

MRS, SNOW, of Queen Lane Manor, an-Miss Marion Brooks Snow, to Philip Frederick sleaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Storver, of Germantown.

The Pickering Hunt Club held the first of its series of 10 movie evenings last night. The picpires were shown from 8:15 until 10 o'clock, and care preceded by a club dinner and followed by dancing and supper.

Among those who attended last night were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Tindle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Page, Miss Lila T. Fisher, Miss Mary Resves, Norman McLure, John Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. David Reeves, Samuel J. Reeves, Malolm Farmer, William H. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Heckscher, Mr. and Mrs. William Rolin, Warren F. Martin, Upton Sullivan and the Manes Deans.

A dinner will be given tonight for William J. Golhler, M. F. H. of the Pickering Hunt Club, by members of the club. The members who will attend will include George Brook 3d, Edward Florens Rivinus, Malcolm Farmer, Clyde Bambright, C. Mahlon Kline, Hunter Lucas, Norman Roosevelt McLure, Robert Learning Mentgomery, Warren F. Martin, Andrew W. Porter, Robert H. Page, Samuel J. Reeven. william M. Reeves, Jr., John J. Sullivan, Frank G. Thomson, James R. Tindle, John Wagner, Jr., Alexander C. Yarnall, Horace Binney Hare and Louis C. Clark, Jr.

A large number of luncheon parties occupied tables at the Bellevue-Stratford yesterday afterseen before the Orchestra concert. Mrs. James M. Anders entertained, as did Mrs. George Horsee Lerimer, Mrs. Joseph B. McCall, Mrs. W. H. Tevis Huhn, Mrs. Henry Passavant, Mrs. Frederick W. English, Hugh M. North, Jr., of Lancaster; Mrs. Paxson Deeter, Miss Edith Evans, Mrs. Edwin G. Close, Miss Clara Woodward, Dr. and Mrs. R. Walter Starr and Mrs. Daniel B. Wentz.

Among those who attended the dance at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club last night were Mr. and Mrs. John H. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. ohn Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Mac-Parland, Mr. and Mrs. James P. MacFarland, Mr. and Mrs. James MacFarland, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Morton H. Fetterolf, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Dimond, Miss Henrietta Dimond, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boyle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Bunting, Miss Buch, Miss Brown, Ralph Souder, Allan Butler and Edward Weihenmayer.

Mrs. Albert Brown, of Wyncote road, Wyncote, entertained at a children's party yesterday afternoon in honor of her little daughter, Miss Betty Brown's fourth birthday.

Mrs. William J. Baird entertained at luncheon today in honor of her daughter, Miss Uytendale Baird, at her home, $12 Pine street. There were I guests present, including Miss Mary E. Bohlen, Miss Sophie S. C. Baker, Miss Elizabeth Brinton, Miss L. Grace Brewster, Miss Eleanor Brant, Miss Esther J. Bochman, Miss Barbara Benson, Miss Agnes Brockie, Miss Edith Earle. Miss Barbara Boyd, Miss E. Pauline Denckla. Miss Jane Eberett, Miss Katharine Eberett, Miss Marie L. W. Faries, Miss Corinne B. Freeman, Miss Margaretta F. Foltz, Miss Elizabeth W. Griffith, Miss Maria T. Graham, Miss Marion D. Grant, Miss Louise S. Grey, Miss Katharine Hunter, Miss Heloise M. Halsey, Miss Katharine Hancock, Miss Lois L. Jackson, Miss Jean Van V. Joline, Miss Emilie T. Kennedy, Miss Longstreth, Miss Alfreda Miss Elene Martin, Miss F. Valentine Mitchell, Miss Helen L. Marshall, Miss Mary H. Merrick, Miss Martha T. McAllister, Miss Lisa Norris, Miss Gertrude Pançoast, Miss Caroline H. Pemberton, Miss Edith N. Page, Miss Margaret Remak, Miss Frances A. Randall, Miss Mary L. Scull, Miss Carolyn Sheppard, Miss Mildred Sheppard, Miss Christine H. Stockton, Miss Anita Marjory Taylor, Miss Hannah C. Wright, Miss Margaret M. Perot, Miss Theodora K. Lillie, Miss Betty Scott, Miss Eleanor S. Vogels and Miss Marie B. Wright.

