that the Rev. George H. Bickley, now auperintendent of the North District, will be made secretary of the City Missionary Society.

The choice of these successors thought to have narrowed down to the Dr. George W. Izer, of Grace irch, Philadelphia; the Rev. George W. Henson, Gethisemane Church, Phila-delphia; the Rev. Dr. C. W. Straw, Rehoboth Church, Frankford, and the Rev. Gladstone Holm, Church of the Advocate Germantown. Mr. Henson's name figured prominently in discussion. He has held the Germantown pastorate 19 years, and the feeling is that he will not be re-

The talk of Mr. Bickley's appointment to head the city mission work is found-ed on the project of increasing the scope and importance of that field, in order to strengthen churches in the southern part of the city. His reputation in the conference has been increased by his chairmanship of the "Billy" Sunday Commit

RUMORS AT CONFERENCE. The Rev. J. G. Bickerton, who now is city mission head, will be given a pastorate, it is said. The Rev. Mr. Powick, it is said by many observers, will be assigned to the Rehoboth pastorate. The Rev. William H. Smith expects to leave St. John's, Philadelphia, where he has been stationed six years. Coatesville Methodists think the Rev. T. McKinney will be succeeded by another pastor.

The Rev. William G. Jones has said b does not expect to return to the Oak Lane Church. He may be sent to the Tabernacle pastorate, this city, where the Crowell now is in The Rev. Mr. Gray has been at Oak Lane

RAILROADS ACCUSED OF USING SHIP LINE TO RESTRAIN TRADE

Freight Said to Be Carried at Higher Rate by Rail.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The charge that the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line Railroads are operating the Chesa-Line Railroads are operating the Chesa-peake Bay Steamship Company in re-straint of trade was made today before the Interstate Commerce Commission by Adrian H. Boole, its special investigator. The commission is hearing the applica-tion of the two railroads to retain con-trol of the water line, under the Panama.

clined to give the actual figures.

When they faced Magistrate Carson at the 4th street and Snyder avenue station the prisoners said they thought there was no harm in playing in the open air, Boole said that the two lines were car-rying freight by rail at a rate 2 cents higher than they charged on their water as they couldn't afford to hire a gymnahigher than they charged on their water line in traffic from northern points to the South. He said that the roads were purposely diverting this traffic to the rails in order to get the higher rate, and pointed out that if the water line were taken away from the sailroads if could seek its own business in the open market. ers could not afford to furnish food for massballs in view of the high cost of lying, and got five days in jall to rest

ARE KNEE BREECHES COMING BACK INTO FASHION?

This illustration reveals what the eye may have to become accustomed to in the near future in a stroll up Chestnut street. Tailors think the wearing of the old-fashioned full skirts by the women may have its influence on male fashions.

MISS COPE'S TRAGIC END VIVIDLY PICTURED

Mother of Girl Killed in Struggle With Uncle Describes the Shooting.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., March 18 .- John A. Cope, who is on trial here for the murder of his niece, Florence V. Cope, at Buckingham Valley, faced very serious testimony vesterday afterneon when the mother of the slain girl, Mrs. Clinton Cope, was on the stand for more than two hours.

"I've got ammunition enough for the whole bunch of you," she testified Cope declared just before the shooting, as he called her vile names and threatened to kill her. It was lust after this statement. that Florence rushed forward to protect her mother and was shot. As Mrs. Cope pictured the death scene and gave the words of the dying girl, she was overcome with emotion, the father of the slain girl wept, a daughter, Bessie, sobbed hysterically and the trial was stopped until the witness recovered.

"Dear Lord, forgive him," the dying girl is said to have prayed as she bade the family farewell.

Mrs. Cope testified that about 9:39 on the night of the shooting she was aroused by a noise downstairs, and when she heard muttering suspected it was John Cope, who had frequently come there drunk. As she got near the foot of the drink. As she got hear the foot of the stairs she opened the dining room door and saw Cope on the opposite side of the room. He had been drinking, she said, and as he turned and saw her he exclaimed with an oath. "You're the cause of this," and demanded that she shake hands. He repeated this three times, and when she refused threatened to shoot her with a shotgun he held. As she rushed back upstairs her daughters came from their rooms and the mother ran down the front stairs to held the door shut. Cope forced it open and she ran back and fell. As he pointed the gun at her Florence ran forward, exclaiming, "Uncle John, you've hurt mamma," grabbed the gun clinging to the barrel she was dragged by the slayer into the dining room, where she died later. Cope escaped in the confusion and was caught two months later in Philadelphia.

