EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 1915.

THE Peny Show, which is held annually by Mrs. William J. Clothler on her estate at wynnewood, will take place on Wednesday, May 12.

Miss Anne W. Meirs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wain Meirs, wie has been spending the spring vacation with her parents, retorned to school at Westover.

A number of Philadelphians will leave today for Hot Springs, Vt., to be gone about two weeks. They will include Mr. and Mrs. J. Kearsley Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Frager Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Elkins and Mr. and Mrs. T. Charlton Henry.

"The Women Writers' Club of this city will give an entertainment followed by a dance on Friday night, April 16, at the New Century club rooms. The dancing will be preceded by a short sketch, which will be given by members of the Plays and Players' Club, and there will be several musical numbers also.

Mrs. Charles J. Mellvaine entertained informally today at luncheon at her home, Pine stul, Ardmore, in honor of Miss Marjorle Thayer, of Boston.

One of the most able and successful charitable organizations in the city is the Army and Navy Ballef Association of Germantown, which was started by Mrs. Francis Howard Williams at the time of the Spanish-American War. At that time it was quite indispensable and has been doing admirable work ever since. During this winter boxes were packed and sent to European sufferers. However, the biggest thing that the association has yet done was the giving of a dance at the Germantown Cricket Club on February 2, when nearly $600 was cent to the Philadelphia ward of the American Ambulance Hespital in Paris. It was a big thing for Germantown, both socially and financially.

The ladies in charge are arranging another sance to be given on Tuesday evening, April 20. at the Germantown Cricket Club, the proceeds to be used for general relief work. The affair will be by invitation only; also, the invitation list has been limited.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. E. L. Baltzar de Mare, chairman; Mrs. Charles A. Martin, Mrs. Alexander W. Wister, Jr., Mrs. Churchill Williams, Mrs. Alfred S. Weill, Mrs. Franklin McCrea Wirgman, Mrs. Robert Marun Williams, Miss Ramsey, Mrs. J. Nelson Purviance. A number of dinners will precede the dance.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

WYNNEWOOD-Mrs. Abel P. Wetherill will be guest of honor at a house party over the weekend to be given by her father-in-law, William H. Wetherill, at his country place, Mill Grove Farm, Audubon, Pa.

Mrs. Walter Clothier, Miss Florence Clothier, George Clothler and Louis Clothler will spend the Easter season at Haddon Hall.

Miss Helen Gray Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lenford Murray, of Old Lancuter road, will spend Easter and the month of April as the guest of Mrs. Emmanuel Brown McCowen, at her cottage in Atlantic City.

ARDMORE-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paul Baily and Miss Frances West Baily will open their Bay Head cottage tomorrow and will entertain a house party of 12 over Easter. Mr. and Mrs. James Smith will return from a trip through the West early next week. HAVERFORD-Mr. and Mrs. Leigh A. Reid have ling, also of Germantown. Daffodils were used in profusion as table decoration, and the guests included Mrs. Walter G. Sibley, Mrs. Carroll Le Rumsey, Miss Katherine Locke, Mrs. Charles Betts, Mrs. Morris W. Rudderow and Mrs. Josephus T. Ullom.

Mrs. William Francis Robinson, of 5231 Laurens strest, has returned to her home from Boston, where she has been visiting, Mis. William Beatty Jennings has returned to her home, 6012 Greene street, from Wernersville, where she spent several weeks.

The Neighborhood Club tea, which was postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Holcombe, has been arranged to take place on Thursday afternoon, April 5, at the home of one of its members, Mrs. Isaac Scott Smith, 6129 Greene street.

ALONG THE READING

James Quigg entertained at "500" this week at his home, 602 Olney avenue, Tabor. Among his guests were Miss Berenice Reynolds, Miss Jennie Kern, Miss Alice Quigg, Miss Eva Elders. Miss Ethyl Milne, Miss Loretta Schaeffer, Miss Anna Keenan, of Easton, Pa.; William Duckinfield, Earle Browne, Joseph Menagh, Henry Orbin, John McInnes, Fred McGee and Thomas Vaney, Jr.