This week, the most solemn one of the 52 of the year, will see the close of the Lenten period of 1915. The sewing, Bible and reading classes that have held sway will be more or less cast aside for the usual gaieties in the never-ending swirl of society's fads and fancies after this week. Among the few entertainments, however, will be the dinner on Monday which Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Mitchell will give in their home, 2320 De Lancey place, in honor of their daughter, Miss Valentine Mitchell, who will be one of the next season's debutantes.

Every day sees the return of those who have been at the southern points. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Miss Rosalie Dolan and Miss Ellen Mary Cassatt will arrive home from their stay in Alken.

On Wednesday Miss Helen Gormley will entertain at dinner at her home, 727 Lincoln Drive, h honor of Miss Evelyn Harrington and John M. Helton, whose marriage will take place on April 6.

In the afternoon Mrs. W. K. Smith will hold a charity card party in the Delmar-Morris Apartments, the proceeds of which will be given the needy of the northeastern section of

Thursday night a dance will be given in the Philadelphia Cricket Club by Dr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Alban Exvenson. Now that spring has come, society's fancy furns to outdoor sports, and on Saturday the first of the racing events will be held at the Whitemarsh Hunt Club. In the evening a din-

Etr will be given by Mrs. Edward L. Harrington, in her home, 123 Upsal street, Germantown, for the wedding party of her daughter, Miss Evelyn Harrington, whose marriage to John M. Holton will take place on April 6.

George J. Harding will give a dinner to his uthers that evening.

Mrs. Samuel Emlen Carpenter will give a small dance tonight in her home, 2105 Spruce Mreet, in honor of her daughters, Miss Edith a. Carpenter, Miss Eleanore Carpenter, and her son, Samuel Emlen Carpenter, Jr. The guests will be from the school set and will number about 40, among whom will be Miss Pauline Bell, Miss Murys Clark, Miss Betty Elliott, Miss Gladys H. Earle, Miss H. Emley Cook, Henry Cox, Jr., Morris Freeman, Wistar Morris, John V. Newlin, William Wright and Benjamin

Mrs and Mrs. Charles Stewart Wurts will enam at dinner tanight at their home, 200 Street, in home of Min Manny Correy | home, Mile Morth Little street.

Smith and her fiance, Joseph Wood, Jr., of Pittsburgh. There will be 16 guests present.

The Vassar Alumnae of Philadelphia held their annual luncheon today in the Bellevue-Stratford. Dr. Henry Noble McCracken, who has lately been elected president of Vassar College, and Mrs. McCracken were guests of honor at the luncheon. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Day, of 5021 Schuyler street, Germantown, will entertain at dinner in their honor, when the guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Cooke, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Head, Mrs. Thomas Kirkbride, Miss Elizabeth Kirkbride and Mr. Stanley Yarnall.

After dinner the party will proceed to the College Club, 1300 Spruce street, where a reception will be held to meet Dr. and Mrs. Mc-Cracken.

Miss Harris and Miss Marion Morrow Harris, of 2513 South 20th street, have sent out cards for a tea on Wednesday, April 7, from 4 until 6 o'clock, to meet Mrs. Frank Sheppard Harris.

Miss Betty Elliott, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. William J. Elliott, will return to school at Westover on Tuesday

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Sophie Veronica Kalser, of 2037 Arch street, to Roy C. Dodson, of Washington, D. C.

CHESTNUT HILL

A musical will be given this evening by Miss E. M. Dunn at her home, Norwood avenue. The guests will be Dr. Adam Geibel, Senator and Mrs. Owen B. Jenkins, Mrs. W. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Wassill Leps, Miss Olga Leps, John Luther Long, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnstone, Raymond J. Considine, Herbert J. Considine, Miss Katherine Schlichter, Miss Adele H. Donaldson, William Austin, Mrs. W. Wallace, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Riter, Miss Adolina P. Hoar, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stockton, Miss Adele Hassan, E. V. Coffrain, Miss Vivienne Segal, A. C. Emerick, Miss Irene Stillman, George Rothermel, Miss Marie Mulhern, William Mayer, Miss Adelene Haynon, Mise Lillian A. Mayer, William J. Parker, Miss Katheryn McGinley, Paul Volkmann, Miss Allegra Baker, Edward J. Kelley, Miss Margaret Peacock, G. A. Loeben, Miss Dora J. Jenkins, Charles Shuttleworth, Miss M. Gallagher, Mrs. L. Brown, Oswald Blake, Mrs. E. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Hood, Frederick Ayres, Miss Caroline Mace, Russell Fox, Mr. and Mrs. William Sentz, Mrs. W. S. Hagar, Mrs. J. L. List, William Keene, E. A. Davis and William Kratz.