It was testified by Mrs. Cope that the defendent had for several months an-noyed the girl by his jealousy of her affections for other uncles, and on one occasion threatened her. Throughout all this testimony Cope sat unmoved, expressionless as an image. Beside him, policies will re with one arm around the back of ms downent fund. chair, sat his elder brother, B. Frank Further gifts while a few feet nway habind the Detective Andrew Emmanuel and sev-Cope made after his arrest, in which he said he had just laughed at Mrs. Cope's demand that he put down the gun when Florence rushed forward, grabbed the weapon and was shot.

BURGLARS VISIT HOUSE, TAKE MEAL AND DYSPEPSIA PILLS

Get Valuable Jewels While Family Is at Church.

Burglars, who are using the Lenten season to good advantage, enjoyed a feast in the home of Robert C. Winthrop, on County Line road, near Ardmore, while the family was attending services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church last night, and got away with valuable jewels. After the meal, which the intruders ate in the dining room, they took several dyspepsia dilling footh, they took several dyapopsia pills to ward off possible bad effects of the hastlly eaten viands. The returning church-goers frightened them away. The thieves are believed to be the same men who robbed three houses in Llanerch

Sinday night while the residents were away at church. All the robberies oc-curred between 8 and 9 o'clock at night. The burgiars broke into the Winthrop home by forcing a laundry window in the rear. They made a thorough search of the house, ransacking every corner and even cutting out the pockets of Mr. Winthrop's clothing, so as to make sure not miss any booty. Then they sat down but when the players use a basket of potatoes for balls and a long loaf of bread for a bat—all of which have been tolen from a corner grocery—why, then t's time for the police to interfere. And there was further cause for inter-erance in the case here cited, because the polators were batted through numerous windows near 5th street and Oregon ave-nue and connected with various persons at different stages of dinner.

at different stages of dinner.

The ball players proved to be Thomas Churiey, of Front and Christian streets, and Arthur Keliey, of 2d street and Washington avenue. Their game was stopped by Policeman Mason after considerable protest from the players. They each confessed to being near 40 years old, but de-

But they were also informed that gro-

"Deaf, dumb, blind and out of work."
This pathetic placers hims from the

SATIN KNEE BREECHES FOR LEGS OF WELL-DRESSED MAN

First Step Toward Gratifying the Secret Yearning, Long Suppressed, Believed to Be Close at Hand.

The first step toward gratifying the secret yearning so long suppressed of secret yearning so long suppressed of when Charlemagne Tower was asked for it had been his embarrassment to have to don satin knee breeches at Berlin, he instead of an Inconspicuous, conventional being with no more marks of distinction then a walter, is being taken by the tailors. They want a change be-cause they say the men want it, and therefore an attempt is to be made in the near future to popularize the plc-turesque style of our forefathers.

"For some time past," said George K. Muller, Jr., of the firm of a leading tailor here, "we have been talking of the rossibility, no, the probability of introducing black satin breeches successfully for evening wear. In fact, it is a question which is constantly being discussed and I think the time has come when it would be safe to give them a try-out.

"Of course, the only real way of getting such a mode permanently adopted is to have several society men of impeccable standing sponsor them. Every one else would then follow, Understand, the tailors do not mean this to be a fad, to be taken up by the fops of the wrist-watch and monocle variety. It is good style even for the conservatives." The influence of the Court of St. James, where knee breeches are invariably worn even at informal affairs, is said to be responsible. On these occasions the American Ambassador usually resembles Who knows but what the American Ambassador usually resembles a shy school boy at his first party, and doesn't in the least relish the vulgar a powdered wig ere long? Who knows?

Black satin knee breeches are at hand! | gaze which seems always to be concentrated on his timid and heretofore carefully concealed lower limbs.

> hemmed and hawed a bit, and then answered in a tone in which there was noticeable a slight tinge of regret. "No," he said, "the American Ambassador at the German Court is not required to appear at court in breeches, but all of the other Ambassadors do, of course, and I think the style is not an unbeautiful one. Certainly, if the man had a good-looking calf there would be no objection. In fact the old pictures of the men of Revolutionary days are very alluring ones, I think, and any man might be proud to appear in such a costume."

