PHILS MUST DISCARD FOUR PLAYERS; MACK'S ROUND-UP

Phillies to within four of the 21-player limit. The next cut is probably the most perplexing a manager over had to face. The men now on the roster all appear to be first class, and it seems a pity that the limit will force the disposal of four of them. The Phil pilot now has nine pitchnes, three catchers, seven infielders and five outfielders. They are:

Pitchers-Alexander, Mayer, Tincup, Oeschger, Demarce, Jacobs, Mattison, Rixey and Baumgariner.

Catchers-Killefer, Burns and Adams. Infielders-Luderus, Niehoff, Hancroft, Byrne, Stock, Martin and Dugey. Outfielders-Becker, Paskert, Whitted.

Cravath and Weiser. It is certain that the three catchers will be retained. Adams is showing remarkbe retained. Adams is showing remark-able form and unquestionally will re-lieve Kullefer and Burus in the backstop-ping. Nine pitchers will hardly be car-ried. From present form it annears that Jacoba and Mattison are slated to go. Rivey has shown little, but Moran must have a southnaw. Seven infielders are too many, and at least one must for the periodule that

Seven infielders are too many, and at least one must go. It is probable that Irugey will start at second. It is certain that Bancroft and Byrne will play short and third, respectively. That leaves Mar-tin, Neihoff and Stock. The two last-named are A-1 infielders and Neihoff is a strong candidate for the keystone sack should Dugey fail to make good. Stock is too valuable a fielder to let go. Jack Martin, despite his experience and swift fielding, probably will be let out for the season. eason

While Bud Weiser is the sensation of the outfield finds, it is probable that he will be farmed out for further experience. for Whitted undoubtedly will be retained. Probably Whitted will be shifted to the infield, which move would change the complexion of the situation. But Moran has amounced that he would work the ex-Brave in the outfleld. It is probable this plan is for a change in the batting order for isft-handers.

From the present outlook the guess is that Jacobs, Mattison, Martin and Weiser will be cut off the Phillies' payroll.

A Note of Optimism

President C. H. Thomas, of the Cubs. sounds an entirely different note from the calamity warnings by Ban Johnson as to the financial outlook for baseball this year. He says: I, helleve President Tener is right in the declaration which he made recently in Call-

Young athletes are often confronted with the serious problem, "How shall I run the middle-distance events?" A word of advice at the outset will disillusion the novice that this branch of sport is masy. To attain any degree of perfection

Pat Moran has pruned his squad of Phillies to within four of the 21-player limit. The next cut is probably the most accplesing a manager ever had to face. The men now on the roster all appear to be first class, and it seems a pity that the limit will force the disposal of four pitchers, three catchers, seven infielders and dve outfielders. They are:

Pennant Race Dope

Pennant Race Dope With all the confidence of the baseball prophet, the prediction is made that the Doston Red Sos will whit the American Langue pennant this year. That confi-dence is absolute, just as predicting the result of a baseball game or the findings of a lury are absolute. Also there is no chance for accidents and so upset of the dope. Here is the way the teams will finish

Round-up of Mackmen

Connie Mark has not yet applied the pruning knife to the large contingent of Athletics now on the roster. This will come in time and a number of heads will fall.

As in the case of the Phils, the three catching berths are filled, Schang, Lapp and McAvoy being assured of places. Five near-veteran plichers also are sure of their johs: Bush, Shawkey, Wyckoff, Bressler and Pennock, Prob-

Wyckoff, Bressier and Pennock. Prob-ably Wilbur Davis will be retained, and perhaps Myers and Hamilton. The infield is settled with the exception of third base. Frank Baker may come back. That would settle the problem, in case he does not, Rube Oldring probably will be tried out there. The Rube came to Mack as a third baseman and his exto Mack as a third baseman, and his ex-perience should stand him in good stead. It is hardly probable now that King Kopf will make the regular job, although he