Paul and Robert Brown, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Findlay Brown, of 21 Summit avenue, have returned home from college for the Easter holidays.

GERMANTOWN

Mrs. John Dunn, Jr., of Pelham court, will give a series of informal musicales during the

Mrs. William S. Lloyd, of 233 Harvey street, will entertain informally at luncheon today. Her guests will include Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Edward Knight, Mrs. Marshall Earl Reid, Mrs. Horner and Mrs. E. C. MacKeown.

The dancing class, chaperoned by Mrs. James Mapes Dodge and Mrs. Joseph Lovering ton, met last night at Manheim. Two extra dances have been arranged to take place on Saturday, April 17, and on Friday, April 30.

Miss Josephine Dodge, of Clapler street and McKean avenue, entertained informally at dinner last night before the Wharton-Dodge dancing class. Covers were laid for eight guests.

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bertram Hervey, of 4940 Walnut street, will spend Easter at Atlantic City. Mrs. Hervey's sister, Miss Melita Zehender, who has been quite ill, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mercer Hicks and their family, of the Netherlands, 4320 Chestnut street, will leave for Atlantic City early next week to spend Easter with Mrs. Hicks' mother, Mrs. Percival Thomas, of New York, at her cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCormick will also be guests of Mrs. Thomas over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Devine, of 3510 Race street, entertained at a musicale and dance. Among those present were Mrs. Catherine Donoghue, John Donoghue, Sr., John Donoghue, Jr., Miss Rose Devine, Miss Nellie Devine, Dennis Devine, Miss May Brennan, Charles McGarrity, and James Smith. Mr. Smith rendered severas selections on the violin.

Mr. and Mrs. De Haven Shaw, of 37 North Preston street, entertained at a musicale and spelal. Harry Sinay played the piano, while r. J. Nolan rendered several vocal selections. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Shaw were also present.

Miss Margaret Egan, 5013 Girard avenue, entertained the Daughters of Columbus at a euchre and "500" party Thursday afternoon at her home. Her guest of honor was Edward

Mrs. Henrietta Little, 1225 North 42d street, has left for Atlantic City, where she will spend two weeks with friends,

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Miss Lena Straub, of Germantown avenue and Cambria street, gave a bachelor giris' luncheon on Tuesday at her home, when her guests were Miss Emily Stauffer, Miss Maude Harrison, Miss Cora Rudolph, Miss Catharine Beck, Miss Elsie Steotpaler, Miss Clara Gyner, Miss Katharine Haubert, Miss Margaret Stapleford, Miss Anna Cummers, Miss Jan, Miss Katharine Gordon, Miss Edith Murfelt and Miss Jane Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. H.-Myerson, of 3142 Euclid aveque, gave a surprise party in honor of their daughter, Miss Fay Myerson, last week. Among those present were Miss Elizabeth L. Nefsky, Miss Eva Levick, Miss Minnie Myerson, Miss Sara Nefsky, Miss Elizabeth Kolinsky, Miss Minnie Kolinsky, Miss Mattie Feinberg, Miss Dorothy Sperling, Miss Alice Feinberg, Joseph Milgrim, Samuel Simon, Robert Segal, Richard Rose, Edward Welsen, Samuel Frank, William Lann, Marty Bloom, Jack Lavin and James Miller

Miss Nan Magaryey will enterlain the "600" ciub of which she is a member toulabt at her

MISS VIRGINIA WETHERILL Miss Wetherill, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher T. Wetherill, of Overbrook, will be among the debutantes of the coming season.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. William Sturgis was hostess at a dinner in honor of her father, Admiral David Mellin, of Coatesville. Her guests were Miss Louise Francois, Miss Ella Francois, Miss Edith Robson, Miss Kathryn Hern, Miss Jennie Mellin. Miss Emma Sydell, Miss P. Louis, J. Duncan, S. Edwin Ahwn, George Morris, George Maitby, Clark Wyle, Captain William Sturgis, First Lieutenant O. Edward Becker and John E. Lee. Following the dinner Admiral Mellin entertained the guests with instructions in high diving, in which he is quite proficient.

