

PERSONS AND SCENES THAT FIGURE IN THE DAY'S NEWS AS RECORDED BY THE PHOTOGRAPHER

GERMAN AMMUNITION COLUMN ON THE MAZURIAN LAKES

This picture gives an idea of the frozen nature of the district in East Prussia in which the Russians met the second great disaster of the season, being cut up and driven back across the frontier by General Von Hindenburg.

THIS LOOKS LIKE A BITE, BUT IT'S MEANT FOR A KISS

Patrol driver John Rudolph, in charge of the City Hall wagon, calls his two horses Tom and Jerry. The latter is his particular friend and chum, as is evident by his idea of a caress which he is bestowing upon his master.

THE SWAGGER STICK OR WALKING CANE WILL BE "KA-TISH" THIS SPRING

There can be no doubt about it, as these three figures were all caught by the camera on Atlantic City's Boardwalk. Not content with seizing man's trousers and converting them into pantalettes, the ladies have now appropriated his cane. The accent on "ka-tish," by the way, is on the second syllable.

HE'S THE HUMAN SHUTTLECOCK

After voyaging 25,000 miles between the United States and Brazil, both of which countries have denied him admission, Nathan Cohen, the "wandering Jew," has been doomed to another trip back to Brazil.

MEETING OF PRESIDENT AND EX-PRESIDENT

FIRST AMERICAN WOMAN POLICE JUDGE

Miss Miriam Raines presides over the court at El Cajon, Cal., where a large percentage of the population is composed of Mexicans and Indians. She asserts she is satisfied with the position.