A humorous lecture will be given at the Oak-Lane Eaptist Church, April 8, by Mr. Keith Cherry, Frank M. Conly will be soloist and Miss Mabel Williams, of 5th street and 67th avenue, will be the accompanist.

Invitations have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner, of Oak Lane, for a theatre party on Saturday night, April 10, in honor of Miss Miriam Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Graham, of Atlantic City.

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. A. Southern Conway, of the Avondale, 39th and Locust street, will give a Mask and Wig party next Thursday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Elizabeth Smith, of New York.

Miss Isabel Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Montgomery, of 439 South 44th street, will go to Atlantic City next Tuesday to spend a short time as the guest of Miss Mary McCowen at her parents' cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Hope, of 1122 North flst street, will leave today for Atlantic City to be gone about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bostwick, Mise Alice Lyster and Miss Mabel Lyster, of 432 South 44th street, will entertain at a large dinner on Easter Monday evening. Among their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wleand, Miss Christine Ryland, Miss Sara Ryland and Willinm Green.

Franklin Goddard will hold a musicale and dance at his home, 4415 Market street, on Easter Monday. Among those present will be Miss Anna Farley, of Maple Shade, N. J.; Miss Mary C. Hindsley, Miss Vallette Saunders, of Haverford; Mise Mildred Johnson, of Chelsen, N. J.; Miss Ethel Fritchie, Miss Reta Blue, Miss Harriet Gardner, Miss Ethel Gordon, Jack Hunt, P. Fleming Hunt, Raymond Muckel, George A. Hindsley, Earl M. Cleary, Jack Hamilton, Ernest Pullman, J. Edgar Hall, Leonard Saunders, of Chelsea, N. J., and Harry Rodgers,

Mrs. Catherine McBerrity and Charles Mc-Berrity, of 3602 Melon street, will spend Easter

MRS. WILLIAM TRINKLE Mrs. Trinkle, who is a extremely popular matron of this city, has been hostess at a number of affairs this season.

CAVAN C. S. AND B. BALL

Large Dance Will Be Given on April 5 by Members of This Society.

A large ball will be given by the Cavan C. S. and B. Society on Monday evening, April 5, at the Musical Fund Hall. The large rooms will be beautifully decorated with palms and spring flowers, while two orchestras will furnish the music for the grand march and succeeding dances. The entire evening will be devoted to dancing, and supper will be served about midnight. The march will be led by Miss Mary E. Kelly and Terence Smith. Others who will take part will be Miss McLaughlin, Miss Marguerite Brady, Miss Sue Kelly, Miss Marie S. Goddard, Miss Madeline Kelly, Miss Edna Ott, Miss Catharine Sharkey, Miss Gertrude Mc-Manus, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick, Martin, Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, Miss Margaret, Burns, Cornelius McEnroe, Michael Brady, John Kelly, James Kelly, Jr., Joseph Donahue and James Donahue,

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Amos F. Russell, of 2218 North 2010 street, was hostess at a "505" yesterday afternoon, when her guests were Mrs. W. Hirst, Mrs. J. Loreaux, Mrs. W. Chambers, Mrs. B. Krueger, Mrs. R. Read, Mrs. William Shoemaker, Mrs. Walter R. Eastburn, Mrs. Witliams, Mrs. Louis Eckel, Mrs. H. Lowener, Doctor Bacon, Mrs. Scherr, Mrs. C. Foster, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Comly Shoemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Eastburn, of 2141 North 18th street, entertained at dinner last evening, when covers were laid for 12. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gladding. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kreitzberg, Miss Helen Gladding, Frederick Dresel, Mrs. Comiy maker, Mr. and Mrs. William Rawlings and Miss Helen Rawlings.

NORTHEAST PHILADELPHIA Dr. and Mrs. Needham, of 2812 Frankforavenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hamilton, of 2850 Kensington avenue, will spend Easter at the seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Baugher, of 2923 Frankford avenue, will spend Easter as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scheck, of Llanerch. The East Allegheny Avenue Methodist Church will give a reception to its pastor, Ductor Artbur, this evening. The members of the Kensington Social Club will hold a reception and dance at Allemania Hall, 233 North 5th street, on Friday night, Washington Camp. No. 871, Patriotte Order Sons of America, which was organized in Decomber, 1914, is growing so rapidly that it has been necessary to get new and larger quarters in Welcome Hall, Susquehanna avenue and Sepviva street. They will hold their first meeting at the new location on Thursday evening, April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Godfrey, of 452 East Cambrin street, will spend Easter in Atlantic City.