Mrs. J. C. McHugh, of 2032 Passyunk avenue, In the Girard Estate, entertained her sewing class, followed by luncheon, this week. Among those present were Mrs. B. A. McGowan, Mrs. D. McHugh, Mrs. W. Pfaff, Mrs. S. Laird, Mrs. H. Corcoran, Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. A. Stessy, Mrs. G. De Winton and Mrs. C. Bauer.

Miss Rose E. Lafferty, of 1943 Christian atrect, and her niece, Miss Rose Lynn, will leave on Monday to open their cottage in Atlantic City, where they will remain until after the Easter

Joseph E. Stuckert, of New York city, is at present the guest of Charles E. Farington at his home in the Girard Estate, 2130 Passyunk

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lloyd, of 2308 South 22d street, are being congratulated on the birth son Joseph Lloyd.

CAMDEN AND VICINITY

Charles Thelon, who has been in business in this city for several years, will return to his home in Leavenworth, Kan., the first of April and enter business.

A subscription dance will be given at Collins' Hall, Merchantville, on the evening of April 6.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett, of 325 Cooper street, are entertaining relatives from Clear-

Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor and Miss Rebecca Taylor, of Merchantville, have started on a two months' trip in the West.

FITHE early arrival of Easter this year will

I find town less depopulated than usual, for the great majority of people are keeping their houses open until after the spring holidays. in accordance with the unsettled weather conditions the styles continue equally vague. Turning a corner comes Miss Jean Hancock in a jaunty little spring suit of Corbeau blue serge.

its short boxlike jacket bound in military fashion with braid and atop her head a wide-brimmed Nancy blue sailor with upstanding wings to match. On the other hand, comes

Mrs. Joseph Leidy, wearing a heavy fur coat over a smart afternoon gown of dove-gray broadcloth, or Miss Helen Tower in a suit of heavy bottle-green broadcloth, with collar and cuffs of skunk fur, and her sister, Miss Gertrude Tower, in a wine-colored cloth suit also

Mrs. Thomas Earle White wears for afternoon an exquisite wrap of broadtail with deep collar of ermine and a small tete de negre tur-

Another smart matron, Mrs. Henry C. Boyer, is wearing a walking suit of navy blue serge that is most becoming. The skirt is cut on circular lines and the coat has a flaring tunic.

Mrs. Boyer's hat is a good looking wide brimmed model of sea-gull gray Georgette crepe

The always popular blue serge is also chosen by Mrs. J. Waiter Steel. Her two-piece cont suit is cut on the new military lines, the suggestion of militarism being further carried out by the small black turban with its upstanding cockade. With this costume Mrs. Steel wears

Miss Margaret Megarges Wright was noticed combined with dark blue taffets.

an all-enveloping stole of seal.

ban trimmed with an upstanding feather fancy.

trimmed with fur and a white satin hat.

A Joint Recital Was Held on Thursday

A joint recital was given on Thursday night in the Young Men's Christian Association, 1421 Arch street. The following artists participated: Miss Flora Robinson, contralto; Milton Bornstein, violinist; Miss Everhart and Miss Ethel

Mr. Bornstein. 6. "Rende in G, op. 51, No. 2."

Miss Everhart. n "Valse, Op. 34, No. 2." b "Sours Bots" Misa Ethel Young.

NORTHEAST PHILADELPHIA

On Monday evening Beacon Men's Class No. 57 will have as their guests the men's Bible classes of Frankford Baptist Church, Emmanteformed Episcopal Church and Cumb land M. E. Church. The committee in charge expect at least 150 men present to represent the visiting classes. The principal speaker of the evening will be Robert McKenty.

Howard Cunningham, of the Brunswick, has returned home for a few days from West Point Military Academy, where he is a student.

An Illustrated lecture on the European war will be given at St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Trenton avenue and Cumberland street, tonight.

A farewell party will be given to Albert Jacobs tomorrow evening on his departure for cordurey with a short belted jacket and a cunning little military toque of black Tagal straw.

