President Wilson will be invited and his Cabinet, together with the Governors of the 48 States and their representatives in Congress. It is the hope of those who are taking an active part in the proposed celebration that the distinguished guests will be enabled to visit all the historical points of interest prior to the ceremonies at Independence Hall, which will be the crowning feature.

Vaccination Order Applies to About 10,000 Philadelphians Employed There.

Every Philadelphian employed in Camden will be forced to submit to vaccination today or stay away from his job, if the request of Dr. H. H. Davis, president of the Camden Board of Health, are carried out. Doctor Davis' action is said to be in retaliation for the decision of A. A. Cairns, chief medical inspector of the Philadelphia Board of Health, to vaccinate all commuters from Camden to other points in New Jersey who have smallpox in their homes. About 200 were vaccinated this morning.

Wilmington Conference Appreciates Labors of Rev. George P. Jones.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 28.—Conference today disposed of considerable business. It was found that a night session would be necessary in order to clear up matters in hand. District Superintendent George P. Jones, of Salisbury District, presented his report on behalf of the members of the district conference, as his term expires with this Conference. The report shows that excellent work was done in all the districts, and that the ministers were earnest and loyal. There were more than $200 for the entire conference territory. Hope is expressed as well as confidence that prohibition work will grow steadily on behalf of the members in the district.

Inspector Bowen Reports 76 Cases of Smallpox—Epidemic Under Control.

MILLVILLE, March 28.—Thirty-four houses are now under quarantine for smallpox in this city, and David C. Bowen, chief sanitary inspector of the State Board of Health, said this afternoon he believed the epidemic has been halted. The total number of cases found is 76, most of them so mild, according to Mr. Bowen, that an accurate diagnosis is impossible save for the presence of more malignant cases among them. Owners of motion picture houses here say they will reopen next week in spite of the Board of Health if the tabernacle erected for a revival here is permitted to open. They declare hundreds of Millville people have been going to Vineland to witness motion picture shows.

Judge Swartz at Norristown Still Considering 18 Licenses.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., March 28.—Two breweries and four hotels from which licenses had been withheld in the case of Judge Swartz were granted licenses this morning. The other 16 licenses, including the Schmidt Brewing Company, of Norristown, to be acted on by the Judge. In granting a license to the Froelich Brewing Company, Pottstown, Judge Swartz said he did not think the application should be made to suffer for any defect in the advertisement, in which the place of residence of the applicant had been omitted. The other brewery license granted was that to Charles W. Hunsberger for the Perkiomen Valley Brewery at Green Lane.

Time Limit Set by Administration Almost Expired—Captain of Raider Hopes for Heavy Skies to Elude Foes.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Prinz Eitel Friedrich, the treaty port raider, will end her stay at New York in 24 hours unless the general administration official declares today. Administration spokesmen will keep the vessel to make repairs, but the fact that the battleship Alabama, ordered to patrol the coast, is due to arrive there tomorrow, strengthened this belief. Reports were current here that the German Government had given notice that the cruiser's intention to put to sea. The Government had no reason to believe that the British cruiser outside the Virginia capes would venture to appear in the limit. It was deemed advisable to have at hand the means of enforcing laws within American waters in case of emergency.

POINTS OF APPEAL. The police power of the Legislature to seek protection for an "unlawful act of Assembly" is challenged.

The censor act is an "unlawful and arbitrary exercise of police power, because it deprives the appellants of their liberty and property without due process of law, in violation of the 14th amendment of the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights of the State Constitution." The censor law amounts to an "unconstitutional delegation of the legislative power possessed solely by the General Assembly."

Submarine Sinks Two British Ships.

Continued from Page One. Reported she was being chased by a German submarine. There were 250 persons on the Falaba, 120 seamen and 140 passengers. The captain of the Falaba, Robert H. Adams, said a few minutes after the word that the Aquilla had been torpedoed, the Aquilla was attacked within 50 miles of the Azores. The submarine fired a torpedo against the big liner. Her captain and 23 men of her crew were landed at Plymouth. The Admiralty believes that the same submarine torpedoed the Aquilla. The Falaba was damaged to the bottom on Saturday by shells. The Falaba was bound for the west coast of Africa. Shortly after noon Sunday Captain Adams sighted the periscope of a submarine. The vessel was almost immediately the submarine appeared above the surface and signaled the Falaba to lower her boats.

DRASTIC BILL TO REGULATE SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES.

Its Presentation in Senate Today Excites Lively Interest. HARRISBURG, March 28.—So great has been the demand for copies of the Thompson bill regulating the sale of patent medicines, which will be read for the first time in the Senate this afternoon, that the supply at the Capitol is exhausted. The bill would require every patent medicine to be registered with the State Board of Health, and the name of the medicine or similar preparation to be labeled with a statement of the formula of its contents.