DELAWARE COUNTY

Mrs. Abner T. Mitchell, of Glenolden, gave 8 tea yesterday in honor of Miss Anna Roberts. of Wellesley College. Among those present were Miss Aima Kite, Miss Gladys Smith, Miss Marian Mitchell, Miss Ruth Decker, Miss Ether Hart, Miss Miriam Hart, Miss Charlotte Harper, Mrs. Bertram Wheeler and Mrs. Louise N. Haldt.

The Rey. Charles M. Simpson assumed his pastorate in the Prospect Hill Church on Sunday. The members of his congregation are FTHE marriage of Miss Midred Megraw. L daughter of Mrs. Mary H. Megraw, of Moorestown, and William H. Earey, Jr., of Cleveland, O., will take place tonight. The coremony will be performed at 7 o'clock in the Philomusian Club, 394 Walnut street, the Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, of the Chestnut Street Baptiet Church, officiating. Miss Megraw, who will be attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Clarke Megraw, as mald of honor, will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Kenneth Graham. Mr. Earcy will be attended by Dr. Thomas Youngman, of Atlantic City, as best man, and the ushers will be Kenneth Graham, Carlton Schway Wagner, of New York; Jay Miller, of Banger, and J. Edgar Culliney, of Lebanon, Fa.

The bride will wear a beautiful gown of white crope meteor, elaborately trimmed with pearls and chiffon and finished with a court train of white satin heavily brocaded in ellver. The vell will be of tuile bound by the crepe meteor. held in place hy a wreath of orange blossoms, and will be arranged over the face to fall in graceful folds to the bottom of the gown and end of the train. Her only ornament will be a string of real pearls, and she will carry a bouquet of bride roses and lilles of the valley, having a shower of white orchids.

The maid of honor will wear an attractive trock made in the style of 1840. It will be of taffela in the orchid eliade, trimmed with real lace, and having pantalettes of lace showing from beneath the hoopskirt. She will wear a poke bonnet made of the taffeta, and will carry an old-fashioned cound bouquet of spring flowers, having a shower of forget-me-nots. A reception will follow the ceremony, and

FRANKFORD

The young people of Rehoboth Methodist Episcopal Church are looking forward to a successful financial result from their annual supper to be given at the church on Easter Monday. The proceeds are given to the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, at Broad and Wolf streets, for the benefit of the children's ward.

About 50 members are already enrolled in Company E. 4th Regiment of the Boys' Brigade, recently organized at St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, Bridesburg, and active drilling is being carried on in preparation for the public installation service to be held Sunday, April 18, in the church. In an effort to provide equipment for the boys and encourage them in their endeavor to make something out of themselves the members of the Men's Club of St. Stephen's Church have planned to hold, in the recently-completed parish house, a basketball contest on March 31, that will be participated in by the several teams representing the parish. The mothers of the boys conducted a sale of homemade cooking at the home of Mrs. Henry Blessing, 4713 Edmund street, last week.

LANSDOWNE

Mrs. Joseph Alchholz, dr., of Anselema, Chester County, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alchholz, Sr., on South Wycombe avenue.

Mrs. Edna Stanley, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. Samuel S. Pennock, of Lansdowne Court.

Dr. Edwin T. Dartz has returned from a visit to friends in Atlantic City.

Thomas M. Fitzgerald has gone on a visit to after an extensive wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Early will be at home in Cleveland, O.