Her sister, Miss Hannah C. Wright, wore a three-quarter-length coat of caracul and seal.

Miss Letitia McKim, who usually affects severely tailored clothes, is wearing a good-looking walking suit of roughly woven cloth in

Miss Hansell Earle and her eister, Miss Edith Earle, were noticed on Chestnut street the other day, the former wearing a tremendously smart trotteur of dark blue serge made on the new flaring lines, while Miss Edith was in ciel

blue, the jacket of the coat belted and yoked in Mrs. Wirt L. Thompson looks well in a black and white costume. Her suit of black velvet has quite a long coat, semifitting and rather full, made on long-waisted lines and edged with black lynx fur. The collar and cuffs are also of lynx. The skirt is quite full, having a long

Mrs. Thompson's hat is of black chip with white ribbon around the crown and two large white wings, one on each side of the crown.

A stunning spring costume is worn by Mrs.

Harold Largelere. Her suit of tan cloth is made in Norfolk style, with a belt around the waist and with plaits running into the yoke at the shoulders. The skirt is one of the new plaited models and is very full and the box plaits are stitched almost to the knes. Mrs.

Lurzelere's hat is a large flat sailor shape of brown chip with brown velvet around the crown and directly in front is a pompon made of tun egtrich feathers, flat in shape and pointed toward the rim. With this stylish coatume is hunter's green with a small chamels hat-

Norfolk effect.

circular overskirt.

pointing backward.

on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City the other | worn a raccoon neceptece and ten spats.

Y. M. C. A. CONCERT

Night at 1421 Arch Street.

to two guests. Young, planists. The program included: I. "Four Indian Lyries"......Finden street, entertained at cards on Wednesday, her 2. "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" Koch, Miss Mary Sheppard, Mrs. Churles Wood, 3. a "Secrecy." Miss Carrie Miller, Miss Emma Bowker, Mrs. b "Habenera"Carmen Landis, Mrs. John S. Bowker, Mrs. William Miss Robinson. # Hill, Miss Ida Campbell, Mrs. Hampson, Mrs. 4. "Concerto in G Minor"......Bruch Linford Carman, Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. Will-5. a "McIodie." iam J. Radcliffe. b "Sarabande."

> at 4014 Germantown avenue, which will be followed by an open-air meeting if the weather permits. An address will be made by Mrs. George H. Wobensmith. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Charles Paxson, Miss. Helena Lukens, Miss Fannie Hahn, Miss Alice Riera and Miss Anna Neal.

Miss Florence Young and Miss Elsie Young. of 3408 North 17th street, accompanied by Leona Melhorn, of 3605 North 21st street, will spend the early part of April in Atlantic City ROXBOROUGH

VEHY pretty home wedding will take place

A this afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Mary

Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert

Robinson, of 521 East Hermitage street, Roxborough, will be given in marriage to Ernest

Barras, of the same suburb. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Dwight C.

Hanna, paster of the Leverington Presbyterian Church, Ridge and Leverington avenues. The bride, who will be unattended, will wear a lovely Empire gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed with flat Venise lace, and will carry a bouquet of bride roses and illies of the valley.

The service will be followed by a dinner. The bridegroom and bride on their return from their wedding Journey will live at 480 Martin street, Roxborough, where they will receive

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

Ketcham motored to Atlantic City vesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Mende and Miss

Miss Edith Wals, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Edward A. Walz, of the Arches, has gone to the Hot Springs, Va., to spend Easter with

ALONG THE READING

road. Ogontz, entertained at a family dinner before the dance at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club last evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. McFarland and

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Allen, of 2030 North

15th street, also entertained at dinner before the dance, when covers were laid for nine give a tea at the Roosevelt from 3 until 6 o'clock

today. Miss Margaret Hofstetter is president of the sorority and will act as hostess

in receiving are Miss Anna English, Miss Elizabeth Street, Miss Martha Harley, Miss Mar-

Ball, Miss Adelia Mitchell, Miss Lella Cham-

Mrs. Alfred Slocum and Mrs. William H.

Following the tea there will be a dinner for the members of the sorority and a dance in the evening. Only a few will be present at the dance, as each corority member is limited

TIOGA

guests being Mrs. Von Roehl, Mrs. Albert J.

