LATE SLEEPERS CURB PENN ATHLETIC WORK, CHARGE OF STUDENTS

Trustees May Be Petitioned for Earlier Morning Classes - University Hampered by Small Field Space.

University of Pennsylvania students. particularly those who are candidates for the Quakers' various athletic teams, are conducting a systematic campaign to obtain better conditions for their recreation and athletic competition. There are two reforms they seek. One is for a second and bigger athietic field for recreation and bigger athletic field for recreation PENN BASEBALL MEN have recitation an diecture hours begin at o'clock, instead of 9, as at present.

The change in recitation hours they want to begin not later than next fail. the new amletic field can't come too moon, but the students, realizing the limited acreage the University controls, are willing to take it when they can get it. The argument for the 8 o'clock hours is that under the 9 o'clock opening it la necessary to have classes so late in the afternoon that practice in such sports as football, baseball and crew, which re-position of Honus Wagner are conflicting. One says he will be used as pinch hitter; another that he will play first base. Folks who ridicule the suggested plan that he play first base for the Pirates can find a notable paral lel to his case in the person of Hughey Jen-nings. Hughey was about the best shortstop nings. Hughey was about the best shortstop of his time when in the heyday of his giory with the old Ealthors Orioles. Find-ing himself slipping a bit and unable to cover quite as much ground as formerly or with his old agility, he decided to try it at first base. He was almost as much of a success there. Wagner, of course, is older than Jennings was then, but it must be remembered that Jennings, hough a star of great magni-tude, was never a Hans Wagner.

BERMUDA RACE IS TO BE REVIVED

Seven - hundred - mile Ocean Yacht Race to Be Staged May 22.

There will be a revival of the Bermuda race this year. For various reasons this contest, which began so well some years ago, fell off in popularity, and it is thought that the rules of measurement and the time allowance tables were chiefly responsible for this lack of in-terest. Under the last rules it was claimed by owners of fair-sized boats that they had no chance of success scalars. they had no chance of success against smaller craft because the time allowance was excessive. Under these rules the Philadelphia boat, Dream, won the race for two successive seasons and then the event was abandoned. Now the rules have been changed. In taking the horse-power of the engines the number of revoutions a minute are taken into consideraion, and thus the actual rating of the lutions a minute are taken into considera-tion, and thus the actual rating of the engine can be figured. During the recent New York motorboat show Captain Thomas Fleming Day was no pleased with the model and arrangements of the cruisett that he agreed to demonstraic the see worthiness of that boat by taking it to heremuta. Latter, Captan Day thought it would be a good opportunity to make a race and he madd he was willing to race anything under any conditions. Now it has been de-cided that the simula Bermuda race for the Benorit Cup shall be revived and the Cruis-ette will start in that event. A boat is being built by the Luders Construction Company at stamford which also will enter, and it is said that Samuel Cochran will start the Eronet, which was built to 1900 and won the race that year. The race is to be started from a line off the Createst Athleto Clubhouse at Bay Ridge N. T. on Batuwday, May 21 at 5 o'clock, and the finish will be off at Bt. David's Head, Bermuda.