STERNER-GAUKEL

A pretty wedding will take place in fiexborough tonight at the home of Mrs. Hannah Vanzant, 2926 Manayunk avenue, when herdaughter, Mrs. Eva M. Gaukel, will become the bride of Frank Sterner, of 4429 Fleming street. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William R. Rearick, pastor of the Talmage Memorial Church, Pechin and Rector streets, The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, David Henry Vanzant, will wear a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with duchease lace, made Empire fashion. She will carry a bouquet of bride roses and lilles of the valley. She will be attended by her mister, Miss Lillian Vanzant, as maid of honor, whese gown will be of white hand-embroidered crepe, and who will carry pink roses. Miss Mary Kelly, will be flower girl. The bridal party will include also two ribbon bearers, Miss Katharine Wright and Montgomery Gauket. The little girl will wear white lace over white silk, and Master Gaukel will wear a page's suit of white eatin. The best man will be Charles Parsons. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception. Upon their return from a wedding tour to Buffalo and Western New York, Mr. and Mrs. Sterner will reside in Roxborough,

KOLP-KRUSE

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Lillie M. Kruse and Thomas C, Kolp on Saturday, March 27, in the parsonage of the Columbia Avenue M. E. Church, by the Rev. E. W. Hart. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kolp will be at home, 1808 North 27th street.

CAMDEN AND VICINITY

Miss Marie Mevis and Miss Marion Pyle are home from Syracuse University to spend their Easter holidays.

Horace Traubel, of Third and Elm streets, is visiting in Montreal, Can., and will return next month.

Dr. Paul M. Markley, of 515 Cooper street, is entertaining his brother, Richard C. Markley, of Silver City,

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ferris, of Merchantville, have returned from the South.

Ex-Judge and Mrs. E. A. Armstrong, formerly of 5th and Linden streets, are at Atlantic City before going to "The Farm," their suburban home, near Princeton.

Mrs. G. W. Jessup has gone for a trip to the California Exposition, via the Panama Cana

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dorrance, of Riverton, spent March at Pinehurst, N. C.

AMUSEMENTS

Chestnut St. OFERA | House of World's Greatest Photosias. AFTERNOONS, 1:50 TO 4:50 10c 15. 25-EVENINGS, 7:50 TO 10:50, 10c 25c, A FEW Me LAST WEEK! The ETERNAL CITY Next Week-Biggest Thrill Yet! "THE AVENGING CONSCIENCE" SEAT SALE OPENS THURSD. B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

MORE SPECTACULAR THAN EVER

GERTRUDE

nt. ht de

April 16,

gone to Atlantic City for a few days' stay. Mrs. Alexander J. Cassatt and Miss Lois Casanti will go to San Francisco shortly. They will spend part of the comina summer in Newport.

ROSEMONT -T. K. Reeze and H. Walker Leslie have gone to Atlantic City for a few days. Cyrus D. Foss spent the week-end at the seashore also.

CHESTNUT HILL

Friends of Mrs. Charles S. Bromley, of Towanda and Moreland avenues, will be glad to hear that she is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Helen Bancroft, who has been spending the winter with Mrs. Francis MacGrath, of 25 East Benezet street, has returned from a short stay in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John Earle Marsden entertained at dinner last night at their home, 434 East Mt. Pleasant avenue, Sedgwick, in honor of Mrs. Emma W. Rice, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. William Rookstool. There were eight guests present and the decorations were daffodils, sweet peas and greens.

GERMANTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Mende and Miss Mende, of Germantown, and Miss. Ketcham, of Overbrook, motored to Atlantic City Friday last and are guests at the Hotel Chelsea, where they will femaln for the Easter holidays.

Mias Helen Gormley, of 727 Lincoln drive, will antertain at dinner at the Germantown Cricket Club tonight in honor of Miss Evelyn Harfington and John M. Holton, whose marriage will take place on April 6. The guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Keith Downing, Miss Louise McKale, Miss Barah Taite, Miss Mildred Cavsely, John Hotton, Howard Holton, Edwin Burk, Lozan Howard Smith and Sheldon Potter. The marty will attend the club dance.

A charity card party will be given today in the Delmar-Morris apartments, Germantown, under the direction of Mrs. W. K. Smith. The arpceeds will be devoted to the poor and needy in the northwestern section of the city, Mrs. Frederick Dudley, of 2807 Queen lane, alli spend Easter in New York.

Mrs. E. Ross Carver, of 5125 Newball street. has returned from a short trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanning Harvey, of Wilkes-Barre, who have been spending the winter munths at the Southern resorts, have spent the list week in Atlantic City and will return on riday to apend Easter with their parents, MP and Mrs. Arthur Burgess, 6396 Germantown Avenue.

