

THOUSANDS TO GREET SUNDAY AT PATERSON

10,000 Expected in Parade, With 450 Musicians—"Billy" to Get Keys of City.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) PATERSON, N. J., April 2.—Everything is in readiness here to receive "Billy" and "Ma" Sunday tomorrow, and they will give a great ovation. Indications are that the parade and welcome to the evangelist will rival those given Colonel Roosevelt, ex-President Taft and President Wilson on occasions when they were guests in the city.

The fast train that bears Sunday from her home at Winona Lake, Ind., to the East will be met at the Newark station of the Pennsylvania Railroad by more than 25 automobiles, the Reception Committee and about 1000 other persons. Cheers have been arranged, to be given alternately with revival hymns as "Billy" and "Ma" are escorted to their limousine.

Upon Sunday's arrival at Paterson City Hall, Mayor Robert H. Fordyce will present the evangelist with the keys to the city. A parade will follow the Reception at City Hall. More than 10,000 persons are expected to be in line, and 450 musicians will furnish music.

The Rev. E. H. Emmet, one of Sunday's assistants, who has been busy with the arrangements for the big campaign, asserted today that since he joined the Sunday party no city has shown greater enthusiasm than Paterson.

Although there are no Unitarian churches in Paterson, churches of the denomination in Passaic and other towns in North Jersey have rented a large hall in which to distribute literature and hold lectures at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. They anticipate that the evangelist will attack them as he has in other places. Accordingly, they intend to be prepared to carry out a similar campaign to the one conducted in Philadelphia when Sunday was there.

Girl, Victim of Assault, Ill

Miss Lillian C. McMullin, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McMullin, of Dreher, who was attacked while on her way home from the Elkens Park High School, is unable to return to her studies because of her nervous condition. Harry Appleyard, of Oreland, Pa., her alleged assailant, is being held at the Abington police station.