The Woman Suffrage party of the 23d Legislative District will hold a rummage sale tonight

Mrs. William H. Brehm, of 1823 West Tloga

Ball will preside at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. McFarland, of York

Eleanor Mende, to spend the week-end,

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chambers Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. McFarland, Jr.

OVERBROOK -Miss Eleanor H. Graham

Councilman George E. Dorwart, of the Elst Ward, and Mrs. Dorwart will give a dance tonight at their home, 6222 Ridge avenue, in celebration of the 18th birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Esther Dorwart. A profusion of daffodils and jonquils will be combined with ferns and palms in the very attractive decorations, the color scheme of which is vellow and white. The guests will include Miss Ethel Cantley, Miss Bessie Brewer, Miss Anna Short, Miss Mae Been, Miss Matilda Schultz, Miss Mary Myers, Miss Dorothy Dorwart, John Robinson, Jr., William White, Jr., John Taylor, George Crowthers, George Robinson, Samuel Reed, Joseph Kelley and Earlston

Mrs. Charles Service Taylor, of 333 Roxborough avenue, entertained informally on Tuesday at her home. Mrs. Taylor will be remembered as Miss Grace Lillian Temple, daughter of Mrs. Emily Temple, of Ridge avenue,

DELAWARE COUNTY

A novel little entertainment, arranged in confunction with a mass-meeting, was greatly enjoyed by the largest assembly of Norwood restdents ever gathered together in the history of the town. The meeting was held under the joint auspices of the Century Club and the Norwood Herticultural Society, and George Fluke very ably presided. The object of the meeting was to beautify Norwood, and the following speakers gave some valuable suggestions: Messrs. Fluke and Chambers, Doctors lukes, Borneman and Billheimer.

Mrs. Pratt, wife of Dr. Trimble Pratt, of Media, returned last evening from a tour of the West, which included a protracted stay in California and a hasty visit to Yellowstone General Hwang Hsing, who is in this country on a special mission from China, has leased Idlewild, in Media, and intends to reside there for the coming summer. The general is accompanied by a staff of native retainers.

Councilman and Mrs. Joseph Rogers are entertaining their son, Dr. William Rogers, of Ohto, who is at Media for a short visit.

A card party and dance will be given in the 15, for the benefit of a new elevator in the Physicians and Surgeons' Hospital. Other features that are being anticipated include the presentation of a new play entitled "Paradise Prison," in the Playhouse, on Wednesday evening, April 14, by the Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania, and the performance of "The Mascot," in the Playhouse, Friday and Saturday evenings, April 9 and 10, by the Puff and

SUFFRAGISTS ON TOUR ADVANCE THE CAUSE

Leaders of Movement in Favor of Votes for Women Make a Decided Impression in Seventh Ward.

The first step to ascertain how the citizens of Philadelphia, north, cast, south, west, and to the uttermost limits, stand on the subject of suffrage was made yesterday afternoon Freighted with beguiling smiles and much literature, Miss Anna B. Lewis and Dr. Eleanor M. Hiestand Moore, leaders of the 6th district, invaded the 7th Ward. From door to door they stepped blithely, asking the astonished householders just where they stood on this all-important question.

Some of them didn't stand. Metamorphically, they lay down flat and refused to answer. But the majority had very decided opinions, which they did not healtate to express with the vigor of absolute conviction.

One of the first houses at which the suffragists called was that of the proprietress of a boarding house in the 900 block on Spruce street.

"Suffrage?" she said, coming downstairs immediately when her callers were announced; "well, I guess I do believe in it. Look at me!" She seemed to have stepped from a whitewash vat. A large apron enveloped her person, and from head to foot she was splashed with white

Valiant Worker for the Cause

"I've just been doing a little plastering and lathing," she explained, as though this were the most natural occupation in the world for one of her sex. "I do all my own house repairing and seldom have to call on a man for assistance. Naturally, I do not get much time for outside work for the 'cause,' but I am proud to say that of the 29 men who board in my house, I've made suffragists out of 25 of them and have hopes for the other four. One is an in-and-out 'anti,' and we call him 'the villain,' but you just give me time and I'll have him around to my way of thinking in no time."