M. S. Easby, one of Phil's 'ciphia's most M. S. Easty, one of Falls elphia's most fastidiously attired society men, agreed with Mr. Tower that satin knee broeches for evening wear would not be an unwelcome change from the conventional and monotonous dress of the present.

"I shouldn't want to be the one to introduce them, however," he said, "but I am sure that if they come into vogue there."

there will be many who will not hesitate to adopt them." Tailors all agree that once the first step is taken the rest will be easy and the gap between black satis breeches and the gay ones of pastel shades with flow-ery waistcoats and Bruges lace cravats

PENN STUDENTS PLEDGE | FINANCE COMMITTEE $20,000 IN INSURANCE

Class Plans to Carry $100,000 in Endowment Policies, With University as Beneficiary.

More than $20,000 was pledged by seniors of the University of Pennsylvania within five minutes this morning as the first part of a great fund which the class will raise by means of endowment insurance policies. At the time of maturity, 20 years from now, the principal of the policies will revert to Old Penn's en-

Further gifts will be solicited, and District Attorney, sat the mother, father the expectation of the class officers is and sister of the dead girl. It has been that before Commencement Day, in June. ears since a murder trial in this county at least $100,000 will have been promised by the 250 active members of the class-

The insurance project, which is an ineral Philadelphia detectives and State novation at Pennsylvania, was explained policemen identified a signed statement at the class dinner in the Hotel Walton last night. The workings of the plan were explained by Dr. Solomon S. Heubher, professor of insurance in the Wharton School, who declared that under e endowment insurance plan a saving the class would produce at the end of 20 years the largest sum ever raised at any college in this country as a class gift to its alma mater.

Professor Huebner was cheered and plans were made at once for taking the collection. The first 50 men who signed the subscription list today averaged $400 each, considerably more than the average which must be maintained to establish a fund larger than the annual gift of Harvard graduating classes, which heretofore have held the record for gen-erosity in adding to their alma mater's The premium on a 2500 policy will be about $23.50 a year on a 20-year endowment basis, and the principal goes to the beneficiary, in this case the University, if the Insured dies before the expiration of the time.

FIX SCHOLARSHIP TEST

Announcement of a competition for the John Stewardson Memorial Scholarship in Architecture, to be held May 3, was made today by the scholarship fund adminis trators. The scholarship carries an ex-pense allowance of $1000 and is for study either in this country or abroad. open only to persons who have lived in Pennsylvania for the last year.

at Front street and Girard avenue. Policeman Gallagher saw the sign, but didn't

But Gallagher is a man of few words

He simply showed the Judge the sign which hung from the neck of Witsham-mer. The Judge, living up to the reputa-ion as the poetical Magistrate, voiced the

But with you. I fear, it doesn't fit.
You have played your game in vain.
For you're a shammer without wit."

"And in conclusion-three months in the Witshammer is an awful name

APPROVES BIG OUTLAY

Ordinance Appropriating $972,-589.89 Is Reported Favorably to Councils.

day reported favorably the bill appropriating $972,589.89 to the municipal and county departments from the surplus of $1,407. 93.03 reported by Controller Walton at the beginning of this year.
Appropriations previously voted by Councils from that surplus were:

45,710.15

committee on Appropriations has ap-portioned the $972,559.89 in a manner which it believes meets the requirements of the municipal branches that have made requests aggregating $4,000,000.

An item of $2,531.99 is included in the surplus appropriation bill to reimburse Benjamin H. Renshaw for services as Committing Magistrate in the Central Police Station from January 18, 1914, to March 8, 1915. The Supreme Court de-clared Renshaw's appointment by Mayor Blankenburg illegal, because he was not a regularly elected Magistrate. The release of $100,000 from the $11,-300,000 loan for the purchase of sites and erection of fire and police sttaious by the Department of Public Safety was also recommended by the Finance Committee A bill also was approved by the conmittee giving the Law Department the right to enter contracts for printing its paper law books, and transmerring $4000 from the Department of Supplies for such SOUTH PHILADELPHIA PLANS

Mayor Demands Action of Councils on Public Work. An effort to get out of "pickle" two ordinances of extreme importance in South Philadelphia improvement plans was made by Mayor Blankenburg today in his message to City Councils, pointing out that the ordinances were referred to the Committee on Highways almost a year ago and since that time no action has been taken. The ordinances provided for the open-ing of Oregon avenue, from Ed street to Delaware avenue, and the grading of the thoroughfare in those limits. It was pointed out by the Mayor that it is im-portant to South Philadelphia that these rdinances be passed.

