SCENES AND ODDITIES THAT FIGURE IN THE DAY'S INFLOW OF NEWS FROM PLACES AT HOME AND ABROAD

SCENE AT DEDICATION OF THE "BILLY" SUNDAY TABERNACLE AT PATERSON, N. J., ON MARCH 24.

The leading ministers of Paterson and supporters of the campaign are seated on the platform. The picture gives a good idea of the interior of the building and of its close resemblance to that constructed in Philadelphia for Mr. Sunday.

GERMANY'S EASTER FUN IS AIMED AT ALLIES BY CARICATURES PAINTED ON EGGS

Photos by Brown Brothers.

These pictures, which have just arrived from Germany, show how every opportunity is taken to ridicule the empire's enemies. The three eggs at the right are supposed to represent, in turn, General Joffre, Sir Edward Grey and the Grand Duke Nicholas, head of the Russian army. Then comes a German soldier poking along a captive "Schwein," or British pig, also represented by Easter eggs. On the left are four "hen fruit" made up as caricatures of British, French, Russian and Japanese faces.