The Theta Tau Sorority of Oak Lane will Encouraged, the suffragists proceeded around to Clinton street, where they got up against an impassive butler of the typical stage variety. When Doctor Moore explained her mission and during the afternoon. Those who will assist asked to see the mistress of the house, disapproval of ladics who concern themselves with politics was written all over the haughty gentoric Slocum, Miss Estelle Snowden, Miss Emily tleman's countenance. Even the back of his superior broadcloth jacket seemed to bristle pion, Miss Mirlam Frankenburger and Miss with indignation at the fact of having to bear the message upstairs.

"Madame says," he replied superciliously, when he returned, "that Mr. Smith-Jones himself does not vote, and therefore, she cannot be expected to be interested in the matter."

The suffragists agreed with madame, but by way of spreading the propaganda, left several little yellow slips for the signature of madame and her indifferent husband.

Object Lesson by Negro Woman

From the butlered precincts of the ward the suffragists wended their way to the vicinity of Rodman and 8th streets, where Italians, Russians and negroes discuss the questions of the day in neighborly fashion from the vantage point of their adjoining doorsteps.

Virtually all of the negro women expressed the opinion that ballots "should be left to the men." When Miss Lewis suggested to one of them that she talk the matter over with her husband, the woman rolled her eyes in terror. "Talk votes for women wid my ole mar"

she asked apprehensively; "Lordy, ladies; he shore would beat me up if I'd menshion the matter to him."

Doctor Moore considered this a ripe time to interpose that if women were of political importance, there might be less "beating up," and the woman was left pondering over the matter

A suffrage barber was discovered on South 7th street. He was just in the act of removing ered victim, when the visiting ladies put the matter up to him,

Gallantry in Barber Shop

"Certainly, I believe in suffrage," he said emphatically; "the whole business of this country is founded on the principle of women first, and I don't see why they shouldn't be the first at the polls, too. I'd step aside for a lady voter any day."

The man in the chair spluttered. It was plain to see he was an "anti." But Miss Lewis stepped up sweetly and offered him a little slip to sign. He seemed on the verge of a soapy argument. However, one look at the ragor of the barber, poised in the air, decided him, and discretion being the better part of valor, he perjured himself without a murmur.

In the block taking in 7th, 8th, Rodman and South streets, virtually nine out of every ten men questioned declared themselves in favor of equal suffrage, and the women were about equally divided, pros and "antis," Without exception, however, the women who helped in the shops were always in favor of voting. Having distributed what looked like several tons of literature, the suffragists desisted from the first day's canvass at 4 o'clock.

"If we haven't done anything else," commented Doctor Lewis, "we've at least called the attention of some of these people to the fact that there is a woman's movement."

SCOTT AND THE PIUTES

Story of His Peaceful Triumph Told at Club Meeting. Details of how Brigadier General Hugh I.

Scott placated outlaw Indians in Utah, averiing an Indian outbreak which threatened to become a general uprising, was told in a club today by a relative of General Scott, who received a description of the adventure in a letter from him. The official report of General Scott's capture of the revolting redskins was made public in Salt Lake City, Utah, Thursday. The mission was of such importance that when President Wilson asked General Scott to undertake it Cabinet officers said that he was the one man in this country who could sidetrack open rebellion. The turning point in the accomplishment came when a Navajo guide refused to enter the lines of the outlaw Plutes until General Scott would promise to be buried beside him, and, according to the Navajo ritual, if the Indian were riddled with bullets by the Piutes, as he expected to be. General Scott gave his word that he would be buried according to the Indian's request The Indians, instead of burying the dead, wrap the body in blankets and rest it on four upright posts. This ancient custom is designed protect the bodies of the dead, which are held in great reverence, from wolver. To fulfil his promise General Scott would have had to forego the honor of a military buried at West

General Scott is well known in this city. He was stationed here about 20 years ago. He to descendant of Benjamin Franklin. Ris resognized standing as the greatest authorny is the world on Indian dislects and traditions had Its foundation when he was stationed at ar Indian post, Initowing his graduation from Wast Print, 40 Years 425 5

WILMINGTON

New Century Club on Thursday evening, April Powder Club.

The Easter season will be marked by a number of benefit affairs, including the dansant to be given on Monday afternoon, April 5, from 4 to 6 o'clock, for the benefit of the Home of Merciful Real, and the presenting of a vaudeville show on the evening of April 30 to the Playhouse, for the same benefit.