"Representative business and improve ent associations and the entire people of South Philadelphia are urgent in their demand that this work be prosecuted without further delay," wrote the Mayor, "and the Department of Public Works is anxiously awaiting your action to en-

Mayor Asks Councils to Pay Bills of

Mayor Blankenburg today asked Coun-clis to pass an ordinance providing for thge payment of contracts for repairs at the flat and Thompson streets police stu

Robbed of $1500 in Jewelry Robbed of $1500 in Jewelry

Jeweiry valued at $1500 was taken early this morning by thieves who gained entrance to the home of Theodoge J. Heath, 1235 Brown street, in the absence of Mr.
Heath and his wife. The thieves overjooked gems worth $1200. They returned at 1 o'clock and found every room ranmacked, with the contents of bureaus and citizent excitiented about the floor. Special Policemen Weekraser and Titus, of the 16th and Buttonwood streets station, are investigating.

STUDENT "TAKE-OFFS" THROW NEW LIGHT

Continued from Page One

Continued from Page One
to be seen, all called "Pneumonia." Of course, if the lady was exposed in the undress affected in the picture, she could not help getting pneumonia. Philip Hale had a "Donna Mi-Velata"—Italian for "Half-Velled Lady." She reappears in six forms, once in "Hale's Jail," once in
"Oh, My Love, Won't You Please Pull Down the Curtain?" and four times more, to show Mr. Hale what he doesn't know about painting.

about painting.

As some one ones said, it is not harder for a prophet to go through the eye of a needle in his own country than for a painter to pass under the eyes of an art

When the original exhibit was opened When the original exhibit was opened a good seal of attention was given to Glacker's "Red Dog" on the beach. He was a good dog. Today he is a sausage. He is also a lobater. He is also a setting sum. He is, in fact, everything bright red that the artist could imagine except

"UP WITH THE BUN,"

Mr. Pearson had an inoffensive picture called "Up With the Sun," meaning a rooster, of course, Art students, it one, don't like to get up with the sun, Mr. Pearson's rooster appears in a poting gallery. "Three shots for i so ar. Francis roseter appears shooting gallery. "Three shots for 5 cents." "A good elgar for a good shot." The rooster appears stuffed, in toys, out of perspective, foreshortened, about 19 times in all. In fact, the first prize for the new exhibit went to Mrs. Mary Powell Lloyd for a burlesque of this

The second prize was for Otto Gatter's Father and Son," a "take-off" of Ce-elia Beaux's portrait of the president of the Academy. In the present version, Mr. Lewis is seen holding his son under his arm, like a toy. This indicates that, in the opinion of the artist. Cecella Beaux has a lot to learn about figure-drawing. Then again, it may indicate nothing of the sort.

The third prize went to D. Bradt for a caricature of Hale's lady. The judges caricature of Hale's lady. The judges were Messes, Eckerty, Morgan and Peoples, all three experts and connoisseurs. They have been closely connected with the academy for many years. In fact, they are the attendants there. Among the pictures they passed up were three hits at Arthur Carles' nude figure. In one she is named 'Half Dead," which is ex-In another she is made a first-class "ad for talcum powder-"none genuine with-out this label."

"ADS" ON STUDENTS BRAINS.

Advertising seems to be on the brains of the young students. Even Kenyon ox's allegorical figure of a lady in a Cox's allegorical figure of a lady in a wheat field was translated into "IUs All in the Shred," Alice Mumford Roberts' "Pelo Player" was transformed into "I'll be here next Thursday, Watch for me. Charles Chaplin, the Movie King." Gertrude Lambert's "Carpet Rags" inevitably became "Sister Susie" and the sock is shown full length, "Patricia," the pieture which won the Philadelphia prize for the most popular canvas, became an "ad" for a certain soap, "Have you a little Um-um in your home?"

'MOVIE' MEN DEMAND OFFICES OF CENSOR

Continued from Page One jection Room, at 13th and Vine streets,

> ALBERT LUCAS, District Manager, Mutual Film Corporation. TO PETITION GOVERNOR.