Mrs. Preston R. Erdman, of 5922 Greene street. a recovering from a recent illnoss.

Mits Joseph J. Wernle, of 27 Carpenter street. Wierlained at luncheon yesterday at the Auweshins Club, in honor of Mrs. Elmer M. Wal-

Mrs. Samuel M. Fox, of 539 North Alden street, has left for Biemarck, N. D., where she will visit Mrs. Robert Wraith Dutton, formerly of West Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Dutton have sent announcements of the birth of a son, Robert Wraith Dutton, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Becker, of 2121 South Simpson street, entertained at dinner this week. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin, Miss Mary Young, Anthony Crantz, Miss Anna Becker, Joseph Becker and Albert Becker,

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell entertained at musicale at their home, 4046 Sansom street. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. John Donagan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strayer, Bernard Thornton and Miss Andrews, John Dugan, Dr. John Fitzpatrick, John Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mc-Closkey and Charles Harbin.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Ransley, 1343 Ellaworth street, left yeaterday for Atlantic City, where they will open their cottage, 137 Elberon avenue, Chelses, in time for the Easter holidays, when they will entertain a small house party.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kutnen, 1335 South 5th street, have issued cards announcing the birth of a daughter.

Charles Gutzeit, 701 Mifflin street, will entertain his brother, of Trenton, N. J., during the holidays.

Joseph Cohen, 619 Tasker street; Edward Kadane, 719 Ritner street, and Jacob Weinstein, 2239 South Darien street, are planning to motor to Atlantic City today. They will visit relatives over the holidays and return to this city on Easter Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Cohn will give a dinner dance tonight in their home, 1621 Fitzwater street, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Golhowski, of Worcester, Mass., whose engagement to A. Harry Cohn was announced recently. Spring flowers arranged in baskets will form the artistic decorations. Mrs. Cohn will be assisted in receiving by Miss Dorothy Cohn, Miss Cella Cohn and Arthur B. Cohn, of 1436 South Broad street. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mra. S. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cohn, Miss Anna. Cohn, Mrs. C. Cohn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bloom, Miss Lillian Bloom, Miss Minnie Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lampert, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Glickman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kanetsky, Miss Cella Kanetaky, Miss Rose Kanetsky, Miss Rebecca Kanetaky, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kress, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lubin, Mr. and airs. B. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. M. Gallant and Charles Cohn.

Miss Rae Hiller, 1212 Point Breeze avenue, will spend the Easter holidays at Atlantic City, followed by two weeks in Baltimore and two weeks in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman, of 2006 South 15th street, will motor to Atlantic City to spend Easter. Mrs. Bernice Musters, 200 South Broad atzett, will be in the party.

TIOGA

Miss Beatrice Rotiner, of 3146 North Broad street, will leave tomorrow for Atlantic City to spend a week as the guest of Miss Florence MacMorris at the Hotel Seaside.

Some person with a decidedly peculiar sense of humor sent a notice to the EVENING LEDGER which stated that a club known as the Jitney Club held a dance at Battersby's Parlors, in Tioga, last Saturday. There is no such club as the Jitney, and Battersby's Parlors are used for funeral purposes.

Mrs. Battersby has only recently had the establishment fitted out entirely new for this purpose. Of course, no dance took place there.

A made that blue will no longer be the

the modiste's declaration to this effect, the serviceable blue continues in first favor, due not only to the fact that it is the most generally becoming shade, but also because it harmonizes with any number of contrasting colors. Then, too, the influence of militarism tends to make the color popular. Certain it is that never before were there more shades of blue used for tailleurs, for hats and for all the small acces-

A stunning suit worn by Mrs. John Shipley

Dixon is made of dark blue gabardine. The skirt is fashioned with doubla tiers, the lower one being tight and the upper circular and full, falling to the end of the drop skirt. The coat is made in the Eton siyle and the hat worn with this costume is a turban of dark blue straw

Miss Sophy Worth has selected an attractive

The skirt is rather full and the coat spring suit made of deep Copenhagen blue short and loose. With this a hat of straw of the same shade, made in a close-fitting style

Mias Jean Newbold Thompson is wearing an attractive suit of buckskin covert in the sand color. The skirt is circular and short, and the is ninde with the high wuistline and sories of milady's dress.

trimmod with white daisies.

and trimmed with gours, is worn.

aerge.

planning a reception to be given him some time this week.