Mr. Lucas sald that tomorrow there yould be a meeting of the executive com mittee of the Motion Picture Exhibitors League of Pennsylvania, of which G. W. Sahner, of Pittsburgh, is chairman, to consider active steps tending toward the ousting of the censor. The meeting will draft a petition to the Governor asking for an investigation. It is possible that legal action will be taken to determine whether the censor has the right to assess the film exchanges for the expense of the projection room here.

There is still another phase of the muddle which the film men will ask to have investigated. Some time ago Mr. Breit-inger took a trip to California, remaining away eight weeks. During his ab-sence, Mrs. Niver, the assistant censor, also took a temporary vacation. As the censor law states that all films must be viewed by either the censor or the assistant censor, the film men are anxious to discover who acted illegally as censor while both censors were away.

Further cancelled checks representing moneys paid to Mr. Breitinger by the Exhibitors' League for "services ren-dered" have come to light. The explanation of their existence lies in two letters sent by Mr. Breitinger to Mr. Walsh, treasurer of the Exhibitors' League.

BREITINGER'S LETTERS. Mr. Breitinger says in one letter: November 4, 1913. Mr. M. J. Walsh, Kensington and Allegheny avenues:

Dear Sir:—I beg to acknowledge recelpts of yours with enclosure of check in the sum of $50 on account of moneys due by the league. Yours very truly

J. LOUIS BREITINGER. Nov. 21, 1913.

Mr. M. J. Walsh,

Iris Amusement Co.,
Kensington and Allegheny aves.
Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of the additional check in the sum of $10 from you as treasurer of the Exhibitors' League. The account, therefore, stands now as follows: therefore, stands now as follows:

The letter sent you heretofore in acknowledgment of $60 should be returned to me to show that there is no double credit. Yours very truly, (Signed) J. LOUIS BREITINGER.

Still another angle of the whole affair was revealed today, when it was announced that the censor's "O. K." on the "Three Weeks" film had been rescinded, after the film had been duly approved and shown in this city for the last fortinght or more. Mr. Breitinger, it was said, offered no explanation of this reversal. The "movie" men say the matter will be taken into court and papers sacking a perseguity with seeking a peremptory writ are being BROWN CONSIDERS DISPUTE. From a staff correspondent of the EVENING LEDGER at Harrisburg, comes word that Attorney General Brown has taken charge of the case of Mr. Breitinger. Neither Mr. Breitinger nor the Attorney General would discuss the case today. Mr. Brown said that he had instructed the State censor to refrain from making any statements. making any statements.

"Only another attack would follow any statement from Mr. Breitinger," said Mr.

Mr. Breitinger admitted that the Attorney General had asked him to remain quiet "because the statute of lim-thations was not up."

The exact meaning of that request is not understood by moving picture men here. It is taken by many, howover, to mean that the Governor, through his Attorney General, believes that the film men have permitted a wrong construction to be placed on letters and checks sent to Mr. Breitinger and received from him by the film men. If this is true, then Attorney General Brown, on behalf of the State moving gleture consur, will himself take the charges into court and sir them there.

FALSE ADDRESS GIVEN BY MAN WHO ADOPTED GIRL IN CAMDEN HOME

Dr. Emma Richardson's Administration of Mary J. Ball Institution Again Questioned in Search for Child's Whereabouts

Dr. Emma M. Richardson's administra-tion of the Mary J. Ball Home and Di Nursery, of Camden, which was a nounced yesterday in a report of the Board of Managers of the home, as again questioned today in affidavits a asking it to investigate the adoption of with the Orphans' Court, of Cambe e-year-old Helen Foust, a former issue of the home.

with the Orphana' Court, of Caneseg-year-old Helen Fonsi, a former issue of the home.

According to the affidavit, the child we removed from the home and adopted is a Frederick Taylor, but investigation of the address given by Taylor diskthat it was a false one. The Bours Manasters ask for information as to present location of the girl.

According to members of the hoars of managers Helen Foust was taken be the home three weeks ago. Record the Orphana' Court gave the name of be guardian as Frederick Taylor, as eploye of the New York Shipbullating Copany, Camden. When officers of the copany were questioned they gave the dresses of two employes named Taylor but neither of them had adopted is child.

Doctor Richardson, who forests

child.

Doctor Richardson, who founded to home, admitted that she accepted to much money as she could get from persons who adopted children from the heat In an interview in which she denied the charges made by the board of managen Doctor Richardson was discussing by

Mrs. James Henderson, who was a tron at the home after the Board of Maggers had wrested control of it from by agers had wrested control of it from he Richardson for a short time, returned to the home, from which she was costs Monday night, when Dr. Richardson again assumed charge, to get some effects left there when she gave up has position at Dr. Richardson's command the reported that the house was cold at that the children were shivering in coroom. Apparently, she said, there may no furnace fire. no furnace fire.
On Monday the Court of Chancery will hear the application for an injunction is restrain the Board of Trustees from a linquishing its control and the turnes over of all the home property into be Richardson's hands once more.

ELECTRIC TRAIN IS

DRIVEN ON MAIN LINE Continued from Page One until the opening of the system for the public in May, will be taken up in con-stant test runs, arrangement of schedule and other experimental details, so the there may not be even the slightest hitch when the regular service is commenced The new system, when carried into operation, will mean a great deal to commuters. There will be 54 outgoing trains, instead of 46, as at present and I inbound trains, instead of 4. In addition, there will be a considerable improvement in the running time both ways.

The current of 44,000 volts is supplied by the Philadelphia Electric Company to a station at the Armenal Bridge. From there it is transmitted to substations at West Philadelphia, Bryn Mawr and Pack At these substations the current is re-duced to 11,000 volts in huge transformers and transmitted to the actual overhead wires of the system.

The method of electrification is knot as the "single catenary." in districts to the "double catenary" in vogue on the New York, New Haven and Hartfell Railroad, and the "third rail" on its Pennsylvania line to Atlantic City. The word "catenary" is a technical term is describe the curve of a wire suspended at two points.

There is little in the appearance the electric cars to distinguish them from the steel passenger coaches now in use Most of them have been converted from The single pantograp the latter type. The single or what would be known the trolley, has much the appearance of a cage with a wide arm at the top. This sliding along the charged wire provides the contact. Each of the cars is a unit and cas be utilized on occasion as an engine. There is an operating "cab" at each ead of every car similar to that in a submit When not in use they can be cosverted into an ordinary vestibule.

The electrification was carried out to relieve the traffic in Broad Street 5thtion. This is accomplished because of the greater case with which the trains can be made up. In many instances under the new service this can be done in the The electrification, it is estimated, cost the Pennsylvania $4,000,000. It is planned to electrify the Chestnut Hill branch of the road as the next step.

Accused of Stealing Automobile Magistrate Carson today held John Taylor and James Morelli, of unknown address, in $1500 bail cach for court as the charge of stealing an autom longing to Bernard Illaway, a lawyer with offices in the Bulletin Building. The automobile was stolen last Friday after noon, and the police apprehended two men in Wilmington yesterday.

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast

WASHINGTON, March II For Eastern Pennsylvania: night, slightly warmer in north and sed portions; Friday cloudy; gentle to moderate shifting winds.

Fair weather has prevailed throughost the eastern half of the country during the last 24 hours and the temperature have risen except in the south Atlands States and along the New England south Killing frosts are reported this morning from North Carolina southward is Florida, with light frost as far south at Tampa. The slight rise during the last a ours has brought about seasonable coditions in the central valleys and Lake region, but there is still a moderal deficiency in the north Atlantic and Ne England States. Snow flurries are re-ported from the Miscourt basin and free Miscourt Minnesota.

U. S. Weather Bureau Bulletia The following table shows the existing conditions throughout the country, as received reports to the United States Weather Burner at B a, m. today; believe it.

POLICE WORK CONTRACT City.

Approaching Witshammer, he said:
"You're one of the gang who robbed the safe in the corner store."
"That's a lie." shouted the deaf and dumb beggar, absent-mindedly. To make matters worse, he opened his eyes and suddenly regained his sight.
Such miracles were too much for the cop, and he took Witshammer to the Front and Master streets station. With the sign still hanging around his neck, the prisoner argued all the way to the station house. He told Magistrate Scott that it was a "frame up."
"I wasn't doing a thing," he said,
"when this cop came along an pinched me." tion, patrol house, stable and firehouse out of the $11,200,000 loan.

The Mayor, in his communication, quoted part of a letter from Director of Public Safety Porter, pointing out that contracts were awarded for the work in December of last year, but the funds then December of last year, but the funds the available were used on other work