> Pierce Ireland, a former resident of Darby, has moved to Moore.

> An evening affair given by the Misses Matthias at Orchard Ville, in Norwood, this week, was a decided success. Miss Mildred Taylor favored the company with some very pretty piano selections, and dancing took up a large part of the evening.

Amateur theatricals have taken a very decided hold in Norwood. A junior company gave two sketches in the firehouse auditorium on Saturday evening, with Miss Effle McClellan in the leading role. The play created such a favorable impression that it is probable that it will be repeated in the near future.

this Miss Thompson wears a large straw hat S EACH season approaches the prediction is trimmed with wings the color of the suit, favored shade for all occasions, but in spite of Miss Mary Janvier has chosen a distinctive tailored suit of "tabac" brown. The skirt is of a circular cut, made wide, and the coat is a belted model. A small hat of heavy straw is worn with this costume.

Miss Olivia Hardy wears an extremely smart suit of midnight blue gabardine. The skirt is quite short, made very full. The coat is made with a high waistline, the bottom of which is cut circular, making it quite full, and is finlahed with a white kid belt. With this Miss Hardy wears an attractive black sailor hat faced on the upper brim with black satin and finished with a narrow black and white cord.

Miss Florence Elliot has for her spring tollette a smart afternon frock of dark green taffeta. The skirt is made of box plaits and the waist is very severe, buttoning to the top of the high collar with black buttons having white rims. The sleeves are long and the waistling is finished by a black suche belt. The hat worn with this costume is a black sallor, having huge black wings arranged across the CIGWE.

Mrs. James Walton Davie has selected a amart spring suit of fine black tweed, having a narrow white stripe. The skirt is made full by double plaits back and front. The coat is rather severe, being finished by a white kid belt. A mannish hat, made of fine while straw, blocked in the sailor shape and finished with a finished with a balt of the same material. With, plain helt of black, is wern with this costume.

San Francisco, where he will see the Panama "LAST WORD IN STYLE Exposition. He expects to return shortly,

WOODBURY

A delightful musicale was given at the Country Club on Monday night by a number of wellknown artists. Among those who sang were Miss Helen Buchanan, soprano; Arthur L E. Jackson, barltone; Mrs. Duncan Campbell, contralto, and the Misses Grafe, Mrs. Frederick Stevenson has just returned from a week's visit with her sister, Miss Stevenson, at Wellesley College.

Mr. Denis, of Chester, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Swint.

An Equal Suffrage League has been organized in Woodbury with the following officers: Miss Durrell, president; Mrs. Saunders Taylor, vice president; Mrs. A. W. Betts, secretary; Miss Flannigan, treasurer. At the last business meeting plans were made for a suffrage play, a tea. and an all-day meeting to be held in May. Also, by request of a number of men, it has been arranged to have Mrs. Feickert, president of the New Jersey Equal Suffrage Association. address a meeting for men and women on April 12.

WILMINGTON

The Delaware Association of College Women met yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Horace Thayer, 1990 Rodney street. It was a social meeting, with an attractive musical program.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Breit, of Boston, are week-end guests of Miss Edith Danforth.

Mrs. Frank L. Connable has returned from a six weeks' cruise in the West Indies and is spending a week in New York city.

CHESTER AND VICINITY Mrs. George D. Hughes, of Highland avenue.

is entertaining Miss Jean Cross, of Philadeiphia.

Mrs. Emma Parson, of West 3d street, has returned from a week's visit to relatives at Woodbury, N. J.

Mrs. C. Frederick Havercamp, of Market street. in spending a week as the guest of relatives at Reading.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Green, of Jeffrey street, have gone to Frederica, Del., where they will spend several weeks with relatives.

Notices for the Society page will be accepted and printed in the Evening Ledger. but all such notices must be written on one side of the paper, must be signed in full, with full address, and when possible telephone number must be given.

Send all such communications to "Society Editor," Evening Ledger, 608 Chestaus warast.

